In the past, as indicated above, we have on occasion granted probationary, short-term renewal of license for practices such as those listed above. However, the continuing practices of some licensees in conducting contests indicates that past measures may not have been sufficient. In the future we will consider designation of a renewal application for hearing when the circumstances appear to justify such action; e.g., a pattern of repeated failure to conduct contests and promotions fairly or to advertise them truthfully. We also will consider the feasibility of adopting rules in this area so that the full range of sanctions would be available to us.

Action by the Commission March 14, 1974. Commissioners Wiley (Chairman), Lee, Reid and Hooks.

Sent to all broadcast licensees.

LICENSEES OF ALL STANDARD BROADCAST STATIONS EMPLOYING DIRECTIONAL ANTENNAS

Public Notice

MARCH 14, 1974.

Section 73.69(a) of the Commission's rules and regulations requires, with minor exceptions, that each standard broadcast station utilizing a directional antenna have in operation at the transmitter an antenna monitor which is of a type approved by the Commission.

The requirement that such monitors be type approved was first established when the above section of the rules became effective on February 23, 1973. However, in recognition of the fact that immediate compliance with this requirement by all stations was not practicable, a Note appended to § 73.69 set forth a schedule of dates wherein various categories of stations would be expected to have such monitors in operation.

This notice concerns paragraph (2) of that Note, which states

"Each station electing to utilize licensed operators other than first class radio telephone operators for routine transmitter duty (see § 73.93) shall meet this requirement by June 1, 1974".

It has come to the Commission's attention that the sources of supply of type approved monitors may be limited to the extent that the licensees of some stations required to have type approved monitors by June 1, 1974, may be unable, even by the exercise of due diligence, to obtain delivery and install approved monitors by that date.

Accordingly, pending further notice from the Commission, the licensee of a station who is required to, but fails to have a type approved monitor installed and operating by June 1, 1974, will not be held accountable for failure to comply with the rule if, by that date, he has placed and has received confirmation of an order for a type approved monitor. Under such circumstances, a copy of such order and confirmation must be furnished the Commission in Washington, and an additional copy maintained in the station's files, and made available for inspection on request by a field engineer of the Commission.

Action by the Commission March 13, 1974. Commissioners Wiley (Chairman), Lee, Reid and Hooks.

Sent to all standard broadcast licensees.

Secretary.

PBX TECHNICAL STANDARDS SUBCOMMITTEE MEETING

Public Notice

MARCH 15, 1974.

In accordance with Pub. L. 92-463, announcement is made of a public meeting of the Technical Standards Subcommittee of the PBX Standards Advisory Committee to be held April 9, 1974 at 1229 20th Street NW., Room A-205, Washington, D.C. The meeting will commence at 10:00 a.m.

1. Purpose. The purpose of this Subcommittee is to prepare recommended standards and procedures to permit the interconnection of customer provided and maintained PBX equipment to the public switched network without the need for carrier provided connecting arrangements.

2. Activities. As at prior meetings, Subcommittee members and observers present their suggestions and recommendations regarding the various technical criteria and standards that should be considered with respect to the interconnection of PBX equipment to the public telephone network.

3. Agenda. The agenda for the April 9 meeting will be as follows:

a. Review of Status of Task Groups on Interface Criteria, Voice/Non-Voice Requirements, Equipment Test Standards, and Glossary

b. Task Assignments and Scheduling

4. Public Participation. The public is invited to attend this meeting. Any member of the public wishing to file a written statement with the Committee, may do so before or after the meeting.

It is suggested that those desiring more specific information, contact the Domestic Rates Division on (202) 632-6457.

[Docket No. 19838, 19839; FCC 74R-96]

ITAWAMBA COUNTY BROADCASTING COMPANY, INC., AND TOMBIGBEE BROADCASTING CO.

Memorandum Opinion and Order Enlarging Issues

In regard applications of Itawamba County Broadcasting Company, Inc., Fulton, Mississippi, Docket No. 19838, File No. BPH-8028; Aubrey Freeman, T/A Tombigbee Broadcasting Company, Fulton, Mississippi, Docket No. 19839, File No. BPH-8189; for construction permits.

1. This proceeding involves the mutually-exclusive applications of Itawamba County Broadcasting Company, Inc. (Itawamba) and Tombigbee Broadcasting Company (Tombigbee) for authorization to construct a new FM broadcast station in Fulton, Mississippi. The applications were designated for hearing on a standard comparative issue by Order of the Chief, Broadcast Bureau, acting pursuant to delegated authority, 38 FR 28587, published October 15, 1973. Now before the Review Board is a petition to enlarge issues, filed October 29, 1973, by Itawamba,[1] requesting the addition of misrepresentation and "Suburban" issues against Tombigbee.

2. By way of background, in Exhibit H of Tombigbee's application (Tombigbee's Ascertainment of Community Needs exhibit), it is stated that the applicant conducted a personal and telephone survey during October and November, 1972, with individuals and groups to determine the needs and interests of its proposed service area. Tombigbee then listed 36 individuals and their respective occupations and/or community activities. However, with the exception of one individual, J. E. Staub,[2] Tombigbee did not identify these individuals as "community leaders". Immediately after this list, Tombigbee stated:

• • • plus 114 other individuals and radio listeners throughout Fulton and Itawamba County were contacted in our community needs survey. Attached as Appendix A is a complete list of the names of persons contacted. The community leaders were contacted by Ralph Mathis and Aubrey Freeman. All other interviews were conducted under the direct supervision of Mathis and Freeman.

In Appendix A, Tombigbee listed 150 individuals, their respective occupations, their places of residence, and, in some cases, their religious preferences.[3] Itawamba alleges that Tombigbee is guilty of "gross misrepresentation to the Commission" with respect to its community survey since numerous individuals listed as community leaders and members of the general public were never contacted by the applicant; numerous community leaders were never contacted by Mathis or Freeman; and a number of individuals, allegedly contacted, were deceased at the time the survey was conducted. Itawamba also alleges that Tombigbee's survey does not comply in several respects with the requirements of the Commission's "Primer on Ascertainment of Community Problems by Broadcast Applicants," 27 FCC 2d 650, 21 RR 2d 1507 (1971).

MISREPRESENTATION ISSUE

3. In support of its request for a misrepresentation issue, Itawamba attaches 27 affidavits to its petition from persons allegedly contacted by Tombigbee in connection with Tombigbee's survey of community leaders and members of the general public. Twenty-one of the affiants state they were never contacted by Tombigbee in October and November, 1972, regarding a survey of community problems. Fifteen of the affiants, all of whom are listed in Exhibit H of Tombigbee's application and considered as community leaders by Itawamba,[4] deny that they are acquainted with or have ever been contacted by Freeman or Mathis concerning the problems of Itawamba County.[5] (See paragraph 2, supra.) Itawamba also attaches an affidavit from Pauline Walton, Circuit Clerk of Itawamba County, wherein she states that the names of "R. K. Houston", "O. K. McFerrin" and "T. F. Evans" were removed from the Itawamba County Voting Pool Books since they were deceased before the months of October and November, 1972.[6] Itawamba also submits an affidavit from James Henry, plant manager of Fulton Blue Bell, wherein he states that 11 persons listed by Tombigbee as employees of Fulton Blue Bell were not employed by the plant during October and November, 1972. In sum, Itawamba argues that a misrepresentation issue should be specified against Tombigbee for its failure to contact numerous interviewees and for the failure of its principals, Freeman and Mathis, to contact all community leaders as represented in Exhibit H. The Broadcast Bureau supports addition of the requested issue, absent a satisfactory explanation by Tombigbee in its responsive pleading.

4. Tombigbee, in opposition, submits affidavits from 20 of the 21 persons who stated they were not contacted, as well as survey sheets for all 21 persons.[7] Four of the affiants state that they were, in fact, contacted by Tombigbee regarding a community survey, but 17 state that they were not contacted by Tombigbee or do not recall being contacted by Tombigbee. Tombigbee argues that it contacted 150 people and that "the small amount of people who say they cannot remember being contacted, after a lapse of time of more than a year, is certainly not sufficient enough to warrant adding any issues against Tombigbee regarding its survey." Tombigbee states that it never represented that the 36 interviewees listed in Exhibit H were community leaders. According to Tombigbee, "Ralph Mathis and Aubrey Freeman contacted at least 23 community leaders and other individuals" of which 13 were personally contacted by Mathis and 10 by Freeman.[8] With respect to the affidavit of Pauline Walton, Tombigbee argues that Harriet Heyboer, an employee, contacted Mrs. R. K. Houston and Mrs. O. K. McFerrin and that they were mistakenly, identified in its survey as "R. K. Houston" and "O. K. McFerrin."[9] Tombigbee states that "someone was talked to at the T. F. Evans Lumber Company and Mrs. Harriet Heyboer thought it was T. F. Evans."[10] Tom-

[1] Also before the Board are: (a) Comments, filed December 3, 1973, by the Broadcast Bureau; (b) "reply", filed December 13, 1973, by Tombigbee; and (c) a reply, filed January 14, 1974, by Itawamba. Tombigbee's "reply" will be considered as an opposition to Itawamba's petition (see Section 1.294 of the Commission's Rules).

[2] J. E. Staub is identified as "Community Leader and President of J. E. Staub Construction Company."

[4] Itawamba assumes that the 36 interviewees listed in Exhibit H are community leaders since their names are listed in Exhibit H and then duplicated in Appendix A.

[5] However, 8 of the 15 affiants state that they were contacted by a representative of Tombigbee regarding community problems but not by Freeman or Mathis.

[6] Tombigbee represented in its application that these persons were contacted in October and November, 1972.

[7] The survey sheets contain the name, address, occupation, community organizations and comments of each interviewee, as well as the signature of the interviewer and the date of the interview. Tombigbee does not, however, submit affidavits from the interviewers.

[8] Although Tombigbee lists the individuals contacted by Freeman and Mathis in its responsive pleading, it does not specifically designate them as community leaders and its explanation that Freeman and Mathis "contacted at least 23 community leaders and other individuals" is, in the Board's opinion, ambiguous, at best.

[9] Tombigbee attaches an affidavit from Mrs. R. K. Houston stating that she does not remember being contacted by Harriet Heyboer and an affidavit from Ralph Mathis stating that Mrs. K. O. McFerrin told him that she may have been contacted by Harriet Heyboer but refused to sign an affidavit. In addition, the interview sheets submitted by Tombigbee indicate that Harriet Heyboer contacted "R. K. Houston" and "O. K. McFerrin", not Mrs. Houston or Mrs. McFerrin.

bigbee submits affidavits from several Blue Bell employees stating that all 11 persons listed as employees of Fulton Blue Bell were employed by Blue Bell, but not at Blue Bell's Fulton plant. According to Tombigbee, "it was simply an incorrect conclusion on the part of Tombigbee that if the people were talked to in Fulton, they worked in that plant."

5. In the Review Board's opinion, substantial questions have been raised regarding the accuracy of representations made by Tombigbee in its application. Initially, the fact that seventeen persons have stated in affidavits submitted by both Itawamba and Tombigbee that they were not contacted by Tombigbee regarding a community survey or do not recall being contacted is sufficient, in itself, to warrant the addition of a misrepresentation issue. See "Belo Broadcasting Corporation," 42 FCC 2d 1011, 28 RR 2d 732 (1973), "California Stereo, Inc.," 39 FCC 2d 401, 26 RR 2d 887 (1973). However, in addition to numerous persons who may not have been contacted, it is alleged that three interviewees were deceased at the time Tombigbee conducted its survey and Tombigbee's explanation is not adequately supported by the affidavits or survey sheets it submitted in opposition. (See note 6, supra.) In this regard, we are unable to attach any weight to the survey sheets submitted by Tombigbee since none of the sheets are supported by affidavits of the interviewers. Tombigbee offers no explanation for its failure to obtain affidavits from Harrier Heyboer or any of the other interviewers employed by Tombigbee.[11] Furthermore, the Board notes that Tombigbee's list of community leaders and members of the general public is permeated by numerous apparent errors regarding the names, occupations and residences of the interviewees.[12] In the Board's view, Tombigbee's persistent failure to correctly identify its interviewees and their respective occupations and residences, when viewed together with its apparent failure to contact numerous individuals listed in Exhibit H and Appendix A, raises serious questions as to whether there has been a pattern of deliberate misrepresentation and/or gross negligence on the part of Tombigbee; these questions must be fully explored in hearing. See "Belo Broadcasting Corporation, supra; California Stereo, Inc.," supra.

6. Regarding Itawamba's allegation that Freeman and Mathis did not contact all of Tombigbee's community leaders as represented in its application, the Board notes that Tombigbee has not specifically identified those individuals it regards as community leaders in either its application or in its responsive pleading to Itawamba's petition. Without this information we are unable to determine whether Freeman and Mathis contacted all of the community leaders interviewed by Tombigbee, and, thus, whether Tombigbee misrepresented facts in this connection to the Commission in its application. In effect, Tombigbee has placed the burden of identifying its community leaders upon the Review Board. The identification of these leaders on the basis of assumption or inference would, in the Board's view, be speculative and wholly unsatisfactory. Accordingly, the Board believes that the identity of Tombigbee's community leaders must be determined at the hearing. In light of all the foregoing, an appropriate misrepresentation issue will be specified herein.

SUBURBAN ISSUE

7. Itawamba alleges that Tombigbee's community survey is deficient, in part, since Ralph Mathis, a 51 percent partner and proposed general manager, withdrew from the applicant in June of 1973. According to Itawamba, Mathis "may have assumed overall responsibility for the preparation of the surveys" and Tombigbee's surveys are invalid to the extent he participated in their completion, citing "Childress Broadcasting Corporation of West Jefferson," 37 FCC 2d 766, 25 RR 2d 711 (1972), review denied FCC 73-433, released April 25, 1973. Itawamba also alleges that the affidavits attached to its petition to enlarge issues (see paragraph 3, supra) indicate that Tombigbee contacted 21 community leaders, none of whom were black, while Tombigbee's demographic data shows that 8 percent of the population of Fulton, Mississippi is black. Itawamba argues that the Primer, supra, Q. & A. 4 requires that an applicant consult with leaders of all significant groups in the area; that Tombigbee failed to consult with black leaders; and that the issues should be enlarged to include a "Suburban" issue against Tombigbee, citing "Community Broadcasters, Inc.", 33 FCC 2d 714, 23 RR 2d 723 (1972).

8. In opposition, Tombigbee argues that Freeman and Mathis contacted "at least 23 community leaders and other individuals", of which Freeman contacted 10, and that the "individuals contacted by Aubrey Freeman alone are sufficient to satisfy the requirements of the Primer." Tombigbee states that there is no merit to Itawamba's contention that no black community leaders were contacted since "[t]he black population of the area is only 8 percent and a sufficient number of black individuals were contacted to satisfy the requirements of the Primer."[13] The Bureau opposes the addition of a "Suburban" issue based upon the interviews conducted by Ralph Mathis; according to the Bureau, Itawamba's reliance upon "Childress," supra, is misplaced.[14] However, the Bureau states that it would not oppose the addition of a "Suburban" issue in light of the alleged discrepancies in Tombigbee's survey absent a satisfactory explanation by Tombigbee in its responsive pleading. In reply, Itawamba argues that Tombigbee's failure to interview any black leaders together with the numerous errors committed by Tombigbee elsewhere in its survey, raise doubts regarding the overall validity of its survey which requires the addition of a "Suburban" issue.

9. The Board will add a "Suburban" issue against Tombigbee. First, since Tombigbee has failed to identify its community leaders, the Board cannot determine whether Tombigbee has interviewed community leaders who are representative of the groups existing in the Fulton area. See "Dowric Broadcasting Co., Inc.," 37 FR 4376, published March 2, 1972, where the Commission specified a "Suburban" issue, in part, because the applicant did not state "which persons contacted [were] community leaders and which [were] members of the general public." Second, in light of the questions already raised by Itawamba regarding Tombigbee's representations and the possibility that numerous alleged interviewees may not have been contacted by Tombigbee, the Board believes that a question is raised with respect to the overall adequacy of Tombigbee's survey. Third, it is impossible to determine whether Tombigbee interviewed any black community leaders since Tombigbee failed to identify any of its community leaders. However, even if we were to assume, arguendo, that the 23 persons contacted by Freeman and Mathis and listed by Tombigbee in its opposition are, in fact, Tombigbee's community leaders, an examination of this list does not indicate that any of the 23 interviewees is black. Thus, it appears that Tombigbee may not have complied with the "Primer," supra, Q. & A. 14, which requires that an applicant consult with community leaders from all significant groups within its proposed service area. In our view, 8 percent of the population of Fulton, Mississippi could constitute a significant group.[15] See "St. Cross Broadcasting, Inc.," 39 FCC 2d 1067, 26 RR 2d 1311 (1973). In light of the above, an appropriate "Suburban" issue will be specified herein. The Board notes, however, that it does not believe that Itawamba has raised a question regarding the validity of those interviews conducted by Ralph Mathis. In our view, the fact that Mathis later withdrew from the Tombigbee application does not render Tombigbee's entire survey deficient. See "Northeast Oklahoma Broadcasting, Inc.," 42 FCC 2d 237, 72 RR 2d 524 (1973).

9. Accordingly, it is ordered, That the petition to enlarge issues, filed October 29, 1973, by Itawamba County Broadcasting Company, Inc. is granted to the extent indicated below, and IS DENIED in all other respects;

10. It is further ordered, That the issues herein are enlarged by addition of the following issues:

(1) To determine whether Tombigbee Broadcasting Company misrepresented facts to the Commission in connection with its survey of community problems and, if so, to determine the effect thereof on its qualifications to be a Commission licensee.

(2) To determine the efforts made by Tombigbee Broadcasting Company to ascertain the community problems of the area to be served and the manner in which the applicant proposes to meet these problems.

11. It is further ordered, That the burden of proceeding with the introduction of the evidence with respect to issue (1) above shall be on Itawamba County Broadcasting Company, Inc.; that the burden of proceeding with the introduction of the evidence with respect to issue (2) above shall be on Tombigbee Broadcasting Company; and that the burden of proof with respect to both issues shall be on Tombigbee Broadcasting Company.

Adopted: March 13, 1974.

Released: March 18, 1974.

Domestic Public Radio Services Applications Accepted for Filing[2]

MARCH 11, 1974.

Pursuant to §§ 1.227(b)(3) and 21.30 (b) of the Commission's rules, an application, in order to be considered with any domestic public radio services application appearing on the attached list, must be substantially complete and tendered for filing by whichever date is earlier: (a) The close of business one business day preceding the day on which the Commission takes action on the previously filed application; or (b) within 60 days after the date of the public notice listing the first prior filed application (with which subsequent applications are in conflict) as having been accepted for filing. An application which is subsequently amended by a major change will be considered to be a newly filed application. It is to be noted that the cut-off dates are set forth in the alternative—applications will be entitled to consideration with those listed in the appendix if filed by the end of the 60 day period, only if the Commission has not acted upon the application by that time pursuant to the first alternative earlier date. The mutual exclusivity rights of a new application are governed by the earliest action with respect to any one of the earlier filed conflicting applications.

The attention of any party in interest desiring to file pleadings pursuant to section 309 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, concerning any domestic public radio services application accepted for filing, is directed to § 21.27 of the Commission's rules for provisions governing the time for filing and other requirements relating to such pleadings.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
VINCENT J. MULLINS,
Secretary.

[11] In this respect, the affidavits of Freeman and Mathis, also attached to Tombigbee's responsive pleading, are based, in large part, upon "hearsay" and, as such, do not comply with § 1.229(c) of the Commission's rules.

[12] Specifically, Lowell Sartin of Tremont, Mississippi is identified as "Lionel Sartain" of Fulton, Mississippi; Don Leathers is identified as "Game Warden, Itawamba County" whereas his father, James T. Leathers, is a game warden and Don is a student at the University of Mississippi; Webel Wright Mabus is identified as "Ben Mabus" whereas Mabus goes by the nicknames of "Bur" and "W.W."; Robert Pruitt is identified as a "Teacher in Fulton High School" whereas he is an Instructor at Itawamba Agricultural High School; J. E. Staub is identified as "President of J. E. Staub Construction Company", but had not held that job for several years prior to 1972; Rev. Louis McGee is identified as "Minister, Zion Baptist Church" of Mantachie, Miss. whereas McGee is a minister of the Spring Hill Baptist Church of Bonneville, Miss.; Rev. Randall Thompson is identified as "Pastor of Unity Baptist Church, Mantachie" whereas he is not a minister and is employed by C & P Auto Parts of Fulton—his father, Rev. Colon V. Thompson is a minister at Unity Baptist Church, Guntown, Mississippi; 11 persons are listed as employees of Fulton Blue Bell whereas they are employed by Blue Bell at plants located elsewhere; and "T. K. Houston" and "O. K. McFerrin" are listed as being contacted whereas Mrs. Houston and Mrs. McFerrin may have been contacted instead.

[14] In Childress, the Board concluded that an applicant's survey was inadequate since 53 of the 61 interviews with community leaders were conducted by a part-time student employee who would not be in a management or policy making role for the proposed station even though he was an officer and director. The Board further concluded that he was appointed to these positions "solely for the purpose of compliance with the requirements of the Primer." 37 FCC 2d at 769, 25 RR 2d at 715.

[15] In this respect, Tombigbee is clearly mistaken when it argues that "a significant number of black individuals were contacted to satisfy the requirements of the Primer." The Primer requires that an applicant consult with "community leaders from each significant group" and the fact that Tombigbee may have interviewed numerous blacks with respect to its survey of the general public does not comply with Primer's requirements regarding surveys of community leaders. See Primer, supra, Q. & A. 14.

[1] All applications listed in the appendix are subject to further consideration and review and may be returned and/or dismissed if not found to be in accordance with the Commission's rules, regulations and other requirements.

[2] The above alternative cut-off rules apply to those applications listed in the appendix as having been accepted in Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio, Rural Radio, Point-to-Point Microwave Radio and Local Television Transmission Services (Part 21 of the rules).

FEDERAL ENERGY OFFICE

RETAIL DEALERS GROUP

Notice of Meeting

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Pub. L. 92–463, 86 Stat. 770) notice is hereby given that the Retail Dealers Group, established under the authority of section 212(f) of Economic Stabilization Act, as amended; Executive Order 11748; section 4(a) (iv) of Executive Order 11695, and Cost of Living Council Order No. 47, will meet on Monday, March 25, 1974 at 9:00 a.m. in the Golden Gate Room of Del Webb's TowneHouse, Market and Eighth Street, San Francisco, California.

The Group was established to advise the Administrator, FEO, with direct and timely access to the technical knowledge possessed by a wide range of highly qualified independent businessmen engaged in the retail sale of gasoline and diesel fuel. The agenda for the meeting is as follows:

I. OLD BUSINESS

A. Allocation.
1. Company Distribution.
2. State Distribution.
B. Rental/Lease Agreements with Oil Companies.
C. Pricing Problems.
1. Small Stations—25,000 gallons or less monthly.
2. Reduced Earnings.

II. NEW BUSINESS

A. Penetration by Major Oil Firms of Retail Gas Industry.
B. New Rules and Regulations.
C. Pump Stickers.
D. Impact of Retail Gas Prices on Tourist Industry.
E. Remarks from the floor (10 minutes rule).

This meeting is open to the public; however, space and facilities are limited.

The chairman of the group is empowered to conduct the meeting in a fashion that will, in his judgment, facilitate the orderly conduct of business.

Further information concerning this meeting may be obtained from Dino G. Pappas, Office of Policy, Planning and Regulations, Federal Energy Office, Washington, D.C. 20508. Area code 202/961–8324. Minutes of the meeting will be made available for public inspection at the Federal Energy Office, Washington, D.C.

Issued in Washington, D.C. on March 19, 1974.

WILLIAM N. WALKER,
General Counsel.

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

[Docket No. 74–10]

FREIGHT FORWARDER BIDS ON GOVERNMENT SHIPMENTS AT UNITED STATES PORTS

Order of Investigation and Hearing

For many years the General Service Administration (GSA) has solicited bids at various United States' ports for forwarding services on certain Government shipments. The contract is generally awarded to the freight forwarder bidding the lowest fee to the Government at each of the involved ports. This procedure has occasioned complaints from individual forwarders and forwarder associations.

The gist of these complaints is that these low bids are preferential to the Government shippers and prejudicial to commercial shippers under section 16, First, of the Shipping Act, 1916, (46 U.S.C. 815) and are a reduction of the forwarder's regular fees in consideration of receiving carrier compensation in violation of § 510.24(b) of General Order 4.

Section 16, First, of the Shipping Act, 1916, makes it unlawful for any person subject to the Act (including forwarders) to make or give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any particular person or traffic, or to subject any particular person or traffic to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage.

Section 510.24(b) of General Order 4 provides as follows:

"No licensee shall render, or offer to render, any forwarding service free of charge or at a reduced freight forwarding fee in consideration of the licensee receiving compensation from ocean-going common carriers on the shipment; provided, however, that a licensee may perform freight forwarding services for recognized relief agencies or charitable organizations designated as such in the tariff of the ocean-going common carrier, free of charge, or at reduced fees."

Section 510.21(m) of General Order 4 defines the term "reduced forwarding fees" as meaning "changes to a principal for forwarding services that are below the licensee's usual charges."

A number of informal complaints received within the last year have questioned the level of the freight forwarding fees bid at various ports for fiscal year 1973. The bid rates varied from as low as $.045 at New York, N.Y. to $15.00 at Chicago, Illinois. As a result, on April 27, 1973, the Commission pursuant to section 21, Shipping Act, 1916, (46 U.S.C. 820) directed the forwarders listed in Appendix A to provide certain statistical information regarding GSA shipments and commercial shipments handled by them during a representative period (July 1 through December 31, 1972). On the basis of the responses to these section 21 Orders, we are of the opinion that the practices of the forwarders listed in Appendix A, as they relate to bidding for GSA forwarding contracts, and rendering service thereunder, must be made the subject of an investigation to determine the lawfulness thereof under section 16, First, Shipping Act, 1916, and/or § 510.24(b) of the Commission's General Order 4.

Because the resolution of these issues may ultimately affect the future activities of all licensed ocean freight forwarders, inasmuch as any freight forwarder may bid on GSA contracts when they are offered annually, the investigation instituted by this order will also be conducted with a view toward possible amendment to the Commission's General Order 4, including the possible granting of an exemption under section 35, Shipping Act, 1916, and/or taking such other action as may be warranted by the record.

Therefore it is ordered, That pursuant to sections 16 and 22 of the Shipping Act, 1916 (46 U.S.C. 815 and 821) an investigation shall be instituted to determine whether the practices of respondents named herein, as they relate to bidding for GSA forwarding contracts and rendering services thereunder, are in violation of Section 16 of the Shipping Act, 1916, by subjecting a person, locality or description of traffic to unreasonable preference or advantage or prejudice or disadvantage; and

It is further ordered, That such investigation shall determine whether the practices of respondents named herein are contrary to the provisions of § 510.24

(b) of the Commission's General Order 4; and

It is further ordered, That as part of this investigation a determination shall be made as to whether the Commission's General Order 4 should be amended to include a rule governing the practices of forwarders bidding on GSA contracts and providing services thereunder, or possibly exempting such forwarder practices from Commission regulation under section 35 of the Shipping Act, 1916, (46 U.S.C. 833a). If the record developed in this proceeding demonstrates that such a rule is needed, the initial decision shall propose the promulgation of an appropriate rule. Since any such proposed amendment to General Order 4 would govern the activities of all licensed forwarders in the future, notice is hereby given that any ocean freight forwarders, not named respondents herein, who desire to participate in this proceeding and express their views with respect to any proposed amendments to General Order 4 should intervene and participate in this proceeding to the extent they deem necessary.

It is further ordered, That a public hearing be held before an Administrative Law Judge of the Commission's Office of Administrative Law Judges, and that the hearing be held at a date and place to be determined by the Presiding Administrative Law Judge; and

It is further ordered, That the freight forwarders listed in Appendix A hereto are hereby named respondents in this proceeding; and

It is further ordered, That notice of this order be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and that a copy thereof and notice of hearing be served upon all parties and upon the Commission's Bureau of Hearing Counsel; and

It is further ordered, That all future notices issued by or on behalf of the Commission in this proceeding, including notice of time and place of hearing or prehearing conference, shall be mailed directly to all parties of record; and

It is further ordered, That any persons (including individuals, corporations, associations, firms, partnerships and public bodies) having an interest in this proceeding and desiring to intervene herein, particularly including ocean freight forwarders not named respondents herein who desire to express their views with respect to any proposed amendments to Commission General Order 4 shall file a petition to intervene in accordance with rule 5(1) (46 CFR 502.72) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] FRANCIS C. HURNEY,
Secretary.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. E–8643]

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF INDIANA, INC.

Notice of Rate Changes

MARCH 13, 1974.

Take notice that Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc. (PSI) on February 18, 1974, tendered for filing First Supplement to the Interconnection Agreement of October 20, 1971, between PSI and the City of Frankfort, Indiana. The First Supplement is dated October 4, 1973 and provides for an increase in firm energy charges (Subsection 4.3 of section 4 of the Agreement) and for the update of the fuel adjustment clause (section 6 of the Agreement).

PSI proposes an increase of $0.0009 per kilowatt hour (KWH) in firm energy charges. PSI states that this increase is needed to provide for an increase in the base cost of fuel from $0.20 per million British Termal Units (BTU) to $0.28 per million BTU.

PSI also proposes an adjustment of the firm energy charge $0.000055 for each KWH. Such charge would be based on an increase or decrease of $0.005 to the base cost of fuel, which is set at $0.28 per million BTU, for any period of three successive calendar months. PSI states that this adjustment results from the reduction of the incremental adjustment factor, based on PSI's average heat rate for 1972, from $0.000060 to $0.000055 per KWH for each full half-cent ($0.005) the average cost of fuel is greater than or less than the base cost of fuel.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before March 19, 1974. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make those protesting parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

TEXAS EASTERN TRANSMISSION CORP.

Notice of Filing of Refund Releases

MARCH 14, 1974.

Take notice that on February 19, 1974, North Penn Gas Company (North Penn) tendered for filing releases from its Federal Power Commission jurisdictional customers pertaining to refunds made to them by North Penn. North Penn states that these refunds constituted a flow-through of a refund received from Consolidated Gas Supply Corporation in Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Docket No. RP66–12 and were made in accordance with Commission Orders dated August 10, 1971, and August 3, 1973, in Docket No. RP66–12.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said application should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before March 25, 1974. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this application are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

[Docket No. CP74–224]

TEXAS EASTERN TRANSMISSION CORP. AND TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CORP.

Notice of Application

MARCH 14, 1974.

Take notice that on March 1, 1974, Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (Texas Eastern), P.O. Box 2521, Houston, Texas 77001 and Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco), P.O. Box 1396, Houston, Texas 77001 (Applicants), filed in Docket No. CP74–224 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of certain facilities for use as an additional point for the exchange of natural gas between Applicants, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicants state that they are presently engaged in the exchange of natural gas on an Mcf-for-Mcf basis at various points as provided in Applicants' rate schedules.[1]

[1] There is a currently effective exchange agreement between Texas Eastern and Transco dated November 1, 1960 (Rate Schedule X–14 of Texas Eastern's FPC Gas Tariff Original Volume No. 2 and Rate Schedule X–14 of Transco's FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 2).

V 39 I 56 MAR 21 74 XUM

By this application Applicants request authorization to construct and operate an interconnection between their systems in Beauregard Parish, Louisiana, to serve as an additional point of exchange. The application states that Applicants will jointly own and Texas Eastern will operate the proposed exchange point, consisting of a meter and regulator station and appurtenant facilities. Applicants estimate said facilities will cost $139,400 which cost will be financed initially from available cash.

The application states that the proposed exchange point will provide added flexibility for operations under the subject exchange agreement and will serve as a protective meaure to insure the continuity of service by Applicants.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 8, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

[Docket No. RP74-25]

TEXAS GAS TRANSMISSION CORP.

Notice of Motion To Substitute Tariff Sheets

MARCH 14, 1974.

Take notice that on January 31, 1974, Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Texas Gas) tendered for filing a motion to make substitute revised tariff sheets[1] effective on April 1, 1974, in lieu of the sheets which would otherwise become effective on that date.[2]

Texas Gas states that the purpose of the motion is to permit Texas Gas to include in its rate level which will be charged and collected in the instant proceeding effective April 1, 1974, certain increases in the cost of purchased gas which have occurred subsequent to the initial filing on October 1, 1973.

Texas Gas states that these increases are due to the following factors: (1) The "actual" balance in Deferred Account No. 191 and changes in its supplier rates known to be effective on or before February 1, 1974, both of which were included in its February 1, 1974 PGA filing. Texas Gas states that in order to recover, in its rates, the actual costs of purchase gas as reflected in its February 1, 1974 filing, it is necessary to reflect the same level of gas purchased costs in the April 1, 1974 rates; (2) Subsequent to October 1, 1973, the State of Louisiana enacted an increase in its severance tax from 3.3¢ to 7.0¢ per Mcf effective January 1, 1974. Texas Gas states that Order No. 500 entitled "Order Waiving Certain Requirements of the Regulations with Respect to Filing Rate Schedule Supplements Relating to Increase in Severance Tax of the State of Louisiana and Establishing Procedures with Respect to Such Filings" does not provide adequate protection for Texas Gas. Texas Gas states that Order No. 500 allows Texas Gas to accumulate the increased costs relating to the new tax in its deferred account. Texas Gas maintains such deferral will reduce its cash flow since it is precluded from reflecting such increases in its rates until August 1, 1974, because: (a) Rate changes pursuant to its purchased gas adjustment clause are made effective only on February 1 and August 1 and (b) the PGA clause requires 45 days' notice prior to such annual adjustment dates.

Finally Texas Gas states that the increase in costs amounts to approximately $12,000,000.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said application should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before March 22, 1974. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this application are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

UNITED NATURAL GAS CO.

Notice of Change in Rates

MARCH 14, 1974.

Take notice that United Natural Gas Company (United) on March 5, 1974 tendered for filing Fourth Revised Sheet No. 3-A to its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1. United requests an effective date of April 6, 1974 for said Sheet.

United states that the Revised Sheet reflects an adjustment of rates of .63¢ per Mcf under section 16 of the general terms and conditions. United states that this would generate an increase of $285,544 annually over the revenues that would be generated by the rates set forth in Third Revised Sheet No. 3-A, effective March 1, 1974. United further states that copies of this filing have been mailed to all of its jurisdictional customers and affected state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before March 27, 1974. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

BELCO PETROLEUM CORP.

Notice of Application

MARCH 14, 1974.

Take notice that on March 6, 1974, Belco Petroleum Corporation, Agent (Applicant) 630 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10017, filed in Docket No. CI74-490 an application pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the sale for resale and delivery of natural gas in interstate commerce to El Paso Natural Gas Company (El Paso) from sections 4, 5, and 8, Eddy County, New Mexico, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant states that it commenced the sale of natural gas on September 12, 1973, within the contemplation of § 157.29 of the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.29) and proposes to continue said sale for 18 months from the end of the emergency period within the contemplation of § 2.70 of the Commission's general policy and interpretations (18 CFR 2.70). Applicant proposes to sell approximately 10,000 Mcf of gas per day to El Paso at 55.0 cents per Mcf at 14.65 psia, subject to upward and downward adjustment. Applicant states that the proposed sale was the subject of its withdrawn application filed in Docket No. CI73-893.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 8, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a fomral hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

BUCKEYE POWER, INC.

Notice of Second Supplemental Application

MARCH 14, 1974.

Take notice that on March 6, 1974, Buckeye Power, Inc. (Applicant) of Columbus, Ohio, filed a second supplemental application to its application filed March 14, 1973, seeking an order for approval of the issuance of additional short-term obligations in the form of promissory notes to commercial banks, such notes to be issued on or before March 1, 1974, with a final maturity date of not later than March 1, 1976, and further seeking approval of the issuance of additional short-term obligations in the form of promissory notes to the Louisville Bank for Cooperatives, such notes to be issued on or before March 1, 1975, with a final maturity date of not later than March 1, 1976.

The net proceeds from the notes will be used to provide general funds primarily for the construction of a new electric generating unit at the Cardinal Station near Brilliant, Ohio.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to such supplemental application should, on or before April 2, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, petitions or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. CITIES SERVICE GAS CO.

Notice of Petition To Amend

MARCH 14, 1974.

Take notice that on March 6, 1974, Cities Service Gas Company (Petitioner), P.O. Box 25128, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73125, filed in Docket No. CP73-94 a petition to amend the Commission's order issued July 2, 1973 (49 FPC ——), in the subject docket pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as implemented by §§ 157.7(e) and 157.7(c) of the regulations under the act, by substituting $450,000 as the total cost limitation in lieu of the previously authorized total cost limitation of $300,000 for facilities for gas sales and miscellaneous rearrangements, all as more fully set forth in the petition to amend which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

By the order issued July 2, 1973, in the instant docket Petitioner was granted, among other things, permission and approval to abandon, during the calendar year 1973, certain service and direct sales measuring, regulating, and related facilities, and a certificate of public convenience and necessity was issued authorizing Petitioner to construct during said period, and operate certain facilities for the direct sales of natural gas and for miscellaneous rearrangements. The total expenditures for facilities to be constructed was limited to $300,000.

Petitioner states that by reason of unusually large construction costs attributable to certain rearrangement projects the total construction costs for all gas sales and transportation facilities constructed or rearranged during 1973 under "budget-type" authority exceeded the $300,000 limitation. Accordingly, Petitioner seeks a waiver of § 157.7(c)(3)(i) of the Commission's regulations under the Natural Gas Act to increase the cost limitation in the existing certificate to cover the actual costs of these facilities from $300,000 to $450,000.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said petition to amend should on or before April 8, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

DISTRIGAS CORP.

Notice of Petition and Application

MARCH 13, 1974.

Take notice that on March 4, 1974, Distrigas of Massachusetts Corporation (DOMAC), 125 High Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02110 filed in Docket No. CP73-135 a petition to be substituted as party applicant therein in lieu of Distrigas Corporation (Distrigas), and Distrigas, 125 High Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02110, filed in Docket No. CP74-227 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing a sale of imported liquefied natural gas (LNG) to its affiliate, DOMAC, in order to provide DOMAC sufficient capability to perform the sales of LNG proposed in Docket No. CP73-135, all as more fully set forth in the petition in Docket No. CP73-135 and the application in Docket No. CP74-227, which are on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

In the application for which a request for certificate authorization is now pending in Docket No. CP73-135, Distrigas proposes to sell imported LNG at its Everett, Massachusetts, terminal to The Brooklyn Union Gas Company (Brooklyn Union), The Connecticut Gas Company, Providence Gas Company, New Jersey Natural Gas Company, South Jersey Gas Company, and Valley Gas Company. DOMAC requests that it be submitted as the party applicant therein, pursuant to an agreement dated October 25, 1973, in which it was assigned all of Distrigas' LNG sales contracts with the distribution companies involved in Docket No. CP73-135. DOMAC states that certain sales of LNG have already been made to these distributors upon the advice of counsel that such sales were within the contemplation of § 157.22 of the Commission's regulations (18 CFR 157.22). In view of the Commission's action taken in Docket No. CP74-212, Distrigas Corporation, et al., on February 22, 1974 (51 FPC ——), where § 157.22 was declared unavailable to emergency sales of LNG and which required DOMAC or Distrigas to file for authorization to make a certain sale of LNG to Brooklyn Union, DOMAC requests temporary authorization, nunc pro tunc, under protest, to make that sale of gas to Brooklyn Union[1] and to make other sales of natural gas which have heretofore commenced upon the belief that such sales were within § 157.22 of the Commission's regulations.[2] DOMAC further requests temporary authorization to make prospectively all the sales contemplated in Docket No. CP73-135 and asks the Commission to grant temporary authorization to Distrigas to make the emergency sales commenced prior to October 1, 1973, which it commenced under the belief that such sales were within § 157.22. DOMAC indicates that it is authorized to do business in Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont.

In Docket No. CP74-277, Distrigas proposes to sell to DOMAC under a long term requirements agreement dated October 11, 1973, a portion of the LNG, which it is authorized to import from Algeria in Docket No. CP70-196 by Commission Opinion No. 613, Distrigas Corporation, Docket No. CP70-196, et al., issued March 9, 1972 (47 FPC 752), rehearing denied, Commission Opinion No. 613-A, issued June 7, 1972 (47 FPC 1465), in order to provide DOMAC with sufficient quantities of LNG to satisfy DOMAC's full LNG requirements for resale to third parties. Distrigas proposes to sell this LNG at its C.I.F. price provided in its supply contract with Alocean. Distrigas indicates that DOMAC will store this LNG at its Everett, Massachusetts, terminal after taking delivery. Under protest Distrigas also requests temporary authorization to sell this LNG to DOMAC for redelivery in emergency sales to distribution companies for the period between October 1, 1973, and February 22, 1974, and prospective temporary authorization for such sales in order to assist Northeastern distribution companies in maintaining adequate gas service to their customers.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application and petition should on or before April 8, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on the application in Docket No. CP74-227

[2] DOMAC states that the following LNG service was sold to the customers as indicated:

if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing. Persons who have heretofore filed protests and petitions to intervene in Docket No. CP73-135 need not do so again.

Northern calculated the interest for such refund at 7 percent per annum. In Docket No. RP71-107, for the period November 14, 1971 through December 2, 1972, Northern states the refund to be as follows:

Principal Amount of Refund: $12,320,443.83
Interest Amount: $1,431,797.25
Total Refund: $13,752,241.08

In Docket No. RP72-127, for the period December 3, 1972 through December 26, 1973, Northern states the refund to be as follows:

Principal Amount of Refund: $23,661,664.70
Interest Amount: $1,006,882.72
Total Refund: $24,668,547.42

Northern further states that the future settlement rates became effective December 27, 1973, at which time Northern began billing at such rates.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions should be filed on or before March 29, 1974. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

[Docket No. CP74-226]

NORTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

Notice of Application

MARCH 14, 1974.

Take notice that on March 4, 1974, Northern Natural Gas Company (Applicant), 2223 Dodge Street, Omaha, Nebraska 68102, filed in Docket No. CP74-226 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing Applicant to exchange natural gas with Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Natural) and to construct and operate facilities therefor, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant proposes to exchange up to 4,000 Mcf of gas per day with Natural in Pecos and Winkler Counties, Texas, pursuant to an agreement between them dated December 21, 1973. Under the terms of this agreement Applicant will accept delivery of exchange volumes from Natural at a proposed delivery point in Pecos County and will deliver thermally equivalent volumes to Natural at an existing point of interconnection in Winkler County. In this regard, Applicant proposes to construct and operate receiver side value facilities on its gathering system in Pecos County to allow for the receipt of the subject exchange gas volumes from Natural. The estimated cost of these facilities is $2,050 and will be met from cash on hand.

Applicant states that the proposed exchange arrangement will enable Natural to attach natural gas reserves available to it from the Bill DeWitt No. 1 well located distant from Natural's system in Pecos County. The application states that since the well is situated in proximity to Applicant's existing Gomez gathering system, attachment of such reserves and the initiation of the proposed exchange arrangement will be obviate the need of constructing facilities otherwise required.

Applicant states that no monetary compensation is provided for in the subject gas exchange agreement as the proposed transaction is a gas-for-gas exchange.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 8, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Secretary.

NORTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

Notice of Application

MARCH 14, 1974.

Take notice that on March 1, 1974, Northern Natural Gas Company (Applicant), 2223 Dodge Street, Omaha, Nebraska 68102, filed in Docket No. CP74-223 an application pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act and § 157.7(g) of the regulations thereunder (18 CFR 157.7(g)) for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and for permission and approval for the abandonment, for a twelve-month period commencing August 1, 1974, and operation of field gas compression and related metering and appurtenant facilities, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The stated purpose of this budget-type application is to augment Applicant's ability to act with reasonable dispatch in the construction and abandonment of facilities which will not result in changing Applicant's system salable capacity or service from that authorized prior to filing of the instant application.

Applicant states that the total cost of the proposed construction and abandonment will not exceed $3,000,000, nor will the cost of any single project exceed $500,000. Applicant states that the proposed facilities will be financed from cash on hand and from revenue generated through operations.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 8, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, petitions to intervene or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate and permission and approval for the proposed abandonment are required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

[Docket No. CI73-617]

PIONEER PRODUCTION CORP.

Notice of Petition for Special Relief

MARCH 14, 1974.

Take notice that on March 6, 1974, Pioneer Production Corporation (Petitioner), P.O. Box 2542, Amarillo, Texas 79105, filed a petition for special relief. Petitioner seeks 5¢ per Mcf for compression, in addition to the 21.5¢ per Mcf authorized in the temporary certificate issued to it on August 30, 1973, in Docket No. CI73-617 for sales to Northern Natural Gas Company from Hemphill County, Texas under its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 43.

Petitioner requests that the Commission modify its August 30, 1973, order to allow it to collect from Northern either (a) the 5¢ provided in the contract for compression, or (b) the amount actually incurred for compression charges. Petitioner further states that it cannot economically continue to absorb such compression costs and still continue service.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said petition should on or before April 8, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any party wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

[Docket No. RP74-72]

NORTHWEST PIPELINE CORP.

Notice of Tariff Filing

MARCH 19, 1974.

Take notice that on March 1, 1974, Northwest Pipeline Corporation (Northwest), P.O. Box 1526, Salt Lake City, Utah 84110, tendered for filing, pursuant to section 4 of the Natural Gas Act and Part 154 of the Commission's regulations thereunder, in Docket No. RP74-72, two copies of its Second Alternate Substitute First Revised Sheet No. 52 and Alternate Original Sheet No. 52A as proposed changes in its FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 3. These tendered tariff sheets provide for a deferred method of eliminating Northwest's obligation under section 6 of its rate schedule PL-1 and ODL-1 to make a demand charge credit when it fails to deliver contract volumes due to shortfalls in gas supply. Pursuant to § 154.51 of the Commission's regulations under the Natural Gas Act, Northwest requests waiver of § 154.22 of such regulations so as to permit it to make these tariff sheets effective on February 1, 1974. In order to incorporate provisions in its existing tariff which would eliminate Northwest's obligation to make demand charge credits, Northwest also requests that it be allowed to withdraw First Revised Sheet No. 52, which was suspended by the Commission in its order of January 18, 1974, in Northwest Pipeline Corporation, Docket No. RP74-49, and replace this sheet with the above referenced tendered filings.

In support of its filing, Northwest states that it will suffer an estimated $300,000 revenue loss for the months of February and March, 1974, if it is not granted relief from the demand charge credit obligation. Northwest further states that the revenue loss will begin on February 1, 1974, the effective date of Northwest's commencement of operations, and will continue as long as there is curtailment of firm gas sales. Northwest proposes that it be allowed to recover demand charge credits through a deferral and tracking procedure similar to that provided by the purchased gas adjustment clause in the existing tariff. Under this proposal, Northwest states that demand charge credits provided for in the present tariff would be deferred and later recovered through a tracking procedure. Northwest states that the rate change resulting from recovery of the demand charge credits would become effective on the same date as the purchased gas adjustment clause changes of April 1 and October 1.

It appears reasonable and consistent with the public interest in this proceeding to prescribe a period shorter than 15 days for the filing of protests and petitions to intervene. Therefore, any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said filing should on or before March 27, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or a participant as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

Secretary.

MARINE MAMMAL COMMISSION AND COMMITTEE OF SCIENTIFIC ADVISORS ON MARINE MAMMALS

Notice of Meetings

Notice is hereby given that the Marine Mammal Commission and the Committee of Scientific Advisors on Marine Mammals will meet on April 19–20, 1974 at the Royal Inn of Point Loma, 4875 North Harbor Drive, San Diego, California.

The Commission will meet from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. on April 19 to discuss the status of Commission activities including matters relating to staffing, budget proposals, interagency liaison, and research. This session of the meeting will be open to the public. Seating will be available to accommodate up to twenty observers.

The Committee will meet from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on April 19 to discuss the status of Committee efforts, including matters relating to progress of the Committee, procedure for review of permit applications and research proposals, interagency coordination, progress of subcommittees, review of permit applications, and consideration of the incidental take of marine mammals in the course of commercial fishing operations. Members of the Commission and staff will be present. This session of the meeting will be open to the public. Seating will be available to accommodate up to twenty observers.

The remaining sessions of the meeting will consist of a meeting of the Commission from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. on April 19, a meeting of the Committee from 8:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. on April 19, and a consultative meeting of the Commission and Committee from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on April 20. These sessions will be devoted to the exchange of opinions and deliberations concerning policy and to the evaluation of proposals to conduct research related to marine mammal protection and conservation. Participants will be candidly discussing and appraising the professional qualifications of the proposers, their potential contribution to the research program, and information given to the Commission and Committee in confidence. These sessions involve matters which are within the exemptions of 5 USC 552(b) (2), (4), (5), and (6) and will therefore not be open to the public.

For further information concerning these meetings, contact the Marine Mammal Commission, 1625 Eye Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20006 (202/382-4475).

Dated: March 18, 1974.

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES

ADVISORY COMMITTEE PUBLIC PROGRAMS PANEL

Notice of Meeting

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Pub. L. 92-463) notice is hereby given that a meeting of the Public Programs Panel will meet at Washington, D.C. on March 28 and 29, 1974.

The purpose of the meeting is to review Humanities Program Grant proposals and Development Grant proposals that have been submitted to the Endowment for possible grant funding.

Because the proposed meeting will consider financial information and personnel and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, pursuant to authority granted me by the Chairman's Delegation of Authority to Close Advisory Committee Meetings, dated August 13, 1973, I have determined that the meeting would fall within exemptions (4) and (6) of 5 U.S.C. 552(b) and that it is essential to close the meeting to protect the free exchange of internal views and to avoid interference with operation of the Committee.

It is suggested that those desiring more specific information contact the Advisory Committee Management Officer, Mr. John W. Jordan, 806 15th Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20506, or call Area Code 202-382-2031.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[811-1567]

ANCHOR CAPITAL FUND, INC.

Notice of Filing of Application for Order Declaring That Company Has Ceased To Be an Investment Company

Notice is hereby given that Anchor Capital Fund, Inc. ("Applicant"), Westminster at Parker, Elizabeth, New Jersey 07207, registered as an open-end diversified management investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act"), has filed an application pursuant to section 8(f) of the Act for an order of the Commission declaring that Applicant has ceased to be an investment company as defined in the Act.

All interested persons are referred to the application on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations set forth therein, which are summarized below.

Applicant was organized as a Maryland corporation on Januray 16, 1968, and registered under the Act by filing a Form N-8A Notification of Registration on January 22, 1968.

Applicant represents that pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger and related Articles of Merger adopted by its shareholders on Novemebr 30, 1973, Applicant was merged on December 31, 1973 into Anchor Spectrum Fund, Inc. ("Spectrum"), also a Maryland corporation registered as an investment company under the Act. Upon effectiveness of the merger, the capital stock of Applicant was converted into capital stock of Spectrum in the ratio of .9225 shares of Spectrum for each share of Applicant based on respective net asset values of shares of the two companies at the close of business on December 31, 1973.

Section 8(f) of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that when the Commission, upon application, finds that a registered investment company has ceased to be an investment company, it shall so declare by order, and upon the effectiveness of such order the registration of such company shall cease to be in effect.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 8, 1974, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request, and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (air mail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the Applicant at the address stated above. Proof of such service (by affidavit, or in case of an attorney-at-law, by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. As provided by Rule 0-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein will be issued as of course following April 8, 1974, unless the Commission thereafter orders a hearing upon request or upon the Commission's own motion. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the commission, by the Division of Investment Management Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

Notice of Filing of Application for an Order Declaring That Company Has Ceased To Be an Investment Company

Notice is hereby given that Anchor Venture Fund, Inc. ("Applicant"), Westminster at Parker, Elizabeth, New Jersey 07207, registered as an open-end diversified management investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act"), has filed an application pursuant to section 8(f) of the Act for an order of the Commission declaring that Applicant has ceased to be an investment company as defined in the Act. All interested persons are referred to the applicant on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations set forth therein, which are summarized below.

Applicant was organized as a Delaware corporation on October 22, 1969, and registered under the Act by filing a Form N-8A Notification of Registration on November 24, 1969.

Applicant represents that pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Articles of Merger adopted by its shareholders on November 30, 1973, Applicant was merged on December 31, 1973 into Anchor Spectrum Fund, Inc. ("Spectrum"), a Maryland corporation registered as an investment company under the Act. Upon effectiveness of the merger, the capital stock of Applicant was converted into capital stock of Spectrum in the ratio of 1.9200 shares of Spectrum for each share of Applicant based on respective net asset values of shares of the two companies at the close of business on December 31, 1973.

Section 8(f) of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that when the Commission, upon application, finds that a registered investment company has ceased to be an investment company, it shall so declare by order, and upon the effectiveness of such order the registration of such company shall cease to be in effect.

Notice is further given that any intrested person may, not later than April 8, 1974, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request, and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. OCCIDENTAL'S SEPARATE ACCOUNT FUND B, ET AL.

Notice of Application for Order Exempting Applicants

Notice is hereby given that Occidental Life Insurance Company of California ("Occidental"), 1150 South Olive Street, Los Angeles, California, Occidental's Separate Account Fund B ("Fund B") and Occidental's Separate Account Fund C ("Fund C") (collectively "Applicants") have filed an application pursuant to section 6(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") for an order of the Commission exempting Applicants from section 22(d) of the Act. All interested persons are referred to the application, as amended, on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations made therein, which are summarized below.

Occidental, a California corporation and a stock life insurance company, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Transamerica Insurance Corporation of California, which is in turn a wholly-owned subsidiary of Transamerica Corporation. Fund B and Fund C were formed as separate accounts of Occidental on June 26, 1968 and February 25, 1969, respectively. Fund B and Fund C are diversified open-end investment companies registered under the Act.

Variable annuity contracts offered for sale by Occidental and funded in Fund B or Fund C may be either Annual Deposit Individual Equity Investment Fund Contracts providing for a deferred variable annuity, Single Deposit Individual Equity Investment Contracts providing for a deferred variable annuity or Single Deposit Individual Equity Investment Contracts providing for an immediate variable annuity (all hereinafter referred to as "contracts"). Under the contracts, Occidental makes deductions for sales and administrative expenses from payments made by purchasers. The maximum deduction for sales expenses is 6½ percent. The assets of the Funds are held for the benefit of individuals entitled to benefits under the contracts. In accordance with California law, the assets of the Funds are held in the name of Occidental, and Occidental is not a trustee with respect thereto.

Section 22(d) of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that no registered investment company or principal underwriter thereof may sell any redeemable security to the public except at a current offering price described in the prospectus.

Applicants request an exemption from section 22(d) to enable Occidental to permit holders of Fund B and Fund C Annual Deposit Individual Equity Investment Contracts providing for deferred variable annuities and Single Deposit Individual Equity Investment Contracts providing for deferred variable annuities ("deferred contracts") to withdraw funds deposited under the deferred contracts and to reinvest such funds, without any additional sales charges, within a period of five years from the date of any such withdrawal. Exercise of this privilege will be limited to once a year.

Applicants assert it would be inequitable and inappropriate to impose a second sales charge upon reinvestment in deferred contracts because under normal circumstances no significant sales effort would precede exercise of the privilege. In addition, sales personnel will receive no compensation in connection with the exercise of the withdrawal and reinvestment privilege.

Applicants further state that the grant of the requested exemption will not disrupt the orderly distribution of redeemable securities since the channels conventionally used in the distribution of such securities are not generally utilized for the distribution of the deferred contracts.

Applicants also submit that granting the exemption would allow greater flexibility to the individual whose investment goal is retirement income. The privilege would afford such an investor an opportunity to withdraw the money accumulated under his contract temporarily in order to meet a current financial need and to be reinstated in the retirement plan at a later date. The investor would not be forced to forfeit or reduce the amount invested in his contract because of an inability to pay a new sales load.

Section 6(c) of the Act provides that the Commission may conditionally or unconditionally exempt any person or transaction from any provisions of the Act if such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 8, 1974, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission shall order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (air mail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon Applicants at the address set forth above. Proof of such service (by affidavit, or, in case of an attorney-at-law, by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. As provided by Rule 0–5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application will be issued as of course following April 8, 1974, unless the Commission thereafter orders a hearing upon request or upon the Commission's own motion. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive notice of further developments in such matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

By the Commission.

STRUTHERS CAPITAL CORP.

Notice of Filing of Application for Amended Order Exempting Company From All Provisions

Notice is hereby given that Struthers Capital Corporation ("Applicant"), 630 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10020, a New York Corporation, has filed an application pursuant to section 6(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") for an amended order exempting it from all provisions of the Act. All interested persons are referred to the application on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations therein, which are summarized below.

Applicant, all of the capital stock of which consists of 1,000 shares of common stock having a par value of $1.00 per share, is presently owned by Struthers Wells Corporation ("Struthers"). Applicant was formed by Struthers in April 1968 and has operated as a small business investment company ("SBIC") licensed by the Small Business Administration ("SBA") under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, as amended ("SBIA"), since August 9, 1968, when Applicant acquired all of the business and assets of Developers Small Business Investment Corporation, a New Jersey corporation licensed under the SBIA. Applicant has previously received from the Commission an order pursuant to section 6(c) of the Act exempting Applicant from all provisions of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, subject to certain conditions (Investment Company Act Release No. 5461, August 9, 1968) (the "Order"). Applicant has also previously received from the Commission an Amended Order pursuant to section 6(c) of the Act exempting Applicant from all provisions of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, subject to certain conditions (Investment Company Act Release No. 8016, September 27, 1973) (the "Amended Order").

The Amended Order permitted a change of control of Applicant from Struthers to Prudential Funds, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Prudential") pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement, dated July 26, 1973 (the "Agreement"), between Struthers and Prudential relating to the sale by Struthers and the purchase by Prudential of all of the authorized, issued and outstanding shares of Applicant's common stock and permitted Applicant to continue its activities as a wholly owned subsidiary of Prudential. The transaction contemplated by the Agreement was not consummated and on November 1, 1973, Struthers and Prudential each released the other from any further liability or obligation with respect to the transaction.

Inasmuch as the transaction pursuant to the Agreement between Struthers and Prudential relating to the sale by Struthers to Prudential of all of the authorized, issued and outstanding shares of Applicant's common Stock was not consummated and was terminated as aforesaid, Applicant does not require the Amended Order and requests rescission of the Amended Order and the reinstatement of the Order to permit Applicant to continue its activities as an SBIC licensed by the SBA under the SBIA as a wholly owned subsidiary of Struthers.

Applicant asserts that the business of Struthers has not changed materially from the description thereof contained in the Application originally filed with the Commission resulting in the Order. Struthers continues directly and through its subsidiaries to be primarily engaged in the field of engineering and processing of power equipment. The reasons specified originally by the Applicant, in support of the granting of the Order, have also not changed materially. Applicant has agreed that if the Commission reinstates the Order, Applicant will continue to be subject to the conditions contained in the Order providing, in summary, that Applicant shall not issue to any person other than Struthers or the SBA any security of Applicant (other than short-term paper) unless permitted by the Commission; and also providing for the periodic filing by Applicant with the Commission of certain financial and other information concerning Applicant and Struthers.

Section 6(c) of the Act provides that the Commission, by order upon application, may conditionally or unconditionally exempt any person from any provisions of the Act, if and to the extent that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 9, 1974, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request, and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission shall order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (air mail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon Applicant at the address set forth above. Proof of such service (by affidavit or in case of an attorney-at-law by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. As provided by Rule 0–5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application will be issued as of course following said date unless the Commission thereafter orders a hearing upon request or upon the Commission's own motion. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the Commission, by the Division of Investment Management Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

Secretary.

CHICAGO BOARD OPTIONS EXCHANGE, INC. OPTION PLAN FILED

Proposed Elimination of Multimember Market-Maker Units

Notice is hereby given that the Chicago Board Options Exchange, Inc. (CBOE) has filed proposed amendments to its Option Plan pursuant to Rule 9b–1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (17 CFR 240.9b–1).

The major impact of the changes is on CBOE's Rules 8.3, 8.6 and 8.7. The Exchange proposes the elimination of multimember Market-Maker units, meaning that all Market-Maker appointments would be made to individuals. Two types of Market-Maker appointments would be created. Principal and Supplemental. A full-time Market-Maker would ordinarily have both Principal and Supplemental Appointments, and would be required to have at least 50 percent of his transactions in his Principal Appointment classes of option contracts. Those persons unable to undertake full-time Market-Maker responsibilities would be awarded only Supplemental Appointments. All Market-Makers would be required to have at least 75 percent of their transactions in their appointed classes; the remaining transactions would continue to be subject to the market-making obligations established by sections (a) and (d) of Rule 8.7. Technical changes are also proposed for CBOE's Rules 6.51, 6.53, 6.73, 7.5, 7.7, 7.8 and 8.8, or the Interpretations and Policies thereunder.

The proposed amendments will become effective upon the 30th day after this notice appears in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or upon such earlier date as the Commission may allow unless the Commission shall disapprove the change in whole or in part as being inconsistent with the public interest or the protection of investors.

All interested persons are invited to submit their views and comments on the proposed amendments to CBOE's plan either before or after it has become effective. Written statements of views and comments should be addressed to the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549. Reference should be made to file number 132–37784. The proposed amendments are, and all such comments will be, available for public inspection at the Public Reference Room of the Securities and Exchange Commission at 1100 L Street, NW., Washington, D.C.

NORTHEAST SMALL BUSINESS INVESTMENT CORP.

Notice of Application for a License as a Small Business Investment Company

Notice is hereby given of the filing of an application with the Small Business Administration (SBA) pursuant to § 107.102 of the regulations (38 FR 30836, November 7, 1973), by Northeast Small Business Investment Corporation, 16 Cumberland Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02115, for a license to operate as a small business investment company under the provisions of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958 (the Act), as amended (15 U.S.C. 661 et seq.).

The proposed officers, directors and stockholders are:

Sidney Mindick, 274 Dean Road, Brookline, Massachusetts, President and Director, 15.34 percent.
Martin Stauber, 66 Nottinghill Road, Brighton, Massachusetts, Vice President and Director, 16.77 percent.
Israel Mindick, 59 Beaconsfield Road, Brookline, Massachusetts, Vice President and Director, 14.23 percent.
Joseph Mindick, 19 Orinwhite Drive, Randolph, Massachusetts, Treasurer and Director, 12.52 percent.
George W. Cashman, One Boston Place, Boston, Massachusetts, Clerk, 0.
Morris Isserof, 16 Cumberland Street, Boston, Massachusetts, Assistant Clerk, Director and General Manager, 28.57 percent.
Cumberland Finance, 16 Cumberland Street, Boston, Massachusetts, 28.57 percent.

Cumberland Finance is a general partnership by and between ten business realty corporations who in turn are controlled by Oizer Realty Corporation. With the exception of Mr. Cashman, the above mentioned individuals each own 20 percent of Oizer Realty Corporation.

The applicant will begin operations with a capitalization of $350,000 and will be a source of equity capital and long-term loans for qualified small business concerns with particular attention to growth potentials in any eligible type of industry. In addition to financial assistance, the applicant will provide management consulting services to its clients.

The applicant will conduct its operations principally in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and in other areas wherever the need may arise.

Matters involved in SBA's consideration of the applicant include the general business reputation and character of the proposed owners and management, and the probability of successful operations of the company under their management, including adequate profitability and financial soundness, in accordance with the Act and regulations.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 5, 1974, submit written comments on the proposed company to the Deputy Associate Administrator for Investment, Small Business Administration, 1441 L Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20416.

UNITED STATES RAILWAY ASSOCIATION

[USRA Docket No. 1; Notice 74-8]

ERIE LACKAWANNA RAILWAY COMPANY, DEBTOR

Proposed Interim Discontinuance of Passenger Service

Notice is hereby given that the Erie Lackawanna Railway Company, Debtor ("E-L"), requests authorization by the United States Railway Association ("USRA") under section 304(f) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 ("the Act"), Pub. L. 93-236, to discontinue operation of commuter trains Nos. 28 and 29 between Cleveland and Youngstown, Ohio.

Section 304(a) of the Act specifies conditions and procedures necessary to discontinue rail service subsequent to promulgation of the final system plan as specified in section 207 of the Act. Discontinuance during the interim between the effective date of the Act and adoption of the final plan is permitted subject to the conditions and procedures set forth in section 304(f), which provides:

> After [January 2, 1974], no railroad in reorganization may discontinue service . . . other than in accordance with [section 304 (a) and (c)], unless it is authorized to do so by the Association and unless no affected State or local or regional transportation authority reasonably opposes such action, notwithstanding any provision of any other Federal law, the constitution or law of any State, or decision or order of, or the pendency of any proceeding before any Federal or State court, agency or authority.

Commuter train No. 29 operates from Youngstown to Cleveland, a distance of 66.2 miles, weekday (except holidays) mornings, leaving Youngstown at 5:50 a.m., serving Niles, Warren, Garrettsville-Hiram, Jeddoe, Mantua, Aurora, Geauga Lake, Solon, and North Randall, and arriving at Cleveland at 7:40 a.m. Commuter train No. 28 operates in the opposite direction weekday (except holidays) evenings, leaving Cleveland at 5:20 p.m., and arriving at Youngstown at 7:10 p.m.

The E-L asserts that there are only 103 daily revenue commuters traveling between Mantua and Cleveland (a distance of 29.7 miles), and intermediate points, and only three daily revenue commuters traveling between Cleveland and points between Youngstown and Mantua (a distance of 36.5 miles), including Youngstown. A motor bus operator (Garfield Heights Coach Lines, Inc.) is willing to operate similar commuter service between Aurora and Cleveland (a distance of 23.4 miles), thus assertedly serving the needs of virtually all of the present revenue rail passengers. The bus operator has requested the Ohio Public Utilities Commission to authorize this service.

The E-L asserts the commuter trains use 550 gallons of diesel fuel daily, as opposed to only 24 gallons of diesel fuel which would be required by the bus operator. The E-L out-of-pocket losses with respect to these two commuter trains amount to more than $600 per day of operation.

To assist the Association in its analysis and disposition of the interim discontinuance request, opportunity is being given to the general public, as well as to any affected State, local or regional transportation authority, to submit written statements, views and arguments either favoring or opposing the discontinuance proposal.

In addition to general comments submitted, any affected State, local or regional transportation authority which "reasonably opposes" the proposed discontinuance may present written statements in support of such opposition. Any such statement must include a description of the jurisdiction of the authority, the manner in which the area over which it has jurisdiction is affected by the proposed discontinuance, the relationship of the involved commuter trains to the area transportation system, and the manner and amount, if any, in which the authority proposes to subsidize the E-L for losses to be incurred in continued operation of the trains.

An original and four copies of any statements, views, arguments or comments must be submitted to Docket Clerk, United States Railway Association, Room 10100, Nassif Building, 400 Seventh Street SW., Washington, D.C. 20590, by April 26, 1974, to enable timely consideration by the Association.

In additon to the notice given herein, the Erie Lackawanna Railway Company, Debtor, shall, by March 27, 1974, cause to be posted in each passenger car operated in commuter trains Nos. 28 and 29, and in each station served by these trains, a notice of the proposed discontinuance, and the manner and time in which the public may present written statements, views or arguments to the Association.

This action is taken pursuant to section 304(f) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973, P.L. 93-236.

Copies of this notice have been sent to the Ohio Public Utilities Commission and the governing body of each municipality served by the commuter trains, and to newspapers, and radio and television broadcasting stations serving the involved area.

Dated at Washington, D.C., this 19th day of March 1974.

W. LAWRENCE HOLLAR,
Assistant Secretary,
United States Railway Association.

CUDAHY TANNING COMPANY, INC.

Notice of Application for Variance and Interim Order; Grant of Interim Order

I. Notice of application. Notice is hereby given that Cudahy Tanning Company, Inc., 5043 S. Packard Avenue, Cudahy, Wisconsin 53110 has made application pursuant to section 6(d) of the Williams-Steiger Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (84 Stat. 1596; 29 U.S.C. 655), and 29 CFR 1905.11 for a variance, and interim order pending a decision on the application for a variance, from the standards prescribed in 29 CFR 1910.37(i) concerning headroom in means of egress.

The address of the place of employment that will be affected by the application is as follows:

Cudahy Tanning Company, Inc.
5043 S. Packard Avenue
Cudahy, Wisconsin 53110

The applicant certifies that employees who would be affected by the variance have been notified of the application by posting a copy at all places where notices to employees are normally posted. Employees have also been informed of their right to petition the Assistant Secretary for a hearing.

Regarding the merits of the application, the applicant contends that it is providing a place of employment as safe as that required by the standard which requires a clearance of 6'8" be maintained for projections in a means of egress.

The applicant states that it has two 5'6" doorways leading to the lunch-locker room and the third floor of its building. The doorways cannot be enlarged as the top and bottom of the doorways are concrete purlins reinforced with steel rods within a load-bearing wall.

Instead, the applicant states that it is padding the top purlin on both sides and the bottom with ½" to ¾" foam rubber which will be painted yellow. Signs reading "Danger, Low Clearance, Watch Your Head" will be posted on either side of the top purlins. In addition, employees will be warned of the low clearance and advised that caution should be used.

A copy of the application will be made available for inspection and copying upon request at the Office of Compliance Programming, U.S. Department of Labor, 1726 M Street, NW., Room 526, Washington, D.C. 20210, and at the following Regional and Area Offices:

U.S. Department of Labor
Occupational Safety and Health Administration

Chicago, Illinois 60606

U.S. Department of Labor
Occupational Safety and Health Administration
Clark Building—Room 400
633 W. Wisconsin Avenue
Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53203

All interested persons, including employers and employees, who believe they would be affected by the grant or denial of the application for a variance are invited to submit written data, views and arguments relating to the pertinent application no later than April 22, 1974. In addition, employers and employees who believe they would be affected by a grant or denial of the variance may request a hearing on the application no later than April 22, 1974, in conformity with the requirements of 29 CFR 1905.15. Submission of written comments and requests for a hearing should be in quadruplicate, and must be addressed to the Office of Compliance Programming at the above address.

II. Interim order. It appears from the application for a variance and interim order, that an interim order is necessary to prevent undue hardship to the applicant pending a decision on the variance. Therefore, it is ordered, pursuant to authority in section 6(d) of the Williams-Steiger Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970, and 29 CFR 1905.11(c) that Cudahy Tannin Corporation be, and is hereby authorized to continue to use its building with 5'6" doorways provided that the top purlin is padded with ½" to ¾" foam which has been painted yellow: And provided, That appropriate warning signs are posted as described in the application.

Cudahy Tannin Corporation shall give notice of this interim order to employees affected thereby, by the same means required to be used to inform them of the application for a variance.

Effective date. This interim order shall be effective as of March 21, 1974, and shall remain in effect until a decision is rendered on the application for a variance.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 15th day of March 1974.

McCORMICK DISTILLING CO.

Notice of Application for Variance

Notice of Application. Notice is hereby given that McCormick Distilling Company, P.O. Box 38, Weston, Missouri 64098 has made application pursuant to section 6(d) of the Williams Steiger Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (84 Stat. 1596; 29 U.S.C. 655), and 29 CFR 1905.11 for a variance from the standards prescribed in 29 CFR 1910.36 (b)(3) concerning exits from buildings.

The address of the place of employment that will be affected by the application is as follows:

McCormick Distilling Company
F-M Highway JJ
Weston, Missouri 64098

The applicant certifies that employees who would be affected by the variance have been notified of the application by giving a copy of it to their authorized employee representative, and by posting a copy at all places where notices to employees are normally posted. Employees have also been informed of their right to petition the Assistant Secretary for a hearing.

Regarding the merits of the application, the applicant contends that it is providing a place of employment as safe as that required by 29 CFR 1910.36(b)(3). This standard requires that buildings be provided with exits of the kinds, numbers, location and capacity appropriate to the individual building with regard to the character of occupancy, the number of persons exposed, the fire protection available, and the height and construction of the buildings, to afford all occupants convenient facilities for escape.

The applicant states that it has three Internal Revenue bonded warehouses which are used for aging distilled spirits. The warehouses have from 3 to 7 levels, with open floors between levels. The buildings are occupied sporadically while certain work procedures are being performed, and by a maximum of two employees: For 30 minutes each morning and 30 minutes each evening, one man opens and closes all windows; for about 2 hours twice a week barrels are removed from one of the warehouses for dumping and bottling; filled barrels are brought in for aging during the months of October through March. At all other times the building is unoccupied. In addition, a government lock is affixed each work day at 4:30 pm and removed at 8:00 am by the assigned agent.

The applicant further states that there is little wiring in the warehouses, housekeeping is excellent with no debris or foreign material, the surroundings are maintained critically to prevent brush or grass fires, lightning rods are attached to all warehouses, and fire extinguishers are located in each warehouse.

The applicant contends that since there are never more than 2 employees in the warehouses at one time, and since these employees can descend from one level to the next anywhere along either side of the warehouse as well as by the stairs or elevators, the present exit arrangement is as safe as that required by the standard.

A copy of the application will be made available for inspection and copying upon request at the Office of Compliance Programming, U.S. Department of Labor, 1726 M Street, NW., Room 526, Washington, D.C. 20210, and at the following Regional and Area Offices:

Kansas City, Missouri 64106

U.S. Department of Labor
Occupational Safety and Health Administration
1627 Main Street—Room 1100
Kansas City, Missouri 64108

All interested persons, including employers and employees, who believe they would be affected by the grant or denial of the application for a variance are invited to submit written data, views and arguments relating to the pertinent application no later than April 22, 1974. In addition, employers and employees who believe they would be affected by a grant or denial of the variance may request a hearing on the application no later than April 22, 1974, in conformity with the requirements of 29 CFR 1905.15. Submission of written comments and requests for a hearing should be in quadruplicate, and must be addressed to the Office of Compliance Programming at the above address.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 15th day of March 1974.

MOTOR CARRIER APPLICATIONS AND CERTAIN OTHER PROCEEDINGS

MARCH 15, 1974.

The following publications (except as otherwise specifically noted, each applicant (on applications filed after March 27, 1972) states that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of its application), are governed by the new Special Rule 1100.247 of the Commission's Rules of Practice, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, issue of December 3, 1963, which became effective January 1, 1964.

The publications hereinafter set forth reflect the scope of the applications as filed by applicant, and may include descriptions, restrictions, or limitations which are not in a form acceptable to the Commission. Authority which ultimately may be granted as a result of the applications here noticed will not necessarily reflect the phraseology set forth in the application as filed, but also will eliminate any restrictions which are not acceptable by the Commission.

MOTOR CARRIERS OF PROPERTY

No. MC 29452 (Sub-No. 4) (Republication) filed June 21, 1973, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of September 27, 1973, and republished this issue. Applicant: B.O.W. EXPRESS, INC., 1251 Taney Road, North Kansas City, Mo. 64116. Applicant's representative: John E. Jandera, 641 Harrison Street, Topeka, Kans. 66603. An Order of the Commission, Operating Rights Board, dated February 13, 1974, and served March 8, 1974, finds that the present and future public convenience and necessity require operation by applicant, in interstate or foreign commerce as a common carrier by motor vehicle, over regular routes, of general commodities (except those of unusual value, Classes A and B explosives, household goods as defined by the Commission, commodities in bulk, and commodities requiring special equipment) (1) between Burlington, and Caney, Kans., from Burlington over U.S. Highway 75 to junction Kansas Highway 57, thence west over Kansas Highway 57 to Madison, Kans., thence south over Kansas Highway 99 to Sedan, Kans., thence east over U.S. Highway 166 to junction U.S. Highway 75, thence over U.S. Highway 75 to Caney, and return over the same route, serving all intermediate points and the off-route points of Fall River Reservoir, Toronto Reservoir, Eureka, and Moline, Kans.; (2) between Yates Center and Elk City, Kans., from Yates Center over U.S. Highway 75 to junction Kansas Highway 39, thence over Kansas Highway 39 to Elk City, and return over the same route, serving all intermediate points and the off-route points of Elk City Reservoir, New Albany, Buxton, Altoona, Longton, Sycamore, and Westphalia, Kans.; (3) between Osage City, and Burlingame, Kans., over U.S. Highway 56; (4) between Ottawa and Osage City, Kans., over Kansas Highway 268, serving all intermediate points of Pomona Reservoir and Quenemo, Kans.; and (5) between Caney, and Elk City, Kans., from Caney over U.S. Highway 75 to junction U.S. Highway 160, thence over U.S. Highway 160 to Elk City, serving no intermediate points, as an alternate route (in (5) above only) for operating convenience only in connection with applicant's authorized regular-route operations; that applicant is fit, willing, and able properly to perform such service and to conform to the requirements of the Interstate Commerce Act and the Commission's rules and regulations thereunder. The purpose of this republication is to show that the notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of the filing of this application failed to indicate with respect to routes (1), (2) and (4) that service at all intermediate points is sought; that the shipper evidence of need for the proposed service establishes a need for service at certain points that are included in the application only as such intermediate points; that evidence of need for service at Havana, Kans., a point not included in the application, is also shown; that authority covering intermediate points with respect to routes (1), (2) and (4) and authorizing service at Havana as an additional off-route point in connection with route (1) should be granted. Because it is possible that other parties who have relied upon the notice of the application as published, may have an interest in and would be prejudiced by the lack of proper notice of the authority described above, issuance of a certificate in this proceeding will be withheld for a period of 30 days from the date of this publication of the authority actually granted, during which period any proper party in interest may file an appropriate petition for intervention or other relief in this proceeding setting forth in detail the precise manner in which it has been so prejudiced.

No. MC 7832 (Sub-No. 16) (NOTICE OF FILING OF PETITION TO ADD AN ADDITIONAL CONTRACTING SHIPPER) filed February 20, 1974. Petitioner: SAM LOWENSTEIN AND STANLEY LOWENSTEIN, a Partnership, doing business as, SUPER M FOODS DELIVERY, 411A N. Wood Avenue, Linden, N.J. 07036. Petitioner's representative: Bert Collins, Suite 6193, 5 World Trade Center, New York, N.Y. 10006. Petitioner holds a motor contract carrier permit in No. MC 7832 (Sub-No. 16) issued July 27, 1973, authorizing transportation, over irregular routes, of such merchandise as is dealt in by wholesale, retail, chain grocery, department stores, and food business houses (except commodities in bulk), and in connection therewith, equipment, materials and supplies used in the conduct of such business (except commodities in bulk), between points in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Delaware, Virginia, and the District of Columbia, under a continuing contract or contracts with Food Fair Stores, Inc. By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to add Castle & Cooke, Inc., as an additional contracting shipper. Any interested person or persons desiring to participate may file an original and six copies of his written representations, views or arguments in support of or against the petition within 30 days from the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

No. MC 93944 (Sub-Nos. 8 and 9) (NOTICE OF FILING OF PETITION TO ELIMINATE A VEHICLE RESTRICTION), filed March 5, 1974. Petitioner: DANELLA BROS., INC., 250 Diamond Avenue, Norristown, Pa. 19401. Petitioner's representative: Theodore Polydoroff, 1250 Connecticut Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. 20036. Petitioner holds motor common carrier certificates in No. MC 93944 (Sub-Nos. 8 and 9), issued June 20, 1969 and December 5, 1972, respectively, authorizing, as pertinent, transportation, over irregular routes, of, in Sub-No. 8, alloys, granular refractories, and ores, in dump vehicles, (1) from Wilmington, Del., to Baltimore, Md.; Philadelphia, Pa.; and points in Montgomery County, Pa.; (2) from Chester, Pa., to points in Montgomery County, Pa.; and (3) from Philadelphia, Pa., to points in Montgomery, Chester, Lebanon, Berks, Bucks, and Philadelphia Counties, Pa.; and in Sub-No. 9, (A) alloys and ores (except fluorspar), in dump vehicles, between points in that part of Pennsylvania on and east of U.S. Highway 219 (except Scranton and Columbia, Pa. and its Commercial Zone as defined by the Commission, and points in Philadelphia, Montgomery, and Delaware Counties, Pa.), New Jersey (except points in Cumberland, Salem, Gloucester, Cape May, Atlantic, Camden, and Burlington Counties), Delaware and Maryland (except Baltimore), restricted against service between points in New Jersey; (B) alloys and ores, in dump vehicles, between points in that part of Pennsylvania on and east of U.S. Highway 219 (except Chester, Pa.); and (C) chrome ore, in dump vehicles, from the General Services Administration depot at Baltimore, Md., to the plantsite of C-E Minerals Division at or near Wilmington, Del. By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to eliminate its vehicle restriction "in dump vehicles". Any interested person or persons desiring to participate may file an original and six copies of his written representations, views or arguments in support of or against the petition within 30 days from the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

No. MC 99208 (Sub-No. 10) (NOTICE OF FILING OF PETITION TO ELIMINATE SERVICE RESTRICTION) filed February 19, 1974. Petitioner: SKYLINE TRANSPORTATION, INC., 131 Quincy Avenue, P.O. Box 3569, Knoxville, Tenn. 37917. Petitioner's representative: Blaine Buchanan, 1024 James Building, Chattanooga, Tenn. 37402. Petitioner holds a motor common carrier certificate in No. MC 99208 (Sub-No. 10) issued August 22, 1973, authorizing transportation, over regular routes, of general commodities (except those of unusual value, Classes A and B explosives, household goods as defined by the Commission, commodities in bulk and those which because of size or weight require the use of special equipment), and automobiles, trucks and buses as described in Descriptions in Motor Carrier Certificates, 61 M.C.C. 209 and 76, between Knoxville, Tenn., and New Orleans, La., serving no intermediate points, with service at New Orleans, La. restricted to delivery to or receipt from connecting carriers of interline traffic which originates at or is destined to points beyond New Orleans, La., and its Commercial Zone as defined by the Commission: From Knoxville over U.S. Highway 11 to New Orleans, and return over the same route. By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to eliminate the service restriction. Any interested person or persons desiring to participate may file an original and six copies of his written representations, views or arguments in support of or against the petition within 30 days from the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

No. MC 117644 (Sub-No. 31) (NOTICE OF FILING OF PETITION TO EXTEND COMMODITY DESCRIPTION) filed March 4, 1974. Petitioner: D & T TRUCKING CO., INC., 498 First Street, NW., P.O. Box 2611, New Brighton, Minn. 55112. Petitioner's representative: William J. Boyd, 29 South La Salle Street, Suite 330, Chicago, Ill. 60603. MOTOR CARRIER, BROKER, WATER, CARRIER AND FREIGHT FORWARDER APPLICATIONS

MARCH 15, 1974.

The following applications (except as otherwise specifically noted, each applicant (on applications filed after March 27, 1972) states that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of its application), are governed by Special Rule 1100.247[1] of the Commission's general rules of practice (49 CFR, as amended), published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of April 20, 1966, effective May 20, 1966. These rules provide, among other things, that a protest to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days after date of notice of filing of the application is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Failure seasonably to file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding. A protest under these rules should comply with section 247(d)(3) of the rules of practice which requires that it set forth specifically the grounds upon which it is made, contain a detailed statement of protestant's interest in the proceeding (including a copy of the specific portions of its authority which protestant believes to be in conflict with that sought in the application, and describing in detail the method—whether by joinder, interline, or other means—by which protestant would use such authority to provide all or part of the service proposed), and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests not in reasonable compliance with the requirements of the rules may be rejected. The original and one (1) copy of the protest shall be filed with the Commission, and a copy shall be served concurrently upon applicant's representative, or applicant if no representative is named. If the protest includes a request for oral hearing, such requests shall meet the requirements of section 247(d)(4) of the special rules, and shall include the certification required therein.

Section 247(f) of the Commission's rules of practice further provides that each applicant shall, if protests to its application have been filed, and on or before May 20, 1974, notify the Commission in writing (1) that it is ready to proceed and prosecute the application, or (2) that it wishes to withdraw the application, failure in which the application will be dismissed by the Commission.

Further processing steps (whether modified procedure, oral hearing, or other procedures) will be determined generally in accordance with the Commission's general policy statement concerning motor carrier licensing procedures, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of May 3, 1966. This assignment will be by Commission order which will be served on each party of record. Broadening amendments will not be accepted after the date of this publication except for good cause shown, and restrictive amendments will not be entertained following publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of a notice that the proceeding has been assigned for oral hearing.

[Amdt. 1; Twelfth Revised Exemption No. 12]

ATLANTIC AND WESTERN RAILWAY CO. ET AL.

Exemption Under Mandatory Car Service Rules

MARCH 18, 1974.

It appearing, that the Commission, on March 6, 1974, issued Service Order No. 1174 applicable to all plain boxcars owned by the following railroads:

Atlantic and Western Railway Company
Pickens Railroad Company
Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company
Roscoe, Snyder and Pacific Railway Company
Vermont Railway, Inc.
Wellsville, Addison & Galeton Railroad Corporation that the provisions of Service Order No. 1174 contain similar provisions applicable to these cars.

It is ordered, That pursuant to the authority vested in me by Car Service Rule 19, the provisions of Twelfth Revised Exemption No. 12 to the Mandatory Car Service Rules ordered in Ex Parte No. 241 are hereby suspended until further order of this agent.

Effective: March 10, 1974.

Issued at Washington, D.C., March 6, 1974.

[Twelfth Revised Exemption No. 12]

ATLANTIC AND WESTERN RAILWAY CO. ET AL.

Exemption Under Mandatory Car Service Rules

MARCH 18, 1974.

It appearing, that the railroads named herein own numerous plain boxcars; that under present conditions, there is virtually no demand for these cars on the lines of the car owners; that return of these cars to the car owners would result in their being stored idle on these lines; that such cars can be used by other carriers for transporting traffic offered for shipments to points remote from the car owners; and that compliance with Car Service Rules 1 and 2 prevents such use of plain boxcars owned by the railroads listed herein, resulting in unnecessary loss of utilization of such cars.

BANGOR AND AROOSTOOK RAILROAD CO.

Abandonment Between Monticello and Bridgewater, Maine

MARCH 18, 1974.

Upon consideration of the record in the above-entitled proceeding, and of a staff-prepared environmental threshold assessment survey which is available for public inspection upon request; and

It appearing, that no environmental impact statement need be issued in this proceeding, because this proceeding does not represent a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment within the meaning of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. § 4321), et seq., and good cause appearing therefore:

It is ordered, That applicant be, and it is hereby, directed to publish the appended notice in a newspaper of general circulation in Aroostook County, Maine, within 15 days of the date of service of this order, and certify to the Commission that this has been accomplished.

And it is further ordered, That notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the Office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D.C., and by forwarding a copy to the Director, Office of the Federal Register, for publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated at Washington, D.C., this 13th day of March, 1974.

By the Commission, Commissioner Tuggle.

Secretary.

BANGOR AND AROOSTOOK RAILROAD COMPANY ABANDONMENT BETWEEN MONTICELLO AND BRIDGEWATER, MAINE

The Interstate Commerce Commission hereby gives notice that by order dated March 13, 1974, it has been determined that the proposed abandonment by the Bangor and Aroostock Railroad Company between Monticello and Bridgewater, Aroostock County, Maine, a distance of 10.11 miles, if approved by the Commission, does not represent a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment within the meaning of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA) (42 U.S.C. § 4321, et seq.), and that preparation of a detailed environmental impact statement will not be required under section 4332(2)(C) of NEPA.

It was concluded, among other things, that abandonment of this portion of the line will have little if any effect on the area's economy. The railroad will leave the right-of-way intact for possible future use for passenger or freight rail service. In addition, there is a possibility that the right-of-way will be used for the present as a snowmobile trail. The determination was based upon the staff preparation and consideration of an environmental threshold assessment survey, which is available for public inspection upon request at the Interstate Commerce Commission, Office of Proceedings, Washington, D.C. 20423; telephone 202-343-6989.

Interested parties may comment on this matter by the submission of representations to the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C. 20423, on or before April 5, 1974.

[Exemption No. 65]

LOUISVILLE AND NASHVILLE RAILROAD CO.

Exemption Under Mandatory Car Service Rules

MARCH 18, 1974.

It appearing, that there is an emergency movement of military supplies from Ft. Estill, Kentucky, to Leland, North Carolina; that the originating carrier has insufficient system cars of suitable dimensions immediately available for loading with this traffic; that sufficient cars of other ownerships having suitable dimensions are available on the lines of the originating carrier and on its connections; and that compliance with Car Service Rules 1 and 2 would prevent the timely assembly and use of such cars.

It is ordered, That pursuant to the authority vested in me by Car Service Rule 19, the Car Service Division of the Association of American Railroads is authorized to direct the movement to the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, the railroads designated by the Car Service Division are authorized to move to, and the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company is authorized to accept, assemble, and load not to exceed one hundred (100) empty cars with military supplies from Ft. Estill, Kentucky, to Leland, North Carolina, regardless of the provisions of Car Service Rules 1(b), 2(c), 2(d), or 2(e).

Effective: March 1, 1974.

Expires: March 15, 1974.

Issued at Washington, D.C., March 1, 1974.

MOTOR CARRIER BOARD TRANSFER PROCEEDINGS

Synopses of orders entered by the Motor Carrier Board of the Commission pursuant to sections 212(b), 206(a), 211, 312(b), and 410(g) of the Interstate Commerce Act, and rules and regulations prescribed thereunder (49 CFR Part 1132), appear below:

Each application (except as otherwise specifically noted) filed after March 27, 1972, contains a statement by applicants that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of the application. As provided in the Commission special rules of practice any interested person may file a petition seeking reconsideration of the following numbered proceedings on or before April 20, 1974. Pursuant to section 17(8) of the Interstate Commerce Act, the filing of such a petition will postpone the effective date of the order in that proceeding pending its disposition. The matters relied upon by petitioners must be specified in their petitions with particularity.

No. MC-FC-74984. By order entered March 14, 1974, the Motor Carrier Board approved the transfer to Joseph F. Principe, doing business as Two Nation Tourism, Niagara Falls, N.Y., of the operating rights set forth in Certificate No. MC-116670, issued June 23, 1959, to Niagara Treasure Tours, Inc., Niagara Falls, N.Y., authorizing the transportation of passengers and their baggage, in special operations, in round-trip sightseeing or pleasure tours, limited to the transportation of not more than eight passengers in any one vehicle, but not including the driver thereof and not including children under ten years of age who do not occupy a seat or seats, in seasonal operations between April 15 and November 1, of each year, beginning and ending at Niagara Falls, N.Y., and points in Niagara County, N.Y., within six miles thereof, and extending to ports of entry on the United States-Canada Boundary line at Niagara Falls and Lewiston, N.Y. Ralph A. Boniello, 770 Main Street at Cedar Ave., Niagara Falls, N.Y. 14301, attorney for applicants.

No. MC-FC-74996. By order of March 15, 1974, the Motor Carrier Board approved the transfer to Mid-Atlantic Transportation Co., a corporation, Elizabeth, N.J., of a portion of the operating rights in Certificate No. MC-135127 issued March 25, 1971, to Green Brook Transportation Co., Inc., Bound Brook, N.J., authorizing the transportation of general commodities, with exceptions, between points in Nassau and Suffolk Counties, N.Y., on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Hudson, Bergen, Passaic, Essex, Somerset, Union, and Middlesex Counties, N.J. A. David Millner, 744 Broad St., Newark, N.J. 07102, attorney for applicants.

No. MC-FC-74997. By order of March 15, 1974, the Motor Carrier Board approved the transfer to D & S Express, Inc., Bound Brook, N.J., of a portion of the operating rights in Certificate No. MC-135127 issued March 25, 1971, to Green Brook Transportation Co., Inc., Green Brook, N.J., authorizing the transportation of general and specified commodities from, to, and between various specified points and areas in New York and New Jersey. A. David Millner, 744 Broad St., Newark, N.J. 07102, attorney for applicants.

No. MC-FC-75008. By order of March 15, 1974, the Motor Carrier Board approved the transfer to Connecticut Tours, Incorporated, New Haven, Conn., of License No. MC-130140 issued October 2, 1972 to Louise (Verrecchia) Gamberdella, doing business as Louise Gamberdella, New Haven, Conn., authorizing it to engage in operations as a broker of passengers and their baggage, in round trip special and charter operations beginning and ending at points in New Haven County, Conn., and extending to points in Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and the District of Columbia. Palmer S. McGee, Jr., One Constitutional Plaza, Hartford, Conn., 06103, attorney for applicants.

REQUESTS FOR CERTIFICATION OF COMMISSION RECORDS

MARCH 18, 1974.

Because of the extreme fluctuations in the number of requests for certification of Commission records which sometimes occasions a severe backlog in the Certification Unit of the Office of the Secretary, and in order to assure the requesting parties that their material will be available on a timely basis, as well as, to enable the Secretary's Office to control the workflow process in the Certification Unit, the following time schedule should be followed by parties making requests for certification:

(a) 1-50 pages, minimum of (5) five working days.

(c) 201 and above, minimum of (30) thirty working days.

The Secretary's Office wishes to reiterate its position with respect to the manner in which material should be prepared for submission to the Secretary for certification:

(1) All records, transcripts, exhibits, protests, exceptions, replies, etc., must be free of all marks (ink or pencil, etc.) except for corrections as indicated in the official file.

(2) Records must be grouped in the same order as the official docket files kept at the Commission, and not in a disarranged or random manner.

(3) It is recommended that parties filing suits against the Commission request the certification of the record at the same time court action is instituted.

No assurance of timely certification will be given for requests that fail to meet the requirements stated above and all persons are advised to prepare and schedule their requests accordingly.

[SEAL] ROBERT L. OSWALD,
Secretary.

Guide to Record Retention Requirements

No. 56—Pt. II——1

V 39 56 MAR 21 74 XUM

OFFICE OF THE FEDERAL REGISTER

GUIDE TO RECORD RETENTION REQUIREMENTS

REVISION AS OF JANUARY 1, 1974

This is a Guide in digest form to the provisions of Federal laws and regulations relating to the keeping of records by the public. It tells the user (1) what records must be kept, (2) who must keep them, and (3) how long they must be kept.

The Guide is derived from the laws published in the United States Code, as amended by laws enacted during 1973, and from the regulations published in the Code of Federal Regulations, as amended in the daily issues of the FEDERAL REGISTER through December 31, 1973.

The Guide is prepared by the Office of the Federal Register, National Archives and Records Service, General Services Administration and published in the CFR volume entitled "Finding Aids."

Coverage

In preparing the Guide it was necessary to establish boundaries in order to keep it from going beyond its intended purpose. The nature of these boundaries is outlined below.

As indicated by its name, the Guide adheres strictly to the retention of records. It does not cover such matters as the furnishing of reports to Government agencies, the filing of tax returns, or the submission of supporting evidence with applications or claims.

The Guide is limited to provisions which apply to a class. Requirements applying only to named individuals or bodies have been omitted.

The Guide is confined to requirements which have been expressly stated. In many laws and regulations there is an implied responsibility to keep copies of reports and other papers furnished to Federal agencies, and to keep related working papers. Such implied requirements have not been included in the Guide.

The following types of requirements have also been excluded from the Guide:

(1) Requirements as to the keeping of papers furnished by the Government, such as passports, licenses, permits, etc., unless they are closely related to other records which must be kept.

(2) Requirements as to the display of posters, notices, or other signs in places of business.

(3) Requirements contained in individual Government contracts, unless the contracts are incorporated in the Code of Federal Regulations.

Arrangement

The digests of recordkeeping provisions comprising the Guide are grouped under the Departments or independent agencies which impose or administer them (see "Contents"). Individual items are numbered to simplify indexing.

In general, the items retain their original numbers from year to year. Renumbering occurs only after a major revision of the material and is so indicated in brackets after the name of the agency involved. Individual items revised, amended, deleted, or added are shown in brackets following the item heading.

Two supplements to the Guide contain generalized information about certain requirements under the Second War Powers Act of 1942 and detailed information on requirements imposed by the Federal Aviation Administration relative to the availability of credentials for inspection.

An index to the Guide follows the last supplement.

NOTICE

The Guide to Record Retention Requirements does not have the effect of law, regulation, or ruling. It is published as a guide to legal requirements that appear to be in effect as of January 1, 1974.

4. Internal Revenue Service

NOTE: The following items refer to requirements issued under the Internal Revenue Code of 1939 and the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 which were in effect as of January 1, 1974. All regulations applicable under any provision of law in effect on August 16, 1954, the date of enactment of the 1954 Code, are applicable to the corresponding provisions of the 1954 Code insofar as such regulations are not inconsistent with the 1954 Code, and such regulations remain applicable to the 1954 Code until superseded by regulations under such Code. The Internal Revenue Service points out that the omission from this compilation of any record retention requirement provided for by law or regulation issued thereunder shall not be construed as authority to disregard any such requirement. The Service also points out that persons subject to income tax are bound by the retention requirement given in item 4.1 regardless of other requirements which for other purposes allow shorter retention periods.

The record retention requirements of the Internal Revenue Service are divided into the following categories: Income, Estate, Gift, Employment, and Excise Taxes.

INCOME TAX

4.1 Persons subject to income tax.

(a) General. Except as provided in paragraph (b), any person subject to tax, or any person required to file a return of information with respect to income shall keep such permanent books of account or records, including inventories, as are sufficient to establish the amount of gross income, deductions, credits, or other matters required to be shown by such person in any return of such tax or information.

(b) Farmers and wage-earners. Individuals deriving gross income from the business of farming, and individuals whose gross income includes salaries, wages, or similar compensation for personal services rendered, are required to keep such records as will enable the district director to determine the correct amount of income subject to the tax, but it is not necessary that these individuals keep the books of account or records required by paragraph (a).

(c) Exempt organizations. In addition to the books and records required by paragraph (a) with respect to the tax imposed or unrelated business income, every organization exempt from tax under section 501(a) of the Code shall keep such permanent books of account or records, including inventories, as are sufficient to show specifically the items of gross income, receipts, and disbursements, and other required information.

Retention period: So long as the contents thereof may become material in the administration of any internal revenue law. 26 CFR 1.6001–1

4.1a Section 38 property; computation of investment credit and qualified investment.

(a) Component members of a controlled group on a December 31 apportionment of $25,000 amount. To keep as a part of its records a copy of the statement containing all the required consents to the apportionment plan. 26 CFR 1.46–1

(b) Persons computing qualified investment in certain depreciable property. Maintain sufficient records to determine whether section 47 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain dispositions of section 38 property, applies with respect to any asset. 26 CFR 1.46–3

(c) Recomputation of credit and qualified investment. Maintain records which will establish with respect to each item of section 38 property, the following facts: (1) The date the property is disposed of or otherwise ceases to be section 38 property, (2) the estimated useful life which was assigned to the property for computing qualified investment, (3) the month and the taxable year in which property was placed in service, and (4) the basis (or cost), actually or reasonably determined, of the property.

Taxpayers who, for purposes of determining qualified investment, do not use a mortality dispersion table with respect to section 38 assets similar in kind but who consistently assign to such assets separate lives based on the estimated range of years taken into consideration in establishing the average useful life of such assets, must, in addition to the above records, maintain records which will establish to the satisfaction of the district director that such asset has not previously been considered as having been disposed of. 26 CFR 1.47–1

(d) Disposition or cessation of section 38 property. Any taxpayer who seeks to establish his interest in a trade or business, a former electing small business corporation, an estate or trust, or a partnership, shall maintain adequate records to demonstrate his indirect interest after any such transfer or transfers. 26 CFR 1.47–3, 1.47–4, 1.47–5, 1.47–6

(e) Persons selecting used section 38 property, $50,000 cost limitation. To maintain records which permit specific identification of any item of used section 38 property selected, which was placed in service by the person selecting the property. Each member, other than the filing member, of a controlled group shall retain as part of its records a copy of the apportionment statement which was attached to the filing member's return. 26 CFR 1.48–3

(f) Election of lessor of new section 38 property to treat lessee as purchaser. The lessor and the lessee shall keep as a part of their records the statements filed with the lessee, signed by the lessor and including the written consent of the lessee. 26 CFR 1.48–4

Retention period: See Item 4.1

4.1b Persons claiming that a recomputation of the work incentive program (WIN) credit is not required by the early termination of a participating employee. [Added]

A permanent subsidiary ledger containing an account for each of such reserves may be maintained. 26 CFR 1.593–7

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.21b Mutual savings banks, etc., making capital improvements on land acquired by foreclosure.

To maintain such records as are necessary to reflect clearly, with respect to each particular acquired property, the cost of each capital improvement and whether the taxpayer treated minor capital improvements with respect to such property in the same manner as the acquired property. 26 CFR 1.595–1

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.22 Persons claiming allowance for cost depletion of natural gas property without reference to discovery value or percentage depletion.

To keep accurate records of periodical pressure determinations where the annual production is not metered. 26 CFR 1.611–2

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.23 Persons claiming an allowance for depletion and depreciation of mineral property, oil and gas wells, and other natural deposits.

(a) General. To keep a separate account in which shall be accurately recorded the cost or other basis of such property together with subsequent allowable capital additions to each account and all other required adjustments; and, to assemble, segregate, and have readily available at his principal place of business, all the supporting data which is used in compiling certain summary statements required to be attached to returns.

(b) Mineral property. The information on which the summary statement is based and for which supporting data must be kept includes:

(1) An adequate map showing the name, description, location, date of surveys, and identification of the deposit or deposits;

(2) A description of the character of the taxpayer's property, accompanied by a copy of the instrument or instruments by which it was acquired;

(3) The date of acquisition of the property, the exact terms and dates of expiration of all leases involved, and if terminated, the reasons therefor;

(4) The cost of the mineral property and improvements, stating the amount paid to each vendor, with his name and address;

(5) The date as of which the mineral property and improvements are valued, if a valuation is necessary to establish the basis;

(6) The value of mineral property and improvements on that date with a statement of the precise method by which it was determined;

(7) An allocation of the cost or value among the mineral property, improvements and the surface of the land for purposes other than mineral production;

(8) The estimated number of units of each kind of mineral at the end of the taxable year, and also at the date of acquisition, if acquired during the taxable year or at the date as of which any valuation is made, together with an explanation of the method used in the estimation, the name and address of the person making the estimate, and an average analysis which will indicate the quality of the mineral valued, including the grade or gravity in the case of oil;

(9) The number of the units sold and the number of units for which payment was received or accrued during the year for which the return is made (in the case of newly developed oil and gas deposits it is desirable that this information be furnished by months);

(10) The gross amount received from the sale of mineral;

(11) The amount of depreciation for the taxable year and the amount of cost depletion for the taxable year;

(12) The amounts of depletion and depreciation, if any, stated separately, which for each and every prior year: (i) Were allowed, (ii) Were allowable, and (iii) Would have been allowable without reference to percentage or discovery depletion;

(13) The fractions (however measured) of gross production from the deposit or deposits to which the taxpayer and other persons are entitled together with the names and addresses of such other persons; and

(14) Any other data which will be helpful in determining the reasonableness of the valuation asserted or of the deductions claimed.

(c) Oil and gas properties. The following information with respect to each property is required in addition to that information set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b):

(1) The number of acres of producing oil or gas land and, if additional acreage is claimed to be proven, the amount of such acreage and the reasons for believing it to be proven;

(2) The number of wells producing at the beginning and end of the taxable year;

(3) The date of completion of each well finished during the taxable year;

(4) The date of abandonment of each well abandoned during the taxable year;

(5) Maps showing the location of the tracts or leases and of the producing and abandoned wells, dryholes, and proven oil and gas lands (maps should show depth, initial production, and date of completion of each well, etc., to the extent that these data are available);

(6) The number of pay sands and average thickness of each pay sand or zone;

(7) The average depth to the top of each of the different pay sands:

(8) The annual production of the deposit or of the individual wells, if the latter information is available, from the beginning of its productivity to the end of the taxable year, the average number of wells producing during each year, and the initial daily production of each well (the extent to which oil or gas is used for fuel on the premises should be stated with reasonable accuracy);

(9) All available data regarding change in operating conditions, such as unit operation, proration, flooding, use of air-gas lift, vacuum, shooting, and similar information, which have a direct effect on the production of the deposit; and

(10) Available geological information having a probable bearing on the oil and gas content; information with respect to edge water, water drive, bottom hole pressures, oil-gas ratio, porosity of reservoir rock, percentage of recovery, expected date of cessation of natural flow, decline in estimated potential, and characteristics similar to characteristics of other known fields.

(d) Statement to be attached to return when depletion is claimed on percentage basis. In addition to the requirements set forth in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c), a taxpayer who claims the percentage depletion deduction for any taxable year shall attach to his return for such year a statement setting forth in complete, summary form, with respect to each property for which such deduction is allowable, the following information:

(1) All data necessary for the determination of the "gross income from the property," as defined in 26 CFR 1.613–3, including, (i) Amounts paid as rents or royalties including amounts which the recipient treats under section 631(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, (ii) Proportion and amount of bonus excluded, and (iii) Amounts paid to holders of other interests in the mineral deposit;

(2) All additional data necessary for the determination of the "taxable income from the property computed without the allowance for depletion," as defined in 26 CFR 1.614–5. 26 CFR 1.611–2, 1.613–6

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.23a Mineral property, taxable income computation, allocation of section 1245 gain.

Taxpayer shall have available permanent records of all the facts necessary to determine with reasonable accuracy the portion of any gain recognized under section 1245(a)(1) of the Code which is properly allocable to the mineral property in respect of which the taxable income is being computed. In the absence of such records, none of the gain recognized under section 1245(a)(1) shall be allocable to such mineral property. 26 CFR 1.613–5

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.23b Persons computing gross incomes from mining by use of representative market or field price.

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.36 Stock or security holders records of distribution pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956.

Each stock or security holder who receives stock or securities or other property upon a distribution made by a qualified bank holding corporation under section 1101 of the Internal Revenue Code shall maintain records of all facts pertinent to the nonrecognition of gain upon such distribution. 26 CFR 1.1101–4

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.36a Gain upon sale or exchange of obligations issued at an original issue discount after December 31, 1954.

Taxpayer shall keep a record of the issue price and issue date upon or with each such obligation (if known or reasonably ascertainable by him). If the obligation held is an obligation of the United States received from the United States in an exchange upon which gain or loss is not recognized because of section 1037(a) of the Code (or so much of section 1031 (b) or (c) as relates to section 1037(a)), the taxpayer shall keep sufficient records to determine the issue price of such obligations for purposes of applying section 1.1037–1 of the regulations upon the disposition or redemption of such obligations. 26 CFR 1.1232–3(f)

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.37 Persons engaged in arbitrage operations in stock and securities.

To keep records that will clearly show that a transaction has been timely and properly identified as an arbitrage operation. Such identification must ordinarily be entered in the taxpayer's records on the day of the transaction. 26 CFR 1.1233–1

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.37a Grantors of straddles.

In the case of a multiple option where the number of options to sell and the number of options to buy are not the same or if the terms of all the options are not identical, the grantor must indicate in his records the individual serial number of, or other characteristic symbol imprinted upon, each of the two individual options which comprise the straddle, or by adopting any other method of identification satisfactory to the Commissioner. Such identification must be made before the expiration of the fifteenth day after the day on which the multiple option is granted and is applicable to multiple options granted after January 24, 1972, 26 CFR 1.1234–2

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.38 Record retention requirements for corporations and shareholders with respect to the substantiation of ordinary loss deductions on small business corporation stock.

(a) Corporations. The plan to issue stock which qualifies under section 1244 of the Internal Revenue Code must appear upon the records of the corporation. In addition, in order to substantiate an ordinary loss deduction claimed by its shareholders, the corporation should maintain records showing the following:

(1) The persons to whom stock was issued pursuant to the plan, the date of issuance to each, and a description of the amount and type of consideration received from each;

(2) If the consideration received is property, the basis in the hands of the shareholders and the fair market value of such property when received by the corporation;

(3) Which certificates represent stock issued pursuant to the plan;

(4) The amount of money and the basis in the hands of the corporation of other property received after June 30, 1958, and before the adoption of the plan for its stock, as a contribution to capital and as paid-in surplus;

(5) The equity capital of the corporation on the date of adoption of the plan; and

(6) Information relating to any tax-free stock dividend made with respect to stock issued pursuant to the plan and any reorganization in which stock is transferred by the corporation in exchange for stock issued pursuant to the plan.

(b) Shareholders. Any person who claims a deduction for an ordinary loss on stock under section 1244 of the Code shall file with his income tax return for the year in which a deduction for the loss is claimed a statement setting forth:

(1) The address of the corporation that issued the stock;

(2) The manner in which the stock was acquired by such person and the nature and amount of the consideration paid; and

(3) If the stock was acquired in a nontaxable transaction in exchange for property other than money—the type of property, its fair market value on the date of transfer to the corporation, and its adjusted basis on such date.

In addition, a person who owns "section 1244 stock" in a corporation shall maintain records sufficient to distinguish such stock from any other stock he may own in the corporation. 26 CFR 1.1244(e)–1

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.38a Foreign investment companies.

To maintain and preserve such permanent books of account, records, and other documents as are sufficient to establish what its taxable income would be if it were a domestic corporation. Generally, if the books and records are maintained in the manner prescribed by regulations under section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, the requirements shall be considered satisfied. 26 CFR 1.1247–5

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.38b Recomputed basis of section 1245 property and additional depreciation adjustments to section 1250 property when such property is sold, exchanged, transferred, or involuntarily converted.

To maintain permanent records which include (1) the date and manner in which the property was acquired, (2) the basis on the date the property was acquired and the manner in which the basis was determined, (3) the amount and date of all adjustments to basis, and (4) similar information with respect to other property having an adjusted basis reflecting depreciation or amortization adjustments by the taxpayer, or by another taxpayer on the same or other property. 26 CFR 1.1245–2, 1.1250–2

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.39 Persons involved in the liquidation and replacement of lifo inventories.

To keep detailed records such as will enable the Commissioner, in his examination of the taxpayer's return for the year of replacement, readily to verify the extent of the inventory decrease claimed to be involuntary in character and the facts upon which such claim is based, all subsequent inventory increases and decreases, and all other facts material to the replacement adjustment authorized. 26 CFR 1.1321–1, 1.1321–2

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.40 Unincorporated business enterprise electing to be taxed as a domestic corporation.

(a) General. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b), any unincorporated business enterprise electing to be taxed as a domestic corporation under section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code is required to keep records, render statements, and make returns in the same manner as a domestic corporation.

(b) Other records. The following other records shall be maintained by a "section 1361 corporation:"

(1) Separate records shall be maintained for payments to owners of a "section 1361 corporation" in order that a determination may be made as to whether such payments are compensation for personal services to which section 1361(j) of the Internal Revenue Code applies, or are distributions which may be treated either as corporate distributions or as distributions of personal holding company income.

(2) In the case of a partnership, separate capital accounts shall be maintained for each partner. Such accounts shall set forth the original capital contribution, adjustments thereto (for example, because of an owner's share of undistributed personal holding company income), and any other information necessary to establish each partner's interest in the "section 1361 corporation."

(3) A "section 1361 corporation" shall maintain records of all transfers of interests by its owners made at any time during the period the election under section 1361 applies, showing the names of the transferor and the transferee, the relationship between them, and the interest transferred.

(4) The records of a "section 1361 corporation" shall be maintained in such a manner that assets, liabilities, income, and expenses of the "section 1361 corporation" are shown separately and distinctly from assets, liabilities, income, and expenses of the owners which do not relate to the enterprise. Moreover, separate records shall be maintained for personal holding income and deductions attributable thereto.

(5) A "section 1361 corporation" shall maintain an earnings and profits account which shall be computed in accordance with the rules applicable generally to domestic corporations, except that the receipt and distribution of personal holding company income (and expenses attributable thereto) shall not be taken into account in determining the amount of earnings and profits for the taxable year or accumulated earnings and profits. 26 CFR 1.1361–10, 1.1361–14

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.41 Records by small business corporations of (1) distributions of previously taxed income and (2) undistributed taxable income.

A small business corporation must keep records of (1) distributions of the net share of the previously taxed income of each shareholder and (2) each person's share of undistributed taxable income. In addition, each shareholder of such corporation shall keep a record of his own net share of previously taxed income and undistributed taxable income and shall make such record available to the corporation for its information. 26 CFR 1.1375–4; 1.1375–6

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.41a Persons required to withhold tax on nonresident aliens, foreign corporations, and tax-free covenant bonds on payments of income made on and after January 1, 1957.

To keep copies of Forms 1042 and 1042S. 26 CFR 1.1461–2

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.41b Affiliated group; (1) intercompany transactions, accounting for deferred gain or loss, and (2) allocation of Federal income tax liability.

(1) Maintain permanent records (including work papers) which will properly reflect the amount of deferred gain or loss and enable the group to identify the character and source of the deferred gain or loss to the selling member and apply the applicable restoration rules. (2) If an affiliated group elects to use the method of allocating Federal income tax liability provided in section 1.1502–33(d)(2)(i) of the regulations, it must maintain specific records to substantiate the tax liability of each member on a separate return basis for purposes of paragraphs (a)(1) and (b)(1) of such subdivision (i). In addition, allocations of tax liability may be made in accordance with any other method approved by the Commissioner, but a condition of such approval shall be that the group maintain specific records to substantiate its computations pursuant to such method. 26 CFR 1.1502–13(c)(5), 1.1502–33, 1.1552–1

4.41c Withholding agents making payment to nonresident aliens, foreign partnerships, or foreign corporations after December 31, 1971, which are subject to a reduced rate or an exemption from tax pursuant to a tax treaty.

To maintain Form 1001, Ownership, Exemption, or Reduced Rate Certificate.

Retention period: Coupon bond interest at least 4 years after the close of the calendar year in which the interest is paid; Income other than coupon bond interest or dividends at least 4 years after the close of the calendar year in which the interest is paid; Noncoupon bond interest at least 4 years after the interest is paid. 26 CFR 1.1441–6, 1.1461–1

4.42 Tax-exempt organizations.

(a) General. To keep records and books of account pertaining to information included in the annual return, including items of gross income, receipts, disbursements, and contributions and gifts received, and to keep other pertinent information which will enable the district director to inquire into the organization's exempt status. An organization claiming an exception from the filing of an information return must maintain adequate records to substantiate such claim. 26 CFR 1.6001–1, 1.6033–1, 1.6033–2

(b) Employees' trusts. To keep as a part of its records for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1969, and ending before December 31, 1971, written notification, or a copy thereof, from an employer to the trustee that the employer has or will timely file the information required under section 404 of the Internal Revenue Code. 26 CFR 1.6033–2

(c) Group returns. The central organization shall retain the certified statements of those local organizations authorizing their inclusion in a group return. 26 CFR 1.6033–1, 1.6033–2

Retention period; (a) and (b) See Item 4.1; (c), for taxable years prior to January 1, 1970, permanent; for taxable years after December 31, 1969, until the expiration of 6 years after the last taxable year for which a group return includes the local organization.

4.42a Banking institutions, trust companies, or brokerage firms, who elect to file Form 1087, Nominee's Information Return, for each actual owner for whom it acts as nominee.

Must maintain such records as will permit a prompt substantiation of each payments of dividends made to the actual owner. 26 CFR 1.6042–1

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.42b Any trustee, insurance company, or other person, which is notified under section 6047(b) of the Code that contributions to a trust or under a retirement plan have been made on behalf of an owner-employee.

Shall maintain a record of such notification.

Retention period: Until all funds of the trust or under the plan on behalf of the owner-employee have been distributed. 26 CFR 1.6047–1

4.42c Persons making payments of estimated tax installments in foreign currency.

Maintain a copy of the statement certified by the foundation, commission, or other person having control of the payments to the taxpayer in nonconvertible foreign currency which are expected to be received during the taxable year for the purpose of exhibiting it to the disbursing officer when making installment deposits of foreign currency. 26 CFR 301.6316–6

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.43 Persons engaged in construction of aircraft for the Army and the Air Force.

To keep books, records, and original evidences of costs pertinent to the determination of the true profit, excess profit, deficiency in profit, or net loss from the performance of a contract or subcontract.

Retention period: So long as the contents thereof may become material in the administration of the act of March 27, 1934, as amended. 26 CFR 16.13 (see 26 CFR 1.1471–1)

V 39156 MAR 21 74 XUM

4.44 Persons engaged in construction of naval vessels or aircraft for the Navy.

To keep books, records, and original evidences of costs pertinent to the determination of the true profit, excess profit, deficiency in profit, or net loss from the performance of a contract or subcontract.

Retention period: So long as the contents thereof may become material in the administration of the act of March 27, 1934, as amended. 26 CFR 17.14 (see 26 CFR 1.1471–1)

4.44a Domestic building and loan associations.

To maintain adequate records to establish to the satisfaction of the district director that various assets tests are met for taxable years beginning after October 16, 1962, and ending before November 1, 1964. 26 CFR 301.7701–13

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

4.44b Organizations seeking classification as private nonoperating foundations.

To maintain adequate records substantiating that all contributions received in taxable years ending in either 1970 or 1971 were distributed not later than the 15th day of the third month after the close of the taxable year or by the 30th day after final regulations under section 170(b)(1)(E)(ii) are published in the Federal Register, whichever is later. 26 CFR 13.15

Retention period: See Item 4.1.

ESTATE TAX

4.45 Executors of estates.

To keep detailed records of the affairs of the estate as will enable the district director to determine the amount of the estate tax liability, including copies of documents relating to the estate, appraisal lists of items included in the gross estate, copies of balance sheets or other financial statements relating to value of stock, and any other information necessary in determining the tax.

Retention period: Not specified. 26 CFR 20.6001–1

GIFT TAX

4.46 Persons making transfers of property by gift.

To maintain books of account or records as are necessary to establish the amount of the total gifts together with the deductions allowable in determining the amount of taxable gifts, and other information required to be shown in their gift tax returns.

Retention period: Permanent. 26 CFR 25.6001–1

EMPLOYMENT TAX

4.47 General record retention requirements for employment taxes.

(a) Form of records. Records shall be kept accurately, but no particular form is required. Such forms and systems of accounting shall be used as will enable the district director to ascertain whether liability for tax is incurred and, if so, the amount thereof.

(b) Copies of returns, schedules, and statements. Every person who is required to keep any copy of any return, schedule, statement, or other document, shall keep such copy as a part of his records.

(c) Records of claimants. Any person (including an employee) who claims a refund, credit, or abatement, shall keep a complete and detailed record with respect to the tax, interest, addition to the tax, additional amount, or assessable penalty to which the claim relates. Such record shall include any records required of the claimant by paragraph (b) of this section which relate to the claim.

(d) Records of employees. While not mandatory (except in the case of claims), it is advisable for each employee to keep permanent, accurate records showing the name and address of each employer for whom he performs services as an employee, the dates of beginning and termination of such services, the information with respect to himself which is required to be kept by employers, and all receipts furnished by employers.

(e) Place for keeping records. All records required shall be kept, by the person required to keep them, at one or more convenient and safe locations accessible to internal revenue officers, and shall at all times be available for inspection by such officers.

Retention period: 4 years after the due date of such tax for the return period to which the records relate, or the date such tax is paid, whichever is the later. The records of claimants required by paragraph (c) shall be maintained for a period of at least 4 years after the date the claim is filed. 26 CFR 31.6001–1

4.48 Vow-of-poverty religious orders electing social security coverage for its members. [Added]

To maintain records of the details relating to the retirement of each of its members.

Retention period: Not specified. 26 CFR 31.3121(r)–1

4.49 Employers required to deduct and withhold income tax on wages which include sick pay.

To keep records with respect to payments (sick pay) made directly by the employer to his employees after December 31, 1955, under a wage continuation plan showing, with respect to each employee, the beginning and ending dates of each period of absence from work for which any such payment was made, and sufficient information to establish the amount and weekly rate of each such payment; and, to the extent that income tax is not withheld on the amount of any such payment excludable from the gross income of the employee, the amount of the payment and the excludable portion thereof, and data substantiating the employee's entitlement to the exclusion from gross income.

Retention period: So long as the contents thereof may become material in the administration of any internal revenue law. 26 CFR 31.3401(a)–1, 31.6001–5 (retention: 1.6001–1)

4.50 Employers liable for tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act.

(a) General. (1) To keep records of all remuneration, whether in cash or in a medium other than cash, paid to his employees after 1954 for services (other than agricultural labor which constitutes or is deemed to constitute employment, domestic service in a private home of the employer, or service not in the course of the employer's trade or business) performed for him after 1936; and records of all remuneration in the form of tips received by employees after 1965 and reported to him. Records shall show with respect to each employee receiving such remuneration:

(i) The name, address, and account number of the employee and such additional information with respect to the employee as is required when the employee does not advise the employer what his account number and name are as shown on an account number card issued to the employee by the Social Security Administration.

(ii) The total amount and date of each payment of remuneration (including any sum withheld therefrom as tax or for any other reason) and the period of services covered by such payment.

(iii) The amount of each such remuneration payment which constitutes wages subject to tax.

(iv) The amount of employee tax, or any amount equivalent to employee tax, collected with respect to such payment, and, if collected at a time other than the time such payment was made, the date collected.

(v) If the total remuneration payment and the amount thereof which is taxable are not equal, the reason therefor.

(2) Every employer shall keep records of the details of each adjustment or settlement of taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act and a copy of each statement furnished.

(3) Every employer shall keep employee statements of tips furnished him (unless the information disclosed by such statements is recorded on another document retained by the employer) and copies of employer statements furnished employees.

(b) Agricultural labor, domestic service, and service not in the course of employer's trade or business. (1) Every employer who pays cash remuneration after 1954 for the performance for him after 1950 of agricultural labor which constitutes or is deemed to constitute employment, of domestic service in a private home of the employer not on a farm operated for profit, or of service not in the course of his trade or business shall keep records of all such cash remuneration with respect to which he incurs, or expects to incur, liability for the taxes imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, or with respect to which amounts equivalent to employee tax are deducted. Such records shall show with respect to each employee receiving such cash remuneration:

(i) The name of the employee.

(ii) The account number of each employee to whom wages for such services are paid and such additional information as is required when the employee does not advise the employer what his account number and name are as shown on the account number card issued to the employee by the Social Security Administration.

(iii) The amount of such cash remuneration paid to the employee (including any sum withheld therefrom as tax or for any other reason) for agricultural labor which constitutes or is deemed to constitute employment, for domestic service in a private home of the employer not on a farm operated for profit, or for service not in the course of the employer's trade or business; the calendar month in which such cash remuneration was paid; and the character of the services for which such cash remuneration was paid. When the employer incurs liability for the taxes imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act with respect to any such cash remuneration which he did not previously expect would be subject to the taxes, the amounts of any cash remuneration not previously made a matter of record shall be determined by the employer to the best of his knowledge and belief.

(iv) The amount of employee tax, or any amount equivalent to employee tax, collected with respect to such cash remuneration and the calendar month in which collected.

(v) To the extent material to a determination of tax liability, the number of days during each calendar year after 1956 on which agricultural labor which constitutes or is deemed to constitute employment is performed by the employee for cash remuneration computed on a time basis.

(2) Every person to whom a "crew leader" furnishes individuals for the performance of agricultural labor after December 31, 1958, shall keep records of the name; permanent mailing address, or if none, present address; and identification number, if any, of such "crew leader."

Retention period: 4 years after the due date of such tax for the return period to which the records relate, or the date such tax is paid, whichever is the later. 26 CFR 31.6001–2 (retention: 31.6001–1)

4.51 Persons subject to the Railroad Retirement Tax Act.

(a) Records of employers. (1) To keep records of all remuneration (whether in money or in something which may be used in lieu of money) other than tips, paid to his employees after 1954 for services rendered to him (including "time lost") after 1954. Such records shall show with respect to each employee:

(i) The name and address of the employee.

(ii) The total amount and date of each payment of remuneration to the employee (including any sum withheld therefrom as tax or for any other reason) and the period of service (including any period of absence from active service) covered by such payment.

(iii) The amount of such remuneration payment with respect to which the tax is imposed.

(iv) The amount of employee tax collected with respect to such payment, and, if collected at a time other than the time such payment was made, the date collected.

(v) If the total payment of remuneration and the amount thereof with respect to which the tax is imposed are not equal, the reason therefor.

(2) The employer shall keep records of the details of each adjustment or settlement of taxes under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act.

(b) Records of employee representatives. Every individual liable for employee representative tax under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act shall keep records of all remuneration (whether in money or in something which may be used in lieu of money) paid to him after 1954 for services rendered (including "time lost") by him as an employee representative after 1954. Such record shall show:

(1) The name and address of each employee organization employing him.

(2) The total amount and date of each payment of remuneration for services rendered as an employee representative (including any sum withheld therefrom as tax or for any other reason) and the period of service, including any period of absence from active service, covered by such payment.

(3) The amount of such remuneration payment with respect to which the employee representative tax is imposed.

(4) If the total payment of remuneration and the amount thereof with respect to which the employee representative tax is imposed are not equal, the reason therefor.

Retention period: 4 years after the due date of such tax for the return period to which the records relate, or the date such tax is paid, whichever is the later. 26 CFR 31.6001–3 (retention: 31.6000–1)

4.52 Employers subject to tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act.

(a) Records of employers. To keep such records as are necessary to establish:

(1) The total amount of remuneration (including any sum withheld therefrom as tax or for any other reason) paid to his employees during the calendar year for services performed after 1938.

(2) The amount of such remuneration which constitutes wages subject to the tax.

(3) The amount of contributions paid by him into each State unemployment fund, with respect to services subject to the law of such State, showing separately (i) payments made and neither deducted nor to be deducted from the remuneration of his employees, and (ii) payments made and deducted or to be deducted from the remuneration of his employees.

(4) The information required to be shown on the prescribed return and the extent to which the employer is liable for the tax.

(5) If the total remuneration paid and the amount thereof which is subject to the tax are not equal, the reason therefor.

(6) To the extent material to the determination of a tax liability, the dates, in each calendar quarter, on which each employee performed services not in the course of the employer's trade or business, and the amount of cash remuneration paid at any time for such services performed within such quarter.

The term "remuneration," as used in this paragraph, includes all payments whether in cash or in a medium other than cash, except that the term does not include payments in a medium other than cash for services not in the course of the employer's trade or business.

(b) Records of persons who are not employers. Any person who employs individuals in employment during any calendar year but who considers that he is not an employer subject to the tax shall, with respect to each such year, be prepared to establish by proper records (including, where necessary, records of the number of employees employed each day) that he is not an employer subject to the tax.

Retention period: 4 years after the due date of such tax for the return period to which the records relate, or the date such tax is paid, whichever is the later. 26 CFR 31.6001–4 (retention: 31.6001–1)

4.53 Employers required to deduct and withhold income tax on wages paid.

(a) Every employer required to deduct and withhold income tax upon the wages of employees shall keep records of all remuneration paid to such employees and tips received by employees and reported to him. Such records shall show with respect to each employee:

(1) The name and address of the employee and, after December 31, 1962, the account number of the employee.

(2) The total amount and date of each payment of remuneration (including any sum withheld therefrom as tax or for any other reason) and the period of services covered by such payment.

(3) The amount of such remuneration payment which constitutes wages subject to withholding.

(4) The amount of tax collected with respect to such remuneration payment and, if collected at a time other than the time such payment was made, the date collected.

(5) If the total remuneration payment and the amount thereof which is taxable are not equal, the reason therefor.

(6) Copies of any statements furnished by the employee relating to permanent residents of the Virgin Islands. (See 26 CFR 31.3401(a)–1(b)(12).)

(7) Copies of any statements furnished by the employee relating to nonresident alien individuals. (See 26 CFR 31.3401(a)(6)–1 and 31.3401(a)(7)–1.)

(8) Copies of any statements furnished by the employee relating to residence or physical presence in a foreign country. (See 26 CFR 31.3401(a)(8)(A)-1.)

(9) Copies of any statements furnished by the employee relating to citizens resident in Puerto Rico. (See 26 CFR 31.3401(a)(8)(C)-1.)

(10) The fair market value and date of each payment of noncash remuneration, made to an employee after August 9, 1955, for services performed as a retail commission salesman, with respect to which no income tax is withheld.

(11) With respect to payments made in 1955 under a wage continuation plan, the records required to be kept in respect of such payments must (i) separately show the amounts of such payments, and distinguish such amounts from all other payments, and (ii) establish the facts necessary to show that the employee is entitled to the exclusion, either by means of a written statement from the employee as to the injury, illness, or hospitalization, or by any other information which the employer believes to be accurate and which he is willing to accept. (See 26 CFR 31.3401(a)-1(b)(8)(i).)

(12) With respect to payments made directly by an employer after December 31, 1955, under a wage continuation plan, the records must show (i) the beginning and ending dates of each period of absence from work for which any such payment was made; and (ii) sufficient information to establish the amount and weekly rate of each such payment.

(13) The withholding exemption certificates (Forms W-4 and W-4E) filed with the employer by the employee.

(14) The agreement, if any, between the employer and the employee for the withholding of additional amounts of tax. (See 26 CFR 31.3402(i)-1.)

(15) To the extent material to a determination of tax liability, the dates, in each calendar quarter, on which the employee performed services not in the course of the employer's trade or business, and the amount of cash remuneration paid at any time for such services performed within such quarter. (See 26 CFR 31.3401(a)(4)-1.)

(16) Every employer shall keep employee statements of tips furnished him (unless the information disclosed by such statements is recorded on another document retained by the employer) and copies of employer statements furnished employees. (See 26 CFR 31.3401(a)(11)-1, 31.3401(a)(16)-1.)

(17) The employer shall keep records of the details of each adjustment or settlement of income tax withheld. (See 26 CFR 31.3402.)

(18) The written request of an employee to have the amount of tax withheld from his wages computed on the basis of his cumulative wages, and any notice of revocation thereof. (See 26 CFR 31.6001-5)

Retention period: 4 years after the due date of such tax for the return period to which the records relate, or the date such tax is paid, whichever is later. 26 CFR 31.6001-5 (retention: 31.6001-1)

4.54 Employers claiming a refund, credit, or abatement of tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act or Railroad Retirement Tax Act.

Every employer who has filed a claim for refund, credit, or abatement of employee tax under section 3101 or section 3201 of the Internal Revenue Code, or a corresponding provision of prior law, collected from an employee shall retain as part of his records the written receipt of the employee showing the date and amount of the repayment, or the written consent of the employee, whichever is used in support of the claim. Where employee tax was collected under section 3101 of the Code, or a corresponding provision of prior law, from an employee in a calendar year prior to the year in which the credit or refund is claimed, the employer shall also retain as part of his records a written statement from the employee (a) that the employee has not claimed refund or credit of the amount of the overcollection, or if so, such claim has been rejected, and (b) that the employee will not claim refund or credit of such amount.

To keep an accurate record of the amount paid for acquiring the bridge and its approaches, the actual expenditures for maintaining, repairing, and operating same, and of the daily tolls collected.
Retention period: Not specified. 33 U.S.C. 529

3. United States Coast Guard

3.1 Certificates or documents issued to the public by Coast Guard.

To maintain certificates or documents, as required by laws, rules, or regulations, for the applicable period of time.
Retention period: If the certificate or document (a) specifies a definite period of time for which it is valid, it shall be retained for so long as it is valid unless it is required to be surrendered; (b) does not specify a definite period of time for which it is valid, it shall be retained for that period of time such certificate or document is required for operation of the vessel; or, (c) is evidence of a person's qualifications, it shall be retained for so long as it is valid unless it is required to be surrendered. 46 CFR 2.95–1

3.2 Owners, masters or persons in charge of vessels required to have cargo gear certificates and/or registers, and records regarding such gear.

To keep on board the current, valid cargo gear certificate and/or register, and records regarding such gear, such as inspections and tests or examinations, original or certified copies of certificates of manufacturers and/or testing laboratories, companies, or organizations for loose cargo gear, wire rope, or the annealing of gear, and records of all tests and examinations conducted by or under the supervision of surveyors of organizations or associations approved by the Commandant.
Retention period: The cargo gear certificate and/or register shall be retained for so long as it is valid unless it is required to be surrendered, and in addition until the next Coast Guard inspection for certification of the vessel. The certificates of manufacturers and/or testing laboratories, companies, or organizations shall be maintained so long as the gear described in such certificates is on board the vessel. The records of inspections by ship's officers shall be maintained on the vessel for that period of time which agrees with the period covered by the current Coast Guard certificate of inspection issued to the vessel. 46 CFR 31.10–16, 31.37–75, 71.25–25, 71.47–75, 91.25–25, 91.37–75 (retention: 2.95–5)

3.3 Owners, masters, or persons in charge of vessels required to have performed tests and inspections of all firefighting equipment.

To keep on board records of required tests and inspections of all firefighting equipment.
Retention period: For the period of validity of the current Coast Guard certificate of inspection for the vessel. 46 CFR 31.10–18, 78.17–80, 97.15–60, 196.15–60

3.4 Owners, masters or persons in charge of new vessels having cargo gear described in approved plans.

To keep on board a set of approved plans of cargo gear showing a stress diagram with the principal details of the gear and a diagram showing arrangement and safe working loads.
Retention period: During period such cargo gear is on board vessel. 46 CFR 31.37–15, 31.37–20, 31.37–23, 71.47–15, 71.47–20, 71.47–23, 91.37–15, 91.37–20, 91.37–23 (retention: 31.37–75, 71.47–75, 91.37–75)

3.5 Masters of tank vessels or vessels towing tank barges transporting flammable or combustible cargo.

To keep on board a bill of lading manifest or shipping document giving name of consignee and the delivery point, the kind, grades, and approximate quantity of each kind and grade of cargo, and for whose account the cargo is being handled.
Retention period: Not specified. 46 CFR 35.01–10

3.6 Masters or persons in charge of vessels required to conduct fire and lifeboat drills.

To make entries in the ship's logs relating to the fire and lifeboat drills and examinations of emergency equipment.
Retention period: Until official log book is required to be surrendered to the Coast Guard, or for a vessel not required to use the official log book such logs shall be kept for a period of one year after date entries were made. 46 CFR 35.10–5, 78.17–50, 97.15–35, 167.65–1, 196.15–35

3.7 Owners, agents, masters, or persons in charge of vessels involved in marine casualties. [Amended]

To keep such voyage records of the vessel as are maintained by the vessel, such as both rough and smooth deck and engineroom logs, bell books, navigation charts, navigation work books, compass deviation cards, gyro compass records, stowage plans, records of draft aids to mariners, radiograms sent and received, the radio logs, crew and passenger lists, articles of shipment, official logs, and other material which might be of assistance in investigating and determining the cause of the casualty.
Retention period: Until notification of completion of investigation is received from Coast Guard. 46 CFR 35.15–1, 78.07–15, 97.07–15, 136.05–15, 167.65–65, 196.07–15

3.8 Masters or senior deck officer of tank ships in charge of transfer of flammable and combustible cargo. [Amended]

To keep on board copy of Declaration of Inspection Prior to Bulk Cargo Transfer.
Retention period: 1 month. 33 CFR 156.150 (e) and (f)

3.9 Manufacturers or contractors responsible for welding procedures.

To maintain records of test results obtained in welding procedure, welder's performance qualifications, and identification data.
Retention period: Not specified. 46 CFR 57.02–3

V 39 156 MAR 21 74 XUM

3.10 Owners, masters, or persons in charge of nuclear vessels required to have "Operating Manuals."

To keep on board a copy of the approved "Operating Manual," which shall be kept up to date.

Retention period: At all times vessel has a nuclear reactor on board. 46 CFR 99.20–1 3.11 Owners, operators, and masters of vessels.

To maintain (a) official logbooks or (b) for those not required to have such a logbook, logs and records as prescribed by regulations.

Retention period: (a) Until filed with Officer in Charge, Maritime Inspection; (b) other, 1 year. 46 CFR 35.07–5, 35.07–10, 78.37–3, 78.37–5, 97.35–3, 97.35–5

3.12–3.14 [Reserved]

3.15 Masters of vessels storing explosives for a period exceeding 24 hours (other than barges, magazine vessels, and oceanographic vessels).

To keep records of temperature readings.

Retention period: 1 year for vessels. 46 CFR 146.02–12

3.16 Owners, persons, or corporations chartering or contracting the use of vessels shipping explosives or other dangerous articles.

To keep shipping orders, manifests, or other shipping documents, cargo lists, cargo stowage plans, reports, papers, and records as required to be prepared, unless persons or corporations charter or engage or contract for the use of these vessels under such terms and conditions that they have full and exclusive control of the management and operation of such vessels.

Retention period: 1 year. 46 CFR 146.02–22

3.17–3.18 [Reserved]

3.19 Owners, operators, charterers, agents, or masters of vessels.

To keep memoranda describing the shipments of explosives or other dangerous articles or substances, and combustible liquids being transported, conveyed or stored on board vessels.

Retention period: 1 year. 46 CFR 146.05–12, 146.05–13

3.20 Masters of vessels transporting or storing explosives or other dangerous articles or substances, and combustible liquids, as cargo.

To keep on board dangerous cargo manifests or lists.

Retention period: During the period of transportation or storage. 46 CFR 146.06–12, 151.45–7

3.21 Owners, charterers, or agents of vessels transporting or storing explosives or other dangerous articles or substances, and combustible liquids, as cargo.

To keep ashore copies of dangerous cargo manifests or lists.

Retention period: 1 year. 46 CFR 146.06–12 (retention: 146.02–22)

3.22 [Reserved]

3.23 Manufacturers of equipment or material which must be approved or found satisfactory for use.

To keep the required drawings, plans, blueprints, specifications, production models (if any), qualification tests, and related correspondence containing evidence that the Coast Guard has found such equipment satisfactory, during the period of time the approval or listing is valid.

Retention period: Not specified. Most of the specifications containing detailed descriptions of records to be retained are contained in 46 CFR Parts 160—164.

3.24 Each voluntary association holding a Certification of Authorization under the Great Lakes Pilotage Uniform Accounting System.

To keep all books, records and memoranda and file them in such a manner to readily permit the audit and examination thereof by representatives of the U.S. Coast Guard. Also, the records must be housed or stored in such a manner as to afford protection from loss, theft or damage by fire, flood or otherwise.

Retention period: 10 years unless otherwise authorized by the Commandant. 46 CFR Part 403

3.25 Masters or operators of vessels subject to Oil Pollution Act of 1961, as amended. [Amended]

To keep on board an Oil Record Book as prescribed by 33 CFR 151.35.

Retention period: As specified in 33 CFR 151.35(h)

3.26 Owners, operators, and/or masters of oceanographic vessels.

(a) To keep official logbook, or (b) for vessels not required to have such a logbook, to keep their own logs or records as prescribed by regulations.

Retention period: (a) 1 year or for period of validity of vessel's current certificate of inspection, whichever is longer; (b) 1 year, except for separate records of tests and inspections of firefighting equipment, which shall be maintained for the period of validity of the vessel's certificate of inspection. 46 CFR 196.35–3, 196.35–5

3.27 Masters of ships subject to International Convention on Load Lines, 1966.

To enter in the ships logs, before departure from loading port, the data required by section 9(b) of the load line acts, including statements of load line marks applicable to the voyage, position of load line marks, and actual drafts of the vessel.

Retention period: Until official logbook is surrendered to Coast Guard, or 1 year for ships not required to use official logbook. 46 CFR 42.07–20

3.28 Manufacturers of marine sanitation devices.

To maintain records required to determine compliance with the act.

Retention period: Not specified. 33 U.S.C. 1163

3.29 Nonprofit firms or associations designated to certify containers for international transport under Customs seal.

To maintain copy of each Certificate of Approval by design type issued, together with copy of plans and applications to which approval refers, and records of manufacturer's serial number assigned to containers manufactured under each approval.

Retention period: Not specified. 49 CFR 421.30

3.30 Operators of oil transfer facilities. [Amended]

To maintain (a) letter of intent, name of person in charge of transfer, operations, equipment, tests and inspections, hose, information, facility inspection record, and (b) signed copy of each declaration of inspection for facility.

Retention period: (a) Not specified; (b) 1 month from date of signature. 33 CFR 154.740, 156.150

3.31 Owners and operators of vessels engaged in oil-transfer operations. [Amended]

To maintain (a) name of person in charge of transfer operations, date and results of tests, hose information, and valve inspection data; and (b) signed copy of each declaration of inspection for such vessel-to-vessel transfer.

Retention period: (a) Not specified; (b) 1 month from date of signature. 33 CFR 155.820, 156.150

4. Federal Railroad Administration

4.1 Railroad companies.

To keep records as listed in the sections or part cited.

Retention period: Various. 49 CFR 213.241, 228.9, Part 1220

4.2 Electric railway companies.

To keep records as listed in the part cited.

Retention period: Various. 49 CFR Part 1221

4.3 [Reserved]

4.4 Express companies.

To keep records as listed in the part cited.

Retention period: Various. 49 CFR Part 1223

4.5 [Deleted]

5. National Transportation Safety Board

5.1 Operators of aircraft (involved in an accident or incident).

To preserve to the extent possible all records, including tapes of flight recorders and voice recorders, pertaining to the operation and maintenance of the aircraft and to the airmen involved in an accident or incident for which notification must be given to the Board.

Retention period: Until the Board takes custody thereof or a release is granted by an authorized representative of the Board. 14 CFR 430.10

5.2 Operators of aircraft involved in an accident or incident.

To retain all records and reports, including all internal documents and memoranda dealing with the accident or incident.

Retention period: Until authorized by the Board to the contrary. 14 CFR 430.10

6. Office of the Secretary

Pipeline Safety

6.1 Welders of steel materials to be used in pipelines.

To keep records of welding procedures that have been qualified under either section IX of the ASME Boiler and Pressure Vessel Code or section 2 of API Standard 1104.

Retention period: As long as procedure is used. 49 CFR 192.225(c)

6.2 Operators of natural gas pipelines.

Records must be retained showing by milepost, engineering station, or by geographic feature, the number of girth welds made, the number nondestructively tested, the number rejected and the disposition of the rejects whenever nondestructive testing is required under 192.241(b).

Retention period: Life of the pipeline. 49 CFR 192.243(f)

6.3 Operators of natural gas pipelines.

To keep records of safety tests required with names of those involved, methods used, and results of the tests.

Retention period: Duration of pipeline's use. 49 CFR 192.517

6.4 Operators of natural gas pipelines.

To retain records of each segment of pipeline that has been uprated showing each investigation required by the subpart, all work performed and each pressure test conducted in connection with the uprating.

Retention period: Life of the segment of pipeline. 49 CFR 192.553(b)

6.5 Operators of natural gas pipelines.

To keep records necessary to administer the operating and maintenance plan established for each segment of pipeline.

Retention period: Not specified. 49 CFR 192.603(b)

6.6 Operators of natural gas transmission lines.

To keep records governing each leak discovered, repair made, transmission line break, leakage survey, line patrol and inspection.

Retention period: As long as the segment of transmission line involved remains in service. 49 CFR 192.709

6.7 Operators of liquid pipelines.

To retain records of the nondestructive testing of welds, including (if radiography is used) the developed film, with so far as practicable, the location of the weld.

Retention period: 3 years following the placement of the line in operation. 49 CFR 195.234(g)

6.8 Operators of liquid pipelines.

To maintain records showing the total number of girth welds and the number nondestructively tested, including the number rejected and the disposition of each rejected; the amount, location, and cover of each size of pipe installed; the location of each crossing of another pipeline; the location of each buried utility crossing; the location of each overhead crossing; the location of each valve, weighted pipe, corrosion test station, or other item connected to the pipe.

Retention period: Life of each facility. 49 CFR 195.266

6.9 Operators of liquid pipelines.

To retain records of each hydrostatic test including the recording gauge charts, deadweight tester data, and the reasons for any failure during a test. Where elevation differences in the section under test exceed 100 feet, a profile of the pipeline that shows the elevation and test sites over the entire length of the test section must also be included.

Retention period: As long as the facility tested is in use. 49 CFR 195.310

6.10 Operators of liquid gas pipelines.

To maintain maps and records of its pipeline systems including at least the location and identification of all major facilities, all crossings of public roads, railroads, rivers, buried utilities and foreign pipelines, the maximum operating pressure of each pipeline, the diameter, grade, type and nominal wall thickness of all pipe.

Retention period: Not specified. 49 CFR 195.404(a)

6.11 Operators of liquid pipelines.

To maintain daily operating records that indicate the discharge pressures at each pump station and any unusual operations of a facility.

Retention period: At least 3 years. 49 CFR 195.404(b)

6.12 Operators of liquid pipelines.

To maintain records that indicate the date, location and description of each repair made to its pipeline systems as well as a record of each inspection and test required by the subpart.

Retention period: Useful life of the part of the pipeline system to which the record relates. 49 CFR 195.404(c)

6.13 Operators of natural or other gas pipelines.

To maintain corrosion control records and maps as indicated in section cited.

Retention period: Length of pipeline service. 49 CFR 192.491

6.14 Operators of liquid pipelines. [Added]

To maintain, at the principal place of business, a copy of each accident report required to be filed with the Director, Office of Pipeline Safety.

Retention period: Not specified. 49 CFR 195.54

6.15–6.19 [Reserved]

Hazardous Materials

6.20 State agencies participating in relocation assistance programs.

(a) To maintain all documents associated with an appeal.

Retention period: Not specified. 49 CFR 25.21(b)(4)

Retention period: 3 years. 49 CFR 25.23

6.21 Manufacturers of compressed gas cylinders.

To maintain data sheets recording the results of visual inspections of certain compressed gas cylinders.

Retention period: Permanent. 49 CFR 173.34(e)(10)

6.22 Owners of compressed gas cylinders.

To maintain records showing results of reinspection and retest of such cylinders.

Retention period: Until expiration of retest period, or until cylinder is reinspected and retested, whichever occurs first. 49 CFR 173.34(e)(5)

6.23 Motor carriers operating MC 330 and MC 331 cargo tanks. [Amended]

To maintain (a) records showing each MC 330 and MC 331 in service, and (b) records relating to reason for, and date of, withdrawal of certification of cargo tank.

Retention period: At least 1 year after period of use or withdrawal of the certification. 49 CFR 177.824(1)

6.24 Owners of tank motor vehicles transporting flammable liquids.

To maintain records of inspection as required in section cited.

Retention period: 2 years after date of inspection. 49 CFR 177.824(b)

6.25 Manufacturers of cylinders and tanks.

To maintain (a) inspector's report on specification DOT–39 cylinders, and (b) test samples on specification DOT–56 and 57 portable tanks.

Retention period: (a) 3 years; (b) 1 year. 49 CFR 178.65–15(a), 178.251–5(a)

6.26 Motor carriers operating cargo tanks.

To maintain manufacturer's data report and certificate of compliance and related papers on specification MC331 cargo tanks; and manufacturer's certificate of compliance on specifications MC 306, 307, and 312 cargo tanks.

Retention period: During time of use of tank plus 1 year thereafter. 49 CFR 178.337–18(b), 178.340–10(c)

6.27 Cargo tank manufacturers.

To maintain sketch of location of plate in specification MC331 cargo tank and records of welder qualification in fabrication of such cargo tanks.

Retention period: 5 years. 49 CFR 178.337–2(a)(3), 178.337–4(b)

V 39 156 MAR 21 74 XUM

6.28 Owners of portable tanks carrying hazardous materials.

To maintain records of date and results of all required tests and information about tester.

Retention period: Until satisfactory completion of next retest. 49 CFR 173.32

6.29 Shippers of hazardous materials offered by or consigned to the Department of Defense. [Added]

To maintain duplicate certification of each shipment.

Retention period: Not less than 1 year. 49 CFR 173.7, 177.806

6.30 Owners of foreign containers. [Added]

To maintain records showing results of retests of foreign containers.

Retention period: Until the next scheduled retest date. 49 CFR 173.301(j)

7. National Highway Traffic Safety Administration

7.1 States participating in the National Highway Safety Program.

To maintain records described in Highway Safety Program Standards 1, 2, 5, 10, and 14.

Retention period: Not specified. 23 CFR 204.4

7.2 Manufacturers of complete or incomplete motor vehicles.

To maintain list of names and addresses of first purchasers or subsequent purchasers to whom a warranty has been transferred and vehicle identification number involved in each safety defect notification campaign.

Retention period: 5 years after defect information report is submitted to the Administrator. 49 CFR 573.6

7.3 Manufacturers, brand name owners, distributors, and dealers of new and retreaded tires. [Amended]

To maintain records of name and address of tire purchaser and tire seller, and the tire identification number.

Retention period: 3 years from date the tire manufacturer records the information is submitted. 49 CFR 574.7, 574.8

7.4 Tire manufacturers. [Amended]

To maintain records of each distributor or dealer purchasing tires directly from him and selling them to purchasers, number of tires purchased, and number of tires for which reports have been received from distributor or dealer.

Retention period: 3 years from date the tire manufacturer records the information is submitted. 49 CFR 574.7

7.5 Manufacturers of motor vehicles.

To maintain records of tires on or in each vehicle shipped to a distributor or dealer, and the name and address of the first purchaser.

Retention period: 3 years from date of sale of vehicle to first purchaser. 49 CFR 574.10

7.6 Manufacturers of motor vehicles. [Added]

To maintain records of names and addresses of first purchasers of motor vehicles produced.

Retention period: Not specified. 15 U.S.C. 1402f

XIII. ACTION

1.1 State agencies or other public and nonprofit private agencies participating in the retired citizens volunteer program.

To maintain accounting and other records as determined by the Commissioner.

Retention period: Accounting records—3 years after end of budget period or if audit has not occurred, until audit or 5 years following end of budget period, whichever is earlier, or until resolution of any audit questions; other records—not specified. 45 CFR 906.10 (retention: 901.4)

1.2 State agencies, organizations, or grantees administering a project under the Foster Grandparent program.

To maintain records to assure correctness and verification of such reports required by this section.

Retention period: Not specified. 45 CFR 907.15

XIV. APPALACHIAN REGIONAL COMMISSION

1.1 Recipients of grants.

To maintain accurate and complete records of transactions and activities financed with Federal funds under section 302 of the Appalachian Regional Development Act of 1965, as amended.

Retention period: Not specified. 40 App., U.S.C. 302(c)(2)

The Commission requires, as a condition in all grants and contracts under this section, that records be retained, usually for 3 years following last disbursement.

XV. ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

1.1 Cost-type contractors.

To keep justifications in support of subcontracts and purchase orders adequate to reflect the procurement practices and procedures used and the circumstances supporting particular transactions.

Retention period: Not specified. 41 CFR 9–55.204

1.2 Licensees receiving, possessing, using, or transferring byproduct material, source material, or special nuclear material.

To maintain records (a) used in preparing Form AEC–4, "Occupational External Radiation Exposure History"; (b) showing individual exposure to radiation and to radioactive material and records of bio-assays, including results of whole body counting examinations; (c) showing the results of surveys made to evaluate the radiation hazards incident to the production, use, release, disposal or presence of radioactive materials or other sources of radiation; and (d) of disposals of licensed material by release into sanitary sewerage systems, by burial in soil or pursuant to procedures specifically authorized by license.

Retention period: Until disposal is specifically authorized by the Commission. 10 CFR 20.102, 20.401

1.3 Holders of restricted data access permits.

To keep written agreements from all individuals who will have access to Restricted Data under the access permit to give effect to waivers of claims (a) for damages under 35 U.S.C. 183; (b) for compensation under section 173 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended; and (c) against the United States and the Commission arising in connection with use of information supplied. To establish a document accountability procedure for documents containing Secret Restricted Data and maintain records to show disposition of all such documents which have been in his custody at any time.

Retention period: Not specified. 10 CFR 25.23, 95.34

1.4 Nonexempt licensees manufacturing, producing, transferring, receiving, acquiring, owning, possessing, importing, or exporting byproduct material.

To maintain records showing the receipt, transfer, export, and disposal of such byproduct material.

Retention period: Not specified. 10 CFR 30.51

1.5 Licensees utilizing sealed sources of byproduct material for radiography.

To maintain (a) records of the dates of calibration for each radiation survey instrument possessed by the licensee; (b) records of results of leak tests of sealed sources; (c) records of quarterly physical inventories of all sealed sources received and possessed under the license; (d) current logs showing for each sealed source a description of the radiographic exposure device or storage container, the identity of the radiographer to whom assigned, and the plant or site where used and dates of use; (e) film badge reports and records of pocket dosimeter and pocket chamber readings; (f) records of physical radiation surveys.

Retention period: Not specified. (a) 10 CFR 34.24; (b) 10 CFR 34.25; (c) 10 CFR 34.26; (d) 10 CFR 34.27; (e) 10 CFR 34.33; (f) 10 CFR 34.43

1.6 Licensees receiving, using, transferring, delivering, importing, or exporting source material.

To maintain (a) such records as may be determined by the Commission to be necessary or appropriate to effectuate the purposes of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, and the regulations issued thereunder; (b) records showing the receipt, transfer, export, and disposal of such source material.

Retention period: Not specified. (a) 10 CFR 40.41; (b) 10 CFR 40.61

1.7 Licensees and holders of construction permits.

To maintain (a) such records as may be required by conditions of the license or permit or by rules, regulations, and orders of the Commission, (b) records of any tests and experiments carried out under an operating license or changes in a production and utilization facility and its procedures performed without prior Commission approval; (c) records of design, fabrication, erection, and testing of structures, systems, and components important to safety of a production or utilization facility; and (d) records sufficient to furnish evidence of activities affecting quality.

Retention period: (a) Not specified, 10 CFR 50.71; (b) not specified, 10 CFR 50.59; (c) throughout life of facility, 10 CFR Part 50, App. A, Criterion 1; (d) not specified, 10 CFR Part 50, App. B, sec. XVII

1.8 Lessees of uranium deposits on land controlled by the Atomic Energy Commission.

To keep records of (1) shifts worked; (2) wages and salaries paid; (3) expenditures for supplies and services and costs of operation of every kind; (4) tonnage and grade of ore mined; (5) development work and drilling performed; and (6) such other matters as in the Commission's opinion would be of assistance to it in determining the cost of the operations.

Retention period: At least 3 years after termination or expiration of the lease. 10 CFR 60.8

1.9 Licensees receiving special nuclear material.

To keep (a) such records of ownership, receipt, possession, use, transfer, import, and export of special nuclear material as may be incorporated as a condition or requirement in any license and (b) records showing the receipt, inventory, disposal, acquisition, import, export, and transfer of special nuclear material.

Retention period: Not specified. (a) 10 CFR 70.32; (b) 10 CFR 70.51

1.10 Holders of construction and operating authorizations for certain nuclear reactors exempt from licensing requirements.

To maintain records as may be required by the conditions of the authorization or by the rules, regulations and orders of the Commission.

Retention period: Not specified. 10 CFR 115.51

1.11 Licensees and other persons subject to financial protection requirements and indemnity agreements.

To maintain records as deemed necessary by the Commission for the administration of the regulations concerning financial protection requirements and indemnity agreements.

Retention period: Not specified. 10 CFR 140.6

1.12 Contractors having negotiated contracts with Atomic Energy Commission (except foreign governments, agencies thereof, and foreign producers) and their subcontractors. [Amended]

To keep directly pertinent books, documents, papers, and records.

Retention period: 3 years after final payment. 41 CFR 1–7.103–3, 9–7.5004–10

1.13 Licensees packaging radioactive material for transport.

To keep records of each shipment of fissile material and of a large quantity of licensed material in a single package.

Retention period: 2 years after its generation. 10 CFR 71.62

1.14 Contractors whose contract contains the safety, health, and fire protection clause prescribed in 41 CFR 9–7.5006–47.

To maintain individual occupational radiation exposure records generated in performance of contract work.

Retention period: Until disposal is specifically authorized by the Commission; or at the option of the contractor delivered to the Commission upon completion or termination of the contract. 41 CFR 9–7.5006–60

1.15 Licensees transporting special nuclear materials. [Amended]

To maintain records of names and addresses of all authorized personnel, results of tests and inspections of security containers and protected areas, shipments of special nuclear material and information to comply with requirements of this part, procedures for controlling access to protected areas, and such other records as indicated in section cited.

Retention period: Not specified. 10 CFR 73.70

1.16 Licensees manufacturing, distributing, or transferring exempt quantities of byproduct material.

To maintain records of name and address of each person to whom material is transferred, and kinds and quantity of byproduct material transferred.

Retention period: Not specified. 10 CFR 32.20

1.17 Recipients of cost sharing contracts.

To maintain records of cost contributions and costs charged to AEC.

Retention period: Not specified. 41 CFR 9–4.5604

1.18 Cost-type contractors and subcontractors.

SUPPLEMENTS

Supplement I—Requirements Under the Second War Powers Act of 1942

The Second War Powers Act of March 27, 1942 (56 Stat. 185), provided that contractors with defense contracts placed after September 8, 1939, could be required to produce any books or records deemed relevant for audit and inspection by any agency or officer designated by the President or the Chairman of the War Production Board. The effectiveness of this Act was continued by the Act of June 30, 1953 (67 Stat. 120), for the duration of the national emergency proclaimed December 16, 1950, and for 6 months thereafter.

INDEX

EXPLANATION: The index is a guide to the persons, groups, or products covered by the subject titles in the list. It does not purport to bring together under a given entry a complete analysis of all requirements relating to a given business or product. Thus, a requirement affecting corporations in liquidation will be found under "corporation" because the word appears in the subject title in the list. There are many other requirements, however, affecting corporations which must be sought under "taxes", "manufacturers", "employers", "contractors", name of product or other subject. In the same way general categories of persons to whom requirements may apply (such as manufacturers or importers) have been included only if they are particularly necessary in identifying the applicability of the requirements.

Items included in the index are keyed to the department (or agency) number shown in the contents. References are to agency and item numbers, not to FEDERAL REGISTER pages.

CANNED AND PRESERVED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES PROCESSING POINT SOURCE CATEGORY

Effluent Guidelines and Standards

No. 56—Pt. III——1

V 39 56 MAR 21 74 XUM

Title 40—Protection of the Environment

CHAPTER I—ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

SUBCHAPTER N—EFFLUENT GUIDELINES AND STANDARDS

PART 407—CANNED AND PRESERVED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES PROCESSING POINT SOURCE CATEGORY

Apple, Citrus, and Potato Subcategories

On November 9, 1973, notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (38 FR 31076), that the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA or Agency) was proposing effluent limitations guidelines for existing sources and standards of performance and pretreatment standards for new sources within the apple juice subcategory, apple products subcategory, citrus products subcategory, frozen potato products subcategory, and the dehydrated potato products subcategory of the Canned and Preserved Fruits and Vegetables Processing category of point sources.

The purpose of this notice is to establish final effluent limitations guidelines for existing sources and standards of performance and pretreatment standards for new sources in the Canned and Preserved Fruits and Vegetables Processing category of point sources, by amending 40 CFR Chapter I, Subchapter N, to add a new Part 407. This final rulemaking is promulgated pursuant to sections 301, 304(b) and (c), 306(b) and (c) and 307(c) of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended, (the Act); 33 U.S.C. 1251, 1311, 1314(b) and (c), 1316 (b) and (c) and 1317(c); 86 Stat. 816 et seq.; Pub. L. 92-500. Regulations regarding cooling water intake structures for all categories of point sources under section 316(b) of the Act will be promulgated in 40 CFR Part 402.

In addition, EPA is simultaneously proposing a separate provision which appears in the proposed rules section of the FEDERAL REGISTER, stating the application of the limitations and standards set forth below to users of publicly owned treatment works which are subject to pretreatment standards under section 307 (b) of the Act. The basis of that proposed regulation is set forth in the associated notice of proposed rulemaking.

The legal basis, methodology and factual conclusions which support promulgation of this regulation were set forth in substantial detail in the notice of public review procedures published August 6, 1973 (38 FR 21202) and in the notice of proposed rulemaking for the apple juice subcategory, apple products subcategory, citrus products subcategory, frozen potato products subcategory, and dehydrated potato products subcategory. In addition, the regulations as proposed were supported by two other documents: (1) The document entitled "Development Document for Proposed Effluent Limitations Guidelines and New Source Performance Standards for the citrus, apple and potato Segment of the Canned and Preserved Fruits and Vegetables Processing Point Source Category" (November, 1973) and (2) the document entitled "Economic Analysis of Proposed Effluent Guidelines, Fruit and Vegetable Processing Industry" (October, 1973). Both of these documents were made available to the public and circulated to interested persons at approximately the time of publication of the notice of proposed rulemaking.

Interested persons were invited to participate in the rulemaking by submitting written comments within 30 days from the date of publication. Prior public participation in the form of solicited comments and responses from the States, Federal agencies, and other interested parties were described in the preamble to the proposed regulation. The EPA has considered carefully all of the comments received and a discussion of these comments with the Agency's response thereto follows.

The regulation as promulgated contains important changes from the proposed regulation. The following discussion outlines the reasons why these changes were made and why other suggested changes were not implemented.

(a) Summary of comments.

The following responded to the request for written comments contained in the preamble to the proposed regulation: U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare; Sunkist Growers, Inc.; Council for Agricultural Science and Technology; Tree Top, Inc.; National Canners Association; American Frozen Food Institute; Taterstate Frozen Foods; Florida Canners Association; Potato Processors of Idaho; State of California; State of New York; State of Michigan; The R.T. French Company; J. R. Simplot Company; Ore-Ida Foods, Inc; Water Resources Council and State of Colorado.

Each of the comments received was reviewed and anlyzed carefully. The following is a summary of the significant comments and the Agency's response to those comments.

(1) A number of comments reflected concern that the effluent limitations would not be met by the exemplary treatment systems used in their development.

Effluent treatment data from the exemplary treatment systems has been reviewed with the determination that several exemplary systems would not meet each maximum thirty day and maximum daily limitation throughout the processing season. Additional data has been received which has expanded the data base, strengthened the reliability of the exemplary data, and demonstrated the monthly and daily fluctuations experienced by the exemplary treatment systems. The data base for one plant was expanded from four months to twelve months and another from six months to sixteen months. One system was omitted from the exemplary list after additional information supplied by industry voided most of the effluent data. In summary, the discharge values representative of the exemplary treatment systems have been reviewed and some have been revised. The effluent limitations have been accordingly revised so that exemplary plants used to develop the limitations in each subcategory meet respective maximum day and maximum thirty day limitations.

(2) The comment was made that the proposed subcategorization was inadequate in view of variations in unit costs for small plants as compared with large plants and the possible effect of temperature on biological treatment efficiency.

Each of these factors has been considered and additional subcategorization is not required with regard to size; severe diseconomies of scale have not been realized by small processors with either best practicable or best available technology. Effluent limitations have been developed from exemplary treatment systems at plants ranging in size from very small to very large. Activated sludge treatment is effectively utilized by both small and large processors; land disposal techniques such as irrigation and municipal disposal systems are also used throughout the industry without regard to plant size. As for the effect of temperature on treatment efficiency, biological systems are effectively utilized in all climates. Activated sludge, aerated lagoons and trickling filters are exemplary treatment systems operating effectively in cold temperatures. The fluctuation experienced throughout the year by Canadian exemplary plants are the principal basis for determining maximum limitations.

(3) A number of comments were received that questioned the validity of using data from Canadian processors. It was suggested that these Canadian plants were operating under different economic conditions than those experienced in the United States.

The Agency has contacted Canadian officials and important similarities have been found between the U.S. and Canadian methods of handling industrial expenditures for pollution control equipment. Canada allows a rapid tax write-off for capital equipment for pollution control. The U.S. allows either a rapid tax write-off or an investment tax credit. There are no Canadian subsidies for pollution control; there is no industrial pollution control demonstration program such as that funded in the U.S. One of the two Canadian plants utilized in the development of the effluent limitations has received government finances for capital equipment within the processing plant because it located within an economically depressed region. No pollution control expenditures were allowed. No government finances or subsidies have been given to the other Canadian processing plants. Since the American and Canadian industries operate within similar tax guidelines, receive no direct pollution control subsidies, and compete in similar markets, then the Canadian data is valid and useful in determining best practicable or best available control technologies.

(4) The comment was made that the cost and energy requirements of best practicable technology were underestimated.

The Agency's cost and energy estimates were prepared from calculations of average waste water loadings based on generally accepted engineering practices. Cost estimates were verified with industry-supplied information. Calculations were prepared separately for each treatment technology by subcategory. It is understandable that some industry estimates might be excessive if higher than average waste loads were treated or if comparisons were made based on flow alone. High land costs or poor treatment design causing poor mixing or poor oxygen transfer might also create excessive cost or energy requirements. However, no dramatic capital or operating costs or energy increases should be attributable to any increased need for additional treatment technology which might result from compliance with this regulation. Industry cost estimates include costs for biological treatment plus costs for land treatment systems such as spray irrigation. Since no incompatible pollutants are discharged from this industry segment, no pretreatment or municipal treatment costs are applicable.

(5) Concern was expressed with regard to the omission of disinfection of industry waste waters.

The Agency has reviewed industry waste water information and has found that high levels of fecal coliform bacteria may exist. Disinfection is consequently a necessary adjunct to the effluent limits. Coliform bacterial limits have not been imposed as 1977 limitations because of economic considerations; 1983 limitations include a discharge limit for the fecal coliform bacteria. This limit is readily achievable by chlorination, ozonation or other possible methods for disinfecting water.

(6) The suggestion was made that land disposal techniques such as spray or flood irrigation are not the panacea for achieving the effluent limitations.

The Agency recognizes that land disposal techniques are not the only treatment technology available to food processors for achieving the effluent limitations. No single alternative is the panacea for achieving the limitations. Land treatment, however, is an effective technology which offers a viable alternative to biological treatment or municipal discharge. Such factors as availability of suitable land or proximity to a municipal system will influence the selection of a treatment technology. The economic and technical attractiveness of land disposal techniques are reflected in the large number of food processors that utilize land disposal techniques.

(7) The comment was made that a start-up period of four days was not sufficient time to allow treatment plants to achieve the limitations.

Information describing exemplary activated sludge and trickling filter systems indicate that required sludge growths can be achieved in two to four days and the required removal rate can be achieved in four to seven days after a two or three month shut-down period in which the systems were maintained in an operable state. Accordingly, the start-up period has been increased to one week and allowances in the maximum and thirty day limitations are permitted for this start-up period.

(8) One commenter suggested the possibility that a public health hazard may result from compliance with the regulation.

Neither best practicable nor best available technology requires significant in-plant changes that could result in a public health hazard. Efficient water management programs are encouraged and the Agency agrees that the programs must be based on minimum Good Manufacturing Practices.

(9) Some correspondents endorsed the proposal made to the Administrator by the Effluent Standards and Water Quality Information Advisory Committee that a significantly different approach be taken in the development of effluent guidelines generally.

The committee's proposal is under evaluation as a contribution toward future refinements on guidelines for some industries. The committee has indicated that their proposed methodology could not be developed in sufficient time to be available for the current phase of guideline promulgation, which is proceeding according to a court-ordered schedule. Its present state of development does not provide sufficient evidence to warrant the Agency's delaying issuance of any standard in hopes that an alternative approach might be preferable.

(b) Revision of the proposed regulation prior to promulgation.

As a result of public comments and continuing review and evaluation of the proposed regulations by the EPA, the following changes have been made in the regulation.

(1) The data from the exemplary treatment plants have been reviewed with the result that the discharge values are more representative of the effectiveness of the exemplary systems. Accordingly, the 1977 and 1983 limitations for BOD5 and TSS which are based on these treatment plants have been modified to reflect more accurately the average of the performances of these exemplary plants.

(2) The maximum thirty day and maximum day limitations have been modified to reflect more accurately the demonstrated fluctuations experienced by the exemplary treatment systems.

(3) The best available control technology economically achievable has been changed to specifically include disinfection; effluent limits for fecal coliform bacteria have been added to the 1983 limitations.

(4) Section 304(b)(1)(B) of the Act provides for "guidelines" to implement the uniform national standards of section 301(b)(1)(A). Thus Congress recognized that some flexibility was necessary in order to take into account the complexity of the industrial world with respect to the practicability of pollution control technology. In conformity with the Congressional intent and in recognition of the possible failure of these regulations to account for all factors bearing on the practicability of control technology, it was concluded that some provision was needed to authorize flexibility in the strict application of the limitations contained in the regulation where required by special circumstances applicable to individual dischargers. Accordingly, a provision allowing flexibility in the application of the limitations representing best practicable control technology currently available has been added to each subpart, to account for special circumstances that may not have been adequately accounted for when these regulations were developed.

(c) Economic impact.

The above mentioned changes will not significantly affect the conclusion of the economic study of the proposed regulation. Because most effluent limitations are less stringent than originally proposed, the economic impact has actually been lessened.

The detrimental effects of the constituents of waste waters now discharged by point sources within the Apple, Citrus and Potato segment of the Canned and Preserved Fruits and Vegetables Processing Point Source Category are discussed in section VI of the report entitled "Development Document for Effluent Limitations Guidelines for the Apple, Citrus, and Potato Segment of the Canned and Preserved Fruits and Vegetables Processing Point Source Category" (February 1974). It is not feasible to quantify in economic terms, particulary on a national basis, the costs resulting from the discharge of these pollutants to our Nation's waterways. Nevertheless, as indicated in section VI, the pollutants discharged have substantial and damaging impacts on the quality of water and therefore on its capacity to support healthy populations of wildlife, fish and other aquatic wildlife and on its suitability for industrial, recreational and drinking water supply uses.

The total cost of implementing the effluent limitations guidelines includes the direct capital and operating costs of the pollution control technology employed to achieve compliance and the indirect economic and environmental costs identified in section VIII and in the supplementary report entitled "Economic Analysis of Proposed Effluent Guidelines, FRUITS AND VEGETABLES PROCESSING INDUSTRY" (October, 1973). Implementing the effluent limitations guidelines will substantially reduce the environmental harm which would otherwise be attributable to the continued discharge of polluted waste waters from existing and newly constructed plants in the canned and preserved fruits and vegetables processing industry. The Agency believes that the benefits of thus reducing the pollutants discharged justify the associated costs which, though substantial in absolute terms, represent a relatively small percentage of the total capital investment in the industry.

(e) Publication of information on processes, procedures, or operating methods which result in the elimination or reduction of the discharge of pollutants.

V 39 156 MAR 21 74 XUM

In conformance with the requirements of section 304(c) of the Act, a manual entitled, "Development Document for Effluent Limitations Guidelines and New Source Performance Standards for the Apple, Citrus and Potato Segment of the Canned and Preserved Fruits and Vegetables Processing Point Source Category," has been published and is available for purchase from the Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., 20401 for a nominal fee.

(f) Final rulemaking.

In consideration of the foregoing, 40 CFR Chapter I, Subchapter N is hereby amended by adding a new Part 407, Canned and Preserved Fruits and Vegetables Processing Point Source Category, to read as set forth below. This final regulation is promulgated as set forth below and shall be effective May 20, 1974.

Dated: March 12, 1974.

JOHN QUARLES,
Acting Administrator.

Subpart A—Apple Juice Subcategory

Sec.

407.10 Applicability; description of the apple juice subcategory.
407.11 Specialized definitions.
407.12 Effluent limitations guidelines representing the degree of effluent reduction attainable by the application of the best practicable control technology currently available.

407.55 Standards of performance for new sources.
407.56 Pretreatment standards for new sources.

Subpart A—Apple Juice Subcategory

The provisions of this subpart are applicable to discharges resulting from the processing of apples into apple juice or apple cider. When a plant is subject to effluent limitations covering more than one subcategory, the plant discharge limitation shall be set by proration limitations for each subcategory based on the total raw material covered by each subcategory.

For the purpose of this subpart:

(a) Except as provided below, the general definitions, abbreviations and methods of analysis set forth in 40 CFR Part 401 shall apply to this subpart.

§ 407.12 Effluent limitations guidelines representing the degree of effluent reduction attainable by the application of the best practicable control technology currently available.

(a) In establishing the limitations set forth in this section EPA took into account all information it was able to collect, develop and solicit with respect to factors (such as age and size of plant, raw materials, manufacturing processes, products produced, treatment technology available, energy requirements and costs) which can affect the industry subcategorization and effluent levels established. It is, however, possible that data which would affect these limitations have not been available and, as a result, these limitations should be adjusted for certain plants in this industry. An individual discharger or other interested person may submit evidence to the Regional Administrator (or to the State, if the State has the authority to issue NPDES permits) that factors relating to the equipment or facilities involved, the process applied, or other such factors related to such discharger are fundamentally different from the factors considered in the establishment of the guidelines. On the basis of such evidence or other available information, the Regional Administrator (or the State) will make a written finding that such factors are or are not fundamentally different for that facility compared to those specified in the Development Document. If such fundamentally different factors are found to exist, the Regional Administrator or the State shall establish for the discharger effluent limitations in the NPDES permit either more or less stringent than the limitations established herein, to the extent dictated by such fundamentally different factors. Such limitations must be approved by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency. The Administrator may approve or disapprove such limitations, specify other limitations, or initiate proceedings to revise these regulations.

(b) The following limitations establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a point source subject to the provisions of this subpart after application of the best practicable control technology currently available:

Effluent characteristic	Effluent limitations: Maximum for any 1 day	Effluent limitations: Average of daily values for 30 consecutive days shall not exceed—
	Metric units (kilograms per 1,000 kg of raw material)
BOD5	0.60	0.30
TSS	.80	.40
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.
	English units (pounds per 1,000 lb of raw material)
BOD5	0.60	0.30
TSS	.80	.40
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.

§ 407.13 Effluent limitations guidelines representing the degree of effluent reduction attainable by the application of the best available technology economically achievable.

The following limitations establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a point source subject to the provisions of this subpart after application of the best available technology economically achievable:

Effluent characteristic	Effluent limitations: Maximum for any 1 day	Effluent limitations: Average of daily values for 30 consecutive days shall not exceed—
	Metric units (kilograms per 1,000 kg of raw material)
BOD5	0.20	0.10
TSS	.20	.10
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0
	English units (pounds per 1,000 lb of raw material)
BOD5	0.20	0.10
TSS	.20	.10
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0

§ 407.14 [Reserved]

§ 407.15 Standards of performance for new sources.

The following standards of performance establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a new source subject to the provisions of this subpart:

Effluent characteristic	Effluent limitations: Maximum for any 1 day	Effluent limitations: Average of daily values for 30 consecutive days shall not exceed—
	Metric units (kilograms per 1,000 kg of raw material)
BOD5	0.20	0.10
TSS	.20	.10
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.
	English units (pounds per 1,000 lb. of raw material)
BOD5	0.20	0.10
TSS	.20	.10
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.

The pretreatment standards under section 307(c) of the Act for a source within the apple juice subcategory, which is a user of a publicly owned treatment works (and which would be a new source subject to section 306 of the Act, if it were to discharge pollutants to the navigable waters), shall be the standard set forth in 40 CFR Part 128, except that, for the purpose of this section, 40 CFR 128.133 shall be amended to read as follows:

In addition to the prohibitions set forth in 40 CFR 128.131, the pretreatment standard for incompatible pollutants introduced into a publicly owned treatment works shall be the standard of performance for new sources specified in 40 CFR 407.15: Provided, That, if the publicly owned treatment works which receives the pollutants is committed, in its NPDES permit, to remove a specified percentage of any incompatible pollutant, the pretreatment standard applicable to users of such treatment works shall, except in the case of standards providing for no discharge of pollutants, be correspondingly reduced in stringency for that pollutant.

Subpart B—Apple Products Subcategory

The provisions of this subpart are applicable to discharges resulting from the processing of apples into apple products. The processing of apples into caustic peeled or dehydrated products is specifically excluded. When a plant is subject to effluent limitations covering more than one subcategory, the plant discharge limitation shall be set by proration limitations for each subcategory based on the total raw material covered by each subcategory.

For the purpose of this subpart:

(a) Except as provided below, the general definitions, abbreviations and methods of analysis set forth in 40 CFR Part 401 shall apply to this subpart.

§ 407.22 Effluent limitations guidelines representing the degree of effluent reduction attainable by the application of the best practicable control technology currently available.

(a) In establishing the limitations set forth in this section, EPA took into account all information it was able to collect, develop and solicit with respect to factors (such as age and size of plant, raw materials, manufacturing processes, products produced, treatment technology available, energy requirements and costs) which can affect the industry subcategorization and effluent levels established. It is, however, possible that data which would affect these limitations have not been available and, as a result, these limitations should be adjusted for certain plants in this industry. An individual discharger or other interested person may submit evidence to the Regional Administrator (or to the State, if the State has the authority to issue NPDES permits) that factors relating to the equipment or facilities involved, the process applied, or other such factors related to such discharger are fundamentally different from the factors considered in the establishment of the guidelines. On the basis of such evidence or other available information, the Regional Administrator (or the State) will make a written finding that such factors are or are not fundamentally different for that facility compared to those specified in the Development Document. If such fundamentally different factors are found to exist, the Regional Administrator or the State shall establish for the discharger effluent limitations in the NPDES permit either more or less stringent than the limitations established herein, to the extent dictated by such fundamentally different factors. Such limitations must be approved by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency. The Administrator may approve or disapprove such limitations, specify other limitations, or initiate proceedings to revise these regulations.

(b) The following limitations establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a point source subject to the provisions of this subpart after application of the best practicable control technology currently available:

Effluent characteristic	Effluent limitations: Maximum for any 1 day	Effluent limitations: Average of daily values for 30 consecutive days shall not exceed—
	Metric units (kilograms per 1,000 kg of raw material)
BOD5	1.10	0.55
TSS	1.40	.70
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.
	English units (pounds per 1,000 lb of raw material)
BOD5	1.10	0.55
TSS	1.40	.70
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.

§ 407.23 Effluent limitations guidelines representing the degree of effluent reduction attainable by the application of the best available technology economically achievable.

The following limitations establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a point source subject to the provisions of this subpart after application of the best available technology economically achievable:

Effluent characteristic	Effluent limitations: Maximum for any 1 day	Effluent limitations: Average of daily values for 30 consecutive days shall not exceed—
	Metric units (kilograms per 1,000 kg of raw material)
BOD5	0.20	0.10
TSS	.20	.10
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.
	English units (pounds per 1,000 lb. of raw material)
BOD5	0.20	0.10
TSS	.20	.10
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.

§ 407.24 [Reserved]

§ 407.25 Standards of performance for new sources.

The following standards of performance establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a new source subject to the provisions of this subpart:

V 39 156 MAR 21 74 XUM

Effluent characteristic	Effluent limitations: Maximum for any 1 day	Effluent limitations: Average of daily values for 30 consecutive days shall not exceed—
	Metric units (kilograms per 1,000 kg of raw material)
BOD5	0.20	0.10
TSS	.20	.10
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.
	English units (pounds per 1,000 lb of raw material)
BOD5	0.20	0.10
TSS	.20	.10
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.

The pretreatment standards under section 307(c) of the Act for a source within the apple products subcategory, which is a user of a publicly owned treatment works (and which would be a new source subject to section 306 of the Act, if it were to discharge pollutants to the navigable waters), shall be the standard set forth in 40 CFR 128, except that, for the purpose of this section, 40 CFR 128.133 shall be amended to read as follows:

In addition to the prohibitions set forth in 40 CFR 128.131, the pretreatment standard for incompatible pollutants introduced into a publicly owned treatment works shall be the standard of performance for new sources specified in 40 CFR 407.25: Provided, That, if the publicly owned treatment works which receives the pollutants is committed, in its NPDES permit, to remove a specified percentage of any incompatible pollutant, the pretreatment standard applicable to users of such treatment works shall, except in the case of standards providing for no discharge of pollutants, be correspondingly reduced in stringency for that pollutant.

Subpart C—Citrus Products Subcategory

The provisions of this subpart are applicable to discharges resulting from the processing of citrus into citrus products. When a plant is subject to effluent limitations covering more than one subcategory, the plant discharge limitation shall be set by proration limitations for each subcategory based on raw material covered by each subcategory.

For the purpose of this subpart:

(a) Except as provided below, the general definitions, abbreviations and methods of analysis set forth in 40 CFR Part 401 shall apply to this subpart.

§ 407.32 Effluent limitations guidelines representing the degree of effluent reduction attainable by the application of the best practicable control technology currently available.

(a) In establishing the limitations set forth in this section, EPA took into account all information it was able to collect, develop and solicit with respect to factors (such as age and size of plant, raw materials, manufacturing processes, products produced, treatment technology available, energy requirements and costs) which can affect the industry subcategorization and effluent levels established. It is, however, possible that data which would affect these limitations have not been available and, as a result, these limitations should be adjusted for certain plants in this industry. An individual discharger or other interested person may submit evidence to the Regional Administrator (or to the State, if the State has the authority to issue NPDES permits) that factors relating to the equipment or facilities involved, the process applied, or other such factors related to such discharger are fundamentally different from the factors considered in the establishment of the guidelines. On the basis of such evidence or other available information, the Regional Administrator (or the State) will make a written finding that such factors are or are not fundamentally different for that facility compared to those specified in the Development Document. If such fundamentally different factors are found to exist, the Regional Administrator or the State shall establish for the discharger effluent limitations in the NPDES permit either more or less stringent than the limitations established herein, to the extent dictated by such fundamentally different factors. Such limitations must be approved by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency. The Administrator may approve or disapprove such limitations, specify other limitations, or initiate proceedings to revise these regulations.

(b) The following limitations establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a point source subject to the provisions of this subpart after application of the best practicable control technology currently available:

Effluent characteristic	Effluent limitations: Maximum for any 1 day	Effluent limitations: Average of daily values for 30 consecutive days shall not exceed—
	Metric units (kilograms per 1,000 kg of raw material)
BOD5	0.80	0.40
TSS	1.70	0.85
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.
	English units (pounds per 1,000 lb of raw material)
BOD5	0.80	0.40
TSS	1.70	0.85
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.

§ 407.33 Effluent limitations guidelines representing the degree of effluent reduction attainable by the application of the best available technology economically achievable.

The following limitations establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a point source subject to the provisions of this subpart after application of the best available technology economically achievable:

Effluent characteristic	Effluent limitations: Maximum for any 1 day	Effluent limitations: Average of daily values for 30 consecutive days shall not exceed—
	Metric units (kilograms per 1,000 kg of raw material)
BOD5	0.14	0.07
TSS	.20	.10
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0
	English units (pounds per 1,000 lb of raw material)
BOD5	0.14	0.07
TSS	.20	.10
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0

§ 407.34 [Reserved]

§ 407.35 Standards of performance for new sources.

The following standards of performance establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a new source subject to the provisions of this subpart:

Effluent characteristic	Effluent limitations: Maximum for any 1 day	Effluent limitations: Average of daily values for 30 consecutive days shall not exceed—
	Metric units (kilograms per 1,000 kg of raw material)
BOD5	0.14	0.07
TSS	.20	.10
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0
	English units (pounds per 1,000 lb of raw material)
BOD5	0.14	0.07
TSS	.20	.10
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0

The pretreatment standards under section 307(c) of the Act for a source within the citrus products subcategory, which is a user of a publicly owned treatment works (and which would be a new source subject to section 306 of the Act, if it were to discharge pollutants to the navigable waters), shall be the standard set forth in 40 CFR Part 128, except that, for the purpose of this section, 40 CFR 128.133 shall be amended to read as follows:

In addition to the prohibitions set forth in 40 CFR 128.131, the pretreatment standard for incompatible pollutants introduced into a publicly owned treatment works shall be the standard of performance for new sources specified in 40 CFR 407.35; provided that, if the publicly owned treatment works which receives the pollutants is committed, in its NPDES permit, to remove a specified percentage of any incompatible pollutant, the pretreatment standard applicable to users of such treatment works shall, except in the case of standards providing for no discharge of pollutants, be correspondingly reduced in stringency for that pollutant.

Subpart D—Frozen Potato Products Subcategory

The provisions of this subpart are applicable to discharges resulting from the processing of white potatoes into frozen potato products. When a plant is subject to effluent limitations covering more than one subcategory, the plant discharge limitation shall be set by proration limitations for each subcategory based on the total raw material covered by each subcategory.

For the purpose of this subpart:

(a) Except as provided below, the general definitions, abbreviations and methods of analysis set forth in 40 CFR Part 401 shall apply to this subpart.

§ 407.42 Effluent limitations guidelines representing the degree of effluent reduction attainable by the application of the best practicable control technology currently available.

(a) In establishing the limitations set forth in this section, EPA took into account all information it was able to collect, develop and solicit with respect to factors (such as age and size of plant, raw materials, manufacturing processes, products produced, treatment technology available, energy requirements and costs) which can affect the industry subcategorization and effluent levels established. It is, however, possible that data which would affect these limitations have not been available and, as a result, these limitations should be adjusted for certain plants in this industry. An individual discharger or other interested person may submit evidence to the Regional Administrator (or to the State, if the State has the authority to issue NPDES permits) that factors relating to the equipment or facilities involved, the process applied, or other such factors related to such discharger are fundamentally different from the factors considered in the establishment of the guidelines. On the basis of such evidence or other available information, the Regional Administrator (or the State) will make a written finding that such factors are or are not fundamentally different from that facility compared to those specified in the Development Document. If such fundamentally different factors are found to exist, the Regional Administrator or the State shall establish for the discharger effluent limitations in the NPDES permit either more or less stringent than the limitations established herein, to the extent dictated by such fundamentally different factors. Such limitations must be approved by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency. The Administrator may approve or disapprove such limitations, specify other limitations, or initiate proceedings to revise these regulations.

(b) The following limitations establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a point source subject to the provisions of this subpart after application of the best practicable control technology currently available:

Effluent characteristic	Effluent limitations: Maximum for any 1 day	Effluent limitations: Average of daily values for 30 consecutive days shall not exceed—
	Metric units (kilograms per 1,000 kg of raw material)
BOD5	2.80	1.40
TSS	2.80	1.40
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.
	English units (pounds per 1,000 lb of raw material)
BOD5	2.80	1.40
TSS	2.80	1.40
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.

§ 407.43 Effluent limitations guidelines representing the degree of effluent reduction attainable by the application of the best available technology economically achievable.

The following limitations establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a point source subject to the provisions of this subpart after application of the best available technology economically achievable:

Effluent characteristic	Effluent limitations: Maximum for any 1 day	Effluent limitations: Average of daily values for 30 consecutive days shall not exceed—
	Metric units (kilograms per 1,000 kg of raw material)
BOD5	0.34	0.17
TSS	1.10	.55
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.
	English units (pounds per 1,000 lb of raw material)
BOD5	0.34	0.17
TSS	1.10	.55
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.

§ 407.44 [Reserved]

§ 407.45 Standards of performance for new sources.

The following standards of performance establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a new source subject to the provisions of this subpart:

Effluent characteristic	Effluent limitations: Maximum for any 1 day	Effluent limitations: Average of daily values for 30 consecutive days shall not exceed—
	Metric units (kilograms per 1,000 kg of raw material)
BOD5	0.34	0.17
TSS	1.10	.55
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.
	English units (pounds per 1,000 lb of raw material)
BOD5	0.34	0.17
TSS	1.10	.55
Fecal coliform	Maximum at any time 400 counts/100 ml.
pH	Within the range 6.0 to 9.0.

The pretreatment standards under section 307(c) of the Act for a source within the frozen potato products subcategory, which is a user of a publicly owned treatment works (and which would be a new source subject to section 306 of the Act, if it were to discharge pollutants to the navigable waters), shall be the standard set forth in 40 CFR Part 128, except that, for the purpose of this section, 40 CFR Part 128.133 shall be amended to read as follows:

In addition to the prohibitions set forth in 40 CFR 128.131, the pretreatment standard for incompatible pollutants introduced into a publicly owned treatment works shall be the standard of performance for new sources specified in 40 CFR 407.45: Provided, That, if the publicly owned treatment works which receives the pollutants is committed, in its NPDES permit, to remove a specified percentage of any incompatible pollutant, the pretreatment standard applicable to users of such treatment works shall, except in the case of standards providing for no discharge of pollutants, be correspondingly reduced in stringency for that pollutant.

Subpart E—Dehydrated Potato Products Subcategory

The provisions of this subpart are applicable to discharges resulting from the processing of white potatoes into dehydrated potato products. When a plant is subject to effluent limitations covering more than one subcategory, the plant discharge limitation shall be set by proration limitations for each subcategory based on the total raw material covered by each subcategory.

For the purpose of this subpart:

(a) Except as provided below, the general definitions, abbreviations and methods of analysis set forth in 40 CFR Part 401 shall apply to this subpart.

V 39156 MAR 21 74 XUM

§ 407.52 Effluent limitations guidelines representing the degree of effluent reduction attainable by the application of the best practicable control technology currently available.

(a) In establising the limitations set forth in this section, EPA took into account all information it was able to collect, develop and solicit with respect to factors (such as age and size of plant, raw materials, manufacturing processes, products produced, treatment technology available, energy requirements and costs) which can affect the industry subcategorization and effluent levels established. It is, however, possible that data which would affect these limitations have not been available and, as a result, these limitations should be adjusted for certain plants in this industry. An individual discharger or other interested person may submit evidence to the Regional Administrator (or to the State, if the State has the authority to issue NPDES permits) that factors relating to the equipment or facilities involved, the process applied, or other such factors related to such discharger are fundamentally different from the factors considered in the establishment of the guidelines. On the basis of such evidence or other available information, the Regional Administrator (or the State) will make a written finding that such factors are or are not fundamentally different for that facility compared to those specified in the Development Document. If such fundamentally different factors are found to exist, the Regional Administrator or the State shall establish for the discharge effluent limitations in the NPDES permit either more or less stringent than the limitations established herein, to the extent dictated by such fundamentally different factors. Such limitations must be approved by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency. The Administrator may approve or disapprove such limitations, specify other limitations, or initiate proceedings to revise these regulations.

(b) The following limitations establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a point source subject to the provisions of this subpart after application of the best practicable control technology currently available:

Effluent characteristic	Effluent limitations: Maximum for any 1 day	Effluent limitations: Average of daily values for 30 consecutive days shall not exceed—
	Metric units (kilograms per 1,000 kg of raw material)

The pretreatment standards under section 307(c) of the Act for a source within the dehydrated potato products subcategory, which is a user of a publicly owned treatment works (and which would be a new source subject to section 306 of the Act, if it were to discharge pollutants to the navigable waters), shall be the standard set forth in 40 CFR Part 128, except that, for the purpose of this section, 40 CFR 128.133 shall be amended to read as follows:

In addition to the prohibitions set forth in 40 CFR 128.131, the pretreatment standard for incompatible pollutants introduced into a publicly owned treatment works shall be the standard of performance for new sources specified in 40 CFR 407.55; provided that, if the publicly owned treatment works which receives the pollutants is committed, in its NPDES permit, to remove a specified percentage of any incompatible pollutant, the pretreatment standard applicable to users of such treatment works shall, except in the case of standards providing for no discharge of pollutants, be correspondingly reduced in stringency for that pollutant.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

[40 CFR Part 407]

CANNED AND PRESERVED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES PROCESSING

Application of Effluent Limitations Guidelines

Notice is hereby given pursuant to sections 301, 304 and 307(b) of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended (the Act); 33 U.S.C. 1251, 1311, 1314 and 1317(b); 86 Stat. 816 et seq.; Pub. L. 92-500, that the proposed regulation set forth below concerns the application of effluent limitations guidelines for existing sources to pretreatment standards for incompatible pollutants. The proposal will amend 40 CFR Part 407—Canned and Preserved Fruits and Vegetables Processing Point Source Category, establishing for each subcategory therein the extent of application of effluent limitations guidelines to existing sources which discharge to publicly owned treatment works. The regulation is intended to be complementary to the general regulation for pretreatment standards set forth at 40 CFR Part 128. The general regulation was proposed July 19, 1973 (38 FR 19236), and published in final form on November 8, 1973 (38 FR 30982).

The proposed regulation is also intended to supplement a final regulation being simultaneously promulgated by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA or Agency) which provides effluent limitations guidelines for existing sources and standards of performance and pretreatment standards for new sources within the apple juice subcategory, apple products subcategory, citrus products subcategory, frozen potato products subcategory and dehydrated potato products subcategory of the canned and preserved fruits and vegetables processing point source category. The latter regulation applies to the portion of a discharge which is directed to the navigable waters. The regulation proposed below applies to users of publicly owned treatment works which fall within the description of the point source category to which the guidelines and standards (40 CFR Part 407) promulgated simultaneously apply. However, the proposed regulation applies to the introduction of incompatible pollutants which are directed into a publicly owned treatment works, rather than to discharges of pollutants to navigable waters.

The general pretreatment standard divides pollutants discharged by users of publicly owned treatment works into two broad categories: "compatible" and "incompatible." Compatible pollutants are generally not subject to pretreatment standards. (See 40 CFR 128.110 (State or local law) and 40 CFR 128.131 (Prohibited wastes) for requirements which may be applicable to compatible pollutants). Incompatible pollutants are subject to pretreatment standards as provided in 40 CFR 128.133, which provides as follows:

"In addition to the prohibitions set forth in § 128.131, the pretreatment standard for incompatible pollutants introduced into a publicly owned treatment works by a major contributing industry not subject to section 307(c) of the Act shall be, for sources within the corresponding industrial or commercial category, that established by a promulgated effluent limitations guidelines defining best practicable control technology currently available pursuant to sections 301(b) and 304(b) of the Act; provided that, if the publicly owned treatment works which receives the pollutants is committed, in its NPDES permit, to remove a specified percentage of any incompatible pollutant, the pretreatment standard applicable to users of such treatment works shall be correspondingly reduced for that pollutant; and provided further that when the effluent limitations guidelines for each industry is promulgated, a separate provision will be proposed concerning the application of such guidelines to pretreatment." (Emphasis added).

The regulation proposed below is intended to implement that portion of § 128.133, above, requiring that a separate provision be made stating the application to pretreatment standards of effluent limitations guidelines based upon best practicable control technology currently available.

Questions were raised during the public comment period on the proposed general pretreatment standard (40 CFR Part 128) about the propriety of applying a standard based upon best practicable control technology currently available to all plants subject to pretreatment standards. In general, EPA believes the analysis supporting the effluent limitations guidelines is adequate to make a determination regarding standards to users of publicly owned treatment works. However, to ensure that those standards are appropriate in all cases, EPA now seeks additional comments focusing upon the application of effluent limitations guidelines to users of publicly owned treatment works.

Sections 407.15, 407.25, 407.35, 407.45 and 407.55 of the proposed regulation for point sources within the apple juice subcategory, apple products subcategory, citrus products subcategory, frozen potato products subcategory and dehydrated potato products subcategory (November 9, 1973; 38 FR 31076) contained the proposed pretreatment standard for new sources. The regulation promulgated simultaneously herewith contains § 407.16, 407.26, 407.36, 407.46 and 407.56 which states the applicability of standards of performance for purposes of pretreatment standard for new sources.

A preliminary Development Document was made available to the public at approximately the time of publication of the notice of proposed rulemaking and the final Development Document entitled "Development Document for Effluent Limitations Guidelines and New Source Performance Standards for the Apple, Citrus and Potato Segment of the Canned and Preserved Fruits and Vegetables Processing Point Source Category" is now being published. The economic analysis report entitled "Economic Analysis of Proposed Effluent Guidelines, Fruits and Vegetables Processing Industry," (October, 1973) was made available at the time of proposal. Copies of the final Development Document and economic analysis report will continue to be maintained for inspection and copying during the comment period at the EPA Information Center, Room 227, West Tower, Waterside Mall, 401 M Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. Copies will also be available for inspection at EPA regional offices and at State water pollution control agency offices. Copies of the Development Document may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., 20402. Copies of the economic analysis report will be available for purchase through the National Technical Information Service, Springfield, Virginia, 22151.

On June 14, 1973, the Agency published procedures designed to insure that, when certain major standards, regulations, and guidelines are proposed, an explanation of their basis, purpose and environmental effects is made available to the public (38 FR 15653). The procedures are applicable to major standards, regulations and guidelines, which are proposed on or after December 31, 1973, and which either prescribe national standards of environmental quality or require national emission, effluent or performance standards or limitations.

The Agency determined to implement these procedures in order to insure that the public was provided with background information to assist it in commenting on the merits of a proposed action. In brief, the procedures call for the Agency to make public the information available to it delineating the major environmental effect of a proposed action, to discuss the pertinent nonenvironmental factors affecting the decision, and to explain the viable options available to it and the reasons for the option selected.

The procedures contemplate publication of this information in the FEDERAL REGISTER, where this is practicable. They provide, however, that where such publication is impracticable because of the length of these materials, the material may be made available in an alternate format.

The Development Document referred to above contains information available to the Agency concerning the major environmental effects of the regulation proposed below. The information includes: (1) The identification of pollutants present in waste waters resulting from the processing of apple, citrus, and potato products, the characteristics of these pollutants, and the degree of pollutant reduction obtainable through implementation of the proposed standard; and (2) the anticipated effects on other aspects of the environment (including air, subsurface waters, solid waste disposal and land use, and noise) of the treatment technologies available to meet the standard proposed.

The Development Document and the economic analysis report referred to above also contain information available to the Agency regarding the estimated cost and energy consumption implications of those treatment technologies and the potential effects of those costs on the price and production of apple, citrus and potato products. The two reports exceed, in the aggregate, 100 pages in length and contain a substantial number of charts, diagrams and tables. It is clearly impracticable to publish the material contained in these documents in the FEDERAL REGISTER. To the extent possible, significant aspects of the material have been presented in summary form in the preamble to the proposed regulation containing effluent limitations guidelines, new source performance standards and pretreatment standards for new sources within the canned and preserved fruits and vegetables processing category (38 FR 31076; November 9, 1973). Additional discussion is contained in the analysis of public comments on the proposed regulation and the Agency's response to those comments. This discussion appears in the preamble to the promulgated regulation (40 CFR Part 407) which currently is being published in the rules and regulations section of the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The options available to the Agency in establishing the level of pollutant reduction obtainable through the best practicable control technology currently available, and the reasons for the particular level of reduction selected are discussed in the documents described above. In applying the effluent limitations guidelines to pretreatment standards for the introduction of incompatible pollutants into municipal systems by existing sources in the apple juice subcategory, apple products subcategory, citrus products subcategory, frozen potato products subcategory and dehydrated potato products subcategory, the Agency has, essentially, three options. The first is to declare that the guidelines do not apply. The second is to apply the guidelines unchanged. The third is to modify the guidelines to reflect: (1) Differences between direct dischargers and plants utilizing municipal systems which affect the practicability of the latter employing the technology available to achieve the effluent limitations guidelines; or (2) characteristics of the relevant pollutants which require higher levels of reduction (or permit less stringent levels) in order to insure that the pollutants do not interfere with the treatment works or pass through them untreated.

For the apple juice and apple products subcategories, citrus products subcategory and the frozen and dehydrated potato products subcategories, the first option is appropriate and the guidelines should not apply. While potential problems could occur from discharges of large quantities of caustic solutions from peeling operations such as lye dip potato peelers, D'limonene from citrus peel operations, or oil from frying operations, adequate in-plant control methods are available to keep significant quantities of these materials out of the waste water.

Interested persons may participate in this rulemaking by submitting written comments in triplicate to the EPA Information Center, Environmental Protection Agency, Washington, D.C. 20460, Attention: Mr. Philip B. Wisman. Comments on all aspects of the proposed regulations are solicited. In the event comments are in the nature of criticisms as to the adequacy of data which is available, or which may be relied upon by the Agency, comments should identify and, if possible, provide any additional data which may be available and should indicate why such data is essential to the development of the regulations. In the event comments address the approach taken by the Agency in establishing pretreatment standards for existing sources, EPA solicits suggestions as to what alternative approach should be taken and why and how this alternative better satisfies the detailed requirements of sections 301, 304 and 307(b) of the Act.

A copy of all public comments will be available for inspection and copying at the EPA Information Center, Room 227, West Tower, Waterside Mall, 401 M Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20460. The EPA information regulation, 40 CFR Part 2, provides that a reasonable fee may be charged for copying.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is hereby proposed that 40 CFR Part 407 be amended to add §§ 407.14, 407.24, 407.34, 407.44, and 407.54 as set forth below. All comments received within thirty days of the publication of this notice of proposed rulemaking will be considered.

Dated: March 12, 1974.

JOHN QUARLES,
Acting Administrator.

PART 407—CANNED AND PRESERVED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES PROCESSING POINT SOURCE CATEGORY

40 CFR Part 407 is proposed to be amended by adding the following sections as follows:

* * * * *

Sec.
407.14 Pretreatment Standards for Existing Sources.
407.24 Pretreatment Standards for Existing Sources.
407.34 Pretreatment Standards for Existing Sources.
407.44 Pretreatment Standards for Existing Sources.
407.54 Pretreatment Standards for Existing Sources.

Subpart A—Apple Juice Subcategory

For the purpose of pretreatment standards for incompatible pollutants established under 40 CFR 128.133, the effluent limitations guidelines set forth in 40 CFR 407.12 above shall not apply and, subject to the provisions of 40 CFR Part 128 concerning pretreatment, process waste water from this subcategory may be introduced into a publicly owned treatment works.

Title 3—The President

PROCLAMATION 4276

Armed Forces Day

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

Through their vigilance and fortitude, our Armed Forces have preserved our independence as a Nation. Today they serve as the bulwark of our freedom as we strive for lasting world peace.

The responsibility of the more than 2 million fine men and women in the Armed Forces of the United States is an awesome one and, in doing their duty, they exemplify the spirit, courage and patriotism that have made America a great Nation.

It is particularly fitting that we should recognize their sacrifices today, at a time when the prospect for a future free of war is the brightest in years. We must never forget that it is those who wear our country's uniform who have made this prospect possible.

Having defended us in time of war, they stand today as guardians of an honorable peace. Honor and gratitude are their due from this generation of Americans and from generations yet unborn.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD NIXON, President of the United States of America and Commander in Chief of the Armed Forces of the United States, do hereby proclaim the third Saturday of each May as Armed Forces Day.

I direct the Secretary of Defense on behalf of the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, and the Marine Corps, and the Secretary of Transportation on behalf of the Coast Guard, to plan for appropriate observances each year, with the Secretary of Defense responsible for soliciting the participation and cooperation of civil authorities and private citizens.

I invite the Governors of the States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and other areas subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, to provide for the observance of Armed Forces Day within their jurisdiction each year in an appropriate manner designed to enhance public understanding and appreciation of the Armed Forces of the United States as protectors of freedom at home and abroad.

I call upon my fellow Americans to proudly display the flag of the United States at their homes on Armed Forces Day.

V 39 I 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

Proclamation No. 3655 of May 7, 1965, is hereby superseded.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this twenty-first day of March, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred seventy-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred ninety-eighth.

Richard Nixon

Rules and Regulations

This section of the FEDERAL REGISTER contains regulatory documents having general applicability and legal effect most of which are keyed to and codified in the Code of Federal Regulations, which is published under 50 titles pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 1510.

The Code of Federal Regulations is sold by the Superintendant of Documents. Prices of new books are listed in the first FEDERAL REGISTER issue of each month.

Title 7—Agriculture

CHAPTER VII—AGRICULTURAL STABILIZATION AND CONSERVATION SERVICE (AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT), DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

SUBCHAPTER B—FARM MARKETING QUOTAS AND ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS

[Amdt. 3]

PART 729—PEANUTS

Subpart—Regulations for Determination of Acreage Allotments and Marketing Quotas for 1972 and Subsequent Crops of Peanuts

Miscellaneous Amendments

This amendment of the allotment and marketing quota regulations for peanuts of the 1972 and subsequent crops is issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1281 et seq.).

(1) Section 729.32 is amended to provide that when a producer offers a lot of peanuts for market he shall present a marketing card to the buyer to identify the lot of peanuts.

(2) Section 729.33(d)(4) is revoked since the notation "Eligible for Price Support" will not be entered on the excess marketing card because program compliance regulations (7 CFR Part 718) are being amended to eliminate tolerances in program compliance determinations relating to measured acreages for the 1974 crop year.

(3) The recent reorganization of ASCS is reflected by changing the reference in § 729.42 from "Oilseeds and Special Crops Division" to "Tobacco and Peanut Division" and by changing the reference in § 729.65 from "Commodity Stabilization Division" to "Program Operations Division".

(4) Section 729.43 is amended to establish the basic penalty rate for the 1973 crop of peanuts.

(5) Section 729.47 is corrected to show when penalty and interest are due on peanuts if a farm is found to be excess after the crop has been marketed and for cases where penalty is determined on the basis of a normal yield.

(6) Section 729.58 is amended to require certain entries to be made on the marketing card if the peanuts are found by the Inspection Service to contain Aspergillus flavus mold and the producer removes the peanuts from marketing. The entry would be made by the Federal State Inspector if it were not recorded by the person to whom the producer intended to market the peanuts.

The planting of peanuts of the 1974 crop is underway and it is essential that producers and buyers know the provisions of this amendment as soon as possible. Accordingly, it is hereby determined that compliance with the notice, public procedure, and effective date provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553 is unnecessary, impracticable, and contrary to the public interest, and this document shall become effective upon the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The regulations for determination of acreage allotments and marketing quotas for 1972 and subsequent crops of peanuts (37 FR 2645, 3629, 23413, 28124) are amended as follows:

1. A new paragraph (c) is added to § 729.32 to read as follows:

* * * * *

(c) Custody of card by buyer. When a producer first offers a lot of peanuts for market, he shall present a marketing card to the buyer which will be used to identify the lot of peanuts. The marketing card shall remain in the custody of the buyer until the lot of peanuts is marketed or until the producer removes the lot of peanuts from marketing. The producer may leave his marketing card in the custody of the buyer during the period between marketing lots of peanuts to the same buyer; however, the marketing card shall not be left in the possession of the buyer after the producer has completed his marketings for the season.

§ 729.33 [Amended]

2. Subparagraph (4) of paragraph (d) of § 729.33 is revoked.

§ 729.42 [Amended]

3. The first sentence of paragraph (a) of § 729.42 is amended by striking the words "Oilseeds and Special Crops Division" and substituting in lieu thereof the words "Tobacco and Peanut Division".

4. A new subparagraph (2) is added to paragraph (b) of § 729.43 to read as follows:

* * * * *

(b) Future years. * * *

(2) 1973 crop. The basic support price for peanuts for the marketing year beginning August 1, 1973, and ending July 31, 1974, is $328.50 per ton or 16.42 cents per pound. Therefore, the basic penalty rate for the 1973 crop of peanuts is 12.3 cents per pound.

5. Section 729.47 is revised to read as follows:

A draft, money order, or check drawn payable to the "Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, USDA" may be used to pay any penalty, other indebtedness, or interest thereon, but any such draft or check shall be received subject to collection and payment at par. For purposes of this section the penalty becomes due on the date of marketing, or in the case of false identification or failure to account for the disposition of peanuts, the date of the false identification or failure to account, as applicable. The person liable for payment or collection of the penalty shall be liable also for interest thereon at the rate of 6 percent per annum. Interest shall begin to accrue from the date penalty was due if the penalty is not remitted by Monday of the third calendar week following the week in which the peanuts were marketed. Where a farm is found to have excess peanuts after peanuts are marketed and, for cases of false identification or failure to account if the penalty is not paid 15 days after written notice to the producer, interest shall begin to accrue from the date of written notice to the producer.

6. Paragraph (a) of § 729.58 is amended to read as follows:

(a) Recording purchase on producers marketing card. Each marketing of peanuts from a farm shall be recorded by the buyer or his representative on a marketing card which has been presented by the producer to the buyer to identify each marketing and which has been issued for the farm on which the peanuts were produced. If the Inspection Service finds that a lot of peanuts contain visible Aspergillus flavus mold and the producer does not market the peanuts at that time, there shall be recorded on the first blank line available inside the marketing card, the date the lot of peanuts was inspected, the notation "Seg. 3 Peanuts not sold" and the marketing card shall be returned to the producer. If the recording is not made by the person to whom the producer had intended to market the peanuts, it shall be made by the Federal State Inspector.

§ 729.65 [Amended]

7. The first sentence of § 729.65 is amended by striking the words "Commodity Stabilization Division" and substituting in lieu thereof "Program Operations Division."

CHAPTER IX—AGRICULTURAL MARKETING SERVICE (MARKETING AGREEMENTS AND ORDERS; FRUITS, VEGETABLES, NUTS), DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

[Lemon Reg. 631]

PART 910—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

Limitation of Handling

This regulation fixes the quantity of California-Arizona lemons that may be shipped to fresh market during the weekly regulation period March 24–30, 1974. It is issued pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and Marketing Order No. 910. The quantity of lemons so fixed was arrived at after consideration of the total available supply of lemons, the quantity of lemons currently available for market, the fresh market demand for lemons, lemon prices, and the relationship of season average returns to the parity price for lemons.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 910, as amended (7 CFR Part 910), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) The need for this section to limit the quantity of lemons that may be marketed during the ensuing week stems from the production and marketing situation confronting the lemon industry.

(i) The committee has submitted its recommendation with respect to the quantity of lemons it deems advisable to be handled during the ensuing week. Such recommendation resulted from consideration of the factors enumerated in the order. The committee further reports the demand for lemons is about steady, although it shows further weakening on 165's and smaller lemons and some strengthening on 115's and larger sizes. Average f.o.b. price was $5.92 per carton the week ended March 16, 1974 compared to $5.61 per carton the previous week. Track and rolling supplies at 130 cars were up 8 cars from last week.

(ii) Having considered the recommendation and information submitted by the committee, and other available information, the Secretary finds that the quantity of lemons which may be handled should be fixed as hereinafter set forth.

(3) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for lemons and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on March 19, 1974.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in California and Arizona which may be handled during the period March 24, 1974, through March 30, 1974, is hereby fixed at 250,000 cartons.

(2) As used in this section, "handled", and "carton(s)" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674).)

Dated: March 20, 1974.

CHARLES R. BRADER,
Deputy Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

Title 8—Aliens and Nationality

CHAPTER I—IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE, DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Miscellaneous Amendments

Pursuant to section 552 of Title 5 of the United States Code (80 Stat. 383) and the authority contained in section 103 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (66 Stat. 173; 8 U.S.C. 1103) and 8 CFR 2.1, miscellaneous amendments, as set forth herein, are prescribed in Parts 212, 238, 264, 299, and 316a of Chapter I of Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

In Part 212, § 212.2(f) is amended to provide that jurisdiction to consider an application for permission to reapply for admission to the United States after deportation or removal filed under that subsection lies with the district director who exercised or is exercising jurisdiction over the most recent proceeding relating to the applicant. The amendment serves to consolidate under the same district director jurisdiction over multiple proceedings relating to the same alien where one of the proceedings is an application for permission to reapply under 8 CFR 212.2(f), thereby eliminating unnecessary transfer of the Service file relating to the alien.

An agreement for preinspection at Bermuda of flights of Braniff Airways, Incorporated, destined to the United States, has been entered into between Braniff Airways, Incorporated, and the Commissioner of Immigration, and Naturalization pursuant to sections 103 and 238(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. Accordingly, in Part 238, § 238.4 is amended by adding "Braniff Airways, Incorporated" to the listing of transportation lines which have entered into agreements for the preinspection of their passengers and crews at places outside the United States.

In Part 264, § 264.1(b) is amended by adding Form I–221S (Order to Show Cause, Notice of Hearing, and Warrant for Arrest of Alien) to the listing of forms which constitute evidence of alien registration. A corollary amendment is made in Part 299 by adding Form I–221S to the listing of immigration forms in § 299.1.

Executive Order No. 11760, dated January 17, 1974, designates the "European Space Research Organization (ESRO)" as a public international organization entitled to enjoy the privileges, exemptions, and immunities provided for by the International Organizations Immunities Act. Executive Order No. 11760 supersedes Executive Order No. 11318 of December 5, 1966, designating "European Space Research Organization" as a public international organization. Accordingly, in Part 316a, § 316a.4 is amended by adding to and deleting from the listing therein the specified public international organizations.

In the light of the foregoing, the following amendments to Chapter I of Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations are hereby prescribed:

PART 212—DOCUMENTARY REQUIREMENTS: NONIMMIGRANTS; WAIVERS; ADMISSION OF CERTAIN INADMISSIBLE ALIENS; PAROLE

In § 212.2(f), the existing sentence is amended and a new sentence is added. As amended, § 212.2(f) reads as follows:

§ 212.2 Consent to reapply for admission after deportation, removal or departure at Government expense.

• • • • • •

(f) Other applicants. An applicant for permission to reapply for admission under circumstances other than those described in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), or (e) of this section shall file Form I–212 with the district director having jurisdiction over the place where the deportation or removal proceedings were held, or with the district director who exercised or is exercising jurisdiction over the most recent proceeding relating to the applicant. If the Service file relating to the applicant is no longer within the district in which the application is filed, the application shall be forwarded for decision to the district director in whose district the file is located.

• • • • • •

PART 238—CONTRACTS WITH TRANSPORTATION LINES

§ 238.4 [Amended]

The listing of transportation lines under "At Bermuda" of § 238.4 Preinspection outside the United States is amended by adding thereto in alphabetical sequence the following transportation line: "Braniff Airways, Inc.".

PART 264—REGISTRATION AND FINGERPRINTING OF ALIENS IN THE UNITED STATES

The listing of Forms in § 264.1(b) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following form:

• • • • • •

(b) Evidence of registration. The following forms constitute evidence of registration:

Form No. and Class
• • • • •
I–221S Order to Show Cause, Notice of Hearing, and Warrant for Arrest of Alien—Aliens against whom deportation proceedings are being instituted.

PART 299—IMMIGRATION FORMS

The listing of forms in § 299.1 is amended by adding thereto in alphabetical and numerical sequence the following form:

Form No., Title, and Description
• • • • •
I–221S (12–1–73) Order to Show Cause, Notice of Hearing, and Warrant for Arrest of Alien.
• • • • •

PART 316a—RESIDENCE, PHYSICAL PRESENCE AND ABSENCE

§ 316a.4 [Amended]

The listing of public international organizations in § 316a.4 International Organizations Immunities Act designations is amended by adding thereto in alphabetical sequence the following organization: "European Space Research Organization (ESRO) (E.O. 11760, Jan. 17, 1974)"; and is further amended by deleting therefrom the following organization: "European Space Research Organization (E.O. 11318, Dec. 5, 1966)".

Compliance with the provisions of section 553 of Title 5 of the United States Code (80 Stat. 383) as to notice of proposed rule making and delayed effective date is unnecessary in this instance and will serve no useful purpose because the amendment to § 212.2(f) relates to agency management and procedure; the amendment to § 238.4 adds a transportation line to the listing; the amendments to §§ 264.1(b) and 299.1 add a form to the listings; and the amendment to § 316a.4 adds a public international organization to the listing and deletes an organization from the listing.

Effective date. This order shall become effective March 22, 1974.

Dated: March 19, 1974.

L. F. CHAPMAN, JR.,
Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization.

Title 9—Animals and Animal Products

CHAPTER I—ANIMAL AND PLANT HEALTH INSPECTION SERVICE, DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

SUBCHAPTER B—COOPERATIVE CONTROL AND ERADICATION OF LIVESTOCK OR POULTRY DISEASES

PART 56—SWINE DESTROYED BECAUSE OF HOG CHOLERA

Payment of Indemnities

Statement of consideration. The purpose of this amendment is to increase the maximum indemnity which may be paid for swine destroyed because of hog cholera. The amendment would: (1) Increase the maximum indemnities which may be paid for swine slaughtered because of hog cholera in States listed in § 76.2(g) from $180 to $360 per head for purebred, inbred, or hybrid swine and for breeding swine, or from $90 to $180 for all other swine; (2) increase the maximum indemnity which may be paid in States listed in § 76.2(f) from $150 to $300 per head for purebred, inbred, or hybrid swine and for breeding swine, or from $75 to $150 for all other swine; and (3) increase the maximum indemnity which may be paid in States whether listed or unlisted in § 76.2 (f) or (g) from $100 to $200 per head for purebred, inbred, or hybrid swine and for breeding swine, or from $50 to $100 per head for all other swine.

This action is needed to bring indemnity paid for swine destroyed because of hog cholera more in line with current market prices and to avoid excessive losses by owners when such swine are destroyed.

Proposal to increase indemnity paid for swine destroyed because of hog cholera has been reviewed with State animal health officials of the various States. Of the 42 comments received, 40 were favorable, one was not in favor of the increase on the basis that the present payments were adequate, one indicated that their State would not be affected by the amendment, and one was in agreement but stated that additional State funds for payment of indemnity could not be allocated at this time.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Act of May 29, 1884, as amended, the Act of February 2, 1903, as amended, the Act of March 3, 1905, as amended, the Act of September 6, 1961, and the Act of July 2, 1962 (21 U.S.C. 111–113, 114, 114a, 114g, 115, 117, 120, 121, 123–126, 134a–134h), Part 56, Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations, relating to the payment of indemnity for swine destroyed because of hog cholera, is hereby amended in the following respects:

In § 56.7, paragraphs (b) (1), (2), and (3) are amended to read:

• • • • • •

(b) • • •

(1) In States listed in § 76.2(g) of this chapter, which qualify under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, an indemnity may be paid not to exceed $360 per head for purebred, inbred, or hybrid swine and for breeding swine, or $180 per head for all other swine.

(2) In States listed in § 76.2(f) and in those States not listed in either § 76.2 (f) or (g) of this chapter, which qualify under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, an indemnity may be paid not to exceed $300 per head for purebred, inbred, or hybrid swine and for breeding swine, or $150 per head for all other swine.

(3) In States, whether listed or unlisted in § 76.2 (f) or (g) of this chapter, which do not qualify under the identification requirement in paragraph (a) of this section, an indemnity may be paid not to exceed $200 per head for purebred, inbred, or hybrid swine and for breeding swine, or $100 per head for all other swine.

• • • • • •

(Secs. 3–5, 23 Stat. 32, as amended; sec. 2, 32 Stat. 792, as amended; sec. 3, 33 Stat. 1265, as amended; sec. 11, 58 Stat. 734, as amended; 75 Stat. 481, 76 Stat. 129–132 (21 U.S.C. 111–113, 114, 114a, 114g, 115, 117, 120, 121, 123–126, and 134a–134h); 37 FR 28464, 28477; 38 FR 19141)

Effective date. The foregoing amendment shall become effective March 22, 1974.

In expediting the completion of the hog cholera eradication program, it is essential that the provisions of this amendment be placed in effect without delay. Accordingly, under the administrative procedure provisions in 5 U.S.C. 553, it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the amendment are impracticable and unnecessary, and good cause is found for making the amendment effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

SUBCHAPTER D—SPECIAL REGULATIONS

[Reg. SPR-74; Amdt. No. 5]

PART 372a—TRAVEL GROUP CHARTERS

Authorizing Amendments

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C.

By SPDR-33 [1] the Board issued a notice of proposed rule making to amend Part 372a to permit certificated air carriers and foreign air carriers to perform foreign-originating Travel Group Charters (TGC's) in accordance with the laws of the country of origin, rather than with the requirements presently prescribed for TGC's in Part 372a. Pursuant to the Notice comments have been filed by certain Member Carriers of the National Air Carrier Association (NACA),[2] certain Trunkline Carriers,[3] British Caledonian Always Limited (BCAL), British Midland Airways, Ltd., British Overseas Airways Corporation (BOAC), Condor Flugdienst G.m.b.H. (Condor) and Swiss Air Transport Company, Ltd. (Swissair). The NACA carriers and Swissair support the proposed rules; BCAL, British Midland, BOAC and Condor object to certain features of the proposal; and the Trunkline Carriers contend that the proposed rules would be unlawful insofar as applied to U.S. supplemental carriers.

Upon consideration, the Board has determined to adopt the rules in the form proposed. The tentative findings and conclusions set forth in SPDR-33 are incorporated and made final, except as modified or amplified herein.[3a] Before addressing the various arguments which the comments have raised against the proposed rules we shall set forth the background of this proceeding.

A. Background of this proceeding. On September 27, 1972, the Board adopted Part 372a governing the operation of TGC's. Essentially the regulation permits groups of 40 or more persons having no "prior affinity" to hire all or part of an aircraft for round-trip transportation, provided the group is formed at least ninety days in advance of the flight departure date, and each participant then pays at least a twenty-five percent nonrefundable deposit. The actual cost of the trip must be borne by the participant on a pro rata basis. Part 372a authorizes both U.S. and foreign direct air carriers to provide air transportation in connection with both foreign-originating and U.S.-originating TGC's, subject to compliance with the various conditions and restrictions set forth therein.

As noted in SPDR-33, the Board's adoption of Part 372a was largely motivated by its dissatisfaction with existing affinity charter rules, in that the "prior affinity" concept is inherently discriminatory and the rules directed to maintaining this concept had proven extremely difficult to enforce. These concerns about traditional affinity rules had been shared for some time by the regulatory authorities of many other countries, and some were considering adoption of novel "non-affinity" rules differing in some respects from the TGC rule which the Board had proposed. During the pendency of rule making proceedings culminating in the adoption of Part 372a, several participants had argued for the adoption of special rules with respect to foreign-originating TGC's, so as to permit such charters to be operated in conformance with the originating country's rules governing TGC's (or their counterparts, however designated), so long as the foreign country's rules were substantially similar to those prescribed by Part 372a. However, at the time the Board adopted Part 372a, no foreign country had as yet promulgated comparable charter rules, and the Board therefore considered it premature to attempt then to prescribe standards for determining whether another country's future rules would be substantially similar to ours. The Board did, however, express agreement in principle with the merits of the proposed "law of the country of origin" approach and indicated its willingness to deal with the matter later, in light of future developments in the international air transportation community, and to take appropriate implementing action—by amending our rules, granting waivers, or otherwise—giving due consideration to the interests of the public and the various competing classes of carriers.

Shortly after the Board's adoption of its TGC rules the United Kingdom announced its intention to adopt an Advance Booking Charter (ABC) rule, embodying a comparable concept; following that, representatives of the governments of the United States, Canada, and the 20 member states of the European Civil Aviation Conference (ECAC), met in Ottawa, Canada, and in October 1972 issued a joint Declaration of Agreed Principles for North Atlantic Charter Flights (Ottawa Principles). The Department of State, in announcing adoption of the Ottawa Principles, stated:

> It is expected that the Declaration, while it is not a treaty or an Executive Agreement, will provide a generally agreed framework which will permit all North Atlantic states to establish similar charter rules with respect to the new non-affinity class of air charters that will facilitate and regularize their operation on North Atlantic air routes.[4]

In addition, a contemporaneous letter from the Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Transportation and Telecommunications to the Chairman of the Canadian International Transport Policy Commission and the President of ECAC stated:

> Adherence to the Declaration signifies our intention to permit the operation to and from the United States of foreign-originating charters marketed under national rules consistent with the Declaration but differing from our own pro-rata regulations. To this end, we are prepared to undertake discussions with other interrelated authorities, at an appropriate early date, to arrive at [a] mutually agreeable regime for particular bilateral flows and to ensure fully reciprocal treatment for U.S.-originating TGC flights.[5]

Bilateral discussions concerning TGC/ABC services have since been held between the United States and other North Atlantic countries, and bilateral Memoranda of Understanding have been signed to date by the U.S. and the United Kingdom, the Netherlands, the Federal Republic of Germany, France, and Ireland.[6]

[3] American Airlines, Inc., Braniff Airways, Inc., Delta Air Lines, Inc., Eastern Air Lines, Inc., National Airlines, Inc., Pan American World Airways, Inc., Trans World Airlines, Inc., United Air Lines, Inc., and Western Air Lines, Inc.

[3a] Some of the minimum requirements for foreign-originating TGC's which we proposed in SPDR-33, and are adopting herein (§ 372a.60(b)), reflect parallel restrictions in our existing TGC rule. We are issuing, contemporaneously herewith, a notice of proposed rule making (SPDR-35) proposing, inter alia, some relaxation of these restrictions, (e.g., to reduce the pre-departure filing deadline from 90 days to 60 days). Accordingly, it should be noted that if we finally adopt these proposals, we would appropriately revise the rules adopted herein so as to reflect such relaxation in the parallel requirements for foreign-originating TGC's.

[6] Department of State Press Release 97, April 2, 1973. (United Kingdom); No. 113, April 16, 1973 (Federal Republic); No. 134, May 7, 1973 (France); No. 233, July 2, 1973 (Ireland); No. 255, July 18, 1973 (the Netherlands). The U.S. also has a bilateral Memorandum of Understanding with Belgium, signed in October 1972, respecting charter services. This agreement covers all types of charters, including TGC's, but does not deal specifically with the question of Belgium-originating TGC/ABC flights originating under the Belgian rules. An interim intergovernmental agreement concerning TGC/ABC services is also in effect with Austria pending formal conclusion of a Memorandum of Understanding. A nonscheduled air service agreement with Yugoslavia which includes TGC and ABC acceptance is also in effect (Department of State Press Release 352, September 27, 1973).

Each Memorandum of Understanding provides that each Party will accept as "charterworthy" traffic "originated in the territory of the other Party" and organized and operated "pursuant to the advance charter (TGC or ABC) rules of that Party." The Memoranda of Understanding with France, the Federal Republic of Germany and the United Kingdom further provide that the United States undertakes that its regulatory authorities will "[b]egin and conclude, as soon as practicable, rule making procedures to implement acceptance of the advance booking charter (ABC) rules" of the other Party.

In SPDR-33 the Board referred to the above-described developments which had occurred since Part 372a was adopted. In light of these circumstances, the Board stated that it believed that it would now be appropriate to propose amending Part 372a so as to authorize foreign air carriers holding section 402 permits, as well as all certificated carriers, to perform foreign-originated TGC's or ABC's organized in compliance with the rules of the country of origin, so long as: (1) those foreign rules are substantially similar to ours, and (2) there is in effect, between the country of origin and the United States, a formal agreement with respect to the charterworthiness of such operations. The Board also tentatively concluded that, in order for a foreign country's rules to be considered substantially similar to our own, they must embody, at a minimum, the following restrictions and conditions:

(1) The participants in each TGC/ABC group must travel together on both the outbound and inbound portions of the trip.

(2) Each TGC/ABC contract must cover at least forty seats.

(3) The list of actual participants (i.e., persons contractually bound to pay for a specifically identified flight) in each TGC/ABC group must be filed with appropriate regulatory authorities at least ninety days in advance of flight departures.

(4) If there is to be a list of "standbys" (i.e., eligible substitutes for participants) for a TGC/ABC, and if the cost of the TGC/ABC is prorated among participants, then the number of such standbys shall not exceed three times the number of participants; but if the cost to individual TGC/ABC participants is not prorated, then the number of standbys shall not be greater than the number of seats contracted for.

(5) No person shall be added to a standby list within ninety days prior to flight departure.

(6) If the cost of the TGC/ABC is prorated among participants, then standbys may be substituted for participants at any time prior to flight departure; but if the cost to individual TGC/ABC participants is not prorated, then standbys may not be substituted for participants within thirty days prior to flight departure.

(7) If the cost of the TGC/ABC is prorated among participants, then no more than twenty percent of the participants in any TGC/ABC groups may be persons whose names were included on the standby list for that TGC/ABC flight; but if the cost to individual TGC/ABC participants is not prorated, then no more than fifteen percent of the number of seats contracted for may be sold to persons whose names were on the standby list relating to such flight.

(8) A TGC/ABC must be "round trip" (i.e., including both a departure and return flight).

(9) If the cost of the TGC/ABC is prorated among participants, then a TGC/ABC must be for a minimum duration of at least seven days in the case of North American charters, and a minimum duration of at least ten days in the case of all other charters; but if the cost to individual TGC/ABC participants is not prorated, then during the period of April 1 to October 31, the TGC/ABC must provide for a minimum duration of at least fourteen days, and during the period of November 1 to March 31, the minimum duration must be at least ten days: Provided, however, That the minimum duration of a non-prorated North American TGC/ABC need not be greater than seven days.

(10) If the cost of the TGC/ABC is prorated among participants, then commingling of TGC/ABC groups with other categories of charter traffic is permitted, but if the cost to individual TGC/ABC participants is not prorated, then no commingling of TGC/ABC groups with other categories of charter traffic shall be permitted.

(11) The direct air carrier shall maintain a list of the passengers actually carried on each TGC/ABC flight.

B. Trunkline Carriers' arguments against proposed rules. The Trunkline Carriers contend that the proposed rules would abolish the restrictions "heretofore found necessary to distinguish TGC's from individually ticketed services" and would therefore be illegal insofar as they would apply to supplemental carriers. We do not agree. Although certain of the particular restrictions applicable to U.S.-originated TGC's will not be required of foreign-originated TGC/ABC's, other restrictions will apply to the latter which are not required of the former. Thus, insofar as TGC/ABC charter services are required to be distinguished from individually ticketed services, we find that the set of minimum restrictions prescribed by the within rules will preserve the required distinction, even if the particular restrictions comprising the set vary somewhat from those comprising our TGC set of restrictions.

In their argument the Trunklines have chosen not to consider whether the total impact of the restrictions the Board is imposing on foreign-originating TGC/ABC's maintain the necessary distinction between charters and individually ticketed services. Instead, they seize upon particular restrictions which, while imposed on outbound TGC's, will not be imposed on inbound TGC/ABC's, and contend that such restrictions are indispensable to preserving the distinction. The TGC restrictions which will not apply to foreign-originating TGC/ABC's are as follows: (1) The TGC/ABC traveler is not required to be a party to the charter contract itself, incurring liability for the pro rata share of the charter cost and running the risk that his cost may increase, depending on the load factor ultimately achieved; (2) members of TGC/ABC's are not required to have paid a nonrefundable deposit of their charter price before the time for filing the list of tour members has elapsed, nor are any later deposits required to be paid at specified times or to be nonrefundable, and thus the participant does not necessarily risk any forfeiture should be desire to change his plans; (3) there is not necessarily a risk of flight cancellation up to 45 days prior to scheduled departure because of defaults by fellow charter participants, nor necessarily any financial risk of price increases because of such defaults.[6a]

Yet, in affirming the TGC rule, the Court of Appeals did not hold, in Saturn Airways, Inc. v. C.A.B.,[7] that each of the restrictions of TGC's is indispensable to maintain the distinction between TGC's and individually ticketed services, nor has the Board ever so held.[8] To the contrary, in adopting the TGC rule, the Board separately listed a number of restrictive features of TGC's,[9] each of which distinguished TGC's from individually ticketed services, and concluded that "in view of the aforedescribed restrictions and limitations on performance of travel

[6a] Of course, organizers of foreign-originating TGC/ABC's will undoubtedly, in their own economic interest, include in participants' contracts provisions for required times of payment, partial or complete forfeiture in the event of default or change of plans, cancellation of the charter under certain circumstances, and so forth. The foreign ABC rules do not in general forbid such contract provisions; they simply do not mandate them as does our TGC rule.

[8] Contrary to the Trunklines' contention, the Board did not represent in its brief to the court, in Saturn Airways, Inc. v. C.A.B., that it held such a view. What the Board's brief said, with respect to the entire set of its restrictions, was that "• • • the Board's TGC rules establish an elaborate regulatory scheme designed to ensure that TGC's are significantly different from the conventional service available to the individual traveler. On their face, we submit they demonstrate a substantial and vital difference between TGC travel and conventional travel" (p. 37). That we were urging the court to judge the total effect of the restrictions, rather than the indispensability of any one or several of them, was made even more clearly when we said, with reference to the requirement of exclusive marketing by charter organizers: "This element is one of the group of restrictive requirements which serve to distinguish TGC service from individually-ticketed service. While any one of these requirements may or may not be essential for this purpose, they are to be taken together in forming the distinction between the two types of service." (Emphasis added.) (P. 85.)

[9] (1) The pro rata requirement; (2) risk of flight cancellations; (3) formation of the group well in advance of departure with a substantial nonrefundable deposit; (4) requirement that all TGC participants move together as a group on both legs of the trip; and (5) the minimum stay requirement.

group charters, none of which are applicable to individually ticketed service" (emphasis added), TGC's are unquestionably distinguishable from individually ticketed services.[10]

Furthermore, it is well-settled by now that, so long as the distinction between the two types of services is maintained, the formulation of particular requirements to achieve this end is for the Board to determine. "Charter" is not defined in the Act, nor does it have a fixed meaning, and so long as the distinction is not breached it is for the Board to evolve reasonable definitions.[11] "Congress has given the Board a singularly clean slate upon which to write its conception of charter services." [12]

We are satisfied that to the extent that it is legally necessary to maintain a distinction between charter and individually ticketed services, each of the following restrictions and conditions we are specifying with respect to foreign-originated ABC's is not normally an incident of individually ticketed service, and the cumulative effect of the set of restrictions adequately precludes the use of TGC/ABC charters as a guise for individually ticketed service:

(a) The participants in each TGC/ABC group must travel together on both outbound and inbound portions of the trip. No such restriction is ordinarily required of individually ticketed travelers.

(b) At least ninety days in advance of flight departures, TGC/ABC participants are contractually bound to pay for a specifically identified flight. This is not a characteristic of individually ticketed travel.

(c) A TGC/ABC must be "round trip," including both a departure and return flight. An individually ticketed traveler normally has a choice between purchasing a one-way or round-trip ticket.

(d) There is a minimum-stay requirement for TGC/ABC participants, a requirement not generally imposed on individually ticketed travelers.[13]

The Trunkline Carriers seem particularly concerned with the fact that, unlike outbound TGC's, there is no requirement that inbound TGC/ABC participants must bear a pro rata share of the total cost of the charter. This factor has never been considered a sine qua non of charters. Even though the presence of this factor in a charter rule goes a long way toward indicating that the statutory distinction is being preserved, the absence of a pro rata feature hardly establishes the converse. Indeed, except for outbound TGC's and prior affinity charters, none of the other types of charters which air carriers and foreign air carriers are authorized to perform [14] require all participants to share equally the total charter cost or to make up the shares of defaulting participants.

Moreover, the within rules impose several more stringent restrictions on those foreign-originated TGC/ABC's from countries whose rules do not include a pro rata requirement. For example, in such cases, the minimum-stay limitation for charters outside of North America will be 14 days during the peak season (instead of 10 days); the permissible number of standbys cannot exceed the number of seats contracted for (instead of three times the number of participants); standbys cannot be substituted for participants within 30 days of departure (instead of at any time prior to departure); the number of passengers whose names were on the standby list cannot exceed 15 percent of the number of seats contracted for (instead of 20 percent of the participants); and the TGC/ABC, if it is a split charter, cannot be combined on the same aircraft with other categories of split charters. The effect of these rules, imposing additional restrictions on foreign ABC charters which do not contain a pro rata requirement than are imposed on those operated under rules which do contain a pro rata requirement, is to assure that, on an overall basis, the different sets of restrictions applicable to either situation will be comparably stringent.

Finally, while no other country operates within precisely the same statutory framework as the United States, all of the other countries which joined in subscribing to the Ottawa Principles share a common interest in preserving the distinction between group and individually ticketed air service. Typically, each of these countries has its own national-flag scheduled carrier (in many case government-owned) whose interests its government at all times strives to advance and protect. Where these countries also have charter-only carriers (usually privately owned), the governments limit such carriers to a subordinate or supplementary role as a matter of long-established policy even if not as a matter of explicit statutory requirement; and the governments of countries not having their own charter-only carriers similarly limit the authority they grant the charter-only carriers of other countries, including the U.S. supplemental carriers.[14a] These governments, like our own, have heretofore largely relied on the "prior affinity" concept as a means of limiting the role of the charter-only carriers, but like us they have in recent years become increasingly disillusioned with this concept, and a number have announced a firm intention of doing away with prior affinity charters in the near future. The Ottawa Principles represent an international consensus as to the most appropriate range of substitutes for the prior affinity concept as a means of preserving the distinction between scheduled individually ticketed and nonscheduled group air travel which all countries consider vital. While the Board has continued to view a pro rata requirement as a desirable component of the new charter form designed to replace affinity charters, most other governments have preferred to rely instead on other types of restrictions to achieve the same purpose. Thus, in asking us to conclude that sets of restrictions which comport with the Ottawa Principles and our proposed rule for foreign-originating charters nevertheless fail to preserve the essential distinction between individually ticketed and supplemental air transportation, the Trunkline Carriers are asking us to conclude that a considerable number of foreign governments, including many of the leading powers in the international aviation community, either have completely mistaken the problem or have abandoned their long-held policies of preserving the foregoing distinction. We cannot subscribe to any such conclusion.

We therefore conclude that nothing submitted by the Trunkline Carriers causes us to withdraw or modify our tentative conclusion in SPDR–33, which we now make final, that the cumulative effect of the various restrictions on foreign-originating TGC/ABC's will "ensure that charter travel [does] not become a guise for individually ticketed services." [15]

C. Other objections to proposed rules. 1. BCAL notes that proposed § 372a.60 (b) (1) requires that the "participants in each TGC/ABC group must travel together on both the outbound and inbound portions of the trip." BCAL states that such a requirement is not imposed by the United Kingdom Civil Aviation Authority (C.A.A.) regulations and asks the Board to eliminate "the single incompatibility" between the Board's criteria and the C.A.A. rules. Similarly, BOAC contends that the proposed rules should accept as charterworthy, without the necessity of ad hoc waivers from the Board's rules, foreign-originated ABC's organized and operated pursuant to ABC rules of a foreign country when there is in effect an agreement with that country to recognize the charterworthiness of such operations.[16] BOAC adds:

> That is the regulation which the United States has specifically undertaken by international agreement to implement, and it is the only regulation which lawfully adopt in this area the requirements of section 1102 of the Act.[17]

Section 1102 requires the Board to perform its duties under the Act consistently with any international agreements.[18] However, there is nothing in that section which dispenses with the requirement of section 402(a) of the Act that no foreign air carrier shall engage in foreign air transportation unless there is in force a permit issued by the Board authorizing such carrier so to engage.[19] Thus, for example, where a permit is issued to a foreign air carrier under section 402(b) authorizing it to engage solely in "charter" services, it is clear to us that no international agreement can confer additional rights on such a carrier as to permit it to engage in other than charter services in violation of its permit.

Accordingly, we consider it our duty under the Act to impose restrictions and conditions on foreign-originated TGC/ABC's to insure that such operations are not in violation of the charter authority which carriers have been granted by the Board. Nevertheless, in light of the bilateral agreements, the instant rule provides blanket authority for foreign-originated TGC's in line with the Ottawa Principles, which establish "a generally agreed framework which will permit all North Atlantic states to establish substantially similar rules." [20] This rule should generally enable TGC/ABC's to be flown from all countries with which this government has signed agreements, pursuant to both their ABC rules and our rules. We have, however, taken account of the fact that the rules of a particular foreign signatory may embody variations which do not authorize operations impermissible under the carriers' authority. In such case, authority to operate charters under the foreign rules could be obtained by waiver, pursuant to § 372a.3.[21]

2. Finally, Condor requests the elimination of § 372a.60(b)(10), which reads:

> If the cost of the TGC/ABC is prorated among participants, then commingling of TGC/ABC groups with other categories of charter traffic is permitted, but if the cost to individual TGC/ABC participants is not prorated, then no commingling of TGC/ABC groups with other categories of charter traffic shall be permitted.

Condor states that this restriction on commingling of non-prorated TGC/ABC's with any other type of charter on the same aircraft is not supported by any apparent logic and, in addition, is contrary to the letter and spirit of the Memorandum of Understanding between the Federal Republic of Germany and the United States.

We reject this argument. As explained above,[22] we think it necessary and desirable to impose different restrictions on non-prorated TGC/ABC's than on those which are prorated, so that the cumulative effect of the different sets of restrictions will be comparably stringent. We therefore believe it reasonable to extend to TGC/ABC's which are prorated the same commingling privileges which are enjoyed by our own TGC's, while withholding this privilege from TGC/ABC's which are not prorated.

In addition, we see nothing in § 372a.60 (b) (10) which is contrary to the letter or spirit of the Memorandum of Understanding between the United States and the Federal Republic of Germany. Condor states that the provision on which it relies [23] contemplates commingling of ABC charters with groups organized in accordance with other regulations.

We believe that the provision in the Memorandum of Understanding upon which Condor relies is essentially an enforcement tool, to ensure that commingling is conducted in accordance with the regulations of either party, but does not purport to create a substantive right to commingle. Moreover, and more fundamentally, contrary to Condor's implicit assumption, we read the ABC rules of the Federal Republic of Germany as explicitly prohibiting the commingling of ABC groups with other types of charter traffic,[24] so that the restriction against which Condor complains is prohibited by the law of the country of origin, and not only by our § 372a.60(b) (10).

Condor's request to eliminate this provision from our rules is therefore denied.[25]

In consideration of the foregoing, the Board hereby amends Part 372a of its Special Regulations (14 CFR Part 372a) effective April 22, 1974, as follows:

1. Amend the table of contents by adding a new Subpart F, the Table as amended to read in part as follows:

Subpart F—Foreign-Originating Travel Group Charters

372a.60 Foreign-originating travel group charters.

2. Amend the definitions of "travel group charter" and "travel group charter organizer" in § 372a.2 to read as follows:

§ 372a.2 Definitions.

As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires—

* * * * *

"Travel group charter" means a round-trip charter to be performed by one or more direct air carriers which is arranged and sponsored by a charter organizer for a travel group and which meets the requirements set forth in §§ 372a.10 or 372a.60, whichever is applicable.

"Travel group charter organizer" means (1) any citizen of the United States, as defined in section 101(13) of the Act (other than a direct air carrier), who is authorized hereunder to engage in the formation of travel groups in accordance with the provisions of this part; or (2) a foreign charter organizer.

3. Amend § 372a.22 by adding, as a new paragraph (e), matter deleted hereinabove from § 372a.2, the section, as amended, to read as follows:

§ 372a.22 Operating authorization of charter organizer.

* * * * *

(e) With respect to the charter contract, such charter organizer acts solely as agent for, and holds all moneys received from any source in connection therewith as agent for, the members of the travel group.

4. Amend § 372a.31 by inserting, following paragraph (a) a new paragraph (a–1), and by revising paragraph (b), the entire section, as amended, to read as follows:

§ 372a.31 Record retention.[26]

(a) Every charter organizer (other than a foreign charter organizer over whom the Board has declined to exercise its jurisdiction) conducting a travel group charter pursuant to this part shall retain for 2 years after completion of the charter or series of charters true copies of the following documents at its principal or general office in the United States (or, if it is a foreign charter or-

[17] BOAC also appears to assume that the Board is completely free to authorize foreign air carriers to engage in individually ticketed service. As pointed out hereinafter, we do not accept the validity of this assumption since, insofar as a foreign air carrier's permit limits it to performing "charters", we are bound to give meaning to that term.

[18] Section 1102 provides, in part: "In exercising and performing [its] powers and duties under this Act, the Board • • • shall do so consistently with any obligation assumed by the United States in any treaty, convention, or agreement that may be in force between the United States and any foreign country or foreign countries • • •. 49 U.S.C. 1502.

[24] Paragraph 3.4 provides: "The joint use of one aeroplane by several ABC groups (split charters) is permitted. The combined transportation of ABC groups and groups, the participants of which do not fulfill the ABC requirements, is not permitted."

(a–1) Every charter organizer (other than a foreign charter organizer over whom the Board has declined to exercise its jurisdiction) conducting a travel group charter pursuant to Subpart F of this part shall retain for 2 years after completion of the charter at its principal or general office in the United States true copies of all documents which it is required by the applicable rules of the originating country to file with the regulatory authorities of that country or to maintain in its own files for any specified period.

(b) Every such charter organizer shall make the documents required to be retained by the provisions of the foregoing paragraphs (a) or (a–1), as the case may be, available upon request by an authorized representative of the Board and shall permit such representative to make such notes and copies thereof as he deems appropriate.

5. Amend § 372a.40 to read as follows:

§ 372a.40 Charter not to be performed unless in compliance with part.

A direct air carrier shall not perform air transportation in connection with a travel group charter unless it has made a reasonable effort to verify that all provisions of this part have been complied with (or, if it is a foreign-originated charter to which Subpart F applies, that all provisions of the rules of the country of origin have been complied with), and that the charter organizer's authority under this part has not been suspended by the Board (or, if it is a foreign-originated charter to which Subpart F applies, that the charter organizer's authority has not been suspended by the regulatory authorities of the country of origin): Provided, however, That except with respect to foreign-originated charters operated pursuant to Subpart F of this part, where a travel group is organized by a foreign charter organizer over whom the Board has declined to exercise its jurisdiction pursuant to § 372a.20a, no direct air carrier may perform air transportation in connection with such travel group charter unless the charter is formed and implemented in accordance with the general conditions and limitations set forth in Subpart B of this part and the charter organizer performs all the acts and duties which this part requires to be performed by charter organizers within the Board's jurisdiction, other than the provisions set forth in §§ 372a.22(b)(4)(iii), 372a.25 and 372a.-31.

6. Amend Part 372a by adding a new Subpart F to read as follows:

Subpart F—Foreign-Originating Travel Group Charters

§ 372a.60 Foreign-originating travel group charters.

(a) Notwithstanding the general conditions and limitations set forth in Subpart B of this part or the conditions set forth in §§ 372a.22, 372a.25, 372a.27 through 372a.30, 372a.31(a)(1) of Subpart C of this part, or the prohibitions set forth in § 372a.41 and 372a.42 of Subpart D of this part, or the reporting requirements set forth in Subpart E of this part, direct air carriers and charter organizers (other than a foreign charter organizer over whom the Board has declined to exercise its jurisdiction) are authorized to operate and organize foreign-originating travel group or advance-booking charters (referred to herein as TGC/ABC) in compliance with the applicable rules of the originating country, so long as (1) such foreign rules conform to paragraph (b) of this section, and (2) there is in effect a formal agreement between the originating country and the United States with respect to the charterworthiness of such operations.

(b) The following are the restrictions and conditions to which foreign rules must conform in order for direct air carriers and charter organizers to operate and organize foreign-originating TGC/ABC charters pursuant to paragraph (a) above:

(1) The participants in each TGC/ABC group must travel together on both the outbound and inbound portions of the trip.

(2) Each TGC/ABC contract must cover at least forty (40) seats.

(3) The list of actual participants (i.e., persons contractually bound to pay for a specifically identified flight) in each TGC/ABC group must be filed with appropriate regulatory authorities at least ninety (90) days in advance of flight departures.

(4) If there is to be a list of "standbys" (i.e., eligible substitutes for participants) for a TGC/ABC, and if the cost of the TGC/ABC is prorated among participants, then the number of such standbys shall not exceed three times the number of participants; but if the cost to individual TGC/ABC participants is not prorated, then the number of standbys shall not be greater than the number of seats contracted for.

(5) No person shall be added to a standby list within ninety (90) days prior to flight departure.

(6) If the cost of the TGC/ABC is prorated among participants, then standbys may be substituted for participants at any time prior to flight departure; but if the cost to individual TGC/ABC participants is not prorated, then standbys may not be substituted for participants within thirty (30) days prior to flight departure.

(7) If the cost of the TGC/ABC is prorated among participants, then no more than twenty percent of the participants in any TGC/ABC group may be persons whose names were included on the standby list for that TGC/ABC flight; but if the cost to individual TGC/ABC participants is not prorated, then no more than fifteen percent of the number of seats contracted for may be sold to persons whose names were on the standby list relating to such flight.

(8) A TGC/ABC must be "round trip" (i.e., including both a departure and return flight).

(9) If the cost of the TGC/ABC is prorated among participants, then a TGC/ABC must be for a minimum duration of at least seven days in the case of North American charters, and a minimum duration of at least ten days in the case of all other charters; but if the cost of individual TGC/ABC participants is not prorated, then during the period of April 1 to October 31, the TGC/ABC must provide for a minimum duration of at least fourteen days, and during the period of November 1 to March 31, the minimum duration must be at least ten days: Provided, however, That the minimum duration of a non-prorated North American TGC/ABC need not be greater than seven days.

(10) If the cost of the TGC/ABC is prorated among participants, then commingling of TGC/ABC groups with other categories of charter traffic is permitted, but if the cost to individual TGC/ABC participants is not prorated, then no commingling of TGC/ABC groups with other categories of charter traffic shall be permitted.

(11) The direct air carrier shall maintain a list of the passengers actually carried on each TGC/ABC flight.

SUBCHAPTER A—PROCEDURES AND RULES OF PRACTICE

PART 2—NONADJUDICATIVE PROCEDURES

PART 4—MISCELLANEOUS RULES

Subpart C—Consent Order Procedure

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Subchapter A of Chapter I of Title 16 is amended as follows:

The Commission announces the following amendment of § 2.34(b) which makes available upon request an analysis of provisionally accepted consent orders to give the public a better understanding of the order's terms, and extends from 30 to 60 days the period of time for public comment on proposed settlements. This amendment is effective on March 22, 1974.

Section 2.34(b) is amended to read as follows:

* * * * *

(b) Upon receiving such an agreement, the Commission may: (1) Accept it; (2) reject it and issue its complaint and set the matter down for adjudication in regular course; or (3) take such other action as it may deem appropriate. If an agreement is accepted, the Commission will place the order contained therein on the public record, and at the same time, will make available an explanation of the provisions of the order and the relief to be obtained thereby and any other information which it deems helpful in assisting interested persons to understand the terms of the order. For a period of sixty (60) days after placement of the order on the public record and issuance of the statement, the Commission will receive and consider any comments or views concerning the order that may be filed by any interested persons. Thereafter, within thirty (30) days, the Commission may either withdraw its acceptance of the agreement and so notify the other party, in which event it will take such other action as it may consider appropriate, or issue and serve its complaint (in such form as the circumstances may require), and decision, in disposition of the proceeding.

The Commission announces the following amendment of § 4.11 to speed up the method of handling requests for access under the Freedom of Information Act. This amendment is effective on March 22, 1974.

Section 4.11 is amended to read as follows:

§ 4.11 Requests for disclosure of records.

(a) Any request by a member of the public for disclosure of identifiable records shall be in writing and addressed to the Secretary of the Commission.

(b) Disposition: (1) Upon a determination by the General Counsel that some or all of the requested records are not exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act, the Secretary shall notify the requester in writing that access is granted to the nonexempt documents.

(2) Upon a determination by the General Counsel that some or all of the requested records are exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act, the Secretary shall notify the requester of such determination. The requester shall further be notified that he may petition the Commission for access to records deemed to be exempt by the General Counsel, either because the requester believes the records are not exempt or because the requester believes the Commission should exercise its discretion to release such records not withstanding their exempt status.

(3) A petition to the Commission for disclosure of exempt records, which requests the Commission to exercise its discretion to release such records, shall set forth the interest of the requester in the subject matter and the purpose for which the records will be used if the request is granted.

(c) A request for disclosure by another government agency shall be made by the administrative head of the agency or his designee; shall be in writing addressed to the Secretary of the Commission; and shall describe the records, their relevancy to the work and function of the agency, and, if the production of records or the taking of copies thereof is asked, the use which is intended to be made of them.

(d) Any official or employee of the Commission who is served with a subpoena or other compulsory process, except a subpoena issued within the scope of § 3.36 of this subchapter, requiring the production of any document or record or the disclosure of any information which under § 4.10 is exempt from availability for public inspection and copying, shall promptly advise the Commission of the service of such subpoena or other compulsory process, the nature of the documents or information sought, and all relevant facts and circumstances. If the official or employee so served has not received instructions from the Commission prior to the return date of the subpoena or other compulsory process, he shall appear in response thereto and respectfully decline to produce the documents or records or to disclose the information called for, basing his refusal upon this paragraph. The Commission will consider and act upon compulsory process under this section with due regard for statutory restrictions, its rules and the public interest, and the established legal standards for determining whether justification exists for the disclosure of the confidential information and records.

Title 17—Commodity and Securities Exchange

CHAPTER II—SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release Nos. 33-5463, 34-10661]

PART 231—INTERPRETIVE RELEASE RELATING TO THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933 AND GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS THEREUNDER

Corporation Finance Division

Rule 145 (17 CFR 230.145), relating to the registration of certain reclassifications and business combination transactions, was adopted under the Securities Act of 1933 ("the Act") by the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 6, 1972 in Securities Act Release No. 5316 (37 FR 23631) and became effective on January 1, 1973. Since that time the Commission's Division of Corporation Finance has received a number of requests for interpretations with respect to various provisions of the Rule and with respect to other matters related to the operation of the Rule. In order to assist all persons in their understanding of, and their compliance with, Rule 145, the Commission has authorized the publication of this interpretative release setting forth the current views and positions of its Division of Corporation Finance wth respect to Rule 145 and related matters.

The adoption of Rule 145 and the related rescission of Rule 133 (17 CFR 230.133) reversed the Commission's long-standing "no sale" theory and expressly reflected its opinion that such an approach no longer served the best interests of investors. Generally, Rule 145 states that an "offer" or "sale" within the meaning of the Act is involved with respect to the security holders of a corporation or other person where, pursuant to statutory provisions, controlling instruments or otherwise, there is submitted for the vote or consent of such security holders a plan or agreement for: (1) Reclassifications other than stock splits and changes in par value; (2) mergers, consolidations and similar plans of acquisition except where the sole purpose of such a transaction is to change an issuer's domicile; and (3) certain transfers of assets for securities where there is a subsequent distribution of such securities to those voting on the transfer of the assets. In addition, Rule 145 provides that certain preliminary written announcements will be deemed not to be a prospectus or an offer to sell, and sets forth standards under which securities received in a Rule 145 transaction can be resold.

The Division of Corporation Finance will continue to reexamine and reassess the effectiveness of the Rule and may recommend publication of additional interpretations or amendments to Rule 145 if the purposes and policies underlying the Act and the Rule are not being fully implemented. Accordingly, all interested persons are invited to submit their views and suggestions for improving the operation of Rule 145 to Alan B. Levenson, Director, Division of Corporation Finance, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549.

The following illustrations, which are intended to supplement the explanation and analysis of Rule 145 set forth in Securities Act Release No. 5316, reflect the views of the Division of Corporation Finance as of the date of this release notwithstanding any previous interpretations expressed to the contrary by the Division orally or in writing. It should be assumed in each of the following illustrations that the use of the means and instruments of interstate commerce or of the mails is involved and that no statutory exemption is applicable unless so stated.

I. RELATIONSHIP OF RULE 145 TO EXEMPTIONS SET FORTH IN SECTIONS 3 AND 4 OF THE ACT (SEE GENERALLY PRELIMINARY NOTE TO RULE 145).

Illustration A—Facts. X Company proposes to issue common stock in exchange for the assets of Y Company after Y Company obtains the approval of its several stockholders, as required by state law, with respect to an agreement setting forth the terms and conditions of the exchange and providing for a distribution of the X Company common stock to the Y Company stockholders. X Company has determined that the private offering exemption afforded by Section 4(2) of the Act would be available for the transaction.

Question. In light of Rule 145, may X Company choose between relying upon the private offering exemption available under Section 4(2) and registering the securities to be issued in the transaction on Form S–14?

Interpretative Response. Yes, X Company may choose between relying upon the private offering exemption available under Section 4(2) and registering the securities to be issued in the transaction on Form S–14. Rule 145 does not affect statutory exemptions which are otherwise available. However, since the transaction is one specified in Rule 145(a)(3)(ii), X Company may register the securities to be issued in the transaction on Form S–14 so that an affiliate of Y Company would be able to resell immediately his securities either pursuant to the registration statement, if requisite information regarding resales is disclosed in the registration statement, or else subject to the limitations referred to in Rule 145(d).

Illustration B—Facts. X Company, an insurance company organized and regulated under the laws of State A, intends to establish Y Company, a corporation organized under the laws of State A, and to effect a Rule 145 type transaction which would result in Y Company becoming a statutory insurance holding company and the stockholders of X Company receiving securities of Y Company in return for their holdings. Among other things, the laws of State A, in this type of situation, expressly authorize its Commissioner of Insurance to hold a hearing and to make a finding on the fairness to the stockholders of X Company of the terms and the conditions of the transaction. The Commissioner is required to give appropriate notice of the hearing, and of their right to appear, to all stockholders of X Company prior to the hearing.

Question. Assuming that the Commissioner holds such a hearing and makes the appropriate findings, may Y Company rely upon the exemption afforded by section 3(a)(10) of the Act notwithstanding that the transaction comes within Rule 145?

Interpretative Response. Yes, Rule 145 does not affect the availability of any exemption which is otherwise available so that an issuer may rely upon the exemption afforded by section 3(a)(10) of the Act if all of the conditions of that exemption are met. Inasmuch as section 3(a)(10) provides an exemption for the initial issuance of securities but not for the resale of such securities, it should be noted that an issuer may choose to register the securities to be issued in the transaction on Form S–14 or S–1 in order to be more certain of the status under the Act of public resales by underwriters of securities received in the transaction.

Illustration C—Facts. X Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of State A, has a class of preferred stock and a class of common stock outstanding. X Company is now considering a plan of reclassification which, if approved by the requisite majority of each class, would result in X Company having only one class of equity securities outstanding. X Company has determined that it will not utilize the services of a proxy soliciting firm.

Question. May X Company rely upon the exemption afforded by section 3(a)(9) of the Act notwithstanding that the transaction comes within Rule 145?

Interpretative Response. Yes. Assuming that all the requirements of that exemption are met, then X Company may rely upon the exemption afforded by section 3(a)(9) of the Act because Rule 145 does not affect the availability of any statutory exemption which is otherwise available.

Illustration D—Facts. X Company proposes to acquire Y Company in a Rule 145 type transaction which will involve the issuance of X Company common stock with a readily ascertainable aggregate market value of $275,000 to the stockholders of Y Company.

Question D–1. May X Company rely upon the limited exemption afforded by Regulation A under section 3(b) of the Act?

Interpretative Response. Yes. Rule 145 does not affect the availability of any exemption which is otherwise available so that an issuer may choose to rely upon the small offering exemption afforded by section 3(b). It should be noted, however, that Regulation A is a conditional exemption which necessitates compliance with all the express terms and conditions of that Regulation, including Rule 253 thereunder which may require certain escrow arrangements as well as limitations on sales by persons other than the issuer.

Question D–2. What types of disclosure should X Company make in a Regulation A offering circular covering a Rule 145 type transaction?

Interpretative Response. Inasmuch as the items contained in the Form 1–A Notification, and the instructions thereto, as well as the Schedule I requirements for information to be included in the offering circular, were not adopted with Rule 145 type transactions in mind, persons filing offering circulars pursuant to Regulation A for such a transaction should disclose the type of information required by Form S–14. However, the certification of financial statements for such an offering circular remains subject to the requirements of Regulation A. Because novel questions may arise in this area, it is suggested that issuers consult with the appropriate Regional Office of the Commission before filing.

Question D–3. If Regulation A is relied on, may the affiliate(s) of Y Company subsequently resell limited quantities of X Company securities received in the transaction in accordance with Rule 145(d) without being deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of Rule 145(c)?

Interpretative Response. No. Rule 145(d) is only applicable to "registered securities acquired" in a Rule 145 transaction. Inasmuch as X Company has not registered its securities on Form S–14 or S–1, but has availed itself of the exemption afforded by Regulation A under section 3(b) of the Act, the affiliate(s) of Y Company must comply with all the terms and conditions of that Regulation, which would ordinarily require that a second Regulation A filing be made. It should be noted that the aggregate dollar amount of any resales within twelve months by affiliates would need to be computed and applied against the dollar limitation set forth in section 3(b) of the Act and Rule 254 thereunder.

II. APPLICATION OF RULE 145 TO VARIOUS TYPES OF RECLASSIFICATIONS AND BUSINESS COMBINATION TRANACTIONS (SEE PARAGRAPH (a) OF RULE 145).

Illustration A—Facts. X Company has a class of preferred stock and a class of common stock outstanding. As required by the laws of its state of incorporation, X Company intends to submit to both classes of its stockholders a plan of recapitalization, which, if approved by the requisite majority of each class, would provide, among other things, for a three-for-one stock split with respect to the common stock and for a simultaneous exchange of eight shares of common stock for each share of preferred stock. In order to assure adoption of the plan, X Company has retained the services of P Company, a proxy soliciting firm which will actively solicit proxies for approval of the plan.

Question. Inasmuch as P Company is receiving remuneration for its services and the exemption afforded by section 3(a)(9) of the Act is, accordingly, not available, does Rule 145 require registration of the securities to be issued in connection with the stock split and preferred stock exchange?

Interpretative Response. Yes, because this single plan of recapitalization involves a reclassification of one class of securities in addition to a stock split of the other class of securities (which in and of itself would not have to be registered under these circumstances because of the exception set forth in Rule 145(a)(1)), the entire transaction would be considered to be a reclassification within the meaning of Rule 145(a)(1) and the securities to be issued in the transaction would have to be registered on Form S–14 or S–1.

Illustration B—Facts. In order to change its domicile, X Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of State A with its only class of outstanding securities registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("the Exchange Act"), proposes to effect a statutory merger with Y Company, its newly-created wholly-owned subsidiary which was organized under the laws of State B. Y Company's Articles of Incorporation are similar to X Company's Articles of Incorporation except that Y Company's charter contains a substantially broader corporate purpose provision and authorizes a class of preferred stock. As a result of this proposed transaction, which is subject to stockholder approval, stockholders' pre-emptive rights and cumulative voting rights would be eliminated.

Question. Does Rule 145 require the registration of the securities to be issued in this transaction?

Interpretative Response. No. While a statutory merger is deemed to involve a "sale" within the meaning of Section 2(3) of the Act, Rule 145(a)(2) provides a specific exception "where the sole purpose of the transaction is to change an issuer's domicile." Notwithstanding the inclusion of a broader corporate purpose provision and the authorization of another class of securities in the charter and notwithstanding the effects of the pre-emptive and cumulative voting rights of X Company's stockholders, the exception would be applicable. It should be noted that since X Company is a reporting company under the Exchange Act, any changes in stockholders' rights should be disclosed pursuant to the applicable proxy rules.

Illustration C—Facts. X Trust is a voluntary association of a type of commonly known as a Massachusetts business trust and is treated as a real estate investment trust for tax purposes under the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended. For various business reasons, X Trust intends to reorganize as a corporate entity under the laws of a state other than Massachusetts by calling a special meeting of holders of beneficial interests to vote on an agreement setting forth the terms and conditions of the reorganization.

Question. May this transaction be effected without registration under the Act on the basis of the change-of-domicile exception set forth in Rule 145(a)(2)?

Interpretative Response. No. Regardless of where the new corporate entity is domiciled, the exception set forth in Rule 145(a)(2) is not applicable because the transaction involves a significant change in the form of the issuer's legal entity and results in a significant change in a security holder's economic interest. Accordingly, absent an applicable statutory exemption, the securities issued in the transaction are required to be registered under the Act.

Illustration D—Facts. X Bank, chartered under the law of State A, proposes to enter into an agreement and plan of reorganization which, if approved by its stockholders, will result in X Bank becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary (except for directors' qualifying shares) of a newly-formed holding company, X Bancshares, organized under the laws of State B. Following the reorganization, the former stockholders of X Bank will have the same relative equity interest in X Bancshares; the directors of X Bank will be the directors of X Bancshares; and initially the sole asset of X Bancshares will be the stock of X Bank.

Question. May this transaction be effected without registration under the Act on the basis of the change-in-domicile exception set forth in Rule 145(a)(2)?

Interpretative Response. No. Inasmuch as the transaction involves significant changes in the issuer's basic organizational structure, the exception set forth in Rule 145(a)(2) is not applicable. Accordingly, absent an applicable statutory exemption, the securities issued in the transaction are required to be registered under the Act.

Illustration E—Facts. X Company proposes to acquire at least 80% of the outstanding common stock of Y Company by offering its common stock to the stockholders of Y Company in exchange for their Y Company common stock in a transaction intended to qualify as a taxfree reorganization pursuant to section 368(a)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

Question. Is Rule 145 applicable to such an exchange offer so that X Company can utilize Form S–14?

Interpretative Response. No. Rule 145 and Form S–14 are not applicable to "B" type reorganizations. Absent a statutory exemption, the securities issued in the transaction would have to be registered under the Act on Form S–1 or on another form if applicable.

Illustration F—Facts. The board of directors of X Company is considering an offer by Y Company whereby a significant portion (but not substantially all) of X Company's assets will be transferrred to Y Company in return for shares of Y Company common stock which would be distributed to the stockholders of X Company on a pro-rata basis. Although not required to do so by State law or by Y Company's certificate of incorporation or by-laws X Company's board of directors will submit the matter to the stockholders of X Company for their authorization.

Question. Assuming that no statutory exemption is available, is Rule 145 applicable to this proposed transaction?

Interpretative Response: Yes. Rule 145(a)(3) states that:

[a] "sale" shall be deemed to be involved, within the meaning of section 2(3) of the Act, so far as the security holders of a corporation * * * are concerned where, pursuant to statutory provisions * * * or similar controlling instruments, or otherwise, there is submitted for the vote or consent of such security holders a plan or agreement for * * * transfers of assets. (emphasis added)

Accordingly, inasmuch as the board of directors in its discretion has determined to submit the matter to stockholders, Rule 145 is applicable and the transaction may be registered on Form S–14 or S–1.

III. COMMUNICATIONS DEEMED NOT TO BE A "PROSPECTUS" OR "OFFER TO SELL" FOR PURPOSES OF RULE 145 (SEE PARAGRAPH (b) OF RULE 145; SEE ALSO SECURITIES ACT RELEASE NOS. 4697 (MAY 28, 1964) (29 F.R. 7317), 5009 (OCTOBER 7, 1969) (34 F.R. 16870) AND 5180 (AUGUST 16, 1971) (36 F.R. 16506))

Illustration—Facts. X Company and Y Company are about to sign an agreement in principle setting forth their understanding with respect to a proposed merger of the two companies which will be registered pursuant to Rule 145. One condition set forth in the agreement in principle requires that, prior to the consummation of the merger, Y Company divest itself of a significant subsidiary in order to avoid potential problems under the Federal anti-trust laws. Although not set forth in the agreement in principle, it is clear from the preliminary negotiations that, subsequent to the merger, certain assets of Y Company will be liquidate because their book value is materially lower than their market value.

Question. Does Rule 145(b) prohibit the announcement of these facts prior to the filing of a registration statement?

Interpretative Response. No. Rule 145(b)(1) describes communications which will be deemed not to be a "prospectus" or "offer to sell" as defined in the Act. Inasmuch as the divestiture of a significant subsidiary is a material part of the transaction, and will have a material effect on the business of one party, it should be disclosed. To the extent that the assets to be liquidated are material to Y Company's operations, this plan should also be disclosed.

IV. RESALES OF SECURITIES ACQUIRED IN RULE 145 TRANSACTIONS (SEE PARAGRAPHS (c), (d) AND (e) OF RULE 145).

Illustration A—Facts. X Company filed a registration statement on Form S–1 covering the proposed issuance of its common stock (but not covering the resale thereof) in connection with a proposed acquisition of Y Company in a Rule 145 type statutory merger which, if approved by Y Company's stockholders, would result in Y Company's stockholders receiving common stock of X Company. X Company's registration statement indicates that, for accounting purposes, the acquisition will be treated as a purchase.

Question A–1. Assuming for the purposes of this question only that A is a controlling person of X Company and also owns common stock of Y Company, would his resales of the X Company common stock which he receives in this transaction be subject to the limitations of Rule 145(d)?

V 39 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

Interpretative Response. No. Inasmuch as A controls X Company, he is already deemed to be an affiliate of X Company and is subject to the provisions of Rule 144. Accordingly, the resale of any additional shares of X Company common stock, which he acquires in a Rule 145 transaction or otherwise, is subject to the provisions of Rule 144.

Question A–2. Assuming for the purposes of this question only that B does not own any common stock of X Company but is a controlling person of Y Company and that after the merger he will become a controlling person of X Company, would his resales of the X Company common stock which he receives in this transaction be subject to the limitations of Rule 145(d)?

Interpretative Response. No. Inasmuch as B will become a controlling person of X Company, he would be deemed to be an affiliate of X Company. By virtue of his becoming an affiliate of X Company, B would become subject to Rule 144 and the resale of all of his X Company common stock would be subject to the provisions of Rule 144.

Question A–3. Assuming for the purposes of this question only that C is an affiliate of Y Company but not of X Company, what restrictions are imposed by Rule 145(d) on C's public resale of the X Company common stock which he receives in the Rule 145 transaction?

Interpretative Response. Rule 145(d) would permit C to resell X Company securities received in the Rule 145 transaction subject to the provisions of paragraphs (c), (e), (f) and (g) of Rule 144. It should be noted that neither the two year holding period requirement nor the notice of sale requirement of Rule 144 would be applicable to C's sales pursuant to Rule 145(d).

Question A–4. Assuming for the purposes of this question only that D is not an affiliate of X Company or of Y Company and that his only relationship to the transaction is that he owns Y Company common stock, some of which was purchased previously in a private offering, would D be immediately free to resell publicly all of the X Company common stock which he receives in the transaction?

Interpretative Response. Yes. Since D is not an affiliate of X Company or Y Company then he is not deemed to be an underwriter with respect to the securities he receives in the Rule 145 transaction. Accordingly, D is immediately free to resell publicly all of the X Company common stock which he receives in the transaction regardless of whether some of his Y Company common stock was restricted.

Question A–5. If X Company's registration statement disclosed that, for accounting purposes the acquisition would be treated as a pooling-of-interests, would this have any effect upon the resale of X Company stock acquired in the transaction?

Interpretative Response. Yes. Although a pooling-of-interests accounting treatment would not affect the operation of Rule 145, in order to preserve such accounting treatment, the Commission's Accounting Series Release Nos. 130 (September 29, 1972) and 135 (January 5, 1973) states that the requisite risk sharing will have occurred if the affiliates of X Company and Y Company do not publicly or privately resell any of the X Company securities received in the transaction until such time as financial results covering at least 30 days of post merger combined operations have been published.

Illustration B—Facts. X Company has employed the services of P Company, a proxy soliciting firm, in connection with its proposed plan to acquire Y Company in a Rule 145 type transaction which will be registered on a Form S–14.

Question. Would P Company be deemed to be an underwriter for the purposes of Rule 145?

Interpretative Response. No. Assuming that P Company simply performs logistical and ministerial functions, does not acquire any X Company securities, and does not participate in any risk in the distribution of the X Company securities issued in the transaction, P Company would not be deemed to be an underwriter. It should be noted that this interpretation has no bearing on whether an investment banker involved in a Rule 145 type transaction would be deemed to be an underwriter. Such a question can only be resolved on the basis of all the facts of a particular case.

V. Related Matters

Illustration A—Facts. X Company, a corporation subject to the proxy rules under the Exchange Act, intends to acquire Y Company, another corporation subject to the proxy rules under the Exchange Act, in a Rule 145 type transaction.

Question A–1. Assuming that both companies will solicit proxies for the transaction, what filing fees would be paid by X Company and Y Company?

Interpretative Response. X Company would pay the same statutory fee as any other issuer when it files its registration statement, which fee would be computed in accordance with Section 6 of the Act and Rule 457 thereunder, and would not make any separate filing or pay any separate fee under the Exchange Act for the proxy material contained in said registration statement by virtue of Rules 14c–5(e) and 14a–6(j) under the Exchange Act, unless it specifically elects to make a proxy filing separate and apart from its registration statement. Y Company, when it files its separate proxy statement or when it furnishes a letter for the Commission's public files adopting the relevant portions of X Company's registration statement as its proxy material, would pay a filing fee of $500 in accordance with Rule 14a–6(i)(3) under the Exchange Act.

Question A–2. Assuming that both companies will solicit proxies and that both companies desire to maintain the confidentiality of their filing(s) as long as possible, may X Company initially file its material pursuant to the proxy rules under the Exchange Act and, if so, what fees would be paid by X Company and Y Company?

Interpretative Response. The Division will not object if X Company makes its initial filing pursuant to the proxy rules under the Exchange Act in the form of preliminary proxy material so long as each company pays the required fee of $500 in accordance with Rule 14a–6(i)(3). Once X Company receives comments from the Division's staff, it may file its registration statement including amended proxy material on Form S–14 or S–1 along with the statutory filing fee computed in accordance with Section 6 of the Act and Rule 457 thereunder, without any refund or reduction based on its previous payment in connection with its proxy material. It should be noted that if the disclosure in X Company's registration statement is responsive to the staff's comments on the preliminary proxy material, a request for acceleration of the effective date of the registration statement would ordinarily be granted.

Question A–3. Assuming that only Y Company solicits proxies for the transaction, what filing fees would be paid by X Company and Y Company?

Interpretative Response. When X Company files its registration statement on Form S–14 or S–1, X Company would pay the same statutory fee as any issuer computed in accordance with Section 6 of the Act and Rule 457 thereunder. When Y Company files its proxy statement or when it furnishes a letter for the Commission's public files adopting the relevant portions of X Company's registration statement as its proxy material, it should pay a fee of $1,000 in accordance with Rule 14a–6(i)(3).

Illustration B—Facts. X Company has been utilizing a Form S–1 "shelf registration" for the issuance of its securities, and for certain resales thereof, in connection with a series of acquisitions, each of which, in and of itself, might have been effected without registration under the Act by virtue of the intrastate or private offering exemptions afforded by sections 3(a)(11) and 4(2) of the Act. X Company now intends to make an acquisition by means of a statutory merger subject to Rule 145 for which no other statutory exemption is available.

Question B–1. May X Company utilize the Form S–1 shelf registration for the proposed Rule 145 transaction?

Interpretative Response. Yes. Although X Company could file a new registration statement on Form S–14 or S–1 for the Rule 145 transaction, it can utilize the existing Form S–1 shelf registration statement if sufficient shares are registered and the financial statements and other disclosures are current.

Question B2. If X Company elects to utilize its shelf registration for the merger, is additional information required to be included in its shelf registration statement?

Interpretative Response. Yes. The information required by Form S–14 should be set forth in a post-effective amendment to X Company's shelf registration statement.

Illustration C—Facts. X Company intends to effect a short-form merger pursuant to state law whereby its ninety percent owned subsidiary, Y Company, would be merged into X Company without a vote or consent of Y Company's minority stockholders, who would receive common stock of X Company.

Question C–1. Is this transaction subject to the registration requirements set forth in section 5 of the Act?

Interpretative Response. Yes. The issuance of X Company common stock to the stockholders of Y Company would involve a "sale" within the meaning of section 2(3) of the Act and, absent a statutory exemption, registration would be required.

Question C–2. May the securities to be issued in this transaction be registered pursuant to the Act on a Form S–14?

Interpretative Response. Yes. Although Rule 145 is not applicable because a short-form merger does not involve a vote or consent of all the stockholders, the Division will not object to the use of Form S–14 for the registration of the securities to be issued in this transaction.

By the Commission.

Title 18—Conservation of Power and Water Resources

CHAPTER I—FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

SUBCHAPTER D—APPROVED FORMS, FEDERAL POWER ACT

[Docket No. R–415; Order 438A]

PART 141—STATEMENTS AND REPORTS (SCHEDULES)

Revision to Weekly Fuel Emergency Report Forms

MARCH 15, 1974.

This order directs the reporting of emergency fuel situations on Forms No. 237A (Coal) and No. 237B (Oil), Weekly Fuel Emergency Report, in revised format. These forms were first promulgated on September 17, 1971, in Order No. 438 (Docket No. R–415) which amended Part 141, Chapter I, Title 18 of the Code of Federal Regulations. At the time these forms were adopted, emergency shortages of fuels required to provide a reliable flow of electric power were due primarily to local and temporary disruptions in deliveries. Currently there are widespread conditions affecting directly or indirectly a number of types of fuels, including coal, residual oil, distillate oil and natural gas. These current conditions may continue for indefinite periods. Emergencies have arisen and are expected to arise periodically.

Specific revisions to the forms include: (1) Eliminating the reporting of certain information on capacity and multi-fuel supplies which will not be needed on a weekly basis; (2) standardizing the reporting week so that each utility reports as of 12:01 AM Sunday rather than choosing its own reporting week; (3) providing a definition of fuel emergency for use by a utility except when it normally maintains smaller fuel stocks than the definition specifies; (4) requiring that all questions be answered in each filing so that all information necessary for dealing with the emergency situation is readily available; (5) providing for description by the utility of its fuel supply problems and indication of the steps it is taking to alleviate the difficulty; and (6) providing for description by the utility of its existing ability to burn alternate fuels and its ability to convert existing equipment to alternate fuel use.

The filing of Forms 237A and 237B [1] will enable the FPC to be apprised of emergencies arising from inadequate fuel supplies and enable the Commission to take appropriate measures to assist affected utilities to cope with such problems. Because of the existing widespread conditions and the need to act expeditiously, the Commission believes that delay in the adoption of the revised Forms 237A and 237B would be contrary to the public interest and hence is making this order effective upon issuance.

These forms are to be filed weekly upon the determination by the utility in the exercise of due diligence that an emergency exists and are to be filed weekly until such emergency no longer exists. The following factors shall be taken into account when deciding if an emergency exists: (1) fuel stocks are reduced to 30 days (or less) of normal burn days for coal; 15 days (or less) of normal burn days for residual oil; 15 days (or less) of normal burn days for distillate oil; (2) the utility projection is for a continued downward trend in fuel stocks; and (3) emergency Federal measures are otherwise deemed necessary.

Since fuel stocks smaller than the levels shown above are normally maintained in some plants, an emergency is not deemed to arise until their stocks have been depleted to such levels. Reports in those instances need not be filed until emergency levels are reached. Filed reports, however, should indicate the fuel stock levels considered to be a desirable minimum supply in responses to questions 12 and 13 on the Coal Form and questions 13 and 14 on the Oil Form.

The Commission further finds:

(1) It is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the purposes of the Federal Power Act to prescribe the revisions to the Weekly Fuel Emergency Report Forms as herein ordered.

(2) There is good cause under the circumstances set forth in the recitals to make the provisions of this order effective immediately and without the prior notice and public procedure provisions of Section 553 of Title 5 of the United States Code, which prior notice and public procedure provisions are impractical and contrary to the public interest in this instance.

The Commission, acting pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Power Act, as amended, particularly sections 202, 301, 304(a), 309, and 311 (49 Stat. 848, 854, 855, 858, 859; 67 Stat. 461; 16 U.S.C. 824a, 825, 825(a), 825h, 825j), orders:

(A) Part 141—Statements and Reports (Schedules) in Subchapter D—Approved Forms, Federal Power Act, Chapter I, Title 18 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended by amending § 141.60 to read as follows:

(a) Form No. 237A (Coal) and Form No. 237B (Oil), Revised, are designed to obtain information on a weekly basis from electric utilities or suppliers whether investor owned, publicly owned or cooperatively owned facing fuel emergencies. The report must be filed in the first instance whenever a utility shall determine in the exercise of due diligence that an emergency exists and must be filed weekly thereafter until the emergency terminates. A fuel emergency exists when supplies of fuels for generation are at a level which threatens projected operations or reliability of electric service.

(b) The following factors shall be taken into account to determine whether a fuel emergency exists: (1) fuel stocks are reduced to 30 days (or less) of normal burn days for coal; 15 days (or less) of normal burn days for residual oil; 15 days (or less) of normal burn days for distillate oil; (2) the utility projection is for a continued downward trend in fuel stocks; and (3) emergency Federal measures are otherwise deemed necessary.

(c) Since fuel stocks of levels smaller than those above indicated are maintained in some plants, an emergency is not determined to exist until their stocks have been depleted to such levels. In such cases no reports need be filed until emergency levels are reached. However, filed reports should indicate fuel stock levels considered to be a desirable minimum supply in responses to questions 12 and 13 on the Coal Form and questions 13 and 14 on the Oil Form.

(B) Revised FPC Forms Nos. 237A (Coal) and 237B (Oil) as set out in Appendix A to this order are hereby adopted.

(C) The amendment and revised forms adopted herein shall be effective upon issuance of this order. The first report filed shall cover the first full reporting week after the date of issuance of this order.

(D) The Secretary shall cause prompt publication of this order to be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

SUBCHAPTER E—REGULATIONS UNDER THE NATURAL GAS ACT

[Docket No. RM74–6; Order No. 507]

PART 157—APPLICATIONS FOR CERTIFICATES OF PUBLIC CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY AND FOR ORDERS PERMITTING AND APPROVING ABANDONMENT UNDER SECTION 7 OF THE NATURAL GAS ACT

Commission Amends Regulations by Revoking Provisions for Certain Budget-Type Gas Sales and Transportation Facilities

MARCH 18, 1974.

By notice issued in Docket No. RM74–6 on November 9, 1973, and published in the Federal Register on November 16, 1973, 38 FR 31685, the Commission proposes to amend § 157.7 of Part 157, Subchapter E of Chapter I, Title 18 of the Code of Federal Regulations, by revising paragraph (c) of said § 157.7 to delete therefrom the provision for the filing of budget-type applications for certificates of public convenience and necessity under section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act authorizing the construction and operation of facilities for the transportation and sale of natural gas previously authorized under certificates for transportation or sale to existing distributor customers and for direct sales of natural gas to consumers located in areas outside the franchise area of any local distributor.

The purpose of the proposal in the instant proceeding is to enable the Commission to review the probable impact of new delivery points prior to their construction, including the end use of the gas proposed to be delivered. In furtherance of this purpose the Commission has already amended § 2.55 of its General Policy and Interpretations, 18 CFR 2.55, by deleting "new delivery points" from the definition of "facilities" excluded from the latter term in section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act. Order No. 148–A, Docket No. R–110, issued April 27, 1973, 49 FPC ____, 38 FR 11449 (May 8, 1973). The Commission announced in Order No. 148–A that it would thenceforth require certification under section 7(c) for the construction and operation of new delivery points which otherwise would be among excluded facilities as defined in section 2.55 in order that the Commission might review the probable impact of such construction. The instant order is complementary to Order No. 148–A.

Comments on the Commission's proposal in the instant proceeding have been filed by Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation, Cities Service Gas Company, Minnesota Natural Gas Company, Montana-Dakota Utilities Co., Pacific Gas Transmission Company, and Northern Natural Gas Company. Among the comments are a suggestion that the cost limitations for miscellaneous rearrangements provided for by § 157.7(c) be changed and suggestions that the proposed amendment be revised to permit construction of budget-type facilities for certain sales in general categories ("miscellaneous purposes", "de minimis" volumes), for specific purposes (e.g., asphalt heating by road construction contractors), and for end uses set forth in Section 2.78 of the Commission's General Policy and Interpretations, 18 CFR 2.78.

The provision for miscellaneous facilities in § 157.7(c) is not the subject of this proceeding. No change in the provision for miscellaneous facilities is proposed and the suggestion for a change in the cost limitations for such facilities is not within the scope of this proceeding. The suggestions that the proposed amendment be revised to permit certain sales would defeat the intended purpose of the amendment—review of the probable impact of new delivery points prior to construction. Although permitting construction for unspecified sales for high priority purposes as defined in § 2.78 might, in part, accomplish the purpose of the proposed amendment, it would have the effect of making the priorities of service set forth in said rule more definitive than the guidelines which they are intended to be.

After consideration of the comments received in response to the notice, the Commission has determined that the amendment should be adopted as proposed. There will be no change in that part of § 157.7(c) which provides for budget-type certificates for miscellaneous rearrangements, and budget-type certificates for miscellaneous rearrangements may not be used for the construction of facilities for purposes not heretofore permitted under such certificates.

The Commission finds:

(1) The notice and opportunity to participate in this proceeding through the submission in writing of data, views, comments, and suggestions in the manner described above are consistent and in accordance with the procedural requirements prescribed in 5 U.S.C. 553.

(2) The amendment hereinafter set forth is necessary and appropriate in the administration of the Natural Gas Act.

The Commission, acting pursuant to the authority granted by the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 7(c), 7(d), 7(e), and 16 thereof (52 Stat. 825, 56 Stat. 83, 15 U.S.C. 717f(c); 56 Stat. 84, 15 U.S.C. 717f(d); 56 Stat. 84, 15 U.S.C. 717f(e); 52 Stat. 830, 15 U.S.C. 717o), and in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 553, orders:

(A) Section 157.7 of Part 157, Subchapter E of Chapter I, Title 18 of the Code of Federal Regulations, is amended by revising paragraph (c) thereof to read as follows:

(c) Miscellaneous rearrangements of facilities—budget-type application. An abbreviated application requesting a budget-type certificate authorizing the construction during a given twelve-month period, and operation of gas-sales or transportation facilities may be filed when:

(1) The facilities proposed in the application are to be used for miscellaneous rearrangements not resulting in any change of service rendered by means of the facilities involved, e.g., changes in existing field operation or relocation of existing sales or transportation facilities when required by highway construction, dam construction or other similar reasons.

(2) (i) The total estimated cost of the rearrangement of facilities proposed in the application does not exceed $300,000 except where the applicant's gas plant (Account No. 101, Uniform System of Accounts Prescribed for Natural Gas Companies) is $10,000,000 or less, in which case the total estimated cost of the gas-sales facilities proposed in the application shall not exceed $100,000.

(ii) Any application proposing the construction of facilities having an estimated cost in excess of the amounts specified in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph shall be accompanied by a request for waiver of the provisions of such subdivision and will be granted only for good cause shown.

(3) The application contains a statement indicating the maximum facilities to be installed during the authorized construction period, including the maximum number of lateral or loop lines to be installed and their maximum length and diameter, the maximum number of taps and meters to be installed, and the estimated cost of facilities for each such type or project.

(4) The applicant agrees to file with the Commission, within sixty days after expiration of the authorized construction period, a statement showing for each individual project:

(i) Description of the rearranged facilities installed, e.g., location, miles and size of pipeline (including wall thickness and minimum yield point), taps, laterals, lateral loop lines, metering and regulating facilities.

(ii) Actual cost of facilities subdivided by size of pipeline, taps, laterals, lateral loop lines, metering and regulating facilities, and appurtenant facilities.

(B) The amendment adopted herein shall be effective April 22, 1974.

(C) The Secretary shall cause prompt publication of this order to be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

Title 19—Customs Duties

CHAPTER I—UNITED STATES CUSTOMS SERVICE, DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

[T.D. 74–100]

PART 1—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Ports of Entry

On November 15, 1973, notice of a proposal to extend the port limits of Ketchikan, Alaska, in the Anchorage, Alaska, Customs district (Region VIII), was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (38 FR 31540). No comments were received regarding this proposed extension.

Accordingly, by virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the Act of August 1, 1914, 38 Stat. 623, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2), and delegated to the Secretary of the Treasury by Executive Order No. 10289, September 17, 1951 (3 CFR Ch. II), and pursuant to the authorization provided by Treasury Department Order No. 190, Rev. 9 (38 FR 17517), the port limits of Ketchikan, Alaska, in the Anchorage, Alaska, Customs district (Region VIII), are hereby extended to include all that territory within the city limits of Ketchikan, Alaska, and all points on the narrows and inlets from the northwestern city limits of Ketchikan to and including Ward Cove, Alaska, and all points on the narrows and inlets from the southeastern city limits of Ketchikan to and including Herring Bay, Alaska, and that portion of Gravina Island designated as and physically occupied by the Ketchikan International Airport which will include the runways, ramp area, terminal buildings, and any support facility immediately adjacent to the runway but excluding all of the shoreline of Gravina Island and all contact it may have with Tongass Narrows, Nichols Passage, Clarence Strait, Behm Canal, or any other body of water.

To reflect this change, the table in § 1.2(c) of the Customs Regulations is amended by substituting "Ketchikan, Alaska (including the territory described in T.D. 74–100)" for "Ketchikan (including territory described in T.D. 53738)." in the column headed "Ports of entry" in the Anchorage, Alaska, district (Region VIII).

It is desirable to make this extension of the port limits of Ketchikan, Alaska, available to the public as soon as possible. Therefore, good cause is found for dispensing with the delayed effective date provision of 5 U.S.C. 553(d).

Effective date. This amendment shall be effective on March 22, 1974.

Dated: March 13, 1974.

[T.D. 74–101]

PART 1—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Customs Field Organization

This amendment to section 1.4a of the Customs Regulations sets forth the present assignment of Customs regions to the regional directors, security and audit. Under the present assignment, each Customs region is assigned a separate regional director, security and audit. This amendment also sets forth the address of the regional office of the regional director, security and audit, in each region.

Accordingly, § 1.4a of the Customs Regulations is amended to read as follows:

The regions in § 1.2, together with their respective districts, are assigned to the offices of regional directors, security and audit, as follows:

Region office	Address	Zip code
Boston	U.S. Customhouse, Room 1100, 2 India St., Boston, Mass.	02109
New York	U.S. Customs Service, 6 World Trade Center, Room 502, New York, N.Y.	10048
Baltimore	U.S. Customhouse, Room 424, 40 South Gay St., Baltimore, Md.	21202
Miami	U.S. Customs Service, P.O. Box 3201, Miami, Fla.	33101
New Orleans	U.S. Customs Service, Room 9025, Federal Bldg., 701 Loyola Ave., New Orleans, La.	70113
Houston	U.S. Customs Service, Suite 1355, 1 Allen Center, 500 Dallas St., Houston, Tex.	77002
Los Angeles	U.S. Customs Service, P.O. Box 3323, Terminal Island Station, San Pedro, Calif.	90731
San Francisco	U.S. Customs Service, Room 398, 681 Market St., San Francisco, Calif.	94105
Chicago	U.S. Customs Service, Suite 1539, 55 East Monroe St., Chicago, Ill.	60603

(R.S. 251, as amended, sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759 (5 U.S.C. 301, 19 U.S.C. 66, 1624))

Because this amendment relates to agency management, notice and public procedure thereon are unnecessary and good cause exists for dispensing with a delayed effective date, under the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553.

Effective date. This amendment shall become effective on March 22, 1974.

Approved: March 13, 1974.

PART 4—VESSELS IN FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC TRADES

Arrival and Entry of United States Government Vessels

Section 4.5(a) of the Customs Regulations (19 CFR 4.5(a)), presently provides, in part, that no report of arrival or entry shall be required for any vessel owned by, or under the complete control and management of, the United States or any of its agencies, if such vessel is "manned wholly by members of the armed forces of the United States or by personnel in the civil service of the United States."

The commissioned corps of the Public Health Service (PHS) and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) are neither members of the armed forces nor civil service employees as these terms are defined in 5 U.S.C. 2101, relating to employees of the Federal Government. PHS and NOAA officers often serve aboard United States vessels, however, and allowance for such service was not purposely omitted from § 4.5(a) of the Customs Regulations. Consequently, it is necessary to amend § 4.5(a) to provide that its provisions apply to United States Government vessels wholly manned by members of the uniformed services, or by civil service employees, or by both (as may be the case with vessels operated by NOAA). The term "uniformed services" as used in § 4.5(a) will mean the armed forces (Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard), the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service, and the commissioned corps of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, in accordance with section 2101 of title 5 of the United States Code, and section 4(d), Reorganization Plan No. 4 of 1970 (35 FR 15627).

Accordingly, the first sentence of paragraph (a) of § 4.5, Customs Regulations, is amended to read as follows:

(a) No report of arrival or entry shall be required of any vessel owned by, or under the complete control and management of, the United States or any of its agencies, if such vessel (1) is manned wholly by members of the uniformed services of the United States, by personnel in the civil service of the United States, or by both, and (2) is transporting only property of the United States or passengers traveling on official business of the United States, or is in ballast. • • •.

• • • • •

Inasmuch as this amendment merely clarifies an existing Customs regulation, notice and public procedure thereon are found to be unnecessary and good cause exists for dispensing with a delayed effective date under the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553.

Effective date. This amendment shall be effective on March 22, 1974.

PART 10—ARTICLES CONDITIONALLY FREE, SUBJECT TO A REDUCED RATE, ETC.

Supplies and Equipment for Aircraft

In accordance with section 309(d), 46 Stat. 690, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1309(d)), the Secretary of Commerce has found and in a letter dated February 4, 1974, has advised the Secretary of the Treasury that Jordan allows to aircraft registered in the United States and engaged in foreign trade privileges substantially reciprocal to those provided for in sections 309 and 317, 46 Stat. 690, as amended, 696, as amended (19 U.S.C.

V 39 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

1309, 1317). Corresponding privileges are accordingly extended to aircraft registered in Jordan and engaged in foreign trade effective as of the date of such notification.

Accordingly, paragraph (f) of § 10.59, Customs Regulations, is amended by the insertion of "Jordan" in appropriate alphabetical order and the number of this Treasury Decision in the opposite column headed "Treasury Decision(s)" in the list of nations in that paragraph.

(Secs. 309, 317, 624, 46 Stat. 690, as amended, 696, as amended, 759; (19 U.S.C. 1309, 1317, 1624))

As there is a statutory basis for the exemption from Customs duties on withdrawal of supplies by aircraft when reciprocity has been established, notice and public procedure thereon are found to be unnecessary and good cause exists for dispensing with a delayed effective date under the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553.

Approved: March 12, 1974.

Title 31—Money and Finance: Treasury

Subtitle A—Office of the Secretary of the Treasury

PART 9—EFFECTS OF IMPORTED ARTICLES ON THE NATIONAL SECURITY

The regulations under section 232 of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962 (19 U.S.C. 1862), formerly contained in Chapter 1 of Title 32A, Code of Federal Regulations and pertaining to investigations of the effects of imported articles on the national security, are being revised without substantive change and recodified as Part 9 of Title 31 as set forth below. By Executive Order No. 11725, dated June 27, 1973 (38 FR 17175), the President designated and empowered the Secretary of the Treasury to exercise, without approval, ratification, or other action of the President, all authority which was vested in the Director of the Office of Emergency Preparedness by section 232 of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, 76 Stat. 877, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1862), and which was transferred to the President by Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1973.

The notice, public rulemaking procedure and effective date requirements contained in 5 U.S.C. 553 are omitted as unnecessary because these changes relate to agency management and organization. Accordingly, this revision and recodification shall become effective on March 22, 1974.

Dated: March 18, 1974.

Authority: The provisions of this Part 9 are issued under sec. 232, 76 Stat. 877 (19 U.S.C. 1862); Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1973; and E.O. 11725, dated June 27, 1973 (FR 17175).

§ 9.2 Definitions.

As used herein "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Treasury and "Assistant Secretary" means the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Enforcement, Tariff & Trade Affairs, and Operations.

(a) Upon request of the head of any Government department or agency, upon application of an interested party, or upon his own motion, the Assistant Secretary shall set in motion an immediate investigation to determine the effects on the national security of imports of any article.

(b) The Secretary shall make the final determination on whether to advise the President that the importation of an article threatens to impair the national security.

§ 9.4 Criteria for determining effects of imports on national security.

(a) In determining the effect on the national security of imports of the article which is the subject of the investigation, the Secretary is required to take into consideration the following:

(1) Domestic production needed for projected national defense requirements including restoration and rehabilitation.

(2) The capacity of domestic industries to meet such projected requirements, including existing and anticipated availabilities of:

(i) Human resources
(ii) Products
(iii) Raw materials
(iv) Production equipment and facilities
(v) Other supplies and services essential to the national defense.

(3) The requirement of growth of such industries and such supplies and services including the investment, exploration and development necessary to assure capacity to meet projected defense requirements.

(4) The effect which the quantities, availabilities, character and uses of imported goods have or will have on such industries and the capacity of the United States to meet national security requirements.

(5) The economic welfare of the Nation as it is related to our national security, including the impact of foreign competition on the economic welfare of individual domestic industries. In determining whether such impact may impair the national security, any substantial unemployment, decrease in revenues of government, loss of skills or investment, or other serious effects shall be considered.

(b) The Secretary shall also consider other relevant factors in determining whether the national security is affected by imports of the article.

§ 9.5 Applications for investigation.

(a) Applications are required to be in writing. Twenty-five copies shall be filed by mail with the Assistant Secretary for Enforcement, Tariff & Trade Affairs and Operations, Department of the Treasury, Washington, D.C. 20220.

(b) Applications shall describe how the quantities or circumstances of imports of the particular article affect the national security and shall contain the following information:

(1) Identification of the person, partnership, association, corporation, or other entity on whose behalf the application is filed.

(2) A precise description of the article.

(3) Description of the applicant and the domestic industry concerned, including pertinent information regarding companies and their plants, locations, capacity and current output of the domestic industry concerned with the article in question.

(4) Pertinent statistics showing the quantities and values of both imports and production in the United States.

(5) Nature, sources, and degree of the competition created by imports of the article in question.

(6) The effect, if any, of imports of the article in question upon the restoration of domestic production capacity in an emergency.

(7) Employment and special skills involved in the domestic production of the article.

(8) Extent to which investment and specialized productive capacity is or will be adversely affected.

(9) Revenues of Federal, State, or local Governments which are or may be affected by the volume or circumstances of imports of the article.

(10) Defense or defense supporting uses of the article including data on defense contracts or sub-contracts, both past and current.

(c) Statistical material presented should be on a calendar-year basis for sufficient periods of time to indicate trends and afford the greatest possible assistance to the Assistant Secretary. Monthly or quarterly data for the latest complete years should be included as well as any other breakdowns which may be pertinent to show seasonal or short-term factors.

§ 9.6 Confidential information.

Information which the Assistant Secretary determines would disclose confidential business data or operations within the meaning of section 1905 of Title 18 of the United States Code, will be accorded confidential treatment by the Director if submitted in confidence. All information submitted in confidence must be on separate pages marked "Business Confidential."

§ 9.7 Conduct of investigation.

(a) The investigation by the Assistant Secretary or by such official or agency as he may designate, shall be such as to enable the Secretary to arrive at a fully informed opinion as to the effect on the national security of imports of the article in question.

(b) Upon undertaking an investigation the Assistant Secretary, unless it would be contrary to the interests of national defense, shall issue a public notice thereof which shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Any interested party may submit to the Assistant Secretary twenty-five copies of any comment, opinion, or data relative to the investigation within forty-five days after such public notice. Rebuttal to material so submitted may be filed with the Assistant Secretary within seventy-five days after such public notice and all data and comment from interested parties shall be a matter of record by ninety days after the giving of such public notice or fifteen days after the close of any hearing conducted under paragraph (f) of this section, whichever is later.

(c) All applications filed and all comments, opinions, and data submitted pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, except information submitted in confidence as provided in § 9.6, will be available for inspection at the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Enforcement, Tariff & Trade Affairs, and Operations, in Washington, D.C. where they may be read and copied by interested parties, and the Assistant Secretary will maintain a roster of persons who have submitted material.

(d) The Assistant Secretary or his designee may also request further data from other sources through the use of questionnaires, correspondence, or other means.

(e) The Assistant Secretary or his designee shall, in the course of the investigation, seek information or advice from appropriate Government departments and agencies.

(f) In addition, the Assistant Secretary, or his designee, may, when he deems it appropriate, hold public hearings to elicit further information. If a hearing is held:

(1) The time and place thereof will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(2) It will be conducted by the Assistant Secretary or his designee, and the full record will be considered by the Secretary in arriving at his determination.

(3) Interested parties may appear, either in person or by representation, and produce oral or written evidence relevant and material to the subject matter of the investigation.

(4) After a witness has testified the Assistant Secretary or his designee may question the witness. Questions submitted to the Assistant Secretary or his designee in writing by any interested party may, at the discretion of the Assistant Secretary or his designee, be posed to the witness for reply for the purpose of assisting the Assistant Secretary in obtaining the material facts with respect to the subject matter of the investigation.

(5) The hearing will be stenographically reported. The Assistant Secretary will not cause transcripts of the record of the hearing to be distributed to the interested parties, but a transcript may be inspected at the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Enforcement, Tariff and Trade Affairs, and Operations in Washington, D.C., or purchased from the reporter.

§ 9.8 Emergency action.

In emergency situations or when in his judgment national security interests require it, the Secretary may vary or dispense with any of the procedures set forth above and may formulate his views without following such procedures.

§ 9.9 Report.

A report will be made and published upon the disposition of each request, application or motion under § 9.3 hereof. Notice of publication of a report shall be given in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Copies of the report will be available at the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Enforcement, Tariff & Trade Affairs, and Operations.

PART 401—SEAWAY REGULATIONS

On pages 5794–5804 of the FEDERAL REGISTER of February 15, 1974, there were published proposed regulations by the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation to revise Subpart A—Regulations and Subpart B—Rules of 33 CFR Part 401 by consolidating the two subparts, resulting in Part 401, Subpart A—Seaway Regulations and reserving Subpart B for future use. In revising the regulations, the Corporation, pursuant to provisions of its enabling act (33 U.S.C. 981 et seq.) and pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Transportation with respect to the St. Lawrence Seaway under the Ports and Waterways Safety Act of 1972 (Pub. L. 92-340, 86 Stat. 424), which authority was subsequently delegated to the Administrator of the Saint Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 17, 1972 (37 FR 21943), is acting jointly with the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority of Canada. Each year the regulations are reviewed in light of the past season's experience and amendments are proposed for necessary changes. The main purpose of this year's revision is to consolidate the regulations and rules into one set of regulations to eliminate repetition of the regulations in the rules and vice versa and for clarity.

Interested parties were invited to submit written comments and suggestions with respect to the proposed amendments. Two replies were received. The first was a request for an extension of the comment period which, in view of the imminent opening of the 1974 navigation season, was deemed to be impractical. However, comments received at any time will be considered and if warranted, further revision of the Regulations can be made at a later date. The second reply suggested that provision should be made for waiver of specific requirements where vessels make only occasional transits. Consideration was given to this suggestion and it is felt that since the Regulations are promulgated for the safe transit of all vessels, allowing certain vessels to transit without the required equipment would jeopardize the safety of those vessels, other users, and/or Seaway property.

In view of the foregoing, the proposed regulations are hereby adopted without change.

Because this revision was developed jointly with the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority of Canada and will be adopted by that agency at the beginning of the 1974 navigation season, I find that good cause exists for making the revision effective in less than 30 days.

The full text of the revision of Part 401, Subpart A, Seaway Regulations, is set forth below.

(68 Stat. 92–97 (33 U.S.C. 981–990, as amended), and sec. 104, Pub. L. 92–340, 86 Stat. 424, 49 CFR 1.50a (37 FR 21943)).

Effective Date: March 22, 1974.

Subpart A—Regulations

§ 401.1 Short title.

These regulations may be cited as the "Seaway Regulations."

In the regulations in this part:

(a) "Authority" means the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority;

(b) "Corporation" means the Saint Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation;

(c) "Navigation season" means the annual period designated by the Corporation and the Authority, that is appropriate to weather and ice conditions or vessel traffic demands, during which the Seaway is open for navigation;

(d) "Officer" means a person employed by the Corporation or the Authority to direct some phase of the operation or use of the Seaway;

(e) "Passing through" means in transit through a lock or through the waters enclosed by the approach walls at either end of a lock chamber;

(f) "Pleasure craft" means a vessel, however propelled, that is used exclusively for pleasure and that does not carry passengers who have paid a fare for passage;

(g) "Preclearance" means the authorization given by the Corporation or the Authority for a vessel to transit;

(h) "Representative" means the owner or charterer of a vessel or an agent of either of them and includes any person who, in an application for preclearance of a vessel, accepts responsibility for payment of the tolls and charges to be assessed against the vessel in respect of transit and wharfage;

(i) "Seaway" means the deep waterway between the Port of Montreal and Lake Erie and includes all locks, canals and connecting and contiguous waters that are part of the deep waterway, and all other canals and works, wherever located, the management, administration and control of which have been entrusted to the Corporation or the Authority;

(j) "Seaway station" means a radio station operated by the Corporation or the Authority;

(k) "Towed" means pushed or pulled through the water;

(l) "Transit" means to use the Seaway, or a part of it, either upbound or downbound;

(m) "Vessel" means any type of craft used as a means of transportation on water; and

(n) "Vessel traffic controller" means the officer who controls vessel traffic from a Seaway station.

CONDITION OF VESSELS

(a) No vessel of more than seven hundred and thirty feet in overall length or seventy-five feet six inches in extreme breadth, including permanent fenders, shall transit.

(b) No vessel shall transit if any part of the vessel or anything on the vessel extends more than one hundred and seventeen feet above water level.

(c) No vessel shall transit if any part of its bridges or anything on the vessel protrudes beyond the hull.

(d) No vessel shall transit if its discharge pipes can direct overboard discharge on to the top of a tie-up or lock wall.

§ 401.4 Minimum length and weight.

No vessel of less than twenty feet in overall length or one ton in weight shall transit the South Shore, Beauharnois or Welland Canal.

No vessel shall transit unless it is—

(a) Propelled by motor power that is adequate in the opinion of an officer; and

(b) Marked and equipped in accordance with the requirements of §§ 401.6–401.21.

(a) Vessels of more than sixty-five feet in overall length shall be correctly and distinctly marked and equipped with draft markings on both sides at the bow and stern.

(b) In addition to the markings required by paragraph (a) of this section, vessels of more than three hundred and fifty feet in overall length shall be marked on both sides with midship draft markings.

(a) Where any structural part of a vessel protrudes so as to endanger Seaway installations, the vessel shall be equipped with fenders—

(1) Permanently attached to the vessel; or

(2) Where the fenders are not permanently attached—

(i) Made of a material that will float, and

(ii) Securely fastened and suspended from the vessel in a horizontal position by means of a steel cable or a fiber rope in such a way that they may be raised or lowered so as to avoid damage to Seaway installations.

(b) Automobile or other tires shall not be used as fenders.

Vessels of more than one hundred and fifty feet in overall length shall be equipped with at least one adequate landing boom on each side.

§ 401.9 Radiotelephone equipment.

(a) Self-propelled vessels, other than pleasure craft of less than sixty-five feet, shall be equipped with VHF (very high frequency) radiotelephone equipment.

(b) The radio transmitters on a vessel shall:

(1) Have sufficient power output to enable the vessel to communicate with Seaway stations from a distance of thirty miles; and

(2) Be fitted to operate from the conning position in the wheelhouse and to communicate on 156.45, 156.55, 156.6, 156.65, 156.7, and 156.8 MHz.

(a) Mooring lines shall:

(1) Be of a uniform thickness throughout their length;

(2) Be fitted with a spliced eye not less than eight feet long;

(3) Have sufficient strength to check the vessel; and

(4) Be arranged so that they may be led to either side of the vessel as required.

(b) Unless otherwise permitted by an officer, only wire rope mooring lines shall be used for securing a vessel in lock chambers.

(c) Synthetic lines may be used for mooring at approach walls, tie-up walls and docks within the Seaway if they have a breaking strength that complies with the minimum specifications set out in the table to this section.

TABLE

Ship's overall length (feet)	Length of mooring line (feet)	Breaking strength (tons)
125 to 200	360	10
201 to 300	360	15
301 to 400	360	20
401 to 600	360	28
601 to 730	360	35

Mooring lines, and synthetic hawsers where permitted under paragraph (b) or (c) of § 401.10, shall:

(a) Be led at the vessel's side through a type of fairlead acceptable to the Corporation and the Authority;

(b) Pass through not more than two inboard fairleads that are fixed in place and provided with free-running sheaves or rollers; and

(c) Where the fairleads are mounted flush with the hull, be permanently fendered to prevent the lines from being pinched between the vessel and a wall.

(a) Minimum requirements in respect to mooring lines and winches and the location of fairleads on vessels are as follows:

(1) Vessels of one hundred and twenty-five feet or less in overall length shall have at least two mooring lines or hawsers that may be led through closed chocks and be hand held, one of which shall lead from the break of the bow and the other shall lead from the quarter;

(2) Vessels of more than one hundred and twenty-five feet but not more than two hundred feet in overall length shall have four mooring lines, two of which shall be power operated by winches, capstans or windlasses and shall be led through a type of fairlead acceptable to the Corporation and the Authority, of which two mooring lines—

(i) One shall lead forward from the break of the bow and one astern from the quarter, or

(ii) One shall lead astern from the break of the bow and one forward from the quarter;

(3) The other two mooring lines required on vessels of more than one hundred and twenty-five feet but not more than two hundred feet may be led through closed chocks and may be hand held;

(4) Vessels of more than two hundred feet in overall length shall have four mooring lines, two of which shall lead from the break of the bow and two of which shall lead from the quarter, and

(i) All shall be power operated by the main drums of adequate power operated winches and not by capstans or windlasses; and

(ii) All shall be led through a type of fairlead acceptable to the Corporation and the Authority.

(b) The following table sets out the requirements for the location of fairleads for vessels of two hundred feet or more in overall length:

TABLE

Overall length of vessels (feet)	For mooring lines Nos. 1 and 2	For mooring lines Nos. 3 and 4
200 to 300	Between 30 and 80 ft from the stem.	Between 30 and 80 ft from the stern.
Over 300 to 400	Between 40 and 100 ft from the stem.	Between 50 and 110 ft from the stern.
Over 400 to 500	Between 40 and 110 ft from the stem.	Between 50 and 130 ft from the stern.
Over 500 to 600	Between 50 and 130 ft from the stem.	Between 60 and 150 ft from the stern.
Over 600 to 730	Between 60 and 160 ft from the stem.	Between 70 and 170 ft from the stern.

Hand lines shall

(a) Be made of manila or other material acceptable to the Corporation and the Authority, and

(b) Have a minimum diameter of one-half inch and a minimum length of one hundred feet.

An orange colored anchor marking buoy of a type approved by the Corporation and the Authority, fitted with seventy-five feet of suitable line, shall be secured directly to each anchor so that the buoy will mark the location of the anchor when the anchor is dropped.

§ 401.15 Stern anchors.

Every vessel of more than three hundred and fifty feet, the keel of which is laid after January 1, 1975, shall be equipped with a stern anchor.

§ 401.16 Propeller direction alarms.

Every vessel of more than two hundred and sixty feet in overall length shall be equipped with

(a) Propeller direction and shaft r.p.m. indicators; and

(b) Unless the vessel is bridge-controlled or is equipped with an automatically synchronized electric telegraph system or a device that renders it impossible to operate engines against orders from the bridge, visible and audible wrong-way propeller direction alarms located in the wheelhouse and the engine room.

Every vessel equipped with a variable pitch propeller shall have a pitch indicator in the wheelhouse and the engine room.

Every vessel shall be equipped with a steering light on the bow.

§ 401.19 Sewage and garbage disposal systems.

(a) Every vessel not equipped with containers for ordure shall be equipped with a sewage disposal system enabling compliance with applicable laws relative to sewage disposal.

(b) Garbage on a vessel shall be—

(1) Destroyed by means of an incinerator or other garbage disposal device; or

(2) Retained on board in covered, leakproof containers, until such time as it can lawfully be disposed of.

Every vessel that is unable to contain all the waste oil products or bilge water containing waste oil products that may be on board the vessel shall be equipped with oily-water separators or other equipment for the extraction of oil products from waste water before discharge.

Every vessel of more than two hundred and sixty feet in overall length shall be equipped with rudder angle indicators or repeaters that are—

(a) Located in the wheelhouse; and

(b) Arranged so that they can be easily read from any position on the bridge.

(a) No vessel, other than a pleasure craft of three hundred and fifty tons or less in weight, shall transit until an application for preclearance has been made, pursuant to § 401.24, to the Corporation or the Authority by the vessel's representative and the application has been approved by the Corporation or the Authority pursuant to § 401.25.

(b) No vessel shall transit while its preclearance is suspended or has terminated by reason of—

(1) The expiration of the representative's guarantee of toll payment,

(2) A change of ownership or representative of the vessel, or

(3) A material alteration in the physical characteristics of the vessel, until another application for preclearance has been made and approved.

(a) It is a condition of approval of an application for preclearance that the vessel is covered by liability insurance equal to or exceeding $50 per gross registered ton.

(b) No vessel shall transit while its liability insurance is not in full force and effect.

The representative of a vessel may apply for preclearance, giving particulars of the ownership, liability insurance and physical characteristics of the vessel and guaranteeing payment of the tolls and charges that may be incurred by the vessel on a Form SLS 429 set out in Schedule I of these regulations which may be obtained from the Corporation, Massena, New York or from the Authority, Cornwall, Ontario.

Where the Corporation or the Authority approves an application for preclearance, it shall—

(a) Give the approval in writing; and

(b) Assign a number to the approval.

§ 401.26 Security for tolls.

(a) Before transit, other than transit restricted to the Sault Ste. Marie (Canada) Canal, by a vessel to which the requirement of preclearance applies, security for the payment of tolls in accordance with the St. Lawrence Seaway Tariff of Tolls, shall be provided by the representative by means of—

(1) A deposit of money with the Corporation or the Authority;

(2) A deposit of money to the credit of the Corporation or the Authority with a bank in the United States or a chartered bank in Canada;

(3) A deposit with the Corporation or the Authority of negotiable bonds of the Government of the United States or the Government of Canada; or

(4) Furnishing to the Corporation or the Authority a letter of guarantee given by a bank referred to in paragraph (a)(2) of this section.

(b) The security for the tolls of a vessel shall be sufficient to cover the gross registered tonnage of the vessel—

(1) On the Seaway between Montreal and Lake Ontario, at $1.00 per ton for transit each way or at $2.00 per ton for a round trip;

(2) On the Welland Canal, at $800.00 for transit each way or at $1600.00 for a round trip, and shall be maintained in an amount sufficient to cover each transit for which tolls have been incurred and are unpaid.

(c) Where a number of vessels—

(1) Are owned or controlled by the same individual or company, and

(2) Have the same representative,

the security for the tolls may be provided in an amount estimated by the representative to be equal to $1.10 per ton for the aggregate maximum tonnage of the vessels within the Seaway at any one time and shall be maintained in an amount sufficient to cover each transit for which tolls have been incurred and are unpaid.

(d) Where, in the opinion of the Corporation or the Authority, the security provided by the representative is insufficient to secure the tolls and charges incurred or likely to be incurred by a vessel, the Corporation or the Authority may suspend the preclearance of the vessel.

SEAWAY NAVIGATION

Every vessel shall comply promptly with transit instructions given by the vessel traffic controller or any other officer.

(a) The maximum speed over the bottom for a vessel of more than forty feet in overall length shall be regulated so as not to adversely affect other vessels or shore property, and in no event shall such a vessel proceeding in an area between the place set out in column I of an item of Schedule II and the place set out in column II of that item exceed the speed set out in column III or column IV of that item, whichever is designated by the Corporation and the Authority from time to time as being appropriate to existing water levels.

(b) Every vessel under way shall proceed at a reasonable speed so as not to cause undue delay to other vessels.

(c) Every vessel passing a moored vessel or equipment working in a canal shall proceed at a speed that will not endanger the moored vessel, the moored equipment or the occupants of either.

(a) The loading, draft and speed of a vessel in transit shall be controlled by the master, who shall take into account the vessel's individual characteristics and its tendency to list or squat, so as to avoid striking bottom.[1]

(b) The draft of a vessel shall not, in any case, exceed 26 feet or the maximum permissible draft designated by the Corporation or the Authority for the part of the Seaway in which a vessel is passing.

(c) No vessel shall transit the Sault Ste. Marie (Canada) Canal with a draft in excess of the maximum permissible draft currently prescribed by the Authority for that Canal or unless the available depth of water on the appropriate controlling point for draft exceeds by at least three inches the maximum draft of the vessel at the time.

(a) Every vessel shall be adequately ballasted.

(b) Every vessel shall be properly trimmed.

(c) Any vessel that is not adequately ballasted or properly trimmed in the opinion of an officer, may be refused transit or may be delayed.

§ 401.31 Meeting and passing.

(a) The meeting and passing of vessels shall be governed by the Rules of the Road for the Great Lakes.

(b) No vessel shall meet another vessel within the limit of approach signs at bridges.

(c) Except as instructed by the vessel traffic controller, no vessel shall overtake and pass or attempt to overtake and pass another vessel—

(1) In any canal;

(2) Within two thousand feet of a canal entrance;

(3) After the order of passing through has been established by the vessel traffic controller; or

(4) Between the western end of the Vidal Shoal Cut and the upper entrance of the Sault Ste. Marie Lock.

(a) Every vessel shall have cargo booms secured in their housings in a manner that affords maximum visibility from the wheelhouse.

(b) Cargo or containers carried, forward or aft, on deck shall be stowed in a manner that—

(1) Affords an unrestricted view from the wheelhouse for the purpose of navigation; and

(2) Does not interfere with mooring equipment.

Special instructions shall be applied for from the Corporation or the Authority in connection with the intended transit of vessels of unusual design, hulks, sections of vessels, large dredges and all vessels in tow, and such vessels shall not transit except in compliance with such instructions.

No vessel that is not self-propelled shall be underway in any canal unless it is securely tied to an adequate tug or tugs, in accordance with special instructions given by the Corporation or the Authority pursuant to § 401.33.

§ 401.35 Employment of tugs.

No tug shall be fastened alongside a vessel in a canal so that the aggregate of the beams exceeds—

(a) Fifty-five feet in the case of the Sault Ste. Marie (Canada) Canal; or

(b) Seventy-five feet, six inches in the case of any other canal.

Vessels shall advance to a lock in the order instructed by the vessel traffic controller.

§ 401.37 Mooring at tie-up walls.

Upon arrival at a lock, a vessel awaiting instructions to advance shall moor at the tie-up wall, close up to the designated limit of approach sign or to the vessel preceding it, whichever is specified by an officer.

A vessel approaching a lock or guard gate shall comply with directions indicated by the signal light system associated with the lock or guard gate, and in no case shall its stem pass the designated limit of approach sign while a red light or no light is displayed.

Before a vessel enters a lock—

(a) Sufficient lengths of mooring lines to reach the mooring posts on the lock walls shall be drawn off the winch drums and laid out on the deck; and

(a) No vessel shall proceed into a lock in such a manner that the stem passes the STOP sign on the lock wall nearest the closed gates.

(b) Every vessel in a lock shall be positioned and moored as directed by the officer in charge of the mooring operation.

Where two or more vessels are being locked together, vessels astern of the leading vessel shall—

(a) Come to a full stop a sufficient distance from the preceding vessel to avoid a collision; and

(b) Be moved into mooring position as directed by the officer in charge of the lock.

(a) At locks, hand lines shall be secured to the mooring lines and passed as follows:

Unless otherwise directed by an officer, vessels passing through locks in the South Shore, Beauharnois, Wiley-Dondero, Iroquois, Welland and Sault Ste. Marie (Canada) Canals shall moor at the side of the tie-up wall or lock as shown in the table to this section.

(a) Mooring lines shall only be placed on mooring posts as directed by the officer in charge of a mooring operation.

(b) No winch from which a mooring line runs shall be operated until the officer in charge of a mooring operation has signalled that the line has been placed on a mooring post.

§ 401.45 Emergency procedure.

When the speed of a vessel entering a lock chamber has to be checked immediately, the master or the officer in charge of the mooring operation shall order all mooring lines to be put out as soon as possible, and the master shall signal a full check by sounding a series of five or more short blasts of the vessel's whistle.

(a) Lines of a vessel shall be under visual control and attended by members of its crew during the time the vessel is passing through a lock.

(b) While a vessel is within a lock chamber and lines are hand held for tension control, each line shall be attended by at least one member of the vessel's crew.

(b) A downbound vessel shall use its own hand lines, secured to the eye at the end of the mooring lines, which hand lines shall be passed to the linesmen at the lock as soon as the vessel passes the open gates;

(2) Hand lines shall be passed to upbound vessels by the linesmen as soon as the vessel passes the open gates, and secured, by means of a clove hitch, to the mooring lines two feet behind the splice of the eye; and

(3) At Iroquois Lock and Lock 8, Welland Canal, both upbound and downbound vessels shall use their own hand lines as provided in paragraph (a)(1) of this section.

(b) Knotted or weighted hand lines shall not be used in the chamber of a lock.

(c) Mooring lines shall not be passed over the side of a vessel in a manner dangerous to a lock crew.

V 39 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

(b) No vessel shall proceed out of a lock until the exit gates, ship arresters and the bridge, if any, are in a fully open position.

§ 401.48 Turning basins.

No vessel shall be turned about in any canal, except—

(a) With permission from the vessel traffic controller; and

TABLE

1. South Shore Canal:
(a) Turning Basin No. 1—Opposite Brossard.
(b) Turning Basin No. 2—Immediately below Cote St. Catherine Lock.
2. Welland Canal:
(a) Turning Basin No. 1—Opposite St. Catharines Wharf for vessels up to three hundred and fifty feet.
(b) Turning Basin No. 2—Between Lock 7 and Guard Gate for vessels up to six hundred feet.
(c) Turning Basin No. 3—Immediately south of Bridge 12.
(d) Turning Basin No. 4—North of Lock No. 8 for vessels up to five hundred and fifty feet.
(e) For vessels up to two hundred and sixty feet:
(1) North end of Wharf No. 1,
(2) Tie-up wall above Lock 1,
(3) Tie-up wall below Lock 2,
(4) Wharf No. 9,
(5) Between the southerly extremities of Wharves 18–2 and 18–3.

§ 401.49 Dropping anchor or tying to canal bank.

Except in an emergency, no vessel shall drop anchor in any canal or tie-up to any canal bank unless authorized to do so by the vessel traffic controller.

Except in an emergency, or unless authorized to do so by the vessel traffic controller, no vessel shall drop anchor in any part of the Seaway except in the following designated anchorage areas:

(a) Point Fortier (Lake St. Louis).
(b) Melocheville (Beauharnois Canal).
(c) St. Zotique and Dickerson Island (Lake St. Francis).
(d) Wilson Hill Island and Morrisburg (Lake St. Lawrence).
(e) Prescott and Union Park (St. Lawrence River).
(f) Off Port Weller (Lake Ontario).
(g) Off Port Colborne (Lake Erie).

§ 401.51 Signalling approach to a bridge.

Unless a vessel's approach has been recognized by a flashing red signal light, three distinct blasts shall be sounded on the vessel's whistle when it comes abreast of any of the bridge whistle signs, which signs shall be placed at distances varying between two thousand two hundred feet and four thousand six hundred feet, upstream and downstream from movable bridges at sites other than lock sites.

§ 401.52 Limit of approach to a bridge.

(a) No vessel shall pass the limit of approach sign at any movable bridge until the bridge is in a fully open position and the signal light shows green.

(b) No vessel shall pass the limit of approach sign at the twin Railway Bridges on the South Shore Canal at Caughnawaga or at Bridges 20 and 21 on the Welland Canal, until both bridges are in a fully open position and both signal lights show green.

No vessel shall be operated, drop anchor or be fastened or moored in a manner that obstructs or hinders navigation.

(a) Aids to navigation shall not be interfered with or moored to.

(b) No person shall, unless authorized by the Corporation or the Authority, set out buoys or navigation markers on the Seaway.

No searchlight shall be used in such a manner that its rays interfere with the operators at a Seaway structure or on any vessel.

The master of every vessel shall—

(a) Navigate so as to avoid damage to Seaway property; and

§ 401.57 Disembarking or boarding.

(a) Except as authorized by an officer, no person, other than a member of the crew of a vessel passing through, shall disembark or board any vessel while the vessel is passing through.

(b) No member of the crew of a vessel passing through shall disembark or board except for the purpose of carrying out essential duties as directed by the Master.

§ 401.58 Pleasure craft scheduling.

The transit of pleasure craft shall be scheduled by the vessel traffic controller or the officer in charge of a lock and may be delayed so as to avoid interference with other vessels.

(a) No vessel shall—

(1) Emit sparks or excessive smoke; or

(2) Blow boiler tubes.

(b) No vessel shall discharge, dump or pump oil products or bilge containing oil products into the Seaway or adjacent waters.

(c) A record shall be kept of each location within the Seaway or adjacent waters where bilge water has been discharged.

(d) Except as authorized by the Corporation or the Authority, no vessel shall discharge garbage, ashes, ordure, litter or other materials.

RADIO COMMUNICATIONS

(a) Vessels shall be on radio listening watch on the applicable assigned frequency while within a Seaway traffic control sector as shown on the General Seaway Plan and shall give notice of arrival in the manner prescribed in § 401.64 upon reaching any designated calling in point.

(b) Notice of arrival shall be deemed to have been given when it is acknowledged by a Seaway station.

The Seaway stations operate on the following assigned VHF frequencies:

156.8 MHz (channel 16)—Distress and Calling.
156.7 MHz (channel 14)—Working (Canadian Stations other than Lakes Ontario and Erie).
156.45 MHz (channel 9)—Working (Canadian Stations other than Lakes Ontario and Erie).
156.65 MHz (channel 13)—Working (U.S. Stations, Lake Ontario and Sector 4 of the River).
156.6 MHz (channel 12)—Working (U.S. Stations other than Lake Ontario and Sector 4 of the River).
156.55 MHz (channel 11)—Working (Canadian Stations, Lake Ontario and Lake Erie.

The Seaway stations are located as follows:

VDX20 (Seaway Beauharnois)—Upper Beauharnois Lock—Traffic Control Sector No. 1.
KEF (Seaway Eisenhower)—Eisenhower Lock—Traffic Control Sector No. 2.
VDX21 (Seaway Iroquois)—Iroquois Lock—Traffic Control Sector No. 3.
WAG (Seaway Clayton)—Clayton, N.Y.—Traffic Control Sector No. 4.
WAG (Seaway Sodus)—Sodus, N.Y.—Traffic Control Sector No. 4.
VDX72 (Seaway Oshawa)—Oshawa, Ontario—Traffic Control Sector No. 5.
VDX22 (Seaway Welland)—St. Catharines, Ontario—Traffic Control Sector No. 6.
VDX68 (Seaway Long Point)—Port Colborne, Ontario—Traffic Control Sector No. 7.
VDX23 (Seaway Sault)—Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario—Traffic Control Sector No. 8.

Every vessel shall use the channels of communication in each control sector as listed in the table to this section.

Seaway Sault	8	C.I.P. No. 17 to C.I.P. No. 18	Channel 14	Channel 14	Do.

(a) Every vessel, intending to transit or in transit, shall report on the assigned frequency to the designated Seaway station when opposite any calling in point or checkpoint (indicated on the General Seaway Plan) and, when reporting, shall give the information indicated in Schedule III.

(b) Changes in information provided under paragraph (a) of this section shall be reported to the appropriate Seaway station.

(c) A downbound vessel in St. Lambert Lock shall, before communicating with Montreal Marine Control, switch to channel 10 (156.5 MHz) for a Montreal Harbor situation report.

(d) After obtaining the situation report referred to in paragraph (c) of this section, the downbound vessel shall return to guarding channel 14 (156.7 MHz) and remain on that channel until it is clear of St. Lambert Lock chamber.

(e) When the downbound vessel has cleared the downstream end of the lower approach wall of St. Lambert Lock, the master or pilot of the vessel shall call "Seaway Beauharnois" and request permission to switch to channel 10 (156.5 MHz).

(f) Seaway Beauharnois shall grant the permission requested pursuant to paragraph (e) of this section and advise the downbound vessel of any upbound traffic that may be cleared for Seaway entry but not yet at C.I.P. 2.

(g) In the event of an expected meeting of vessels between the downstream end of the lower approach wall and C.I.P. 2, the downbound vessel shall be told to remain on channel 14 (156.7 MHz) until the meeting has been completed.

(h) After the meeting, the downbound vessel shall call "Seaway Beauharnois" before switching to channel 10 (156.5 MHz).

§ 401.65 Communication—ports, docks and anchorages.

(a) Every vessel entering or leaving a lake port shall report to the appropriate Seaway station at the following check points:

(1) Toronto and Hamilton—one mile outside of harbor limits; and

(2) Other lake ports—when crossing the harbor entrance.

(b) Every vessel arriving at a port, dock or anchorage shall report to the appropriate Seaway station, giving an estimated time of departure if possible, and, at least four hours prior to departure, every vessel departing from a port, dock or anchorage shall report in the same way giving its destination and the expected time of arrival at the next check point.

DANGEROUS CARGO

Vessels carrying fuel oil, gasoline, crude oil or other flammable goods in bulk, including empty tankers that are not gas free, and vessels carrying dangerous goods to which regulations made under the Canada Shipping Act, or to which the Dangerous Cargo Act of the United States or regulations issued pursuant thereto, apply, shall be deemed to carry dangerous cargo, and shall not transit unless all requirements of the said Statutes and regulations and of these Regulations have been fulfilled.

A vessel carrying—

(a) Explosives with a mass explosive risk, including ammonium nitrate when it falls into this classification;

(b) More than 10 tons of explosives that do not explode en masse; or

(c) More than one hundred tons of explosives having a fire hazard with minor or no explosive effect, shall be deemed for the purposes of these Regulations to be an explosive vessel.

(a) No explosive vessel shall transit without a Seaway Explosives Permit, which permit shall not be granted where a vessel carries more than—

(1) Two short tons of explosives with a mass explosive risk;

(2) Fifty short tons of explosives that do not explode en masse; or

(3) Five hundred short tons of explosives having a fire hazard without explosive effect.

(b) Written application for a Seaway Explosives Permit may be made to the Director of Operations, the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority, Cornwall, Ontario, or to the Director of Operations, Saint Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation, Massena, New York, and shall show that the cargo is packed, marked, labelled, described, certified, stowed and otherwise conforms with all relevant regulations of the country in which they were loaded and of Canada and the United States.

(c) A signed copy of a Seaway Explosives Permit and a true copy of any certificate as to the loading of dangerous cargo shall be kept on board every explosive vessel in transit and shall be made available to any officer requiring production of such copies.

A vessel that is—

(a) A tanker carrying fuel oil, gasoline, crude oil or other flammable goods in bulk, including a tanker that is not gas free; or

(b) A dry cargo vessel or bulk chemical carrier carrying other dangerous cargo that is in excess of—

(1) Fifty tons of gases, compressed, liquified or dissolved under pressure,

(2) Fifty tons of inflammable liquids of the low flashpoint group,

(3) Fifty tons of organic peroxides,

(4) One hundred tons of oxidizing substances,

(5) One hundred tons of inflammable liquids of the intermediate flashpoint group,

(6) One hundred tons of inflammable solids or spontaneously combustible substances,

(7) One hundred tons of substances emitting inflammable gases when wet,

(8) One hundred tons of poisonous substances,

(9) One hundred tons of infectious substances,

(10) Two hundred tons of corrosive substances, or

(11) Five hundred tons of inflammable liquids of the high flashpoint group, shall be deemed for the purposes of the Regulations in this part to be a hazardous cargo vessel.

An explosive vessel or a hazardous cargo vessel, other than a vessel that is—

(a) Carrying the equivalent of Bunker C oil in the center tanks, and

(b) Equipped with gas free ballast wing tanks, shall be equipped with a sufficient number of non-metallic fenders to prevent any metallic part of the vessel from touching the side of a dock or lock wall.

(a) An explosive vessel shall display, at the masthead or at an equivalent, conspicuous position, a "B" Flag.

(b) A hazardous cargo vessel shall display, at the masthead or at an equivalent, conspicuous position, a "B" Flag superior to numeral pennant no. 1.

(a) Every explosive vessel shall report the Seaway Explosives Permit number when calling in information related to cargo as required by § 401.64(a).

(b) Every explosive vessel or hazardous cargo vessel shall, when calling in information related to cargo as required by § 401.64(a); report the nature of its cargo and its flashpoint (hazardous cargo).

Gas freeing and cleaning of cargo tanks shall not take place—

(a) In a canal or lock;

(b) In an area that is not clear of other vessels and structures; or

(c) Before gas freeing and tank cleaning has been reported to the nearest Seaway station.

TOLL ASSESSMENT AND PAYMENT

(a) The Seaway Transit Declaration Form (Cargo and Passenger), which may be obtained from the Authority, Cornwall, Ontario or from the Corporation, Massena, New York, shall be forwarded to the Authority or the Corporation by the representative of every vessel, other than a pleasure craft of not more than three hundred and fifty tons, within fourteen days after the vessel first enters the Seaway on any upbound or downbound voyage.

(b) The loaded or manifest weight of cargo shall be shown on the Seaway Transit Declaration Form, except in the case of petroleum products where gallonage meters are not available at the point of loading, in which case offloaded weights may be shown on the Declaration Form.

(c) Where a vessel carries cargo to or from an overseas port, a copy of the cargo manifest, duly certified, shall be forwarded with the Seaway Transit Declaration Form.

(d) A Weight-Scale Certificate or similar document issued in the place of a cargo manifest may be accepted in lieu thereof.

(e) Where a Seaway Transit Declaration Form is found to be inaccurate, concerning the destination, cargo or passengers, the representative shall immediately forward to the Corporation or the Authority a new, revised Declaration Form.

(f) The information set out in the Seaway Transit Declaration Form shall be transmitted by the Authority to Statistics Canada, and the Corporation will transmit the statistical data required in the United States.

(g) Seaway Transit Declaration Forms shall be used in assessing toll charges in accordance with the St. Lawrence Seaway Tariff of Tolls, and toll accounts shall be forwarded in duplicate to the representative or his designated agent.

§ 401.75 Payment of tolls.

(a) Every toll account is payable when rendered, in Canadian or American funds as indicated on the account, and any adjustment shall be provided for in a subsequent account.

(b) Unless a toll account is paid within fourteen days from the date shown on the account, a surcharge, in an amount not to exceed five percent of the amount due, may be added.

(c) Where a Seaway Transit Declaration Form is not forwarded within the time referred to in § 401.74(a):

(1) The toll account shall be antedated to the date when it would have been prepared if the Declaration Form had been forwarded within that time; and

(2) The surcharge referred to in paragraph (b) of this section may be added unless the toll account is paid within 14 days of the date shown on the account.

§ 401.76 In-transit cargo.

Cargo that is carried both upbound and downbound in the course of the same voyage shall be reported in the Seaway Transit Declaration Form, but is deemed to be ballast and not subject to toll assessment.

Tolls, in accordance with the St. Lawrence Seaway Tariff of Tolls, shall be paid by pleasure craft for the transit of each Seaway lock, other than the lock on the Sault Ste. Marie (Canada) Canal, by means of $2.00 or $3.00 tickets that may be purchased from the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority, 202 Pitt Street, Cornwall, Ontario, or from the Saint Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation, Seaway Circle, Massena, New York 13662, or at the office of the Regional Directors, whose addresses are shown in Schedule IV; and tickets may also be purchased from pleasure craft organizations or yacht clubs that have obtained tickets from the Corporation or the Authority.

INFORMATION AND REPORTS

All documentary evidence, including inspection certificates, evidence that draft markings are correct, vessel manifests, cargo manifests, crew lists and bills of lading, shall be made available to any officer requiring production of such evidence.

§ 401.79 Advance notice of arrival, vessels requiring inspection.

Every vessel shall provide at least twenty-four hours notice of arrival to the nearest Seaway station prior to an initial transit or in case reinspection of the vessel is required.

Every vessel carrying cargo referred to in § 401.69(b) (1) to (11), in a quantity that is not in excess of the quantity that would cause the vessel to be deemed a hazardous cargo vessel, shall provide to the nearest Seaway Station at least twenty-four hours notice of arrival prior to entry into the Seaway on any upbound or downbound voyage, indicating the nature and quantity of the dangerous cargo and where it is stowed on the vessel.

§ 401.81 Reporting an accident.

(a) Where a vessel on the Seaway is involved in an accident that might affect its ability to transit safely and expeditiously, the master of the vessel shall report the accident to the nearest Seaway station immediately, if the vessel can make radio contact with the station, or as soon as the vessel can make radio contact with the station in any other case.

(b) Where a vessel approaching the Seaway with intent to transit has been involved in an accident in the course of its last voyage that might affect its ability to transit safely and expeditiously, the master of the vessel shall report the accident to the nearest Seaway station before entering the Seaway.

A vessel, any part of which extends more than one hundred and ten feet above water level, shall not transit any part of the Seaway until precise information concerning the height of the vessel has been furnished to the Seaway station.

§ 401.83 Reporting position at anchor, wharf, etc.

A vessel anchoring in a designated anchorage area, or elsewhere, and a vessel mooring at a wharf or dock, tying up to a canal bank or being held on a canal bank in any manner shall immediately report its position to the vessel traffic controller and it shall not resume its voyage without the vessel traffic controller's permission.

The loss of an anchor shall be reported immediately to the vessel traffic controller with particulars of the precise location of the loss.

Any aid to navigation that is extinguished, damaged, out of position or missing shall be reported to the nearest Seaway station.

DETENTION AND SALE

§ 401.86 Security for damages or injury.

An officer may detain a vessel that causes—

(a) Damage to property of the Corporation or the Authority;

(b) Damage to goods or cargo stored on property of the Corporation or the Authority; or

(c) Injury to employees of the Corporation or the Authority; until security satisfactory to the Corporation or the Authority has been provided.

§ 401.87 Detention for toll arrears or violations.

(a) An officer may detain a vessel where—

(1) The tolls or charges levied against the vessel have not been paid; or

(2) A violation of these Regulations has taken place in respect of the vessel.

(b) A vessel detained pursuant to paragraph (a)(1) of this section shall be released when the unpaid tolls or charges are paid.

(c) A vessel detained pursuant to paragraph (a)(2) of this section may be released when a sum of money in an amount, determined by the Corporation or the Authority to be the maximum fine or civil penalty that may be imposed for the violation in respect of which the vessel has been detained, is deposited with the Corporation or the Authority as security for the payment of any fine or civil penalty that may be imposed.

(d) Where a sum of money has been deposited pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, the Corporation or the Authority may—

(1) Return the deposit;

(2) Hold the deposit in trust as security for the payment of any fine that may be imposed; or

(3) Retain the deposit if the depositor agrees to retention by the Corporation or the Authority of the sum deposited.

(e) Although the depositor may have agreed to retention by the Authority of an amount deposited under paragraph (c) of this section, he may bring an action for the recovery of the amount deposited on the ground that there has been no violation of the regulations in this part.

§ 401.88 Power of sale for toll arrears.

(a) Where a vessel has been detained pursuant to § 401.87(a) and payment of the tolls and charges or the fine imposed has not been made within a reasonable time after—

(1) The time of the detention, in the case of arrears of tolls and charges, or

(2) The imposition of the fine or penalty, in the case of a violation, the Corporation or the Authority may direct that the vessel or its cargo or any part thereof be seized.

(b) The Corporation or the Authority may, after giving such notice as it deems reasonable to the representative of the vessel, sell the vessel or cargo seized pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) An amount equal to the cost of the detention, seizure and sale, and

(1) The tolls and charges payable, or

(2) The fine or penalty imposed on conviction, shall be deducted from the proceeds of a sale pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, and the balance shall be paid to the owner of the vessel or cargo or the mortgagee thereof, as the case may be.

GENERAL

(a) An officer may refuse to allow a vessel to transit when, in his opinion,

(1) The vessel is not equipped in accordance with §§ 401.6 to 401.21;

(2) The vessel, its cargo, equipment or machinery are in a condition that will prevent safe or expeditious transit by that vessel; or

(3) The vessel is manned with a crew that is incompetent or inadequate.

§ 401.90 Boarding for inspection.

For the purpose of enforcing the regulations in this part, an officer may board any vessel and:

(a) Examine the vessel and its cargo; and

(b) Determine that the vessel is adequately manned.

The Corporation or the Authority may take such action at the owner's expense as it deems necessary to move any vessel, cargo or thing that, in its opinion, obstructs or hinders transit of any part of the Seaway.

§ 401.92 Wintering and lying-up.

No vessel shall winter within the Seaway or lie-up within the Seaway during the navigation season except with the written permission of the Corporation or the Authority and subject to the conditions and charges that may be imposed.

§ 401.93 Access to Seaway property.

(a) Except as authorized by an officer, no person shall load or unload goods on property of the Corporation or the Authority.

(b) Except as authorized by an officer or by the Shore Traffic Regulations, no person shall enter upon any land or structure of the Corporation or the Authority or swim in any Seaway canal or lock area.

A copy of these regulations in this part shall be kept on board every vessel in transit.

SCHEDULE I

THE ST. LAWRENCE SEAWAY APPLICATION FOR VESSEL PRE-CLEARANCE

Instructions

The application form attached is to be completed for each vessel by its representative in duplicate and submitted to the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority, 202 Pitt Street, Cornwall, Ontario or to the Saint Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation, Massena, New York.

Upon approval of an application, one copy bearing the Seaway number assigned to the vessel will be returned to the representative.

The representative will be responsible for the documentary and financial arrangements with respect to each transit of the vessel.

When the representative is a Corporation, a resolution will be required authorizing the execution of the Certificate of Guarantee unless it is signed by the President and the Secretary-Treasurer and bears the seal of the company.

A new application will be required where the guarantee endorsed on this application has expired or has been cancelled, for each change of representative or of his address, and after a change in ownership or any major revision in the physical characteristics of the vessel.

NOTICE—NO VESSEL IS PRE-CLEARED UNTIL THIS APPLICATION HAS BEEN APPROVED

Information—Extracts From the Seaway Handbook

Security for Tolls

26. (2) The security for the tolls of a vessel shall be sufficient to cover the gross registered tonnage of the vessel

(a) On the Seaway between Montreal and Lake Ontario, at $1.00 per ton for transit each way or at $2.00 per ton for a round trip;

(b) On the Welland Canal, at $800.00 for transit each way or at $1600.00 for a round trip, and it shall be maintained in an amount sufficient to cover each and every transit for which tolls have been incurred and are unpaid.

26. (3) Where a number of vessels

(a) Are owned or controlled by the same individual or company, and

(b) Have the same representative,

the security for the tolls may be provided in an amount estimated by the representative to be equal to $1.10 per ton for the aggregate maximum tonnage of the vessels within the Seaway at any one time and shall be maintained in an amount sufficient to cover each transit for which tolls have been incurred and are unpaid.

Radiotelephone Equipment

9. (1) Self-propelled vessels, other than pleasure craft of less than sixty-five feet, shall be equipped wtih VHF (very high frequency) radiotelephone equipment.

9. (2) The radio transmitters on a vessel shall

(a) Have sufficient power output to enable the vessel to communicate with Seaway stations from a distance of thirty miles; and

(b) Be fitted to operate from the conning position in the wheelhouse and to communicate on 156.45, 156.55, 156.6, 156.65, 156.7 and 156.8 MHz.

Special Instructions

33. Special instructions shall be applied for from the Corporation or the Authority in connection with the intended transit of vessels of unusual design, hulks, sections of vessels, large dredges and all vessels in tow, and such vessels shall not transit except in compliance with such instructions.

Payment of Tolls

75. (2) Unless a toll account is paid within fourteen days from the date shown on the account, a surcharge, in an amount not to exceed five percent of the amount due, may be added.

75. (3) Where a Transit Declaration is not forwarded within the time referred to in subsection 74(1)

(a) The toll account shall be antedated to the date when it would have been prepared if the Declaration Form had been forwarded in time; and

(b) The surcharge referred to in subsection (2) may be added, unless the toll account is paid within fourteen days of the date shown on the account.

Title 47—Telecommunication

CHAPTER I—FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[FCC 74-250, Corrected]

PART 1—PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

Oppositions and Replies

1. Section 1.294(b) of the rules of practice and procedure provides, as a general rule, that 4 days are allowed for filing oppositions to pleadings filed in hearing proceedings and that replies to oppositions will not be entertained. Section 1.294(c) lists four types of pleadings to which the 4-day rule does not apply, one of which is petitions to intervene. In the case of pleadings listed in § 1.294(c), 10 days are allowed for oppositions and 5 additional days are allowed for replies.

2. The questions presented in petitions to intervene are not typically more difficult or complex than those presented in pleadings to which the 4-day rule now applies (e.g., petitions to amend an application). We think that they can be dealt with fairly and adequately under the 4-day rule, and that the delay of hearing proceedings occasioned by the longer pleading periods which currently apply is not warranted.[1] This being the case, we are amending § 1.294 to apply the 4-day rule to petitions to intervene.

3. Authority for this amendment is contained in Sections 4 (i) and (j) of 303(r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. 154 (i) and (j) and 303(r). Because the amendment is procedural in nature, the prior notice and effective date provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553 are inapplicable.

Accordingly, It is ordered, effective March 27, 1974, That § 1.294 of the rules of practice and procedure is amended as set forth in the Appendix hereto.

(Secs. 4, 303, 48 Stat., as amended, 1068, 1082 (47 U.S.C. 154, 303))

Adopted: March 13, 1974.

Released: March 19, 1974.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] VINCENT J. MULLINS,
Secretary.

SUBCHAPTER A—HAZARDOUS MATERIALS REGULATIONS BOARD

[Docket No. HM-22; Amdt. Nos. 171-23, 174-20, 175-11, 177-30, 178-31]

MATTER INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE

The purpose of these amendments to the Department of Transportation's Hazardous Materials Regulations is:

[1] Under § 1.4, the amount of time actually allowed can be as much as 11 days for a 4 day pleading, 12 days for a 5 day pleading, and 17 days for a 10 day pleading. Thus, at present, as many as 29 days may pass before action can be taken on a petition to intervene. With the amendment, the maximum delay would be 11 days.

V 39 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

1. To update the reference to the addenda to sections VIII (Division I) and IX of the "American Society of Mechanical Engineers Boiler and Pressure Vessel Code."

2. To incorporate the Bureau of Explosives' pamphlets 1 and 2, "Emergency Handling of Hazardous Materials in Surface Transportation" June 1973. These pamphlets supersede Bureau of Explosives' Pamphlet No. 22 now referenced.

3. To incorporate National Wooden Box Association's Specification 1–1B, "Specifications for Nailed Wooden and Lock Corner Boxes for Industrial Use" May 1958, which illustrates the styles of wooden boxes prescribed in Part 178, §§ 178.168–12, 178.169–12, 178.170–11, 178.171–12, 178.172–8 Table, and 178.172–17.

4. To reference footnote 2 in § 178.116–6(a) Table for 30-gallon capacity DoT specification 17E drums. Footnote 2 in the columns entitled "Body sheet" and "Head sheet" was never deleted from the regulations; however, the references in the Table have become illegible or invisible through wear of the type being used in reprinting.

On November 28, 1973, the Board published a notice of proposed rule making, Docket No. HM–22; Notice 73–8 (38 FR 32817), proposing to update the addenda described in item 1. No comments were received on the proposal.

Since items 2 through 4 described above concern editorial changes and corrections and impose no burden on any person, public notice and procedure thereon are considered unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing, 49 CFR Parts 171, 174, 175, 177, and 178 are amended as follows:

PART 171—GENERAL INFORMATION AND REGULATIONS

In § 171.7, paragraphs (c)(18) and (d)(13) are added; paragraphs (d)(1) and (d)(7)(iv) are amended to read as follows:

AIR COMMERCE REGULATIONS

Duty on Cost of Foreign Repairs to Certain U.S. Registered Aircraft; Extension of Time for Submission of Data, Views, or Arguments

MARCH 15, 1974.

On February 12, 1974, a notice of proposed rulemaking was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (39 FR 5320) which proposed to amend § 6.7(e) of the Customs Regulations pertaining to the conditions under which certain United States-registered aircraft engaged in trade are exempted from the requirement of making entry and depositing duty (or giving a bond in lieu thereof) with respect to equipment purchased for or repairs made to such aircraft in a foreign country. Thirty days from the date of publication of the notice were given for submission of data, views, or arguments pertinent to the proposed amendment.

Requests have been received for extension of the time for submission of comments. The period for submission of data, views, or arguments relating to the proposed amendment to § 6.7(e), Customs Regulations, is extended to April 15, 1974.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 68]

U.S. STANDARDS FOR DRY PEAS

Proposed Revision

Pursuant to sections 203 and 205 of the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946, 60 Stat. 1087 and 1090, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1622 and 1624) notice is hereby given according to the administrative procedure provisions of section 553 of Title 5, United States Code, that the U.S. Department of Agriculture has under consideration a proposed revision of the United States Standards for Dry Peas (7 CFR 68.401 et seq.).

Statement of considerations. The Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946, as amended, provides for the issuance by the Secretary of Agriculture of standards with respect to the quality, condition, quantity, grade, and packaging of agricultural commodities for the voluntary use by producers, merchandisers, processors, and consumers in the marketing of these commodities. Official grading service is provided under the Act upon request of the applicant and payment of a fee to cover the cost of the service.

Under the present U.S. standards, dry peas, are classified by variety. The Department of Agriculture has conducted studies which indicate that consistent identification of peas as to variety, with an acceptable degree of accuracy, is beyond the capability of inspectors and others.

The Department, after consulting industry concerning the problem, proposes that classification of dry peas by variety name be discontinued. In lieu of the present varietal class names, the following classes would be established:

Smooth Green Dry Peas. Dry peas which have a smooth green seedcoat and green cotyledons.

Smooth Yellow Dry Peas. Dry peas which have a smooth yellow seedcoat and yellow cotyledons.

Wrinkled Dry Peas. Dry peas which have a wrinkled green or yellow seedcoat and green or yellow cotyledons.

Winter Dry Peas. Dry peas of the winter field pea type which have green, brown, or yellow seedcoats.

Mixed Dry Peas. Any mixture of peas which does not meet the requirements of any other classes.

To help meet the needs of the pea industry for identification purposes, it is proposed that official inspection personnel may, at the request of the applicant for inspection, include a statement in the remarks section of the grade certificate substantially as follows:

"Variety stated by the applicant to be. ----------." The applicant would be responsible for the validity of the statement.

Peas that are distinctly soiled or stained by dirt are not desirable as a food and are scored as damaged peas. Virtually all wrinkled dry peas that are inspected are used for seed purposes and, therefore, the presence of soil or dirt stains on the seedcoats of wrinkled dry peas appears to be of relatively minor importance. Accordingly, it is proposed that Wrinkled Dry Peas which are distinctly soiled or stained by dirt shall not be scored as damaged peas.

Peas that are distinctly soiled or stained by "nightshade" or by "toxic material" are also presently scored as damaged peas. It has been found that inspectors are unable to consistently and accurately determine whether or not a stain consists of nightshade or of other toxic or unknown foreign substance. Peas stained by nightshade or an unknown foreign substance should be scored as "distinctly low quality" and not as "damaged." It is therefore proposed that the definition of damaged peas be amended to exclude peas that are soiled or stained by "nightshade" or by "toxic material" and that the definition of distinctly low quality be amended to include peas that are stained by an unknown foreign substance, or which contain a toxic substance.

The present standards require that dry peas of grades U.S. Nos. 1, 2, and 3 shall be of good color, fair color, and poor color, respectively. The differences between good, fair, and poor color are so small that it is difficult, if not impossible, to accurately discriminate between the three levels of color. To minimize this difficulty, it is proposed that color be characterized as either good color or poor color. The color requirements for grades U.S. Nos. 1, 2, and 3 would then be good color, good color, and poor color, respectively.

It is proposed to amend the standards for dry peas to provide for these and related changes as follows:

1. Change the name of the commodity from "Dry Peas" to "Whole Dry Peas"—to clearly differentiate the commodity from split peas.

2. Define "Whole Dry Peas" in § 68.401 and alphabetically list all other definitions in § 68.402—for ease in locating the definition of the commodity being graded and the other definitions.

3. Discontinue the classification of dry peas by variety and classify as follows:

Smooth Green Dry Peas
Smooth Yellow Dry Peas
Wrinkled Dry Peas
Winter Dry Peas
Mixed Dry Peas

4. Redefine "damaged peas" to show that Wrinkled Dry Peas that are distinctly soiled or stained by dirt are not scored as damaged peas—because wrinkled varieties of peas are almost always used for seed.

5. Further redefine "damaged peas" to exclude peas that are soiled or stained by "nightshade" or by "toxic material"—such peas, when found, should cause the lot to be graded "Sample grade" because they are "distinctly low quality."

6. Define the term "distinctly low quality"—to more clearly identify the term.

7. Include "Moisture" under "Terms Defined"—this term was previously included in "Principles Governing Application of Standards."

8. Delete "Peas that blend" from "Terms Defined" and the grade table—this factor would not be applicable under the new classification.

9. Add the section "Temporary modifications in equipment and procedures" (§ 68.404) to "Principles Governing Application of the Standards"—to provide for instances when adverse growing or harvesting conditions warrant minor modifications in equipment and procedures.

V 39 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

10. Revise the grade chart to require that peas of grade U.S. No. 2 shall be of good color—the present requirement, fair color, is difficult to distinguish from good color and poor color.

11. Permit official inspection personnel to state on the grade certificate the applicant's statement as to variety of the sample of peas graded, if desired by the applicant for inspection—to provide further information for the buyer.

12. Make minor editorial changes in the interest of clarity.

The Department proposes that the United States Standards for Dry Peas be revised to read as follows:

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR WHOLE DRY PEAS[1]

TERMS DEFINED

§ 68.401 Definition of whole dry peas.

Threshed seeds of the pea plant (Pisum sativum L.) and the winter field pea plant [Pisum sativum var. arvense (L.) Poir.] which after the removal of dockage contain 50 percent or more of whole peas and not more than 10.0 percent of foreign material.

For the purposes of these standards the following terms shall have the meanings stated below:

(a) Bleached peas. Whole and pieces of dry peas of green-colored varieties which are bleached distinctly yellow in color or peas of yellow-colored varieties which are bleached distinctly green in color.

(b) Classes. The following five classes:

(1) Smooth Green Dry Peas. Dry peas of the garden type which have smooth seedcoats and green cotyledons and contain not more than 1.5 percent of other classes.

(2) Smooth Yellow Dry Peas. Dry peas of the garden type which have smooth seedcoats and yellow cotyledons and contain not more than 1.5 percent of other classes.

(3) Wrinkled Dry Peas. Dry peas of the garden type which have wrinkled seedcoats and contain not more than 1.5 percent of other classes.

(4) Winter Dry Peas. Dry peas of the winter field pea type which contain not more than 1.5 percent of other classes.

(5) Mixed Dry Peas. Any mixture that does not meet the requirements for the classes Smooth Green, Smooth Yellow, Wrinkled, or Winter Dry Peas.

(c) Damaged peas. Whole and pieces of dry peas which are distinctly:

(1) Damaged by frost, weather, disease, heat (other than materially discolored as a result of heating), or other causes; and

(2) Soiled or stained by dirt (not applicable for the class Wrinkled Dry Peas).

Damaged peas shall not include weevil-damaged peas or heat-damaged peas.

(d) Defective peas. The categories of defective peas shall be weevil-damaged peas, heat-damaged peas, damaged peas, other classes, bleached peas, split peas, shriveled peas, and peas with cracked seedcoats.

(e) Distinctly low quality. Whole dry peas which are obviously of inferior quality because they are stained by an unknown foreign substance or because they otherwise contain a known toxic substance(s) or an unknown foreign substance(s) or because they are in an unusual state or condition, and which cannot be graded by use of the other grading factors provided in the standards.

(f) Dockage. Small underdeveloped dry peas, pieces of dry peas, and all matter other than dry peas which can be removed readily by the use of an approved device in accordance with procedures prescribed in Inspection Handbook HB–1 and the Equipment Manual.[2] For the purpose of this paragraph, "approved device" shall include sieves as set forth in paragraph (q) of this section and any other equipment that is approved by the Administrator as giving equivalent results.[3]

(g) Dockage-free dry peas. Dry peas from which the dockage has been removed.

(h) Foreign material in dockage-free dry peas. All matter other than dry peas and including detached seedcoats.

(i) Foreign material in thresher-run dry peas. All matter other than dry peas, including detached seedcoats, which cannot be readily removed in the determination of dockage.

(j) Good color peas. Dry peas that in mass are practically free from discoloration and have the natural color and appearance characteristics of the predominating class.

(k) Heat-damaged peas. Whole and pieces of dry peas which have been materially discolored as a result of heating.

(l) Moisture. Water content in whole dry peas as determined by an approved device in accordance with procedures prescribed in Inspection Handbook HB–1 and the Equipment Manual.[2] For the purpose of this paragraph "approved device" shall include the Motomco moisture meter and any other equipment that is approved by the Administrator as giving equivalent results.[3]

(m) Other classes. Whole and pieces of dry peas which are of a contrasting color or which differ materially in shape, or other characteristics from the predominating class.

(n) Peas with cracked seedcoats. Dry peas having readily discernible cracked seedcoats or peas which have all or a part of the seedcoat removed, and broken peas which are more than one-half of a whole pea.

(o) Poor color peas. Dry peas that in mass are distinctly off-color from the characteristic color of the predominating class as a result of age or any other cause.

(p) Shiveled peas. Dry peas which are distinctly shriveled in contrast to the natural shape and appearance of normally developed peas.

(q) Sieves—(1) $^{9}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ oblong-hole sieve. A metal sieve 0.032 inch thick with oblong perforations 0.1406 inch by 0.750 ($^{3}/_{4}$) inch.

(2) $^{10}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ slotted-hole sieve. A metal sieve 0.032 inch thick with slotted perforations 0.1562 inch by 0.750 ($^{3}/_{4}$) inch.

(3) $^{11}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ slotted-hole sieve. A metal sieve 0.032 inch thick with slotted perforations 0.1718 inch by 0.750 ($^{3}/_{4}$) inch.

(4) $^{12}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ slotted-hole sieve. A metal sieve 0.032 inch thick with slotted perforations 0.1875 inch by 0.750 ($^{3}/_{4}$) inch.

(5) $^{13}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ slotted-hole sieve. A metal sieve 0.032 inch thick with slotted perforations 0.2031 inch by 0.750 ($^{3}/_{4}$) inch.

(6) $^{16}/_{64}$ round-hole sieve. A metal sieve 0.032 inch thick with round perforations 0.2500 inch in diameter.

(r) Split peas. The halves or smaller pieces of dry peas and dry peas in which the halves are loosely held together.

(s) Thresher-run dry peas. Dry peas from which the dockage has not been removed.

(t) Weevil-damaged peas. Whole and pieces of dry peas which are distinctly damaged by the pea weevil or other insects.

(u) Whole peas. Dry peas with one-fourth or less of the pea removed and with the cotyledons or parts of cotyledons firmly held together.

PRINCIPLES GOVERNING APPLICATION OF STANDARDS

(a) All factor determinations shall be made upon the basis of the dry peas after the removal of dockage with the following exceptions:

(1) Dockage in thresher-run dry peas shall be determined upon the basis of the peas as sampled.

(2) Color shall be determined after the removal of dockage, defective peas, and foreign material.

(b) Defects in peas shall be scored in accordance with the order shown in § 68.402(d) and once an individual pea is scored in a defective category it shall not be scored for any other defect. Percentages for all categories of defects shall be calculated on the basis of the total weight of the sample analyzed for defective peas.

§ 68.404 Temporary modifications in equipment and procedures.

The equipment and procedures referred to in the whole dry peas standards are applicable to peas produced and harvested under normal environmental conditions. Abnormal environmental conditions during the production and harvesting of peas may require minor temporary modifications in the equipment or procedures to obtain results expected under normal conditions. When these adjustments are necessary, Grain Division Field Offices, official inspection agencies, and interested parties in the dry pea industry will be notified promptly in writing of the modification. These modifications shall not include changes in interpretations of identity, class, quality, or condition.

Percentages shall be determined on the basis of weight and shall be rounded off as follows:

(a) When the figure to be rounded is followed by a figure greater than 5, round to the next higher figure; e.g., 0.46 report as 0.5.

(b) When the figure to be rounded is followed by a figure less than 5, round to the next lowest figure; e.g., 0.54 report as 0.5.

(c) When the figure to be rounded is followed by the figure 5, round to the nearest even figure; e.g., 0.45, report as 0.4; 0.55, report as 0.6.

All percentages shall be stated in whole and tenth percent to the nearest tenth percent.

GRADES, GRADE REQUIREMENTS, AND GRADE DESIGNATIONS

§ 68.406 Grades and grade requirements for dockage-free dry peas. (See also § 68.408.)

	Maximum limits of
	Defective Peas									Minimum requirements for color

U.S. No. 3[4]	1.5	1.0	2.0	1.5	5.0	1.5	8.0	7.5	0.5	Poor.
U.S. Sample grade.	U.S. Sample grade shall be dry peas which: (a) Do not meet the requirements for the grades U.S. Nos. 1, 2, or 3; or (b) Contain metal fragments, broken glass, or a commercially objectionable odor; or (c) Contain more than 15.0 percent moisture; or (d) Are materially weathered, heating, or distinctly low quality; or (e) Are infested with live weevils or other live insects.[4]

[4] Size requirements: Dry peas of any of the numerical grades, except for peas of the class Winter Dry Peas, shall be of such size that not more than 3 percent of the peas will pass readily through the $^{13}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ slotted-hole sieve. Winter Dry Peas shall be of such size that not more than 3 percent of the peas shall pass through the $^{9}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ oblong-hole sieve.

[4] As applied to dockage-free whole dry peas, the meaning of the term "infested" is set forth in chapter 3 of Inspection Handbook HB-1.[2]

§ 68.407 Grade designation for dockage-free dry peas.

(a) The grade designation for dockage-free dry peas shall include, in the order named (1) the letters "U.S.," (2) the number of the grade or the words "Sample grade," (3) the name of each applicable special grade, and (4) the name of the class. The grade designation for the class Mixed Dry Peas shall also include, following the words "Mixed Dry Peas," the name and approximate percentage of each class of dry peas in the mixture, in the order of predominance.

(b) At the request of the applicant for inspection, official inspection personnel may include on the grade certificate under "Remarks," a statement substantially as follows: "Variety stated by the applicant to be: _____."

SPECIAL GRADES, SPECIAL GRADE REQUIREMENTS, AND SPECIAL GRADE DESIGNATIONS

A special grade, when applicable, is supplemental to the grade assigned under § 68.406. Such special grades are established and determined as follows:

(a) Large. Peas of the classes Smooth Green Dry Peas or Smooth Yellow Dry Peas of which not more than 3.0 percent of the peas will readily pass through the $^{16}/_{64}$ inch round-hole sieve.

(b) Small. Peas of the classes Smooth Green Dry Peas or Smooth Yellow Dry Peas of which not more than 3.0 percent of the peas will remain on the $^{16}/_{64}$ inch round-hole sieve and not more than 3.0 percent will readily pass through the $^{11}/_{64}$ x $^{3}/_{4}$ slotted-hole sieve.

The grade designation for large and small dry peas shall include, preceding the class, the word(s) "Large" or "Small," as warranted, and all other information prescribed in § 68.407.

§ 68.410 Thresher-run dry peas.

Thresher-run dry peas shall be inspected for factors only without reference to grade.

(a) Thresher-run dry peas may be inspected for: Class; defective peas and foreign material; dockage; color description; and moisture.

(b) The percentage of defective peas and foreign material shall be combined and shown on the cerificate as "total defects and foreign material." For the classes of smooth seeded peas only the percentage of peas with cracked seedcoats in excess of 3.0 percent shall be included in the factor "total defects and foreign material." (Example: In a sample containing 3.2 percent of peas with cracked seedcoats, only 0.2 percent would be included in the total defects and foreign material.)

(c) The percentage of total dockage, total defects, and foreign material shall be computed on the basis of the sample as a whole and be shown on the certificate as "total dockage, defects, and foreign material."

Comments and effective date. If the proposed revision as set forth herein is adopted in whole or in part, it is intended that the revision would be made effective on or about July 1, 1974.

Public hearings on the proposed revision will not be held but all persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments on this proposal should file them in duplicate with the Hearing Clerk, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington, D.C. 20250, not later than May 6, 1974.

Any persons who desire to submit their views orally in an informal manner, should so advise the Director, Grain Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, 6525 Belcrest Road, Hyattsville, Maryland 20782 [telephone (301) 436–8776] so that arrangements may be made for such submission by said date. A summary of such views will be made and furnished for verification to the person making the submission and if approved may be filed by him in the Office of the Hearing Clerk. All comments so filed will be available for public inspection during official hours of business [7 CFR 1.27(b)]. Consideration will be given to all comments filed with the Hearing Clerk, and to all other information available to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, in arriving at a decision on the proposed revision of the whole dry pea standards.

Copies of the current dry pea standards may be obtained from the Grain Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, 6525 Belcrest Road, Hyattsville, Maryland 20782, or from any field office of the Grain Division.

For a period of 6 months after adoption of these amendments, official inspection personnel shall, upon request, show on inspection certificates the grade under both the "old" and "new" standards.

Done at Washington, D.C., on March 15, 1974.

PLANT QUALITY CONTROL PROGRAMS

Extension of Time for Comments

On November 8, 1973, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (38 FR 30886–30887) notices proposing to amend the meat inspection regulations and the poultry products inspection regulations (9 CFR Parts 318 and 381) to permit an official establishment where meat food and poultry products are prepared which has a complete quality control program to submit its plans and records of such program to the Deputy Administrator, Scientific and Technical Services, for his determination whether it is adequate to comply with the requirements of the Act. Interested persons were given until March 22, 1974, to comment.

The Department has determined to extend the period of time within which written data, views, or arguments may be submitted, or oral views may be presented. This action is taken because of public interest in the proposals and because of a lack of understanding concerning the concept upon which the proposals were based. During this additional time, the public will be provided further information concerning the proposals.

Since the Department is interested in receiving meaningful comments, these circumstances are considered as sufficient justification for an extension of the time originally allotted for filing comments. Accordingly, any person who wishes to submit written data, views, or arguments concerning the proposed amendments may do so by filing them, in duplicate, with the Hearing Clerk, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, by May 10, 1974. Also, the period for oral presentation of views is extended to May 10, 1974. Persons desiring opportunity for oral presentation of views should address such requests to the Systems Development and Sanitation Staff, Scientific and Technical Services, Meat and Poultry Inspection Program, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, so that arrangements may be made for presentation of such views by May 10, 1974.

In all other respects, the procedure specified in the proposals as published on November 8, 1973, shall continue to apply to this rulemaking proceeding.

Done at Washington, D.C., on March 20, 1974.

NATIONAL SCHOOL LUNCH PROGRAM AND SCHOOL BREAKFAST AND NONFOOD ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS AND STATE ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Proposed Changes in Program Administrative Requirements

Notice is hereby given that the Food and Nutrition Service is considering amendments to the regulations governing the National School Lunch Program and the School Breakfast and Nonfood Assistance Programs and State Administrative Expenses to improve the overall administration of these programs, particularly with respect to requirements for audits, filing of claims for joint program(s), and recordkeeping.

Comments, suggestions, or objections are invited. In order to be assured of consideration, such comments, suggestions, or objections must be delivered by April 18, 1974, to Herbert D. Rorex, Director, Child Nutrition Division, Food and Nutrition Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, or submitted by mail postmarked not later than April 18, 1974. Communications should identify the section and paragraph on which comments, etc., are offered. All written submissions received pursuant to this notice will be made available for public inspection in the Office of the Director, Child Nutrition Division, during regular business hours (8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.) (7 CFR 1.27(b)).

It is proposed to amend Chapter II of Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations, as follows:

PART 210—NATIONAL SCHOOL LUNCH PROGRAM

1. In § 210.8, paragraph (e) (13) (iii) is amended by revising the parenthetical statement to read as follows:

§ 210.8 Requirements for participation.

* * * * * * *

(13) * * *
(iii) * * * (Supported by invoices, receipts, or other evidence of expenditure, including indirect costs and a share of joint costs based on a cost allocation plan approved by the State Agency, or FNSRO where applicable).

* * * * * * *

2. In § 210.8, paragraph (f) is amended by deleting the word "shall" wherever it appears and inserting the word "may" in lieu thereof.

3. In § 210.11, paragraph (g)(2) is amended by adding the following proviso to the end thereof:

(g) * * *
(2) * * *, except that when the highest reduced price charge to children is decreased as a result of changes in per-lunch reimbursement and such decrease is sustained for the balance of the fiscal year, the decreased reduced price charge may be used in the calculation in lieu of the highest reduced price charge.

4. In § 210.14, paragraph (b) is revised to read as follows:

* * * * * * *

(b) State-conducted audit programs. (1) A State Agency may submit for approval by the Department a plan whereby it will provide for the conduct of audits of the Program. State Agencies shall request Office of Audit (OA) Regional Offices (32 FR 8822, as amended by 34 FR 2139) to assist in the development of these plans, which shall incorporate provisions for organization, financing, direction and coordination of the State audit functions. Audits performed under the plan may be conducted by the State Agencies; by the State Auditor, Office of State Controller, or comparable State audit staff; or by Certified Public Accountants or State-licensed public accountants. All approved State audit plans shall be updated and be resubmitted for approval by the Department every third year from the anniversary date of the last such approval, except that any State Agency plan approved prior to July 1, 1974, must be resubmitted for approval by the Department in accordance with this paragraph prior to July 1, 1975.

(2) An audit guide furnished by OA, and as amended by OA from time to time, shall be used in the State Agency-sponsored audits of schools. The audits shall be performed in accordance with audit standards, guidelines and procedures prescribed by OA in the audit guide; and shall be reviewed by OA to the extent necessary to determine compliance therewith.

(3) While OA shall rely to the fullest extent feasible on State-conducted audits, it shall have the right, whenever considered necessary, to (i) make audits on a statewide basis, (ii) perform on-site test audits, and (iii) review audit reports and related working papers of audits performed by or for the State Agencies. With respect to State-conducted audits, OA shall also have the rights available to it under the provisions of § 210.17.

* * * * * * *

PART 220—SCHOOL BREAKFAST AND NONFOOD ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS AND STATE ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

1. In § 220.6, the word "needy" is deleted.

2. In § 220.7, paragraph (e)(12)(iii) is amended by revising the parenthetical statement to read as follows:

§ 220.7 Requirements for participation.

* * * * * * *

(12) * * *
(iii) * * *. (Supported by invoices, receipts, or other evidence of expenditure, including indirect costs and a share of joint costs based on a cost allocation plan approved by the State Agency, or FNSRO where applicable):

* * * * * * *

3. In § 220.7, paragraph (f) is amended by deleting the word "shall" wherever it appears and inserting the word "may" in lieu thereof.

4. In § 220.24, paragraph (g) is revised to read as follows:

* * * * * * *

(g) State-conducted audit programs. (1) A State Agency may submit for approval by the Department a plan whereby it will provide for the conduct of audits of the Programs. State Agencies shall request Office of Audit (OA) Regional Offices (32 FR 8822, as amended by 34 FR 2139) to assist in the development of these plans, which shall incorporate provisions for organization, financing, direction and coordination of the State audit functions. Audits performed under the plan may be conducted by the State Agencies; by the State Auditor, Office of State Controller, or comparable State audit staff; or by Certified Public Accountants or State licensed public accountants. All approved State audit plans shall be updated and be resubmitted for approval by the Department every third year from the anniversary date of the last such approval, except that any State Agency plan approved prior to July 1, 1974, must be resubmitted for approval by the Department in accordance with this paragraph prior to July 1, 1975.

(2) An audit guide furnished by OA, and as amended by OA from time to time, shall be used in the State Agency-sponsored audits of schools. The audits shall be performed in accordance with audit standards, guidelines and procedures prescribed by OA in the audit guide; and shall be reviewed by OA to the extent necessary to determine compliance therewith.

(3) While OA shall rely to the fullest extent feasible on State-conducted audits, it shall have the right, whenever considered necessary, to (i) make audits on a statewide basis, (ii) perform on-site test audits, and (iii) review audit reports and related working papers of audits performed by or for the State Agencies. With respect to State-conducted audits, OA shall also have the rights available to it under the provisions of § 220.26.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[14 CFR Part 372a]

[Docket No. 26512]

TRAVEL GROUP CHARTERS

Modification of Requirements Governing Availability

MARCH 15, 1974.

Notice is hereby given that the Civil Aeronautics Board has under consideration proposed amendments to Part 372a of its Special Regulations (14 CFR Part 372a) which would (1) reduce the deadline for filing of the original participants list from 90 to 60 days in advance of the flight date; (2) allow a TGC to be filed so long as at least 90 percent of the contracted seats have been sold to participants; (3) eliminate the standby list for eligible assignees of TGC participants and, instead, permit original participants to assign their TGC contractual rights and obligations to members of the general public; and (4) reduce the maximum number of permissible assignments from 20 percent to 15 percent of the number of listed original participants.

The principal features of the proposed amendments are described in the attached explanatory statement and the text of the proposed amendments is set forth in the proposed rule. The amendments are proposed under the authority of sections 204, 401, 402, 407, 416 and 1001 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, 72 Stat. 743, 754 (as amended), 757, 766, 771, and 788; 49 U.S.C. 1324, 1371, 1372, 1377, 1386, and 1481.

Interested persons may participate in the proposed rulemaking through submission of twelve (12) copies of written data, views or arguments pertaining thereto, addressed to the Docket Section, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington, D.C. 20428. All relevant material received on or before May 6, 1974, will be considered by the Board before taking final action upon the proposed rule. Copies of such communications will be available for examination by interested persons in the Docket Section of the Board, Room 712 Universal Building, 1825 Connecticut Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. upon receipt thereof.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] EDWIN Z. HOLLAND,
Secretary.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

In adopting our Travel Group Charter (TGC) rule[1] we noted our willingness to modify the regulations governing this new type of charter in light of actual experience gained in the course of operations thereunder. It is now our tentative view, after one year's experience with this experimental rule, that some of the present restrictions imposed on TGC's have unduly hindered their marketability to the traveling public.[2] Accordingly, we are proposing herein to revise certain TGC restrictions,[3] as more fully described hereinbelow, so as to enhance the attractiveness of this type of charter while preserving the legally required distinction between charter service and individually ticketed service.

1. The within proposal would reduce the deadline for pre-departure filings from 90 to 60 days. We are of the tentative view that the existing 90-day minimum cut-off period is unduly restrictive, and that a later deadline would enhance the viability of TGC's without jeopardizing their legality. Of course any attempt to fix a minimum pre-departure deadline which is both short enough to satisfy marketing considerations and long enough to satisfy legal considerations is necessarily subject to some degree of imprecision. However, our experience with TGC's appears to indicate that the 90-day minimum is impracticable because the potential users of this service are reluctant to make binding travel commitments so far in advance. We therefore feel that it is necessary to consider a deadline which is significantly shorter, but still entails a degree of advance planning and commitment which clearly distinguishes this type of charter service from the freedom and flexibility typically afforded by individually ticketed service. The within proposed period of 60 days appears more likely to achieve a satisfactory balance between the conflicting purposes of a predeparture filing deadline than has the existing 90-day deadline. Parallel to decreasing the deadline from 90 days to 60 days, we are also decreasing the earliest permissible filing date from 120 days to 90 days prior to departure.

2. The present rule requires that 100 percent of the seats contracted for must be sold before the TGC contract is filed. Experience has shown that this requirement has necessitated cancellation of many planned TGC's for lack of just a few participants per flight, even though the pro rata cost of the unsold seats could have been borne by the remaining participants without exceeding the maximum pro rata price for which they had made themselves liable. The proposed amendment should therefore provide some flexibility in the TGC arrangement by permitting a planned flight to go forward, so long as at least 90 percent of the contracted seats are timely sold[4] before the filing deadline.

[2] During 1973, approximately 85% of TGC's filed with the Board were canceled with the result that fewer than 40,000 passengers traveled on TGC's.

[3] See SPR-73, adopted January 7, 1974 (39 FR 1746), by which we made a technical amendment to the rule, so as to allow, under prescribed conditions, charter rate increases to be borne pro rata by TGC participants.

However, in order to avoid the problems which could arise if seats which had remained unsold at the filing deadline were later allowed to be sold to members of the public, our proposal would require that the number of persons on the filed list of participants must then become the maximum number of participants who may be carried on that TGC flight.

3. In a further attempt to alleviate the demonstrated difficulties arising from the existing TGC restrictions, we also propose to eliminate the requirement of a standby list and to permit instead the assignment of an individual participant's contractual rights and obligations to members of the general public. In practice, standby lists have been utilized only rarely in securing a replacement for TGC participants. Yet, we continue to believe that TGC participants must be allowed some opportunity to be relieved from total forfeiture of their charter payments, by permitting them some limited right of assigning their seats to third persons. Since the standby lists have not proven to be a meaningful device for providing available substitutes, we have tentatively concluded to permit assignments to be made to members of the general public, without requiring that the names of such prospective substitutes be on file with the Board. Nor do we believe that this proposed revision of the limited right of assignment would alter the legal status of a TGC, as upheld by the court in Saturn Airways v. C.A.B., 483 F. 2d 1284 (D.C. Cir. 1973). So long as no additional seats can be sold after the list of original participants has been filed, the limited right of a TGC participant to assign his seat to a third person, at any time, is completely consistent with the basic concept of the TGC as an arrangement under which a group of persons become parties to a charter contract with an air carrier to provide air transportation for themselves, sharing equally in the cost of the charter. As a party to the TGC contract, the participant's right of assignment constitutes a normal contractual right.

However, we shall continue to restrict the right of assignment by, inter alia, limiting the number of TGC seats which may be assigned. Indeed, since assignments would no longer be limited to persons named in a standby list, the within rule would reduce the maximum number of permissible assignments from the present 20 percent, to the proposed 15 percent, of original participants.

Should we ultimately decide to make final any or all of the proposed amendments to the TGC rule we will, at the same time, make appropriate revisions to the "truth-in-chartering statement" in Appendix A to Part 372a, so as to reflect such changes.[4]

[4] It should be noted that, under this proposal, the "maximum pro rata charter price" would continue to be 20% above the "minimum pro rata charter price," which is computed on the basis of 100% sales of contracted seats. Thus, as at present, the flight would have to be canceled if, as a result of less than 100% sales—along with the other contingencies which cause pro rata shares of the charter price to be increased, the individual participant's cost would have to exceed the prescribed maximum.

PROPOSED RULE

It is proposed to amend Part 372a of the Board's Special Regulations (14 CFR 372a) as follows:

1. Amend § 372a.2, by deleting the definition of "standby list member"; substituting a definition of "original participant" for the definition of "main list participant"; and otherwise revising definitions which use such terms, the amended section to read in part as follows:

§ 372a.2 Definitions.

* * * * * * *

"Charter organizer" means * * *

"Charter participant" means a member of a travel group who is a party to a charter contract, either as an original participant or as an assignee of an original participant.

* * * * * * *

"Foreign charter organizer" means * * *

"Original participant" means a member of a travel group who has duly authorized a charter organizer to enter his name on the original participants list filed with the Board pursuant to this part.

* * * * * * *

"Service charge" means * * *

"Travel group" means the aggregate of original participants and assignees of original participants.

* * * * * * *

2. Amend paragraph (f) of § 372a.10, the amended paragraph (f) to read as follows:

§ 372a.10 Travel group charter general requirements.

* * * * * * *

(f) Passengers transported pursuant to the charter shall consist solely of charter participants (whose aggregate number may not exceed the number of names set forth in the filed original participants list), plus tour conductors authorized to accompany the charter participants in accordance with this part.

* * * * * * *

3. Amend § 372a.11 to read as follows:

§ 372a.11 Initial deposits.

Each original participant, upon executing the contract between participants and organizer shall pay at least an initial deposit of 25 percent of the minimum pro rata charter price specified in the charter contract (or of the aggregate of the minimum pro rata charter prices specified in the contract, if there is more than one direct air carrier). This initial 25 percent deposit shall be nonrefundable to a charter participant who defaults in making any payment on the pro rata charter price subsequent to the filing of the charter contract, except as provided in §§ 372a.15(g) and 372a.18.

4. Amend § 372a.12 by revising paragraph (a) (1) and (2) and by revising paragraph (b), the amended section to read in part as follows:

§ 372a.12 Conditions precedent to contracts.

(a) * * *

(1) The number of original participants plus the number of tour conductors (which shall not exceed the maximum number permitted under this part) is equal to no less than 90 percent of the number of seats specified in the charter contract;

(2) Each original participant has paid at least an initial deposit of 25 percent of the minimum pro rata charter price specified in the charter contract; and

* * * * * * *

(b) At any time prior to 90 days preceding the scheduled flight date, a participant may submit to the organizer written notice of his cancellation, regardless of cause, and he shall thereupon be entitled to receive forthwith a refund of all moneys credited to his account, without deduction or penalty of any kind.

5. Amend § 372a.13 to read in part as follows:

§ 372a.13 Assignments.

At any time during the 90-day period preceding the scheduled flight departure date, a charter participant may assign his interest in the charter, but only in accordance with the following:

(a) [Reserved]

(b) No more than 15 percent of the original participants may assign their interests.

(c) An assignment * * *

* * * * * * *

6. Amend paragraph (c) of § 372a.14, the amended paragraph (c) to read as follows:

[4] It should also be noted that we are issuing, contemporaneously herewith, an amendment to Part 372a, prescribing special rules for foreign-originating TGC's (SPR-74). Some of the minimum requirements which we are there prescribing for foreign-originating TGC's (§ 372a.60(b)) reflect parallel restrictions in the existing TGC rule. To the extent that such restrictions may be relaxed by amendments ultimately adopted in the instant proceeding (e.g., the within proposal to reduce the pre-departure filing deadline from 90 days to 60 days), we would appropriately revise the new rules applicable to foreign-originated TGC's so as to reflect such relaxation of parallel requirements.

§ 372a.14 Pro rata charter price; minimum, maximum, adjusted.

* * * * * * *

(c) The adjusted pro rata charter price shall reflect the pro rata increase resulting from the fact that the number of actual original participants is less than 100 percent of the maximum number of charter participants, or from defaults in payments by participants, refunds made to participants pursuant to § 372a.15(g), and, if the contract so provides, an increase in the total charter price to the extent permitted under § 372a.26.

* * * * * * *

7. Amend paragraph (a) of § 372a.15, the amended paragraph (a) to read as follows:

§ 372a.15 Full payment of charter price; refunds.

(a) No later than 60 days prior to the scheduled date of flight departure, there shall be due from each charter participant full payment of the minimum pro rata charter price, together with:

(1) full payment of the pro rata share of any increase in the total charter price, to the maximum extent permissible under § 372a.26, as embodied in a tariff which has by that time become affective, or which has been duly filed with the Board bearing an effective date no later than 60 days prior to the scheduled date of flight departure; and

(2) full payment of the pro rata share of that portion of the total charter price represented by the number of seats which remain unsold to original participants at the time the executed contract is to be filed under § 372a.22(b).

* * * * * * *

8. Amend § 372a.22 by revising paragraph (a)(1); and by revising paragraphs (b) and (d), the amended section to read in part as follows:

§ 372a.22 Operating authorization of charter organizer.

A charter organizer * * *

(a) No charter organizer * * *

(1) An option from the direct air carrier(s) under which the carrier(s) obligates itself for a specified period, which shall expire no later than 60 days prior to scheduled date of departure, to enter into a charter contract with the charter organizer as agent for the charter participants: Provided, however, That if the air transportation on the departing flight and the returning flight is to be performed by more than one direct air carrier, then there shall be a single option granted to the charter organizer by all such direct air carriers, acting jointly and severally;

* * * * * * *

(b) No earlier than 90 days, but no later than 60 days, prior to the scheduled date of departure, the charter organizer and the direct air carrier(s) shall jointly file with the Board (Supplementary Services Division, Bureau of Operating Rights), in duplicate, the following information, and the information required by paragraph (b)(2) hereinbelow shall be filed in the manner prescribed in paragraph (d) hereinbelow:

(1) A charter contract executed by original participants whose number is equal to at least 90 percent of the seats specified in the contract for charter participants;

(2) A list setting forth the names of original participants in alphabetical order, their addresses and telephone numbers;

(3) [Reserved]

(4) A statement of the charter organizer affirming that each listed original participant (i) has entered into a contract with the organizer as provided in this part, (ii) has paid his initial 25 percent deposit, and (iii) has been furnished, no later than the time when he entered into such contract with the organizer, with an explanatory statement, in the form set forth in Appendix A; and

(5) A statement of the depository bank, if any, affirming the amount which it has on deposit, which amount shall be equal to no less than 25 percent of the minimum pro rata charter price multiplied by the number of listed original participants.

(c) * * *

(d) CAB Form 372a, attached hereto as Appendix D, shall be used in filing the travel group charter original participants list described in paragraph (b)(2) of this section. An original and two photostatic or similarly reproduced copies (not carbons) of Form 372a, prepared in conformance with the instructions thereon, and accompanied by a self-addressed and postage-prepaid return envelope, shall be filed with the Board (Supplementary Services Division, Bureau of Operating Rights). The Board will stamp the original and two photostatic or similarly reproduced copies of Form 372a so as to verify their receipt and identify the travel group charter to which they pertain, and will return the two stamped copies for use by the direct air carrier in complying with its obligations to identify enplanning charter flight participants, note the documentary source and number, and file post-flight reports thereon, as required by § 372a.41 and 372a.50(a).

9. Amend paragraph (b) of § 372a.41, the amended paragraph (b) to read as follows:

§ 372a.41 Direct air carrier to identify enplanements.

* * * * * * *

(b) The direct air carrier shall, at the time of enplanement, enter, on its stamped copy of CAB Form 372a, the documentary source of the identification required by paragraph (a) of this section, including the number appearing on the document, together with the names of any enplaning passenger whose name does not already appear on said CAB Form 372a; Provided, however, That the total number of names on the passenger list shall not be greater than the number of names which already appeared on said CAB Form 372a (and tour conductors), and that the number of passengers (other than tour conductors) whose names are newly entered by the carrier upon enplanement shall not be greater than 15 percent of those whose names had already appeared on said form.

10. Amend paragraph (a) of § 372a.50, the amended paragraph (a) to read as follows:

§ 372a.50 Reporting requirements.

(a) Each direct air carrier shall file with the Board's Bureau of Enforcement within 7 days after performing each flight, whether departure or return, its stamped copy of CAB Form 372a prepared in conformance with the instructions thereon.

PENNSYLVANIA

Air Quality Implementation Plan; Notice of Public Hearings

On May 31, 1972 (37 FR 10342), pursuant to section 110 of the Clean Air Act and 40 CFR Part 51, the Administrator approved with specific exceptions, State plans for implementation of the national ambient air quality standards. On that date, the Governor of Pennsylvania was advised that in order to complete the requirements of § 51.13, a plan demonstrating the attainment and maintenance of the national secondary standard for particulate matter for the Metropolitan Philadelphia Interstate and the Southwest Pennsylvania Intrastate Air Quality Control Regions was to be submitted by July 31, 1973.

Since the State of Pennsylvania failed to submit the required plans by July 31, 1973, the Administrator, as required by section 110 of the Clean Air Act, proposed on February 22, 1974 (39 FR 6727) that the existing implementation plan for the Metropolitan Philadelphia Interstate Air Quality Control Region be approved as being adequate to attain the secondary particulate matter standard by July 1975, and that the existing plan for the Southwest Pennsylvania Intrastate Air Quality Control Region be disapproved as it relates to attainment of the secondary particulate matter standard. Concurrently, he proposed regulations to attain the secondary particulate matter standard in the Southwest Pennsylvania Intrastate Air Quality Control Region. He also proposed July 1978 as the attainment date for the secondary particulate matter standard in the Southwest Pennsylvania Intrastate Region.

This notice is issued to advise the public that two public hearings will be held on these proposals to afford interested parties an opportunity to appear and present their views and recommendations on the proposed regulations. The first hearing will be held in the William Green Federal Building, Conference Room 6306, Sixth and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. 19106 on Monday, April 22, 1974 at 10 a.m. and will deal with the plan for attainment of the national secondary particulate matter standard in the Philadelphia Interstate Air Quality Control Region. The second hearing will be held in GSA Conference Room 2214, 1000 Liberty Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa. on Tuesday, April 30, 1974 at 10 a.m. and will deal with the plan for attainment of the national secondary particulate matter standard in the Southwest Pennsylvania Intrastate Air Quality Control Region.

Individuals and representatives of organizations wishing to be heard at these hearings are requested to furnish their name, address, telephone number, the organization represented, if any, and the approximate amount of time required to testify, in writing to the Regional Administrator, Environmental Protection Agency, Region III, Curtis Building, Sixth and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 19106, not later than close of business on April 19, 1974 for the Philadelphia hearing and not later than the close of business on April 26, 1974 for the Southwest Pennsylvania hearing. Their names will be placed on the list of witnesses for the appropriate hearing. Others present at the hearings who wish to be heard may do so after those on the witness list have been called and heard.

As noted in the February 22 proposal, interested persons may also participate in this rule making by submitting written comments in triplicate to the Regional Adminisrtator. All comments relative to the plan for the Philadelphia Region received no later than April 19, 1974 will be considered. All comments relative to the plan for the Southwest Pennsylvania Region received no later than April 26, 1974 will be considered.

Copies of the proposed plan are available for public inspection during normal business hours at the Offices of the Environmental Protection Agency, Region III, Curtis Building, Sixth and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19106 and at the Freedom of Information Center, EPA, 401 M Street, SW., Washington, D.C. 20460.

Dated: March 20, 1974.

Acting Assistant Administrator for Air and Water Programs.

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION

[38 CFR Part 17]

MEDICAL BENEFITS

Admission of Certain Veterans to Private and Public Hospitals

It is proposed to add paragraph (j) to § 17.50b to provide that care in private and public hospitals may be authorized for any disability of a veteran who has a total disability permanent in nature resulting from a service-connected disability.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments, suggestions, or objections regarding the proposal to the Administrator of Veterans Affairs (27H), Veterans Administration Central Office, 810 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20420. All relevant material received before April 22, 1974, will be considered. All written comments received will be available for public inspection at the above address only between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday (except holidays) during the mentioned 30-day period and for 10 days thereafter. Any person visiting Central Office for the purpose of inspecting any such comments will be received by the Central Office Veterans Assistance Unit in room 132. Such visitors to any field station will be informed that the records are available for inspection only in Central Office and furnished the address and the above room number.

Notice is also given that it is proposed that, if adopted, the regulation will be effective the date of final approval.

In § 17.50b, the period at the end of paragraph (i) is changed to ", or" and a new paragraph (j) is added to read as follows:

* * * * *

(j) For any disability of a veteran totally and permanently disabled from a service-connected disability. The veteran has a total disability permanent in nature resulting from a service-connected disability and has been medically determined to require hospital care or medical services for a non-service-connected condition.

Approved: March 15, 1974.

By direction of the Administrator:

[SEAL] R. L. ROUDEBUSH,
Deputy Administrator.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

OUTER CONTINENTAL SHELF RESEARCH ADVISORY BOARD

Establishment and Functions

This notice is issued in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(1), and section 9(a)(2) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Public Law 92-463). The Secretary of the Interior has established an Outer Continental Shelf Research Advisory Board after consultation with the Office of Management and Budget, in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Public Law 92-463). The Office of Management and Budget Committee Management Secretariat has authorized a 7-day period in lieu of the required 30-day period between FEDERAL REGISTER publication of the Board charter, and its filing as prescribed in Section 9(c) of Public Law 92-463. This Board will advise the Assistant Secretary—Land and Water Resources, the Director of the Bureau of Land Management, and other Departmental officers in matters related to environmental baseline and monitoring studies on the Federal Outer Continental Shelf lands. The Board charter is published in its entirety below. Further information regarding this document may be obtained from Mr. Frederick N. Ferguson, Assistant Solicitor-Minerals, Office of the Solicitor, U.S. Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C. 20240, telephone (202) 343-4325.

Dated: March 20, 1974.

JOHN C. WHITAKER,
Under Secretary of the Interior.

CHARTER

OUTER CONTINENTAL SHELF RESEARCH MANAGEMENT ADVISORY BOARD

1. There is hereby established, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (5 U.S.C. 1970 ed., Supp. II, App. I), an Outer Continental Shelf Research Management Advisory Board. The Board will advise officers of the Department in the performance of discretionary functions of the Department under the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (43 U.S.C. §§ 1331-1343) in connection with baseline environmental data gathering and environmental monitoring on the Outer Continental Shelf (OCS). The functions of the Board are solely advisory.

2. The objective of the Board is to advise the Assistant Secretary—Land and Water Resources, the Director, Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and other officers of the Department, in the design and implementation of environmental research projects related to oil and gas exploration and development on the OCS. The objectives of the OCS program are: (1) Orderly resource development, (2) protection of the environment, and (3) receipt of fair market value. This Board through its advisory efforts will assist the Bureau in meeting objectives (1) and (2). In order to fully realize its potential, it is anticipated that the Board will be required for the duration of OCS environmental baseline research and monitoring studies, a period of approximately ten years. The Board will, however, terminate on December 31, 1975, unless prior to that date it is renewed for an additional period by the Secretary of the Interior, acting within his discretion and in accordance with the provisions of section 14(a)(2) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, supra.

3. The Board will report directly to the Assistant Secretary-Land and Water Resources. (a) The Assistant Secretary-Land and Water Resources shall, after consultation with the Assistant Secretary-Energy and Minerals and the Assistant Secretary for Fish, Wildlife and Parks, appoint an employee of the Department of the Interior as Chairman for the Board. The Assistant Secretary-Land and Water Resources shall be responsible for assuring that the Board operates within statutory and Departmental requirements for the management of advisory committees. The Director, BLM, shall provide administrative support. (b) Each of the following Departmental bureaus shall appoint one member to the Board: The Geological Survey, and the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife. The Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency and the Administrator of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration may each appoint one member. (c) At the invitation of the Secretary of the Interior, the Governor of each State off the coast of which OCS research projects are scheduled may nominate for appointment by the Secretary one member who shall represent that State on the Board. Initially the Governors of Mississippi, Alabama, and Florida will be asked to nominate Board members. As OCS research projects expand into other geographic areas the Governors of the respective States involved may be invited to nominate members for appointment to the Board. (d) Each Federal member shall serve until his resignation, the termination of the Board, or his removal by the officer appointing him. If the agency appointing a member removes that member, it may appoint another in his place. Each non-Federal member shall be appointed to serve a one-year term, but may be reappointed for additional one-year periods if the OCS area seaward of his State is still under active research.

4. (a) Subject to the limitations imposed by this Charter, the Board may establish its own procedures for the conduct of business. To facilitate the performance of the Board's functions, the Chairman may establish committees composed of members of the Board. Most scheduled meetings will be of specific committees, but the Chairman will have the latitude to invite any individual State member to any committee meeting. (b) The Board shall prepare an annual report to the Secretary on the status of ongoing environmental OCS research. This report will be made available to the public.

5. The Chief Scientists for the BLM OCS environmental research program or a person designated by him will attend all Board and committee meetings and will assist the Chairman wherever possible.

6. The Board will meet at the call of the Chairman, who shall give at least fifteen day's notice in writing. The Board is expected to meet at least bi-annually. Meetings will be conducted in accordance with statutory and Departmental requirements for advisory committees as prescribed in 308 DM 2 of the Department of the Interior Manual.

V 39 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

The estimated total annual operating costs of the Board are $10,000 and one man year of staff support.

7. The formation of this committee is determined to be in the public interest in connection with the performance of duties of this Department pursuant to statute as stated in paragraph 1 above. This Charter shall become effective April 1, 1974.

Dated: March 20, 1974.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Bureau of East-West Trade

[Case No. 455 (CP-33)]

GTI CORP.

Order Imposing Civil Penalty

In the matter of GTI Corp., 1399 Logan Avenue, Costa Mesa, Calif. 92626, Respondent.

By charging letter dated October 26, 1973, the above respondent was charged by the Director, Compliance Division, Office of Export Administration, Bureau of East-West Trade, with violations of regulations issued under the Export Administration Act of 1969, as amended. The charging letter informed the respondent that administrative proceedings were instituted against it for the purpose of obtaining an order imposing sanctions as provided in Section 388.1 of the regulations. The charging letter was duly served on respondent.

Pursuant to § 388.10 of the regulations, with the agreement of the Director of the Compliance Division, there was submitted to the Acting Hearing Commissioner a consent proposal for issuance of an order as hereinafter set forth. In said consent proposal respondent, for the purpose of this proceeding only, admitted the jurisdiction of the forum and did not contest the charges alleged in the charging letter. Respondent waived: (1) all rights to a hearing before the Hearing Commissioner; (2) all rights of administrative appeal from and judicial review of said order, and (3) all rights to request refund of any civil penalty imposed pursuant to the consent proposal.

The Acting Hearing Commissioner has considered the facts in the case and the respondent's proposal. He has approved the proposal and recommended that it be accepted. The undersigned, having considered the Acting Hearing Commissioner's report and the consent proposal, hereby makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Respondent GTI Corporation is a manufacturer of electronic manufacturing equipment, with a place of business, 1399 Logan Avenue, Costa Mesa, California 92626.

2. In May, 1973, respondent exported four shipments of flat pack sealers, and parts, valued at approximately $9,600, three of which were destined for France and one for Belgium.

3. In August, 1973, respondent exported 2 beaded lead boat assemblies, valued at approximately $600, and destined for the Federal Republic of Germany.

4. In September, 1973, respondent exported 1 programmable sealer, valued at approximately $12,000, and destined for the Federal Republic of Germany.

5. In September, 1973, respondent also exported 1 programmable sealer valued at approximately $12,000, and destined for Spain.

6. Each shipment was made by respondent without applying for and obtaining the required validated export license from Commerce which respondent should have known was required. By so doing respondent precluded Commerce from determining whether the ultimate consignees should be approved for receipt of the commodities involved.

7. In each said exportation the related commercial invoice to the consignee did not bear the required destination control statement.

8. In mitigation of the foregoing actions, respondent pleaded that, with repect to the first four shipments, it had difficulty in ascertaining the correct export control listings for its products, and had relied on a forwarding agent for advice; and that its then general manager had, without authorization, suddenly made the shipments because of insistent demands for delivery by the French and Belgian customers. With respect to the last three shipments respondent pleaded that its then forwarder had mistakenly thought the goods were properly exportable under general license. Respondent further pleaded that it had undertaken measures to tighten its internal procedures, to assure compliance with U.S. export controls by its employees, forwarders and other representatives.

Based on the foregoing, I have concluded that respondent: (a) violated §§ 387.4 and 387.6 of the export control regulations, by knowingly exporting United States origin commodities to France (three occasions), Belgium (one occasion), Federal Republic of Germany (two occasions) and Spain (one occasion), without having obtained the required validated export licenses from the Office of Export Administration, as required by § 372.1(b) of said regulations; (b) violated § 386 of the regulations by failure to enter an appropriate destination control statement on all copies of the commercial invoices issued in connection with each of the seven shipments.

On considering the record in the case, I hereby accept the consent proposal, and it is hereby ordered:

Pursuant to § 387.1(b) of the export regulations a civil penalty of $1400 ($200 for each of the seven shipments) is imposed on respondent for the violations set forth in the charging letter. Said sum is to be paid to the Treasurer of the United States.

Dated: March 25, 1974.

RAUER H. MEYER,
Director, Office of Export Administration.

[Case 458]

RAYMOND L. GILTAY

Order Denying Export Privileges

In the matter of Raymond L. Giltay, 66 Rue Paul Lauters, 1050, Brussels, Belgium, Respondent.

A charging letter dated November 9, 1973, was issued by the Director, Compliance Division, Office of Export Administration, Bureau of East-West Trade, against the above respondent, alleging violations of the Export Administration Act of 1969 and regulations issued thereunder.

In substance, it is alleged that on May 30, 1969, respondent, through the firm Unimetal, of Brussels, Belgium, of which respondent was then general manager, reexported from Belgium to Switzerland certain strategic oscilloscopes and spectrum analyzers, of U.S. origin, without U.S. authorization, and with knowledge that such reexports were contrary to the U.S. export control law and regulations.

The charging letter was served on respondent and he answered on December 5, 1973, orally informing the American Embassy at Brussels that the charge is true; that he did not intend to answer in writing or request an oral hearing; and that he has been punished by Belgian authorities for the same reexports, which constituted violations of Belgian as well as U.S. law.

The Acting Hearing Commissioner held an informal hearing on February 28, 1974, at which evidence bearing on the charges was presented by the Compliance Division.

The Acting Hearing Commissioner after considering the evidence, reported his findings of fact and conclusion that violations had occurred, and he recommended that the sanction hereafter set forth be imposed.

After considering the evidence, I adopt the Acting Hearing Commissioner's findings of fact, as follows:

Finding of fact. 1. Respondent Giltay, in 1968 and 1969, was general manager of Unimetal, a trading enterprise doing business in Brussels, Belgium.

2. In May 1969, Giltay, through Unimetal, bought 6 strategic oscilloscopes and strategic spectrum analyzers, costing in the aggregate about $75,000. These instruments were of U.S. origin, and had been licensed by Commerce for export to Belgium, as ultimate destination.

3. By destination warning notices affixed to the commercial invoices covering these instruments Giltay and Unimetal were informed that the instruments "cannot be exported from Belgium without the authorization of the U.S."

4. Giltay and Unimetal, notwithstanding said notification, on May 30, 1969, reshipped the oscilloscopes and analyzers to Switzerland.

5. In February 1972, a Belgian court judgment was issued, imposing a substantial fine against Giltay, and subjecting him to four months' imprisonment, for violations of Belgian law arising in connection with reexport of said oscilloscopes and analyzers to Switzerland without Belgian export licenses.

6. The firm Unimetal appears to have been dissolved late in 1969, on account of the death of its then owner.

7. Respondent Giltay's admission of the violations of U.S. export controls in the aforesaid May 30, 1969 reexports, is corroborated by the published findings of the Belgian Court.

Based on the foregoing findings, I have concluded that respondent violated §§ 387.4 and 387.6 of the export control regulations by reexporting from Belgium to Switzerland, strategic U.S. origin electronic instruments, without prior U.S. authorization, as required by § 374.1 of said regulations.

Now, after considering the record in the case and the report and recommendation of the Hearing Commissioner and being of the opinion that his recommendation as to the sanction that should be imposed is fair and just and calculated to achieve effective enforcement of the law,

It is ordered, That:

I. All outstanding validated export licenses in which respondent appears or participates in any manner or capacity are hereby revoked and shall be returned forthwith to the Bureau of East-West Trade for cancellation.

II. The respondent, for the duration of U.S. export controls, is hereby denied all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in any transactions involving commodities or technical data exported from the United States in whole or in part, or to be exported, or which are otherwise subject to the Export Control regulations. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, participation prohibited in any such transaction, either in the United States or abroad, shall include participation: (a) As a party or as a representative of a party to any validated export license application; (b) in the preparation or filing of any export license application or reexportation authorization, or document to be submitted therewith; (c) in the obtaining, or using, of any validated or general export license or other export control documents; (d) in the carrying on of negotiations with respect to, or in the receiving, ordering, buying, selling, delivering, storing, using, or disposing of any commodities or technical data; (e) in the financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of such commodities or technical data.

III. Such denial of export privileges shall extend not only to the respondent, but also to his representatives, agents, and employees, and also to any person, firm, corporation, or other business organization, with which he now or hereafter may be related by affiliation, ownership, control, position of responsibility or other connection in the conduct of trade or services connected therewith.

IV. During the time when the respondent or other parties within the scope of this order are prohibited from engaging in any activity within the scope of Part II hereof, no person, firm, corporation, partnership, or other business organization, whether in the United States or elsewhere, without prior disclosure to and specific authorization from the Bureau of East-West Trade, shall do any of the following acts, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, on behalf of or in any association with the respondent or other parties denied export privileges within the scope of this order, or whereby the respondent or such other parties may obtain any benefit therefrom or have any interest or participation therein, directly or indirectly: (a) Apply for, obtain, transfer, or use any license, Shipper's Export Declaration, bill of lading, or other control document relating to any exportation, reexportation, transshipment, or diversion of any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States, by, to, or for any such respondent or other parties denied export privileges within the scope of this order; or (b) order, buy, receive, use, sell, deliver, store, dispose of, forward, transport, finance or otherwise service or participate in any exportation, reexportation, transshipment, or diversion of any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States.

This order shall become effective on March 22, 1974.

Dated: March 22, 1974.

Director, Office of Export Administration.

SEMICONDUCTOR TECHNICAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Notice of Meeting

The Semiconductor Technical Advisory Committee of the U.S. Department of Commerce will meet on Thursday, March 28, 1974, at 9:30 a.m. in Conference Room A of the Main Commerce Building, 14th and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C.

Members advise the Office of Export Administration, Bureau of East-West Trade, with respect to questions involving technical matters, worldwide availability and actual utilization of production and technology, and licensing procedures which may affect the level of export controls applicable to semiconductor products, including technical data related thereto, and including those whose export is subject to multilateral (COCOM) controls.

Agenda items are as follows:

1. Comments on minutes of previous meeting.
2. Presentation of papers or comments by the public.
3. Review of work program.
4. Executive Session:
   a. Discussion of paper on foreign availability.
   b. Review and commentary on prior work.
   c. Discussion of integrated circuits.
   d. Problems related to export of technology.
5. Adjournment.

The public will be permitted to attend the discussion of agenda items 1-3, and a limited number of seats will be available to the public for these agenda items. To the extent time permits, members of the public may present oral statements to the committee. Interested persons are also invited to file written statements with the committee.

With respect to agenda item (4), "Executive session," the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Administration, on December 20, 1973, determined, pursuant to section 10(d) of Public Law 92-463, that this agenda item should be exempt from the provision of sections 10 (a)(1) and (a)(3), relating to open meetings and public participation therein, because the meeting will be concerned with matters listed in 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(1).

Further information may be obtained from Charles C. Swanson, Director, Operations Division, Office of Export Administration, Room 1620, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230 (A/C 202-967-4196).

Minutes of those portions of the meeting which are open to the public will be available 30 days from the date of the meeting upon written request addressed to: Central Reference and Records Facility, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230.

Dated: March 19, 1974.

[Docket No. S-412]

AMERICAN EXPORT LINES, INC.

Notice of Application

Notice is hereby given that American Export Lines, Inc., has applied for permission to call vessels operating on its Line D (U.S. Atlantic/Far East) Service on Trade Route No. 12 at U.S. Gulf ports. This application does not involve an increase in the number of sailings to be made on the U.S. Atlantic/Far East service but requests authority to serve U.S. Gulf ports (Key West, Florida-Brownsville, Texas) on the sailings presently authorized; namely, a minimum of 20 and a maximum of 30 sailings per annum. The applicant is presently authorized to serve U.S. Atlantic ports only.

Any person, firm, or corporation having any interest in such application and desiring a hearing on issues pertinent to Section 605(c) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended (46 U.S.C. 1175), should, by the close of business on April 8, 1974, notify the Secretary, Maritime Subsidy Board, in writing, in triplicate, and file petition for leave to intervene in accordance with the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Maritime Subsidy Board.

In the event a section 605(c) hearing is ordered to be held, the purpose thereof will be to receive evidence relevant to (1) whether the application is one with respect to vessels to be operated in an essential service, served by citizens of the United States which would be in addition to the existing service, or services, and if so whether the service already provided by vessels of United States registry in such essential service is inadequate, and (2) whether in the accomplishment of the purpose and policy of the Act additional vessels should be operated thereon.

If no request for hearing and petition for leave to intervene is received within the specified time, or if the Maritime Subsidy Board determines that the petitions for leave to intervene filed within the specified time do not demonstrate sufficient interest to warrant a hearing, the Maritime Subsidy Board will take such action as may be deemed appropriate.

By Order of the Maritime Subsidy Board/Maritime Administration.

Dated: March 8, 1974.

Purpose. Reviews and evaluates available data concerning safety and effectiveness of active ingredients, and combinations thereof, of currently marketed nonprescription drug products containing oral hygiene drug products.

Agenda. Open session: Comments and presentations by interested persons. Closed session: Continuing review of the safety and efficacy of the oral cavity drug products.

Agenda items are subject to change as priorities dictate.

During the open sessions shown above, interested persons may present relevant information or views orally to any committee for its consideration. Information or views submitted to any committee in writing before or during a meeting shall also be considered by the committee.

A list of committee members and summary minutes of meetings may be obtained from the contact person for the committee both for meetings open to the public and those meetings closed to the public in accordance with section 10(d) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act.

Most Food and Drug Administration advisory committees are created to advise the Commissioner of Food and Drugs on pending regulatory matters. Recommendations made by the committees on these matters are intended to result in action under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, and these committees thus necessarily participate with the Commissioner in exercising his law enforcement responsibilities.

The Freedom of Information Act recognized that the premature disclosure of regulatory plans, or indeed internal discussions of alternative regulatory approaches to a specific problem, could have adverse effects upon both public and private interests. Congress recognized that such plans, even when finalized, may not be made fully available in advance of the effective date without damage to such interests, and therefore provided for this type of discussion to remain confidential. Thus, law enforcement activities have long been recognized as a legitimate subject for confidential consideration.

These committees often must consider trade secrets and other confidential information submitted by particular manufacturers which the Food and Drug Administration by law may not disclose, and which Congress has included within the exemptions from the Freedom of Information Act. Such information includes safety and effectiveness information, product formulation, and manufacturing methods and procedures, all of which are of substantial competitive importance.

In addition, to operate most effectively, the evaluation of specific drug or device products requires that members of committees considering such regulatory matters be free to engage in full and frank discussion. Members of committees have frequently agreed to serve and to provide their most candid advice on the understanding that the discussion would be private in nature. Many experts would be unwilling to engage in candid public discussion advocating regulatory action against a specific product. If the committees were not to engage in the deliberative portions of their work on a confidential basis, the consequent loss of frank and full discussion among committee members would severely hamper the value of these committees.

The Food and Drug Administration is relying heavily on the use of outside experts to assist in regulatory decisions. The Agency's regulatory actions uniquely affect the health and safety of every citizen, and it is imperative that the best advice be made available to it on a continuing basis in order that it may most effectively carry out its mission.

A determination to close part of an advisory committee meeting does not mean that the public should not have ready access to these advisory committees considering regulatory issues. A determination to close the meeting is subject to the following conditions: First, any interested person may submit written data or information to any committee, for its consideration. This information will be accepted and will be considered by the committee. Second, a portion of every committee meeting will be open to the public, so that interested persons may present any relevant information or views orally to the committee. The period for open discussion will be designated in any announcement of a committee meeting. Third, only the deliberative portion of a committee meeting, and the portion dealing with trade secret and confidential information, will be closed to the public. The portion of any meeting during which nonconfidential information is made available to the committee will be open for public participation. Fourth, after the committee makes its recommendations and the Commissioner either accepts or rejects them, the public and the individuals affected by the regulatory decision involved will have an opportunity to express their views on the decision. If the decision results in promulgation of a regulation, for example, the proposed regulation will be published for public comment. Closing a committee meeting for deliberations on regulatory matters will therefore in no way preclude public access to the committee itself or full public comment with respect to the decisions made based upon the committee's recommendation.

The Commissioner has been delegated the authority under section 10(d) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act to issue a determination in writing, containing the reasons therefor, that any advisory committee meeting is concerned with matters listed in 5 U.S.C. 552(b), which contains the exemptions from the public disclosure requirements of the Freedom of Information Act. Pursuant to this authority, the Commissioner hereby determines, for the reasons set out above, that the portions of the advisory committee meetings designated in this notice as closed to the public involve discussion of existing documents falling within one of the exemptions set forth in 5 U.S.C. 552(b), or matters that, if in writing, would fall within 5 U.S.C. 552(b), and that it is essential to close such portions of such meetings to protect the free exchange of internal views and to avoid undue interference with Agency and committee operations. This determination shall apply only to the designated portions of such meetings which relate to trade secrets and confidential information or to committee deliberations.

Dated: March 18, 1974.

A. M. SCHMIDT,
Commissioner of Food and Drugs.

Office of Education

EMERGENCY SCHOOL AID

Notice of Closing Date for Receipt of Applications

The Commissioner of Education hereby gives notice that pursuant to Title VII of Pub. L. 92-318, the Emergency School Aid Act, applications are being accepted from local educational agencies which have developed eligible plans as described in § 185.11 subsequent to December 10, 1973, which plans are being, or are to be, implemented during or prior to the 1974-75 academic year, and which have not submitted applications based on such plans for assistance under the Act for the project period July 1, 1974 through June 30, 1975, for special project grants under section 708(a) of the Act (45 CFR § 185.91(b) of the implementing regulations.

Applications for assistance must be received on or before April 30, 1974, and must be in the form of basic grant applications under section 706(a) of the Act. Such applications should be submitted to U.S. Office of Education, Application Control Center, 7th & D Streets SW, ROB-3, Room 5673, Washington, D.C. 20202 (mailing address: U.S. Office of Education, Application Control Center, 400 Maryland Avenue SW, Washington, D.C. 20202, Attention: 13.525 and 13.532).

Receipt procedure. An application sent by mail will be considered to be received on time by the Application Control Center if:

(1) The application was sent by registered or certified mail not later than the fifth calendar day prior to the closing date (or if such fifth calendar day is a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday, not later than the next following business day), as evidenced by the U.S. Postal Service postmark on the wrapper or envelope, or on the original receipt from the U.S. Postal Service; or

(2) The application is received on or before the closing date by either the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, or the U.S. Office of Education mail rooms, in Washington, D.C. (In establishing the date of receipt, the Assistant Secretary will rely on the time-date stamp of such mail rooms or other documentary evidence of receipt maintained by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, or the U.S. Office of Education, and Welfare, or the U.S. Office of Education.)

Project periods. Funds will be awarded for authorized activities commencing no earlier than July 1, 1974, and terminating no later than June 30, 1975.

Applicable regulations. Awards will be subject to 45 CFR Part 185, as such part appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 6, 1973 (38 FR 3450). Awards under section 708(a) will be subject to the amendments to 45 CFR Part 185 as such amendments appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 24, 1973 (38 FR 10092) and on August 10, 1973 (38 FR 21646). Awards under all sections of the Act shall be subject to such amendments to 45 CFR Part 185 as may be made in the future. Awards under all sections of the Act as described above are subject to the Office of Education General Provisions of 45 CFR Part 100 as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, November 6, 1973 (38 FR 30654).

Dated: March 18, 1974.

HEALTH AND NUTRITION PROGRAM

Notice of Closing Date for Receipt of Applications

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority contained in Section 808, Title VIII, of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (20 U.S.C. 887a) applications are being accepted from local educational agencies for grants for demonstration projects to improve school nutrition and health services for children from low-income families, which were commenced under grant awards made in previous fiscal years. Applications must be received by the U.S. Office of Education Application Control Center, Room 5673, Regional Office Building Three, 7th & D Streets SW., Washington, D.C. 20202 (mailing address: U.S. Office of Education Application Control Center, 400 Maryland Avenue SW., Washington, D.C., 20202, Attention: 13.523), on or before April 24, 1974. A notice of closing date for applications for new projects for Fiscal Year 1974 is being published separately in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The general fiscal and administrative provisions published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, 38 FR 30654, November 6, 1973, are applicable to these grants. Amounts available to fund applications invited under this notice include, in addition to fiscal year 1974 funds, funds made available under P.L. 92-334 which were unallotted in fiscal year 1973 and were allotted in January of this year.

An application sent by mail will be considered to be received on time by the Application Control Center if:

(1) The application was sent by registered or certified mail not later than the fifth calendar day prior to the closing date (or if such fifth calendar day is a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday, not later than the next following business day), as evidenced by the U.S. Postal Service post-mark on the wrapper or envelope, or on the original receipt from the U.S. Postal Service; or

(2) The application is received on or before the closing date by either the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, or the U.S. Office of Education mail rooms in Washington, D.C. (In establishing the date of receipt, the Commissioner will rely on the time-date stamp of such mail rooms or other documentary evidence of receipt maintained by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, or the U.S. Office of Education.)

Information and application forms may be obtained from the Office for Health and Nutrition Programs, 400 Maryland Avenue SW., Washington, D.C. 20202.

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

[Docket No. 50-254]

COMMONWEALTH EDISON CO. AND IOWA-ILLINOIS GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

Notice of Proposed Issuance of Authority To Operate Using Mixed Oxide Fuel

Notice is hereby given that the Atomic Energy Commission (the Commission) is considering the issuance of an amendment to Facility Operating License No. DPR-29 and changes to the Technical Specifications which would authorize the Commonwealth Edison Company and Iowa-Illinois Gas and Electric Company (the applicants) to operate the Quad-Cities Nuclear Power Station, Unit 1 using a partial loading of five 7 x 7 fuel assemblies containing mixed plutonium and uranium oxide. The applicants are presently licensed to possess and operate their facility located in Rock Island County, Illinois, at power levels up to 2511 MWt using a full core of 7 x 7 fuel (containing U-235).

The Commission will consider the issuance of the subject actions upon: (1) The completion of a favorable Safety Evaluation on the application by the Commission's Directorate of Licensing; (2) findings by the Commission that (a) the application complies with the requirement of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, (b) there is reasonable assurance that the reactor can be operated in accordance with the license, as amended, without endangering the health and safety of the public and that such activities will be conducted in compliance with the rules and regulations of the Commission, and (c) the issuance of this amendment will not be inimical to the common defense and security or to the health and safety of the public.

On or before April 22, 1974, the applicant may file a request for a hearing with respect to issuance of an amendment to the subject facility operating license, and change to the Technical Specifications, and any person whose interest may be affected by this proceeding may file a petition for leave to intervene. Requests for a hearing and petitions for leave to intervene shall be filed in accordance with the Commission's "Rules of Practice" in 10 CFR Part 2. If a request for a hearing or petition for leave to intervene is filed within the time prescribed in this notice, the Commission or an Atomic Safety and Licensing Board designated by the Commission or by the Chairman of the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board Panel will rule on the request and/or petition and the Secretary or the designated Atomic Safety and Licensing Board will issue a notice of hearing or an appropriate order.

A petition for leave to intervene must be filed under oath or affirmation in accordance with the provisions of 10 CFR 2.714. As required in 10 CFR 2.714, a petition for leave to intervene shall set forth the interest of the petitioner in the proceeding, how that interest may be affected by the results of the proceeding, and any other contentions of the petitioner including the facts and reasons why he should be permitted to intervene, with particular reference to the following factors: (1) The nature of the petitioner's right under the Act to be made a party to the proceeding; (2) the nature and extent of the petitioner's property, financial, or other interest in the proceeding; and (3) the possible effect of any order which may be entered in the proceeding on the petitioner's interest. Any such petition shall be accompanied by a supporting affidavit identifying the specific aspect or aspects of the subject matter of the proceeding as to which the petitioner wishes to intervene and setting forth with particularity both the facts pertaining to his interest and the basis for his contentions with regard to each aspect on which he desires to intervene. A petition that sets forth contentions relating only to matters outside the jurisdiction of the Commission will be denied.

A request for a hearing or a petition for leave to intervene must be filed with the Secretary of the Commission, United States Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, D.C. 20545, Attention: Chief, Public Proceedings Staff, or may be delivered to the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D.C., by April 22, 1974. A copy of the petition and/or request should also be sent to the Chief Hearing Counsel, Office of the General Counsel, Regulation, U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, D.C. 20545.

For further details with respect to these issuances see the (1) application by Commonwealth Edison dated February 28, 1974, including supplements issued prior to the application dated December 14, 1973, and June 15, 1973, and (2) the proposed amendment to the facility license for Facility Operating License No. DPR-29, all of which are available for public inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D.C., and at the Moline Public Library at 504 17th Street in Moline, Illinois 61265. When the Safety Evaluation report by the Directorate of Licensing on the application becomes available, it may be inspected

[Dockets Nos. 50-254 and 50-265]

COMMONWEALTH EDISON CO. AND IOWA-ILLINOIS GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

Proposed Issuance of Changes to Technical Specifications of Facility Operating License

Notice is hereby given that the Atomic Energy Commission (the Commission) is considering the issuance of changes to the Technical Specifications of Facility Operating Licenses Nos. DPR-29 and DPR-30 which would authorize the Commonwealth Edison Company and Iowa-Illinois Gas & Electric Co. (the applicant) to operate the Quad-Cities Nuclear Power Station, Unit 1 using a partial loading of 8 x 8 fuel (containing U-235), and one 7 x 7 fuel assembly containing segmented test rods, and would also authorize changes to the limiting conditions for operation associated with fuel densification for the 8 x 8 and 7 x 7 fuels. The applicant is presently licensed to possess and operate the Quad-Cities Nuclear Power Station Units 1 and 2, located in Rock Island County, Illinois, each at power levels up to 2511 MWt using a full core of 7 x 7 fuel (containing U-235).

The Commission will consider the issuance of the subject changes to the Technical Specification upon: (1) The completion of a favorable Safety Evaluation on the application by the Commission's Directorate of Licensing and (2) a finding by the Commission that the application for the change complies with the requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I. The generic aspects of the 8 x 8 reload assemblies have been discussed with the Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards and a letter has been issued by the Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards dated February 12, 1974. The Directorate of Licensing has issued a "Technical Report on the General Electric Company 8 x 8 Fuel Assembly" dated February 5, 1974.

On or before April 22, 1974, the applicant may file a request for a hearing with respect to issuance of changes to the Technical Specifications of the subject facility operating license, and any person whose interest may be affected by this proceeding may file a petition for leave to intervene. Requests for a hearing and petitions for leave to intervene shall be filed in accordance with the Commission's "Rules of Practice" in 10 CFR Part 2. If a request for a hearing or petition for leave to intervene is filed within the time prescribed in this notice, the Commission or an Atomic Safety and Licensing Board designated by the Commission or by the Chairman of the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board Panel will rule on the request and/or petition and the Secretary or the designated Atomic Safety and Licensing Board will issue a notice of hearing or an appropriate order.

A petition for leave to intervene must be filed under oath or affirmation in accordance with the provisions of 10 CFR § 2.714. As required in 10 CFR § 2.714, a petition for leave to intervene shall set forth the interest of the petitioner in the proceeding, how that interest may be affected by the results of the proceeding, and any other contentions of the petitioner including the facts and reasons why he should be permitted to intervene, with particular reference to the following factors: (1) The nature of the petitioner's right under the Act to be made a party to the proceeding; (2) the nature and extent of the petitioner's property, financial, or other interest in the proceeding; and (3) the possible effect of any order which may be entered in the proceeding on the petitioner's interest. Any such petition shall be accompanied by a supporting affidavit identifying the specific aspect or aspects of the subject matter of the proceeding as to which the petitioner wishes to intervene and setting forth with particularity both the facts pertaining to his interest and the basis for his contentions with regard to each aspect on which he desires to intervene. A petition that sets forth contentions relating only to matters outside the jurisdiction of the Commission will be denied.

A request for a hearing or a petition for leave to intervene must be filed with the Secretary of the Commission, United States Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, D.C. 20545, Attention: Chief, Public Proceedings Staff, or may be delivered to the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D.C., by April 22, 1974. A copy of the petition and/or request should also be sent to the Chief Hearing Counsel, Office of the General Counsel, Regulation, U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, D.C. 20545.

For further details, see the (1) applications by Commonwealth Edison dated February 8, 1974, February 28, 1974, including supplements issued prior to the application dated January 28, 1974, and February 7, 1974, (2) "Technical Report on the General Electric Company 8 x 8 Fuel Assembly" dated February 5, 1974, by the Directorate of Licensing, (3) Report NEDO-20103—"General Design Information for General Electric Boiling Water Reactor Reload Fuel Commencing in Spring 1974", and (4) the Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguard's letter of February 12, 1974, "Report on General Electric 8 x 8 Fuel Design for Reload Use", which are available for public inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D.C., and at the Moline Public Library at 504 17th Street in Moline, Illinois 61265. As the Safety Evaluation report to be prepared by the Directorate of Licensing on the application becomes available, it may be inspected at the above locations and a copy may be obtained.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket 23080-2; Order No. 74-3-84]

DOMESTIC SERVICE MAIL RATES—PHASE 2

Order Regarding Priority and Nonpriority

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 19th day of March, 1974.

By Order 74-1-89,[1] the Board established temporary domestic service mail rates for sack mail and standard and daylight container mail, container minimum chargeable weights, and pick-up and delivery charges to be effective from March 28, 1973, until the conclusion of the investigation in this docket. This order also made several technical changes to the tentative findings and conclusions in the proposed rate order,[2] including, inter alia, the prescription of temporary rates and charges for FT-B and FT-C type containers. Exceptions to the order were permitted limited to these changes.

Seaboard World Airlines, Inc. (Seaboard), in a timely filed exception, states that, while the order established rates and charges for the FT-B container, it did not refer to the standard Type B container employed by Seaboard, although the two containers are similar. Seaboard therefore requests that the Board "clarify" its order so as to indicate that the minimum chargeable weight and pick-up and delivery charges prescribed for the FT-B container were meant to apply also to the Type B container.

The Type B container was included in the rate petition filed by Seaboard in this docket and was inadvertently omitted from our temporary rate order. We shall therefore amend the order to correct this oversight. Contrary to Seaboard's position, however, application of the FT-B pivot weight to the B container was not intended. Nor are we persuaded that these container types so closely resemble each other as to warrant a common pivot weight; on the contrary, although the two receptacles are approximately the same length and width, the B container has considerably less carrying capacity and should reflect a correspondingly lower minimum chargeable weight. Based on available cubic capacity, therefore, a pivot weight of 2600 pounds appears more reasonable for the B container than the 2800-pound weight applicable to the FT-B, and it shall be so prescribed.

Accordingly, pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, and particularly sections 204(a) and 406 thereof,

It is ordered, That:

1. Subparagraphs (e) and (g) of Ordering paragraph 3 of Order 74-1-89, January 16, 1974, be and they hereby are amended as follows:

(a) In subparagraph (e), "B" and "2600" are inserted in the columns headed "Container Type" and "Minimum Charge Weight" after the terms "LD-3/FT-C" and "2000," respectively;

(b) In subparagraph (g), "FT-B" is changed to "FT-B and B" in the column headed "Container Type."

2. This order shall be served upon Airlift International, Inc., Alaska Airlines, Inc., Allegheny Airlines, Inc., American Airlines, Inc., Braniff Airways, Inc., Continental Air Lines, Inc., Delta Air Lines, Inc., Eastern Air Lines, Inc., The Flying Tiger Line Inc., Frontier Airlines, Inc., Hughes Air Corp., National Airlines, Inc., North Central Airlines, Inc., Northwest Airlines, Inc., Ozark Air Lines, Inc., Pan American World Airways, Inc., Piedmont Aviation, Inc., Seaboard World Airlines, Inc., Southern Airways, Inc., Texas International Airlines, Inc., Trans World Airlines, Inc., United Air Lines, Inc., Western Air Lines, Inc., and the Postmaster General.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Secretary.

COMMISSION ON CIVIL RIGHTS

CALIFORNIA STATE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Agenda and Notice of Open Meeting

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the provisions of the Rules and Regulations of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, that a planning meeting of the California State Advisory Committee will convene at 11 a.m. on March 30, 1974, in the Buffalo Room, Los Angeles Hilton Hotel, 930 West Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California 90017.

Persons wishing to attend this meeting should contact the Committee Chairman, or the Western Regional Office of the Commission, Room 1015, 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, California 90012.

The purposes of this meeting shall be (1) to discuss the status of the Asian American report entitled "Asian American/A Case of Mistaken Identity" and (2) to discuss future activities to be undertaken by the California SAC.

This meeting shall be conducted pursuant to the Rules and Regulations of the Commission.

Dated at Washington, D.C., March 19, 1974.

ISAIAH T. CRESWELL, JR.,
Advisory Committee Management Officer.

COLORADO STATE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Notice of Closed Meeting

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Public Law 92-463, 86 Stat. 707) notice is hereby given that the Colorado State Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights will meet in a closed session at 9 a.m., Saturday, March 30, 1974, in the Cedar Room, Albany Hotel, 1720 Stout Street, Denver, Colorado 80202.

The agenda will consist of discussions leading to recommendations on proposed revisions to the draft of the Colorado Prison Preliminary report.

I have determined that this meeting would fall within Exemption (5) of 5 U.S.C. 522(b) and that it is essential to close the meeting to protect the free exchange of internal views and to avoid interference with the operation of the Committee.

Issued in Washington, D.C. on March 30, 1974.

CONSUMER PRODUCT SAFETY COMMISSION

SHOCK, FIRE, AND OTHER HAZARDS FROM TELEVISION RECEIVERS

Notice of Public Hearing

Notice is given that a public hearing will be held on April 23 and 24, 1974, at 9:30 a.m. in the General Services Administration Auditorium, 18th & F Streets NW., Washington, D.C., to discuss television receiver safety with emphasis on shock and fire hazards. (For brevity, "television receiver" is referred to in this notice as "TV set" or "TV".)

The hearing will be held pursuant to section 27(a) of the Consumer Product Safety Act (Pub. L. 92-573, 86 Stat. 1227; 15 U.S.C. 2076 (a)).

From June 1973 through February 1974, the Commission received a number of potentially hazardous condition reports from TV set manufacturers relating to shock and fire hazards. The Commission has also received reports from consumers of shock and fire accidents that appear to stem from TV sets. Summaries and tabulations of these reports are set forth below.

The volume of the reports and the seriousness of the injuries reported indicate to the Commission that consumers may be subjected to unreasonable risks of injury associated with TV sets and that sufficient data have been received to commence the process of developing a consumer product safety standard pursuant to section 7(b) of the act (15 U.S.C. 2056(b)).

Before determining the scope (and as an aid to that determination) of the FEDERAL REGISTER notice, to be published pursuant to section 7(b) of the act, inviting interested persons to submit an existing standard or to offer to develop a proposed consumer product safety standard for acceptance, the Commission desires to receive the views of the public regarding the potential hazards from TV sets and/or the possible relationship between the potential hazards and TV design, construction, materials technology, and similar factors.

Although the hearing is intended to emphasize fires and shocks related to TV sets, information pertaining to all aspects of TV set safety may be submitted (with the exception of radiation hazards which are regulated by the Food and Drug Administration pursuant to the Public Health Service Act as amended by the Radiation Control for Health and Safety Act of 1968 (Pub. L. 90–602, 82 Stat. 1173–86; 47 U.S.C. 263b–n)). For example, information pertaining to TV tube implosions and explosions and TV ancillary equipment such as antennas would be welcome.

Manufacturers of TV sets and components are requested to submit information on one or more of the following topics. Consumers and consumer groups are invited to submit information on these topics and any other topic related to TV safety. Such information need not be of a technical nature but may include personal use experiences.

1. TV-related accident data. In particular, each TV manufacturer is requested to submit all accident reports collected since the 1969 hearings held by the National Commission on Product Safety. If present data recording procedures differ from the method proposed in the 1969 "Electronics Industry Association Ad Hoc Engineering Report on Television Fires," which was submitted to the National Commission on Product Safety, place indicate the procedures used.

2. Current, future-planned, and suggested TV-related safety standards. Data are requested on (a) standards currently used in industry; (b) those planned for the near future, including effective dates; and (c) those suggested for future use. In particular, each TV manufacturer is requested to indicate the implementation status of each safety standard improvement recommendation set forth in the 1969 "Electronics Industry Association Ad Hoc Engineering Report on Television Fires."

3. Quality control and quality assurance plans. Data are requested on present, future-planned, and suggested techniques for controlling and assuring safety-related TV quality.

4. Service technicians. Data are requested on present and future-planned qualification requirements for TV service technicians.

5. Improvement plans for presently used TV sets. Data related to reducing the incidence of fire and shock for existing TV sets are requested.

6. Specific technical areas. Information on accident data, standards, etc., pertaining to the following specific manufacturing trends and design techniques are requested:

a. Techniques for protection against overheating.

b. Trends toward direct AC to DC chassis design.

c. Trends toward use of compact portable TV sets and TV sets with thermoplastic enclosures.

d. Design and manufacturing techniques for minimizing dielectric stress on chassis components.

Representatives of the following companies which participated in the hearings of the National Commission on Product Safety and/or the development of the 1969 "Electronics Industry Association Ad Hoc Engineering Report on Television Fires" are invited to attend:

Admiral Corp., Chicago, Ill.
Ajax Condenser Corp., Chicago, Ill.
Allen-Bradley, Milwaukee, Wis.
Arvin Corp., Columbus, Ind.
Belden Corp., Chicago, Ill.
Centralab Electronics Division, Globe-Union, Milwaukee, Wis.
Corning Glass Works, Charleroi, Pa.
Emerson Corp., Greenwich, Conn.
General Electric Co., Portsmouth, Va.
Hitachi, Long Island, N.Y.
Magnavox Co., Fort Wayne, Ind.
Mallory Controls Co., Frankfort, Ind.
Michigan Chemical Co., Detroit, Mich.
Motorola, Inc., Franklin Park, Ill.
Packard Bell Electronics, Los Angeles, Calif.
Paktron Division of Illinois Toolworks, Inc., Alexandria, Va.
Panasonic (Matsushita Electric Corp. of America), New York, N.Y.
Philco-Ford Corp., Blue Bell, Pa.
RCA Corp., Indianapolis, Ind.
Sears, Roebuck & Co., Chicago, Ill.
Sharp, Paramus, N.J.
Sony Corp. of America, Long Island, N.Y.
Sylvania Electric Products, Inc., Batavia, N.Y.
Toshiba of America, Chicago, Ill.
Warwick Electronics, Inc., Chicago, Ill.
Wells-Gardner, Chicago, Ill.
Westinghouse Corp., Elmira, N.Y.
Zenith Radio Corp., Chicago, Ill.

The hearing will be conducted by a member or representative of the Commission and transcribed by a stenographer. Persons will have an opportunity to present their statements. Witnesses will not be cross-examined by other participants.

Interested persons are encouraged to attend and may do so by writing or calling Mr. Harvey Tzuker, Office of Standards Coordination and Appraisal, Consumer Product Safety Commission, Washington, D.C. 20207, phone (301) 496–7197. Those who wish to make a formal presentation are requested to submit by April 16, 1974, a copy or outline of their presentation and the amount of time requested therefor.

Persons unable to attend the hearing who wish to present written comments for the Commission's consideration are invited to do so. Written comments should be accompanied by a summary of not more than 250 words. All comments should be received by close of business April 16, 1974.

In the event that the space available for the meeting cannot accommodate all who wish to attend, admission will be determined according to the date on which requests for attendance were received.

The following are the summaries and tabulations of TV fire and shock data as mentioned above in the third paragraph of this notice:

I. Product defect reports received from TV set manufacturers. Pursuant to section 15(b) of the act, potentially hazardous conditions were reported as follows (as of March 5, 1974):

Date received	Manufacturer	Potential hazard
June 18, 1973	RCA Corp.	Shock.
July 12, 1973	Philco-Ford Corp.	Fire.
Sept. 10, 1973	Admiral Corp.	Shock.
Sept. 13, 1973	Zenith Radio Corp.	Fire.
Oct. 12, 1973	Montgomery Ward & Co.	Shock.
Dec. 3, 1973	Packard Bell Electronics.	Do.
Jan. 11, 1974	Philco-Ford Corp.	Fire.
Feb. 21, 1974	Matsushita Electric Corp. (Panasonic).	Do.
Feb. 28, 1974	Curtis-Mathes Corp.	Do.

II. Field survey by the Commission. On September 7, 1973, the Consumer Product Safety Commission initiated a survey through its 14 area offices located throughout the United States to sample the number of on-file TV-related fire reports documented within a 1-year period by at least three municipalities within each area office's jurisdiction.

The number of home TV-related fires reported as occurring from September 1, 1972, through August 31, 1973, is 916. The estimated population for the areas from which reports were received is 21,700,000. Although only on-file fire report information was requested, one municipality's submission indicated that its report of 279 fires is an estimate.

Three TV-related fires resulted in serious injury that required hospitalization or resulted in death. Five individuals were involved in these fires. The extent of physical injury in the three fires is as follows:

A. Two individuals sustained minor smoke inhalation in one fire.

B. One death and one hospitalization resulted from one fire.

C. One individual sustained burns and smoke inhalation in one fire.

III. Data obtained from the National Electronic Injury Surveillance System (NEISS). Through NEISS, there were compiled 681 TV-related accidents during the fiscal year FY–73 (July 1, 1972, to June 30, 1973) and 359 during the first half of FY–74 (July 1, 1973, to December 1, 1973). The majority of these accidents resulted in injuries such as abrasions, amputations, concussions, contusions, dislocations, fractures, lacerations, punctures, and sprains or strains.

IV. Accident reports compiled by the Commission—A. Summary. The Consumer Product Safety Commission has compiled 35 TV-related accident reports pertaining to fires, shocks, and explosions that have come to the Commission's attention by various means such as consumer injury reports, news articles, and reports of hospital emergency room cases. The 35 reports were compiled from January 1 through December 7, 1973. The following is a breakdown of the accidents, injuries, and deaths involved in the 35 reports:

Accidents

Fires	25
Smoking only (no fire)	5
Shocks	3

V. Consumer complaint letters received by the Commission—A. Summary. As of December 7, 1973, the Consumer Product Safety Commission responded to 27 consumer complaint letters on TV-related accidents. The following is a breakdown of the 27 letters' subject matter and types of injuries reported:

Subject matter: 15 fires, 7 insufficient and miscellaneous subject matter, two explosion-fires, two picture tube breakages, and one smoking only (no fire).

Types of injuries: Three cases of burns (total requiring hospitalization unknown), three hospitalizations (injury unknown), one case of lung damage requiring hospitalization.

B. Tabulation. The following is a detailed tabulation of the 27 consumer complaint letters summarized in V–A above:

COUNCIL ON ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENT

Notice of Availability

Environmental impact statements received by the Council on Environmental Quality from March 11 through March 15, 1974. The date of receipt for each statement is noted in the statement summary. Under Council Guidelines, the minimum period for public review and comment on draft environmental impact statements is forty-five (45) days from this FEDERAL REGISTER notice of availability (May 6, 1974).

Copies of individual statements are available for review from the originating agency. Back copies will also be available from a commercial source, the Environmental Law Institute of Washington, D.C.

FOREST SERVICE

Draft

Cohutta Mountains, Chattahoochee N.F., Georgia and Tennessee, March 14: The statement refers to a proposed management plan for the 49,500 acre Cohutta Mountains Unit of the Chattahoochee National Forest. Under the plan, 34,500 acres would be designated for wildland management, and the remaining 10,900 acres would be managed for a variety of resource outputs. Commercial timber harvest will average 500,000 board feet per year; requiring seven miles of new, low standard roads (50 pages). (ELR Order No. 40400.)

Spruce Budworm Suppression, Lake County, Minnesota, March 12: Proposed is the treatment of 3,500 acres of forest land within the Finland State Forest, in order to prevent or minimize further spruce-budworm caused tree mortality and reduce high budworm populations until logging operations are able to remove the mature timber. The insecticide mexacarbate (Zectran R) will be applied aerially, in conjunction with continuing salvage operations. Some nontarget areas will be adversely affected (69 pages). (ELR Order No. 40392.)

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

Contact: For Non-Regulatory Matters: Mr. W. Herbert Pennington, Office of Assistant General Manager, E-201, AEC, Washington, D.C. 20545 (301) 973-4241. For Regulatory Matters: Mr. A. Giambusso, Deputy Director for Reactor Projects, Directorate of Licensing, P-722, AEC, Washington, D.C. 20545 (301) 973-7373.

Final

Alvin W. Vogtle Nuclear Plant, Georgia, March 13: The statement refers to the proposed issuance of a construction permit to the Georgia Power Company. Each of the Plant's two units will use a pressurized reactor to produce 3,425 MWt, from which 1,100 MWe will be generated. Future output levels of 3,579 MWt and 1,159 MWe are anticipated. Cooling will be by natural draft towers, with water being drawn from the Savannah River at a consumptive rate of 14,930 gpm per unit. Construction of the Plant, a railroad spur, and transmission lines will require 13,916 acres. About 0.03% of the State's timber acreage will be removed for transmission line construction. Potentially significant archeological sites will be affected (390 pages). Comments made by: USDA, DOC, HEW, HUD, DOI, DOT, and State agencies. (ELR Order No. 40397.)

Draft

Upper Mississippi River Navigation Channel, Iowa, Minnesota, and Wisconsin, March 12: The statement refers to the proposed operation and maintenance functions necessary to provide 9-foot channel depths for commercial navigation on the Mississippi River from the head of navigation at Minneapolis to Guttenberg, Iowa, a distance of 242.5 river miles. The action consists of operation and maintenance of 13 locks and dams, and channel dredging and disposal. The major adverse impact of the project is its negative effects on fish and wildlife (St. Paul District) (2 Volumes). (ELR Order No. 40394.)

Final

Closure of Academy Creek Brunswick Harbor, Georgia, March 12: The statement refers to the construction of a closure dam across Academy Creek, a canal connecting the upper reaches of Academy Creek with the upper reaches of East River and a dike along the east side of Academy Creek. The project will cause the destruction of 7 to 8 acres of marsh and the elimination of the benthic community in the immediate area of the Academy Creek Closure dam. There will be an increase in water turbidy (Savannah District) (69 pages) (33 pages). Comments made by: EPA, DOI, DOC, State and local agencies. (ELR Order No. 40391.)

Weymouth Landing Local Protection, Norfolk County, Massachusetts, March 11: The proposal is for a flood protection project, which would consist of a concrete dam, 1,200 feet of 96 inch pressure pipe and a 230 foot long arch conduit, and 1,000 feet of channel works. Some hardwood trees and other vegetation will be lost to the project (87 pages). Comments made by: EPA, DOI, State and local agencies. (ELR Order No. 40386.)

Draft

Water supply, Berlin, Coos County, New Hampshire, March 13: Proposed are water system improvements for the city of Berlin, the town of Gorham, and the town of Milan. Included are a two-million gallon 1 day intake, water filtration and pumping plant, and connection to and expansion of the existing distribution system. The project will assist in the development of an adjacent industrial park. (151 pages). (ELR Order No. 40396.)

BONNEVILLE POWER ADMINISTRATION

Draft

Lowell Substation, Lane County, Oregon, March 11: Proposed is the construction of a new substation and tapline near the town of Lowell. Between 4 and 11 acres will be committed to the project site. Adverse impact will include the removal of some timber and grazing land; construction disruption; siltation in nearby streams; and some degradation of AM reception immediately adjacent to the right-of-way (24 pages). (ELR Order No. 40374.)

Ashe-Hanford Transmission Line, Benton County, Washington, March 11: Proposed is the construction of a 17.8 mile 500 kV single circuit line from BPA's Ashe Substation to the existing Hanford Switching Station. Right-of-way easements will be required on a total of 612 acres of grasslands (44 pages). (ELR Order No. 40372.)

Sappho Substation, Clallam County, Washington, March 11: Proposed is the construction of a new substation near the town of Sappho. Construction of the facility and an access road will result in some disturbance to game; loss of some timberland; siltation in nearby streams; and some degradation of AM reception immediately adjacent to the right-of-way (24 pages). (ELR Order No. 40373.)

Mt. Pleasant Substation, Skamania County, Washington, March 11: Proposed is the construction of a new substation and tapline to serve the electrical needs of the Mt. Pleasant area. The station will occupy a site of between 3.2 and 4.2 acres. Adverse impacts of the project will include the removal of timberland; disturbance to game; construction disruption; and degradation of AM reception immediately adjacent to right-of-way (25 pages). (ELR Order No. 40375.)

Stevenson Substation, Skamania County, Washington, March 11: The statement, a supplement to BPA's FY 1975 Program, refers to the proposed construction of a substation at Stevenson, and a connection to the existing Underwood 115kV tap. There will be some construction disruption, disturbance to wildlife, and degradation of AM reception immediately adjacent to the transmission right-of-way (22 pages). (ELR Order No. 40377.)

BUREAU OF SPORTS FISHERIES AND WILDLIFE

Draft

Proposed Aleutian Islands Wilderness, Alaska, March 12: Proposed is the legislative designation of 1,395,357 acres of the Aleutian Islands National Wildlife Refuge as wilderness within the National Wilderness Preservation System. Possible long-term adverse impact could result from the denial of resource development and commercialization, and limitations to access (111 pages). (ELR Order No. 40389.)

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

Final

Many Glacier System, Glacier National Park, Montana, March 11: The proposal is for the construction of a replacement sewerage system, including a treatment facility, at the Many Glacier Region of the Park. Adverse impacts will include those of aesthetic intrusion and odor (82 pages). Comments made by: USDA, DOI, HEW, EPA, and State agencies. (ELR Order No. 40380.)

Jackson Hole Airport, Grand Teton N.P., Wyoming, March 11: The statement refers to actions under consideration related to the Jackson Hole Airport within Grand Teton National Park. Modifications include strengthening of an existing 6,305 foot runway, constructing a parallel 6,305 foot taxiway, additional car parking, an improved access road, and a new sewage system. Interrelated FAA projects include an instrument landing system, lighting, and an air traffic control tower. There will also be a transportation study to determine the long range needs of the region. Adverse impacts include the visual intrusion of proposed developments, construction disturbance, and excavation of a 4.3 acre borrow pit within the park. Comments made by: USDA, DOI, DOT, HUD, DOC, EPA, State and local agencies, and concerned citizens. (ELR Order No. 40387.)

Draft

Master Plan, Pinnacles National Monument, Monterey County, California, March 11: Proposed is a master plan for the management of the Pinnacles National Monument. The plan recommends measures to insure preservation of the resources of Pinnacles for public appreciation and for scientific research. These measures include the acquisition of land for preservation of wildlife species and relocation of visitor facilities; the conversion of all facilities to day use; and the installation of a visitor shuttle system for use during heavy visitation periods. (ELR Order No. 40379.)

SR 8, Sequatchie County to Warren County, Sequatchie, Van Buren, and Warren Counties, Tennessee, March 11: The statement refers to the improvement of State Route 8 beginning at the junction of SR 8 and SR 111 in Sequatchie County and extending in a NW direction from 15.5 miles reaching its terminus at the Collins River Bridge in Warren County. The major adverse effects of the project are the loss of between 160 and 190 acres of wildlife habitat and some pasture and tree nursey lands along the project right-of-way (55 pages). (ELR Order No. 40384.)

Final

U.S. 14, Dodge and Olmstead Counties, Minnesota, March 12: The statement refers to the proposed reconstruction of 7 miles of U.S.T.H. 14 on new location as a four lane divided facility. The project includes a 0.4 mile extension of T.H. 57 in Kasson between existing T.H. 14 and the new location. Four families and one business will be displaced, and 313 acres of agricultural land will be committed to right-of-way (88 pages). Comments made by: USDA, EPA, COE, DOT, and State agencies. (ELR Order No. 40390.)

Hastings-Grand Island Expressway, Adams, Hall, and Hamilton Counties, Nebraska, March 14: The statement refers to the proposed improvements to the Hastings-Grand Island Expressway which is located in the counties of Hall, Adams, Merrick and Hamilton. The primary objective is to provide an expressway type facility commencing one mile south of Hastings and proceeding northward to the vicinity of Grand Island. Adverse impacts include acquisition of land, relocation of wildlife and possible water pollution during construction. The number of displacements, the amount of land needed for right-of-way, and the exact number of miles in the project are not clearly stated in this final (64 pages). Comments made by: EPA, HUD, DOI, USDA, COE, and State agencies. (ELR Order No. 40399.)

The following environmental impact statements were also received during the week of March 11 to March 15, 1974, and the commenting period for them begins with this FEDERAL REGISTER notice of public availability. will, upon receipt of every application, publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice containing the information shown below. The labeling furnished by the applicant will be available for examination at the Environmental Protection Agency, Room EB–37, East Tower, 401 M Street SW., Washington, D.C. 20460.

Within 60 days following the date of publication of this notice, any person who (a) is or has been an applicant, (b) desires to assert a claim for compensation under section 3(c)(1)(D) against another applicant proposing to use supportive data previously submitted and approved, and (c) wishes to preserve his opportunity for determination of reasonable compensation by the Administrator must notify the Administrator and the applicant named in the FEDERAL REGISTER of his claim by certified mail. Every such claimant must include, at a minimum, the information listed in this interim policy published on November 19, 1973.

Applications submitted under 2(a) or 2(b) of the interim policy in regard to usage of existing supportive data for registration will be processed in accordance with existing procedures. Applications submitted under 2(c) will be held for the 60-day period before commencing processing. If claims are not received, the application will be processed in normal procedure. However, if claims are received within 60 days, the applicants against whom the particular claims are asserted will be advised of the alternatives available under the Act. No claims will be accepted for possible EPA adjudication which are received after this 60-day period.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket No. 19660; RM–690]

RCA GLOBAL COMMUNICATIONS, INC.

Order Deferring Time for Filing Comments

In the matter of International Record Carriers' Scope of Operations in the Continental United States, including possible revisions to the formula prescribed under section 222 of the Communications Act.

1. By Memorandum Opinion and Order in the above-captioned matter released November 26, 1973, 43 F.C.C. 2d 1174, we instituted an investigation into the international formula. That order directed parties to submit by January 25, 1974, statements of fact and memorandums of law with respect to the issues designated for investigation. By orders released January 25, 1974, February 15, 1974, and March 5, 1974, the Chief, Common Carrier Bureau extended the time for submission of these statements. The time for filing the above comments is presently fixed at March 18, 1974.

2. The extensions were granted pending discussions among the parties on the need and method for developing data on unrouted traffic distributed under the formula destined to countries where one carrier is entitled under the formula to all unrouted traffic (referred to as an "exclusive point"). There is a dispute among the parties as to whether the issues designated for investigation herein require postponement of the date on which to file comments until such time as such study can be made.

3. The Commission presently has before it letters, all dated March 11, 1974, from ITT World Communications, Inc., TRT Telecommunications Corp., Western Union International, Inc., and RCA Global Communications, Inc. which ask the Commission to determine whether the study is a prerequisite to answering the designated issues and to set a date certain on which the comments should be filed.

4. The Commission will not be able to resolve the above dispute and allow the parties time to frame their comments before the present March 18, 1974 date. Further, it is not feasible to set a new time for the filing of comments until the Commission acts on the dispute. Therefore, we will defer the filing time until such time as the Commission has acted, and a new date is specified.

Accordingly, It is ordered, Pursuant to § 0.303(c) of the Commission's rules, That the time for the parties to submit their comments in this proceeding is deferred, until the Commission has acted to resolve the pending matter referred to above.

It is further ordered, That a new date for filing of the comments will be set by subsequent Order.

Adopted: March 15, 1974.

Released: March 18, 1974.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] KELLEY E. GRIFFITH,
Acting Chief,
Common Carrier Bureau.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. RP72–110]

ALGONQUIN GAS TRANSMISSION CO.

Change in Rates

MARCH 15, 1974.

Take notice that Algonquin Gas Transmission Company (Algonquin) on February 26, 1974 tendered for filing Seventh Revised Sheet No. 3–A to its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1. Algonquin requests an effective date of April 6, 1974 for said sheet.

Algonquin states the adjustment is filed pursuant to the Purchased Gas Cost Adjustment Provision, section 22 of the General Terms and Conditions of its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1. Algonquin states the adjustment reflects an increase in purchased gas costs to be paid to its supplier.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before March 27, 1974. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

AMOCO PRODUCTION CO.

Notice of Application

MARCH 15, 1974.

Take notice that on March 1, 1974, Amoco Production Company (Applicant), Security Life Building, Denver, Colorado 80202, filed in Docket No. CI74–463 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the sale for resale and delivery of natural gas in interstate commerce to Colorado Interstate Gas Company, a Division of Colorado Interstate Corporation (CIG), from the Deadman Wash Field, Sweetwater County, Wyoming, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant proposes to sell to CIG for two years from the subject acreage all the gas which Applicant may have available for sale and delivery to CIG up to 4,000,000 Mcf and which CIG may desire to purchase and receive from Applicant within the contemplation of § 2.70 of the Commission's general policy and interpretations (18 CFR 2.70). Applicant proposes further to sell said gas volumes, estimated to be 50,000 Mcf per month, to CIG at 40.0 cents per Mcf at 14.65 psia the first year and 41.0 cents per Mcf at 14.65 psia the second year, subject to upward and downward Btu adjustment. Initial upward Btu adjustment is estimated to be 2.4 cents per Mcf.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 8, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

[Project No. 271]

ARKANSAS POWER & LIGHT CO.

Application for Change in Land Rights

MARCH 15, 1974.

Public notice is hereby given that application for change in land rights was filed on March 7, 1974, under the Federal Power Act (16 U.S.C. 791a–825r) by Arkansas Power and Light Company (Correspondence to: Mr. Edward B. Dillon, Jr., House, Holmes & Jewell, Tower Building, Little Rock, Arkansas 72201; Copies to: Messrs. Peyton G. Bowman, III, and Brian J. McManus, Reid & Priest, 1701 K Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20006), for its constructed Project No. 271, known as the Carpenter and Remmel Project, located on the Ouachita River in Garland and Hot Spring Counties, Arkansas. The project affects navigable waters and lands of the United States and lands within the Ouachita National Forest. The instant application involves lands wholly within Garland County, Arkansas.

Applicant proposes to grant an easement to the City of Hot Springs, Arkansas, upon which an effluent discharge pipe would be laid from the City's proposed tertiary sewage treatment plant to a point 173 feet into Lake Catherine, a project reservoir, approximately ¾ mile below Carpenter Dam.

On October 27, 1972, Environmental Protection Agency Region VI issued a final environmental impact statement on the proposed plant, which would be funded by an EPA grant. The Statement discussed impact of the plant and various discharge alternatives; the plant would replace three other plants currently in use. An application for an effluent discharge permit pursuant to section 402 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendments of 1972 is presently pending before EPA Region VI.

According to the application, approval of the proposed easement would not interfere with the recreational use of the Project.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make protest with reference to said application should on or before April 24, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, petitions to intervene or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to a proceeding. Persons wishing to become parties to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file petitions to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules. The application is on file with the Commission and is available for public inspection.

[Docket No. CI74-489]

BELCO PETROLEUM CORP., AGENT

Notice of Application

MARCH 15, 1974.

Take notice that on March 6, 1974, Belco Petroleum Corporation, Agent (Applicant), 630 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10017, filed in Docket No. CI74-489 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the sale for resale and delivery of natural gas in interstate commerce to El Paso Natural Gas Company (El Paso) from Section 30, Lea County, New Mexico, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant states that it commenced the sale of natural gas on September 12, 1973, within the contemplation of § 157.29 of the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.29) and proposes to continue said sale for 18 months from the end of the emergency period within the contemplation of § 2.70 of the Commission's general policy and interpretations (18 CFR 2.70). Applicant proposes to sell approximately 5,000 Mcf of gas per day to El Paso at 55.0 cents per Mcf at 14.65 psia, subject to upward and downward Btu adjustment. Applicant states that the proposed sale was the subject of its withdrawn application filed in Docket No. CI73-892.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 8, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

CHATTANOOGA GAS CO.

Proposed Change in Rates

MARCH 15, 1974.

Take notice that Chattanooga Gas Company (CGC) on March 8, 1974 tendered for filing Second Revised Sheet No. 5 and Second Revised Sheet No. 6 to its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1. CGC requests an effective date of April 6, 1974 for said sheets.

CGC states the purpose of these revised sheets is to adjust its LNG rates pursuant to the PGA provision in section 5 of the General Terms and Conditions. CGC states the revised sheets reflect a current increase in the LNG rates of 1.7 cents per MMBTU and a cumulative increase of 10.4 cents per MMBTU. According to CGC, the revised sheets are based on a rate increase by Southern Natural Gas Company.

CGC states that notice of this filing have been mailed to all its jurisdiction customers.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before March 29, 1974. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

COQUINA OIL CORP.

Notice of Application

MARCH 18, 1974.

Take notice that on March 8, 1974, Coquina Oil Corporation (Applicant), Building of the Southwest, Midland, Texas 79701, filed in Docket No. CI74-494 an application pursuant to section 7(b) of the Natural Gas Act for permission and approval to abandon a sale of natural gas to Warren Petroleum Corporation (Warren) from the Drinkard Pool, Lea County, New Mexico, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant proposes to abandon a percentage-type sale of gas to Warren from the Drinkard Pool. Applicant states that as gas from oil wells Applicant's production is dedicated to Warren and as gas from gas wells the production is dedicated to El Paso Natural Gas Company under a contract dated March 1, 1974. Applicant further states that it requests this authorization because the New Mexico Oil Conservation Commission on March 1, 1974, reclassified the subject wells from "oil wells" to "gas wells" and, therefore, El Paso is contractually entitled to the gas therefrom. Applicant indicates that Warren after processing the casinghead gas received from Applicant, sold the residue gas to El Paso. Applicant indicates further that Warren concurs in the abandonment.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 9, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate and permission and approval for the proposed abandonment are required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

EXXON CORP.

Notice of Application

MARCH 15, 1974.

Take notice that on March 4, 1974, Exxon Corporation (Applicant), P.O. Box 2180, Houston, Texas 77001, filed in Docket No. CI74-462 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the sale for resale and delivery of natural gas in interstate commerce to United Gas Pipe Line Company (United) from the Conroe Field, Montgomery County, Texas, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant proposes to sell to United from the subject acreage up to 17,000 Mcf of gas per day for a term extending to August 1, 1974, at 45.0 cents per Mcf at 14.65 psia, subject to upward and downward Btu adjustment with an estimated initial upward adjustment of 0.035 cent per Mcf, within the contemplation of § 2.70 of the Commission's general policy and interpretations (18 CFR 2.70). Estimated monthly sales are 420,000 Mcf of gas.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 8, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. [Docket No. RP74-50-1—RP74-50-4]

FLORIDA GAS TRANSMISSION CO., ET AL.

Order Granting Motion, Amending Prior Order, Consolidating Proceedings, and Permitting Interventions

MARCH 15, 1974.

On March 8, 1974, Florida Gas Transmission Company (Florida Gas) filed a motion for consolidation of the proceedings in Docket Nos. RP74-50-1 through RP74-50-3, which involves petitions for extraordinary relief from curtailment procedures of Florida Gas Transmission Company (Florida Gas), with the pending proceeding in Docket No. RP74-50-4 in which Gardinier, Inc. (Gardinier) filed a petition for extraordinary relief on February 27, 1974.[1]

By its order issued February 19, 1974, in Docket Nos. RP74-50-1, et al., the Commission set for hearing the issue of whether or not extraordinary relief should be granted to the three petitioners in those proceedings. As indicated, the Docket No. RP74-50-4 proceeding concerns an additional request for emergency relief from Florida Gas.

In its motion, Florida Gas alleges that: (1) the issues raised by Gardinier's petition in Docket No. RP74-50-4 for extraordinary relief are substantially the same as those involved in the three prior petitions listed above for such relief from Florida Gas' curtailment program, (2) the requested consolidation would result in a single hearing and would conserve the time and resources of all the parties involved, and (3) no petitioner or intervenor in any of these proceedings objects to the proposed consolidation or postponement of the scheduled dates for filing direct testimony and for hearing to April 2, 1974, and April 16, 1974, respectively, in the consolidated proceeding.

On March 4, 1974, a joint petition for leave to intervene out of time in Docket Nos. RP74-50-1 through RP74-50-3 was filed by the Cities of Fort Pierce, Gainesville, Homestead, Kissimmee, Lakeland, Sebring, Starke, and Tallahassee, Florida (Cities). Cities allege that they purchase substantial volumes of natural gas directly from Florida Gas and were not apprised of the Commission's consolidation order of February 19, 1974, until several days subsequent to its issuance. They request the Commission to allow them to file testimony on dates to be set by the Presiding Administrative Law Judge after an opportunity to evaluate the various requests for special exemption.

V 39 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

The petition by Gardinier for extraordinary relief contains questions of law and fact that are similar to those involved in the petitions placed in a consolidated hearing by our order issued in Docket Nos. RP74–50–1, et al., on February 19, 1974. Accordingly, we will consolidate that petition into the consolidated hearing heretofore established for purposes of hearing and decision. The public interest clearly justifies departing from the procedural network of our February 19, 1974 order for purposes of accommodating the consolidation of these interrelated proceedings.

Insofar as the request for intervention out of time by Cities is concerned, we shall permit them to intervene in this consolidated proceeding, but require that they file testimony pursuant to our revised schedule herein since direct testimony by all other parties will be filed at that time.

The Commission finds:

(1) Good cause exists to grant the motion filed by Florida Gas on March 8, 1974, to consolidate the proceedings in Docket Nos. RP74–50–1, RP74–50–2, RP74–50–3, and RP74–50–4 for purposes of hearing and decision.

(2) The participation of the above-named petitioners in this proceeding may be in the public interest.

The Commission orders:

(A) The motion to consolidate filed by Florida Gas on March 8, 1974, is hereby granted, as hereinafter ordered.

(B) The proceedings in Docket Nos. RP74–50–1, RP74–50–2, RP74–50–3, and RP74–50–4 are hereby consolidated for purposes of hearing and decision.

(C) On or before April 2, 1974, Gardinier and all parties supporting or opposing Gardinier's request shall serve with the Commission and upon all parties to the proceeding, including Commission Staff, their testimony and exhibits in support of their position regarding it as well as the other three requests herein.

(D) The hearing for cross-examination purposes set for March 19, 1974, by Ordering Paragraphs (C) and (E) of the Commission's order issued February 19, 1974, in Docket Nos. RP74–50–1, et al., is hereby postponed until April 16, 1974.

(E) In all other respects, the Commission's order of February 19, 1974, remains in full force and effect.

(F) The above-named petitioners are hereby permitted to intervene in this proceeding, subject to the Rules and Regulations of the Commission: Provided, however, that the participation of such intervernors shall be limited to matters affecting rights and interests specifically set forth in the respective petitions to intervene, and Provided, further, that the admission of such intervenors shall not be construed as recognition by the Commission that they, or any of them, might be aggrieved because of any order or orders issued by the Commission in this proceeding.

By the Commission.

HARVEY BROYLES

Notice of Application

MARCH 15, 1974.

Take notice that on March 1, 1974, Harvey Broyles (Applicant), P.O. Box 1511, Shreveport, Louisiana 71165, filed in Docket No. CI74–464 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the sale for resale and delivery of natural gas in interstate commerce to Southern Natural Gas Company (Southern) from the Bear Creek Field, Bienville Parish, Louisiana, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant was authorized in Docket No. CI73–470 to sell natural gas to Southern from the Bear Creek Field at 35.0 cents per Mcf for one year within the contemplation of § 2.70 of the Commission's general policy and interpretations (18 CFR 2.70) and proposes herein to continue said sale at 45.0 cents per Mcf at 15.025 psia. Estimated sales are 2,000 Mcf of gas per day.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 8, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

MARATHON OIL CO.

Notice of Application

MARCH 15, 1974.

Take notice that on March 8, 1974, Marathon Oil Company (Applicant), 539 South Main Street, Findlay, Ohio 45841, filed in Docket No. CI74–491 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the sale for resale and delivery of natural gas in interstate commerce to Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company from the West Wilburton-Arkoma Area, Pittsburg County, Kansas, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant states that it commenced the sale of natural gas on March 1, 1974, within the contemplation of § 157.29 of the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.29) and proposes to continue said sale for one year from the end of the 180-day emergency period within the contemplation of § 2.70 of the Commission's general policy and interpretations (18 CFR 2.70). Applicant proposes to sell approximately 7,500 Mcf of gas per day at 45.0 cents per Mcf at 15.025 psia.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before April 8, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER TRANSMISSION CORP.

Change in Rates

MARCH 15, 1974.

Take notice that Mississippi River Transmission Corp. (MRT) on March 1, 1974 tendered for filing Seventeenth Revised Sheet No. 3A to its FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1. MRT requests that the said Sheet be given an effective date of April 6, 1974.

MRT states that the change in rates is made pursuant to the purchase gas cost adjustment provisions of MRT's Gas Tariff. MRT's states that this change reflects rate changes applicable to MRT by both Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America and by United Gas Pipe Line Co. and by a deferred cost adjustment of MRT. MRT further states that copies of its filing were served on MRT's jurisdictional customers and the State Commissions of Arkansas, Illinois and Missouri.

MRT also submitted Alternate Seventeenth Revised Sheet No. 3A to its FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1. MRT states this reflects United Gas Pipe Line Company's rate filing as originally filed and suspended. MRT requests that in the event United's original rate change is approved Alternate Seventeenth Revised Sheet No. 3A be made effective on April 6, 1974 instead of Seventeenth Revised Sheet No. 3A.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said application should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before March 27, 1974. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

NATURAL GAS PIPELINE COMPANY OF AMERICA

Petition To Amend Authorization

MARCH 15, 1974.

Take notice that on March 4, 1974, Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Natural), 122 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60603, filed a petition to amend the order establishing a revolving exploration and development fund issued in Docket No. RP73–63 on August 3, 1973. Natural states that the amendment of the order is necessary to remove certain restrictions having to do with the provisions of Natural's mortgage, which restrictions have impeded the full implementation of the revolving exploration and development fund program.

The Petition to Amend, as more fully set forth therein, requests permission for Natural to transfer to NAPECO Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary, all revenues derived from the repricing of Natural's existing gas producing properties which was previously authorized in this docket. Natural further states that NAPECO Inc. will conduct the revolving exploration and development fund program, and any gas found will be sold to Natural for sale and delivery to its customers. NAPECO Inc., as well as Natural, will be subject to all the provisions of the order issued in RP73–63 on August 3, 1973.

Copies of the Petition to Amend were served on all parties to the proceeding in Docket No. RP73–63.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said Petition to Amend should on or before April 8, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). NORTHEAST UTILITIES

Changes in Term

MARCH 18, 1974.

Take notice that on February 11, 1973, Northeast Utilities tendered for filing an amendment to their Northfield Mountain Purchase Agreement (Agreement) between Northeast Utilities and the Public Service Company of New Hampshire (PSCNH). This amendment would delay by one week the time when the purchaser (PSCNH) may commence to receive service under the Agreement from 7 a.m. on Monday, October 29, 1973, to November 5, 1973. According to Northeast Utilities, the purpose of this change is to permit the purchaser to reduce his overall entitlement in the Northfield Project during the period October 29, 1973, to November 5, 1973. Northeast Utilities states that PSCNH's approval of the change has been received.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). SOUTHERN INDIANA GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

Notice of Cancellation

MARCH 15, 1974.

Take notice that on February 26, 1974 Southern Indiana Gas and Electric Co. (SIG) tendered for filing a cancellation of its FPC Rate Schedule No. 7, filed August 31, 1964, and Supplement 4, filed April 1, 1967, with respect to the sale of wholesale power to the town of New Harmony, Indiana (New Harmony). The effective date of the said cancellation is February 26, 1974.

SIG states the cancellation is by mutual agreement of SIG and New Harmony and is not to be replaced or superseded by a new schedule. New Harmony sold its electric utility plant and distribution system to SIG on February 26, 1974. By an order of the Indiana Public Service Commission dated January 4, 1974 in Cause No. 33543, SIG has been authorized to effect its rates, rules and regulations applicable to electric service in the area formerly served by New Harmony.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before March 29, 1974. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

[Docket No. CP74-229]

TEXAS EASTERN TRANSMISSION CORP. AND CONSOLIDATED GAS SUPPLY CORP.

Notice of Application

MARCH 15, 1974.

Take notice that on March 6, 1974, Texas Eastern Transmission Corp. (Texas Eastern), P.O. Box 2521, Houston, Texas 77001, and Consolidated Gas Supply Corp. (Consolidated), 445 West Main Street, Clarksburg, West Virginia 26301, filed in Docket No. CP74-229 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing Applicants to exchange natural gas, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicants request authorization to exchange up to 10,000 Mcf of natural gas per day through existing facilities pursuant to an exchange agreement between them dated October 19, 1973. Applicants state that the subject exchange is part of an interrelated exchange of gas between Texas Eastern and Consolidated and a gas transportation arrangement between Consolidated and Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corp. (Transco).

Pursuant to the October 19, 1973, agreement, Texas Eastern will receive volumes of gas, produced or purchased by Consolidated in the Choudrant Field, Lincoln Parish, Louisiana, and will redeliver equivalent volumes of gas to Transco, for Consolidated's account, at a proposed interconnection in Beauregard Parish, Louisiana.[1] Transco will transport and redeliver equivalent volumes to Consolidated at an existing connection with Consolidated near Leidy, Pennsylvania, under the terms its FPC Rate Schedule X-48 previously authorized in Docket No. CP72-244.

The application states that initial deliveries under the agreement are estimated to be 2,500 Mcf of gas per day with daily deliveries of gas by Consolidated to Texas Eastern to be approximately equal to deliveries by Texas Eastern to Transco and by Transco to Consolidated. Imbalances in deliveries will be corrected within 30 days or a mutually agreeable longer period.

The application states further that Consolidated owns or has the right to purchase approximately 41 percent of the reserves underlying the Paul E. Blackmon Well No. 1 and a 34 percent interest in the reserves underlying the Ambrose Well No. 1 in Choudrant Field and plans to drill several additional wells in said field but has no transmission facilities in the vicinity. Texas Eastern which is purchasing the previously dedicated interest in the Blackmon well has available capacity to exchange the proposed Consolidated gas volumes. Applicants state that operation of the proposed gas exchange in conjunction with the interrelated transportation of gas by Transco, will enable Consolidated to attach these needed gas supplies.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said Application should on or before April 8, 1974, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

KENNETH F. PLUMB,
Secretary.

[1] Applicants state that an application has been filed for certificate authorization which will add an additional exchange point to the exchange service authorized under Texas Eastern's FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 2, Rate Schedule X-14, to allow for the delivery of the subject exchange quantities or to allow for such delivery at existing points under said Rate Schedule X-14.

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

AMERICAN BANCORPORATION, INC. AND JACOB SCHMIDT CO.

Order Approving Acquisition of Bank

American Bancorporation, Inc., and Jacob Schmidt Company, both of St. Paul, Minnesota (hereinafter jointly referred to as "Applicant"), are bank holding companies within the meaning of the Bank Holding Company Act, and have applied for the Board's approval under section 3(a)(3) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(a)(3)) for American Bancorporation to acquire 92.49 percent of the voting shares (less directors' qualifying shares) of First Burnsville State Bank, Burnsville, Minnesota ("Bank"). Jacob Schmidt Company, which owns 51.4 percent of American Bancorporation, Inc.'s outstanding voting stock, would acquire indirect control of Bank.

Notice of the applications, affording opportunity for interested persons to submit comments and views, has been given in accordance with section 3(b) of the Act. The time for filing comments and views has expired, and the Board has considered the applications and all comments received in light of the factors set forth in section 3(c) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)).

Applicant controls four banks with aggregate deposits of $264 million, representing 2.3 percent of the total commercial bank deposits in the State, and is the fourth largest banking organization and bank holding company in Minnesota.[1] Acquisition of Bank ($3.1 million in deposits) would have an insignificant effect upon the concentration of banking resources in the State.

Bank, the only commercial bank in Burnsville, is located in a rapidly growing area 15 miles south of downtown Minneapolis. The relevant market area is the Minneapolis-St. Paul SMSA in which Applicant has two banking subsidiaries, each of which is about 16 miles northeast of Bank, in the St. Paul central business district. There is no substantial existing competition between Applicant's present banking subsidiaries and Bank and, for several reasons, including the distances involved, the presence of banking alternatives in the intervening areas, and Minnesota's prohibition against branch banking, there is no substantial likelihood of future competition developing between those subsidiaries and Bank. For similar reasons, there is no significant possibility of substantial competition developing between Bank and Applicant's other banking subsidiaries, the closest of which is located over 50 miles southeast of Bank.

Moreover, consummation of this transaction might have a beneficial effect on competition in the Minneapolis-St. Paul banking market, in which two bank holding company groups (First Bank System and Northwest Bancorporation) hold, in the aggregate, over 68 percent of the deposits. Acquisition of Bank would increase Applicant's share of market deposits by 0.1 percentage point and would give it a service outlet in an area of the Twin Cities in which it is presently not represented. Thus, acquisition of Bank might enable Applicant to provide more effective competition for the much larger banking organizations in the Minneapolis-St. Paul banking market with which it must compete. On the basis of the record before it, the Board concludes that consummation of the proposed acquisition would not adversely affect competition in any relevant area.

Considerations relating to the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of Applicant, its subsidiary banks, and Bank are regarded as satisfactory and consistent with approval of the applications. The Burnsville community might benefit as a result of Bank's improved ability, through the capacity of Applicant's system, to serve the growing credit needs of the area more effectively. It is the Board's judgment that consummation of the proposed acquisition would be in the public interest and that the applications should be approved.

On the basis of the record, the applications are approved for the reasons summarized above. The transaction shall not be made (a) before the thirtieth calendar day following the effective date of this Order, or (b) later than three months after the effective date of this Order, unless such period is extended for good cause by the Board, or by the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis pursuant to delegated authority.

By order of the Board of Governors,[2] effective March 15, 1974.

Assistant Secretary of the Board.

CHEMICAL NEW YORK CORP.

Proposed Acquisition of The Galbreath Mortgage Co.

Chemical New York Corporation, New York, New York, has applied, pursuant to section 4(c)(8) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(c)(8)) and § 225.4(b)(2) of the Board's Regulation Y, for permission to acquire voting shares of The Galbreath Mortgage Company, Columbus, Ohio. Notices of the application were published in newspapers of general circulation in the communities to be served by the proposed subsidiary.

Applicant states that the proposed subsidiary would engage in the following activities: the origination, placement, and servicing of commercial, residential and income property loans; acting as agent with regard to credit accident and health insurance directly related to extensions of credit; making equity investments in corporations designed to promote community welfare; and providing data processing services for its internal operations and excess computer facilities to others. Such activities have been specified by the Board in § 225.4(a) of Regulation Y as permissible for bank holding companies, subject to Board approval of individual proposals in accordance with the procedures of § 225.4(b).

Interested persons may express their views on the question whether consummation of the proposal can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices." Any request for a hearing on this question should be accompanied by a statement summarizing the evidence the person requesting the hearing proposes to submit or to elicit at the hearing and a statement of the reasons why this matter should not be resolved without a hearing.

The application may be inspected at the offices of the Board of Governors or at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

Any views or requests for hearing should be summitted in writing and received by the Secretary, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551, not later than April 12, 1974.

L & L HOLDING CO.

Amended Order

By Order dated September 21, 1972, the Board approved an application of L & L Holding Company, Fort Collins, Colorado, to become a bank holding company through acquisition of 56 percent or more of the voting shares of Rocky Mountain Bank and Trust Company, Fort Collins, Colorado (37 FR 20603, September 30, 1972). The Order stated that "the Board has determined that the offers to be made to majority and minority shareholders, while not identical, are substantially equivalent".

Applicant requests relief from the obligation to make an equal offer to all shareholders of Rocky Mountain Bank and Trust Company in view of the October 12, 1973, amendment of the Board's Rules Regarding Delegation of Authority, which removed the requirement that Reserve Banks, in reviewing applications for the formation of a bank holding company or for the acquisition of an additional bank by an established bank holding company, take into consideration whether an equal offer will be extended to all shareholders of the bank to be acquired (12 CFR 265.2(f)(22)).

The Board has concluded that the request should be granted. The Board's Order of September 21, 1972, is hereby amended by deleting the finding that "the offers to be made to majority and minority shareholders, while not identical, are substantially equivalent."

By order of the Board of Governors,[1] effective March 15, 1974.

MERCANTILE BANCORPORATION, INC.

Order Approving Acquisition of Bank

Mercantile Bancorporation, Inc., St. Louis, Missouri, a bank holding company within the meaning of the Bank Holding Company Act, has applied for the Board's approval under section 3(a)(3) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(a)(3)) to acquire 100 percent of the voting shares (less directors' qualifying shares) of Mercantile National Bank of Clay County ("Bank"), Kansas City, Missouri, a proposed new bank.

Notice of the application, affording opportunity for interested persons to submit comments and views, has been given in accordance with section 3(b) of the Act. The time for filing comments and views has expired, and the Board has considered the application and all comments received, including those on behalf of North Hills Bank, First National Bank of Gladstone, North Kansas City State Bank, Bank of Riverside, and Metro North State Bank (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Protestants") in light of the factors set forth in section 3(c) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)).

Applicant, the largest banking organization and bank holding company in Missouri, controls 15 banks with aggregate deposits of approximately $1.2 billion, which represent 9.2 percent of total commercial bank deposits in the State.[2] Since Bank is a proposed new bank, its acquisition would neither eliminate any existing competition nor immediately increase Applicant's share of commercial bank deposits.

Bank will be located in a rapidly growing residential area in the northern part of the Kansas City banking market.[3] It is anticipated that Bank will serve primarily southeast Platte County and southwest Clay County. Due in part to the proximity of the new Kansas City International Airport, it is expected that Bank's proposed service area will continue to experience a steady growth in population with an attendant need for additional sources for banking services.[4] While Applicant has three banking subsidiaries in the market and is the fifth largest banking organization therein, Applicant controls only 3.3 percent of market deposits. Under such circumstances, the formation of a new bank is viewed as an attempt to provide additional banking services to a growing area and, from the facts of record, is not regarded as an attempt to preempt a market.

Protestants contend generally that approval of this application would have such adverse competitive consequences as to merit denial of the application. In support of their contention, Protestants claim the relevant market for determining the competitive effects of the proposal is a funnel-shaped area, described as an area with the central business district of Kansas City, Missouri, at the neck of the funnel and then widening to include the southern parts of Platte and Clay Counties. Even assuming Protestants' determination of the relevant market were appropriate, the Board's competitive analysis would not be altered, since Applicant is only the fourth largest banking organization in the described area with only 5.5 percent of the area's deposits. In a related matter, Protestants contend that an investigation is warranted into whether the larger bank holding companies in Missouri have conspired to divide territories and markets and monopolize banking in Missouri. However, in the Board's view, Protestants offer no substantial evidence to support such contentions, nor do the facts of record indicate that Applicant is acting in consort with any other bank holding company in Missouri. On the other hand, it appears that each of the State's five largest bank holding companies is in active completion with one another in the Kansas City banking market and, even in the market delineated by Protestants, three of the State's largest bank holding companies (including Applicant) either have or propose to have subsidiary banks in competition with one another. On this basis, the Board is unable to conclude that such banking organizations have conspired to lessen competition or to monopolize banking in the relevant area.

In the course of its review of this application the Board has also considered the comments from Protestants to the effect that affiliation of Applicant with Bank would be in violation of the Missouri statute prohibiting branch banking. The Board notes that the Comptroller of the Currency has recommended approval of the pending application and that his office has granted preliminary approval for the charter of Bank, apparently concluding that it would not be an illegal branch under applicable Missouri law. Furthermore, the facts of record indicate that Bank will be a separate corporation, with its own capital stock and a loan limit based on such capital stock; Bank will be managed by its own officers; Bank's board of directors will be generally separate and independent from the boards of Applicant and of Applicant's subsidiaries; and Bank will maintain its own separate books of account, issue its own distinctive checks, and use its own stationery. Applicant states that no officers or employees of its other banking subsidiaries will perform services directly for customers of Bank, nor exercise any managerial supervision over the business of Bank. Applicant represents further that it will purchase Bank's shares through use of its own capital resources. Finally, Applicant states that money deposited at Bank will not be credited to the account of a depositor at any other banking subsidiary of Applicant and, conversely, any money deposited at any other banking subsidiary of Applicant will not be credited to the account of a depositor at Bank. The Board concludes, on the basis of the above and other facts of record, that Applicant is a "traditionally recognized bank holding company which, with its own capital, invests in or buys the stock of banks," Whitney National Bank v. Bank of New Orleans, 323 F.2d 290 (D.C. Cir. 1963), rev'd on other grounds, 379 U.S. 411 (1965) and that, upon consummation of the proposed acquisition, a unitary operation will not exist between Bank and any of Applicant's other banking subsidiaries in contravention of Missouri's branching law.

The financial condition, management, and prospects of Applicant and its subsidiary banks are regarded as satisfactory. As a new bank, Bank has no operating financial history; however, its proposed capitalization, management, and prospects appear satisfactory. The Board concludes that the banking factors are consistent with approval. Considerations relating to the convenience and needs of the community to be served lend some weight toward approval since Bank will provide an additional source of full banking services in a rapidly growing area. It is the Board's judgment that consummation of the proposed acquisition would be in the public interest and that the application should be approved.

On the basis of the record, the application is approved for the reasons summarized above. The transaction shall not be made (a) before the thirtieth calendar day following the effective date of this Order or (b) later than three months after that date, and (c) Mercantile National Bank of Clay County, Kansas City, Missouri, shall be opened for business not later than six months after the effective date of this Order. Each of the periods described in (b) and (c) may be extended for good cause by the Board, or by the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis pursuant to delegated authority.

Formation of Bank Holding Company

Redline Insurance, Inc., WaKeeney, Kansas, has applied for the Board's approval under section 3(a)(1) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(a)(1)) to become a bank holding company through acquisition of 36.7 percent of the voting shares of The Trego-WaKeeney State Bank, WaKeeney, Kansas. The factors that are considered in acting on the application are set forth in section 3(c) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)).

THIRD NATIONAL CORP.

Order Approving Acquisition of Bank

Third National Corporation, Nashville, Tennessee, a bank holding company within the meaning of the Bank Holding Company Act, has applied for the Board's approval under section 3(a)(3) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(a)(3)) to acquire 40 percent or more of the voting shares of The Bank of Sevierville ("Bank"), Sevierville, Tennessee.

Notice of the application, affording opportunity for interested persons to submit comments and views, has been given in accordance with section 3(b) of the Act. The time for filing comments and views has expired, and the Board has considered the application and all comments received in light of the factors set forth in section 3(c) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)).

Applicant controls five banks with aggregate deposits of approximately $794 million, representing 7.5 percent of total commercial bank deposits in Tennessee, and is the fifth largest banking organization and bank holding company in that State.[1] Acquisition of Bank ($24.5 million in deposits) would increase Applicant's share of Statewide deposits by less than 0.3 percentage points, without a significant increase in banking concentration in the State.

Acquisition of Bank would represent Applicant's initial entry into Sevier County, the relevant banking market. Bank is the largest of five banks in the market, accounting for 37.4 percent of market deposits. The second and third largest banks in the market hold 27.6 and 25.2 percent, respectively, of area deposits. Applicant's closest banking subsidiary is located 28 miles northwest of Bank, in Knoxville. No significant competition exists between Bank and Applicant's Knoxville subsidiary, or any of Applicant's other banking subsidiaries. De novo entry by Applicant is unlikely in view of the fact that population per banking office and deposits per banking office in Sevier County are below Statewide averages. Furthermore, it does not appear that significant future competition would develop between Bank and Applicant's banking subsidiaries in view of the distances involved, presence of intervening banks, the State laws restricting branching, and other facts of record. It is the Board's judgment that competitive considerations are consistent with approval of the application.

The financial and managerial resources and future prospects of Applicant, its subsidiaries, and Bank are regarded as generally satisfactory and consistent with approval of the application. Although there is no evidence in the record to indicate that the banking needs of the area are currently not being met, Applicant proposes to make trust and other specialized services available to Bank's customers. Also, affiliation with Applicant will eliminate any management succession problems Bank might otherwise experience. Considerations relating to the convenience and needs of the communities to be served lend weight toward approval of the application. It is the Board's judgment that consummation of the proposed transaction would be in the public interest and that the application should be approved.

AMERICAN ELECTRIC POWER COMPANY, INC.

Notice of Proposed Amendment To Increase Authorized Shares of Common Stock and Order Authorizing Solicitation of Proxies

MARCH 14, 1974.

Notice is hereby given that American Electric Power Company, Inc., ("AEP"), 2 Broadway, New York, New York 10004, a registered holding company, has filed a declaration with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), designating Sections 6(a), 7, and 12(e) of the Act and Rule 62 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the following proposed transactions. All interested persons are referred to the declaration, which is summarized below, for a complete statement of the proposed transactions.

AEP proposes to submit to its stockholders at an annual meeting to be held April 24, 1974, a proposal to amend its Certificate of Incorporation to increase from 80,000,000 to 100,000,000 the aggregate number of authorized shares of common stock, par value $6.50 per share. It is contemplated that the additional shares of authorized stock, the issuance and sale of which are to be the subject of future filings with this Commission, will be used (a) to retire AEP's notes to banks and commercial paper, heretofore authorized, (b) for equity investments in its operating subsidiary companies, and (c) to permit the acquisition of operating properties or securities of one or more public-utility companies. The proposed amendment will require the affirmative vote of the holders of the majority of the 66,000,000 outstanding shares of common stock. AEP proposes to solicit proxies, which are to be mailed on or about March 14, 1974, the date of record for voting eligibility, from its common stockholders to obtain the requisite approval of the proposed amendment. AEP also proposes to solicit proxies with respect to the election of directors, the appointment of independent auditors, and other matters properly coming before the meeting. The company intends to make telephonic, telegraphic or personal solicitation to some stockholders through its officers and regular employees.

The fees and expenses of AEP to be paid in connection with the proposed amendment are estimated not to exceed $90,000, including a state organization tax of $65,000. It is stated that no state commission and no federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions. AEP has filed its proxy solicitation material and requests that the effectiveness of its declaration with respect to the solicitation be accelerated as provided in Rule 62.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 12, 1974, request in writing that a hearing be held with respect to the proposed amendment of the Certificate of Incorporation, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by said declaration which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request should be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the declarant at the above-stated address, and proof of service (by affidavit or, in case of an attorney at law, by certificate) should be filed with the request. At any time after said date, the declaration, as filed or as it may be amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule 23 of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated under the Act, or the Commission may grant exemption from such rules as provided in Rules 20(a) and 100 thereof or take such other action as it may deem appropriate. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

It appearing that the declaration regarding the proposed solicitation of proxies should be permitted to become effective forthwith pursuant to Rule 62:

It is ordered, That the declaration regarding the proposed solicitation of proxies be, and it hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith pursuant to Rule 62 and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule 24 under the Act.

For the Commission, by the Division of Corporate Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

BLANCHARD, BEIFUSS & JOHNSON FINANCIAL SERVICES, INC.

Order Temporarily Suspending Exemption, and Notice of Opportunity for Hearing

MARCH 14, 1974.

I. Blanchard, Beifuss & Johnson Financial Services, Incorporated ("BBJ") is a California corporation located at 2166 Moorpark Road, Thousand Oaks, California 91360. It was organized on April 18, 1969, to operate as an insurance agency for Option Capital Corporation, 234 East Colorado Street, Suite 301, Pasadena, California 91101.

On October 6, 1969 BBJ filed a notification pursuant to Regulation A in connection with a proposed public offering of 30,000 shares of its $1.00 par value common stock at $3.00 per share. The "20,000 shares-or-none" best efforts offering was to be conducted by the company through its officers and directors without the use of an underwriter. The offering commenced on November 18, 1969 and was purportedly terminated on August 17, 1970.

II. The Commission, on the basis of information reported to it by its staff, has reasonable cause to believe that:

A. The Notification and Offering Circular, as amended, contain untrue statements of material facts and omit to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading in the following respects:

1. The plan of distribution;
2. The terms of the offering; and
3. The failure to disclose that Securities Clearing Corporation, Robert M. Wildermuth, Richard L. Wagner and Edward A. Williams were promoters and would participate in the offering as underwriters.

B. The terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been met in the following respects:

1. The Form 2-A Report failed to indicate that the distribution was continuing subsequent to the reported completion date of the Regulation A offering;
2. The offering circular failed to accurately state the terms of the offering, including the fact that securities would be placed in nominee accounts and the type of consideration to be received; and,
3. The offering circular and notification failed to list Securities Clearing Corporation, Robert M. Wildermuth, Richard L. Wagner and Edward A. Williams as promoters and underwriters.

C. The offering was made in violation of Section 17 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

III. It appearing to the Commission that it is in the public interest and for the protection of investors that the exemption of Blanchard, Beifuss & Johnson Financial Services, Incorporated under Regulation A be temporarily suspended,

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 261(a) of the General Rules and Regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption of the issuer under Regulation A be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended.

It is further ordered, Pursuant to Rule 7 of the Commission's Rules of Practice, that the issuer file an answer to the allegations contained in the order within thirty days of the entry thereof.

Notice is hereby given that any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for a hearing within thirty days after the entry of this order; that within twenty days after receipt of such request the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; and that notice of the time and place for the said hearing will be promptly given by the Commission. If no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the Commission, the order shall become permanent on the thirtieth

UTAH POWER & LIGHT CO.

Notice of Proposed Issue and Sale of Preferred Stock

MARCH 15, 1974.

Notice is hereby given that Utah Power & Light Company ("Utah"), 1407 West North Temple Street, P.O. Box 899, Salt Lake City, Utah 84110, an electric utility company and a registered holding company, has filed a declaration with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), designating sections 6(a) and 7 of the Act and Rule 50 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transaction. All interested persons are referred to the declaration, which is summarized below, for a complete statement of the proposed transaction.

Utah proposes to issue and sell, subject to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule 50 under the Act, 1,400,000 shares of its Cumulative Preferred Stock, Series F, par value $25 per share. The dividend rate of the preferred stock (which shall be a multiple of $0.02) and the price, exclusive of accrued dividends, to be paid to Utah (which shall be not less than $25 nor more than $25.70 per share) will be determined by the competitive bidding. The terms of the preferred stock will include a prohibition until May 1, 1979, against refunding the preferred stock, directly or indirectly, with funds derived from the issuance of debt securities at a lower effective interest cost or other preferred stocks at a lower effective dividend cost.

The proceeds from the sale of the preferred stock will be applied to the payment of outstanding short-term notes (estimated at $55,000,000) evidencing borrowings made for construction purposes. The construction program for Utah and its subsidiary company, The Western Colorado Power Company, for the years 1974–1976, inclusive, is estimated at $453,000,000 of which $94,000,000 is expected to be used in 1974.

The declaration states that the fees and expenses to be incurred by Utah in connection with the issue and sale of the preferred stock are estimated at $65,000, including fees of company counsel of $15,000 and auditors' fees of $7,500. The fees of counsel for the underwriters, which are to be paid by the successful bidders, are to be filed by amendment. Utah has applied to the Public Service Commission of Wyoming and the Idaho Public Utilities Commission for requisite authority to effectuate the proposed transaction. It is stated that no other state commission and no federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 10, 1974, request in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by said declaration which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request should be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the declarant at the above-stated address, and proof of service (by affidavit or, in case of an attorney at law, by certificate) should be filed with the request. At any time after said date, the declaration, as filed or as it may be amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule 23 of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated under the Act, or the Commission may grant exemption from such rules as provided in Rules 20(a) and 100 thereof or take such other action as it may deem appropriate. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the Commission, by the Division of Corporate Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

WESTERN MASSACHUSETTS ELECTRIC CO.

Notice of Proposal To Issue and Sell First Mortgage Bonds

MARCH 15, 1974.

Notice is hereby given that the Western Massachusetts Electric Company ("WMECO"), 174 Brush Hill Avenue, West Springfield, Massachusetts 01089, an electric utility subsidiary company of Northeast Utilities, a registered holding company, has filed an application with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), designating Section 6(b) of the Act and Rule 50 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the following proposed transaction. All interested parties are referred to said application, which is summarized below, for a complete statement of the proposed transaction.

WMECO proposes to issue and sell, at competitive bidding, $30 million principal amount of its first mortgage bonds, Series K ("Bonds"), due April 1, 2004. The interest rate, which shall be a multiple of 1/8 of 1%, and the price, which will be not less than 100% nor more than 102.75% of the principal amount thereof, will be determined by competitive bidding. The bonds will be issued under the First Mortgage Indenture and Deed of Trust dated as of August 1, 1954 ("Indenture") between WMECO and The First National Bank of Boston, Trustee, as supplemented and amended from time to time, and as further supplemented by a supplemental indenture to be dated April 1, 1974 ("Supplemental Indenture"). The Supplemental Indenture provides, among other things, that bonds shall not be redeemed at the applicable general redemption price prior to April 1, 1979, from the proceeds of borrowings secured by WMECO at an effective interest cost to WMECO of less than the effective interest cost of the bonds.

The application states that WMECO will use the net proceeds from the sale of bonds, together with a capital contribution of $10 million which Northeast Utilities made in January, 1974, to repay short-term borrowings incurred for the purpose of financing WMECO's construction program (estimated to total $50 million for 1974). Such short-term borrowings will aggregate an estimated $50 million at the time of the aforementioned sale.

A statement of the fees, commissions and expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with the proposed transaction will be supplied by amendment. The approval of the Department of Public Utilities of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts is required for the issuance of the bonds. No other State commission, and no Federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than April 8, 1974, request in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by said application which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request should be served personally or by mail (air mail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon the applicant of the above-stated address, and proof of service (by affidavit or, in case of an attorney-at-law, by certificate) should be filed with the request. At any time after said date, the application, as filed or as it may be amended, may be granted as provided in Rule 23 of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated under the Act, or the Commission may grant exemption from such rules as provided in Rules 20(a) and 100 thereof or take such other action as it may deem appropriate. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

[Docket No. 50-293]

BOSTON EDISON CO.

Order for Prehearing Conference

In the matter of Boston Edison Co., (Pilgrim Nuclear Power Station, Unit 1).

By its "Notice of Hearing" issued on March 20, 1974, this Atomic Safety and Licensing Board determined that a hearing would be held in the subject proceeding and that Mr. Daniel F. Ford would be admitted as an intervenor therein. That notice was the result of the Board's consideration of Mr. Ford's Petition to Intervene and the responses to that Petition made by both the Applicant and the Regulatory Staff.

The Regulatory Staff has also submitted to us its "Motion for Leave to Respond to Applicant's Answer to the Petition to Intervene of Daniel F. Ford." In this document the Staff urges, for the reasons set forth therein, that the Board establish a schedule which will result in completion of the hearing and issuance of the Board's initial decision within thirty days from the date of the Notice of Hearing. In the Board's view, there can be no reasonable basis upon which to establish a schedule for completing this matter until after the precise issues to be decided have been determined. These issues will be determined following utilization of appropriate prehearing conference procedures. Accordingly, the Board hereby orders and directs the parties and their representatives to appear at a prehearing conference to be held at the Suffolk County Courthouse, Courtroom 306, 3rd Floor, Pemberton Square, Boston, Massachusetts, on March 29, 1974, at 9:30 a.m., local time. The purposes of this conference shall be to: (1) Permit identification of the key issues in the proceeding; (2) take any steps necessary for further identification of the issues; (3) consider petitions for intervention in the proceeding; and (4) establish a schedule for further actions in the proceeding. In addition to the purposes specified above, the conference will also deal with such of the matters stated in § 2.752 of the Commission's rules of practice (10 CFR Part 2, § 2.752) as may be appropriate.

It is so ordered.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 20th day of March, 1974.

ATOMIC SAFETY AND LICENSING BOARD,
EDWARD LUTON,
Chairman.

[Docket No. 50-293]

BOSTON EDISON CO.

Further Determination With Respect to Pilgrim Nuclear Power Station

On December 17, 1973, the Director of Regulation issued a "Determination and Order with Respect to Further Action Regarding Pilgrim Nuclear Power Station." In that Determination, which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on December 26, 1973 (38 FR 35239), the Director of Regulation ordered the Boston Edison Co. (the "licensee"), not later than the week commencing December 23, 1973, to shut down the Pilgrim Nuclear Power Station and to maintain that facility in a safe shutdown condition pending a finding by the Directorate of Licensing that any channel box damage in the facility had been repaired and the cause of any such damage corrected. The Determination further provided that the licensee could, within 20 days of receipt of the determination or within 30 days from the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, whichever was later, request a hearing. Provision was also made for permitting any interested person to file a petition for leave to intervene.

On December 28, 1973, the Director of Licensing was advised that the Pilgrim Nuclear Power Station had been shut down and was being maintained in a safe shutdown condition. On February 8, 1974, the licensee transmitted to the Directorate of Licensing a "Summary Report on the Pilgrim Channel Wear Investigation and Corrective Measures Taken," dated January 1974. The cause of the wear, which was discussed in the "Safety Evaluation by the Directrate of Licensing, U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, Relating to Channel Box Wear in the Vermont Yankee Nuclear Power Station and the Pilgrim Nuclear Power Station," dated October 26, 1973, was confirmed to be vibration of the temporary control curtains due to the high velocity flow of coolant existing from bypass flow holes in the core support plate. The licensee's Summary Report went on to describe the actions taken to repair the damage and prevent its recurrence. These actions consisted generally of replacing all worn channels and plugging the bypass flow holes in the core plate.

V 39 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

Concurrent with the issuance of this Determination, the AEC Regulatory Staff has issued a "Safety Evaluation by the Directorate of Licensing, Boston Edison Company, Docket No. 50-293," setting forth the AEC Regulatory Staff's conclusion, based on observations of the fuel channels and the control curtains at the Pilgrim plant and the flow tests performed at GE, that the observed damage was caused by flow-induced vibration of the control curtains, and that such damage to the Pilgrim reactor can be prevented in the future by plugging the bypass flow holes, the source of the flow which vibrates the curtains. All of the fuel channels which are adjacent to a control curtain stiffener and therefore subject to possible damage by vibration of the curtain have been inspected. In addition, approximately 12 percent of the remaining fuel channels have been inspected. Based on these inspections, all channels which experienced wear of greater than 0.010 inch have been replaced with new fuel channels. The Staff also concludes that the design and installation of the bypass plugs as performed by the licensee do not present a significant hazards consideration and there is reasonable assurance that the health and safety of the public will not be endangered by operation of the reactor in the proposed manner.

Accordingly, the Director of Regulation has determined that the channel box damage in the facility has been repaired and the cause of the damage corrected. No request for a hearing has been received and no petition for leave to intervene has been filed with respect to the December 17 Determination and Order of the Director of Regulation. The licensee may resume operation of the Pilgrim facility in accordance with the provisions of the license upon the issuance of changes to the technical specifications authorizing operation of the facility using a partial loading of 8x8 fuel and authorizing changes to the limiting conditions for operation associated with fuel densification for the 8x8 and 7x7 fuels, which is the subject of a separate proceeding (39 FR 4798). The reasons supporting this determination are set forth in detail in the Directorate of Licensing's Safety Evaluation, dated March, 1974.

On or before April 22, 1974, the licensee may file a request for a hearing with respect to the action authorized and any person whose interest is affected may file a petition for leave to intervene. Requests for a hearing and petitions for leave to intervene shall be filed in accordance with the Commission's "rules of practice" in 10 CFR Part 2.

Copies of the March 1974 Safety Evaluation and the licensee's "Summary Report on the Pilgrim Channel Wear Investigation and Corrective Measures Taken," dated January 1974, are being made available at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street, NW., Washington, D.C., and at the Plymouth Public Library, North Street, Plymouth, Massachusetts. A single copy of the Safety Evaluation may be obtained upon request directed to the Director of Licensing, United States Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, D.C. 20545.

Dated at Bethesda, Maryland, this 20th day of March 1974.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

L. MANNING MUNTZING,
Director of Regulation.

COMMISSION ON THE REVIEW OF THE NATIONAL POLICY TOWARD GAMBLING

NOTICE OF MEETING

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Pub. L. 92-463, 86 Stat. 770), notice is hereby given that the Commission on the Review of the National Policy Toward Gambling, established under the authority of section Pub. L. 91-452, Part D, Sec. 804-808 of the Organized Crime Control Act of 1970, will meet on April 2, 1974, at 4:30 p.m. in Room 1114, Dirksen Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C.

The preliminary agenda will include a discussion of the F.Y. 1974 and F.Y. 1975 budget allocations, the Fact Research, Inc. proposal, social science proposals, a chronological update of Commission activities following the January 30, 1974 meeting, and an explanation of hearing procedures.

The meeting of the Commission will be open to the public, and interested persons are invited to attend. The rules of procedure for person or persons presenting matters to the Commission are subject to the following conditions:

(a) Any such interested person or persons must receive authorization to present such matters from the Chairman of the Commission. Not later than seven (7) days preceding such Executive or Public Hearings, a request for such authorization must be received in writing at the offices of the Commission. Such a request shall be accompanied by a concise description of the material which such person or persons desire to present to the Commission or Subcommittee.

(b) The Chairman of the Commission shall, within three (3) days from the receipt of such a request make a determination that the subject matter presented by such interested person or persons is timely and appropriate for such Executive or Public Hearings of the Commission or Subcommittee thereof, and shall notify such interested person or persons by Certified Mail of the decision.

(c) In the event such interested person or persons is allowed to present matters to the Commission or Subcommittee thereof in Executive or Public Hearings, then a prepared written statement of expected presentation shall be filed in the office of the Commission, not later than 48 hours in advance of the hearings at which the statement is to be presented.

(d) After the receipt of the statement of expected presentation, the Chairman shall then make a determination of the extent that time is available for such interested person or persons to present oral statements in addition thereto. In the event that the Chairman determines that time is not available for such oral statements, the interested person or persons' statement shall be recorded and made part of the subject proceedings.

(e) Provided further that any such interested person or persons who feels aggrieved by or takes exception to any of the determinations made by the Chairman of the Commission shall have the opportunity to present in writing to each member of the Commission the basis for such grievance or exception taken to such ruling by the Chairman and thereafter the decision of the Chairman shall be reconsidered by each member of the Commission at its next regular meeting or hearing. Notice by Certified Mail to such interested person or persons shall include the final decision of the full Commission on its reconsideration and shall constitute notification of the action taken by the Commission.

(f) Any deviation from the preceding requirements, shall constitute on the part of such interested person or persons, a withdrawal of any request previously made.

JAMES E. RITCHIE,
Executive Director.

THE BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD COMPANY ABANDONMENT PORTION RENICK BRANCH BETWEEN RK JUNCTION AND CHILLICOTHE, IN ROSS COUNTY, OHIO

The Interstate Commerce Commission hereby gives notice that by order dated March 12, 1974, it has been determined that the proposed abandonment of the line of The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company between RK Junction, valuation station 3749+27, and valuation station 4180+00 near Chillicothe, Ohio, a distance of approximately 8.16 miles, located in Ross County, Ohio, if approved by the Commission, would not constitute a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment within the meaning of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), 42 U.S.C. §§ 4321, et seq., and that preparation of a detailed environmental impact statement will not be required under section 4332 (2) (C) of the NEPA.

It was concluded, among other things, that the traffic which formerly moved over the involved line presently is transported over a parallel line, and the proposed abandonment will not be inconsistent with local land use plans. The determination was based upon the staff preparation and consideration of an environmental threshold assessment survey, which is available for public inspection upon request at the Interstate Commerce Commission, Office of Proceedings, Washington, D.C. 20423; telephone 202-343-6989.

Interested parties may comment on this matter by the submission of representations to the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C. 20423, on or before April 8, 1974.

[Rev. S.O. 994; I.C.C. Order No. 122]

CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND AND PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.

Rerouting or Diversion of Traffic

In the opinion of R. D. Pfahler, Agent, the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company (RI) and the Burlington Northern Inc. (BN) are unable to transport traffic over the jointly used line between Burlington, Iowa, and Mediapolis, Iowa, because of track and bridge damage.

It is ordered, That:

(a) The RI and the BN being unable to transport traffic over the jointly used line between Burlington, Iowa, and Mediapolis, Iowa, because of track and bridge damage, each of these carriers is hereby authorized to reroute or divert such traffic via any available route to expedite the movement. The billing covering all such cars rerouted shall carry a reference to this order as authority for the rerouting.

(b) Concurrence of receiving roads to be obtained. The railroad desiring to divert or reroute traffic under this order shall receive the concurrence of other railroads to which such traffic is to be diverted or rerouted, before the rerouting or diversion is ordered.

(c) Notification to shippers. Each carrier rerouting cars in accordance with this order shall notify each shipper at the time each car is rerouted or diverted and shall furnish to such shipper the new routing provided under this order.

(d) Inasmuch as the diversion or rerouting of traffic is deemed to be due to carrier disability, the rates applicable to traffic diverted or rerouted by said Agent shall be the rates which were applicable at the time of shipment on the shipments as originally routed.

(e) In executing the directions of the Commission and of such Agent provided for in this order, the common carriers involved shall proceed even though no contracts, agreements, or arrangements now exist between them with reference to the division of the rates of transportation applicable to said traffic. Divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, those voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; or upon failure of the carriers to so agree, said divisions shall be those hereafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act.

(f) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 4:30 p.m., March 8, 1974.

(g) Expiration date. This order shall expire at 11:59 p.m., March 25, 1974, unless otherwise modified, changed, or suspended.

It is further ordered, That this order shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of all railroads subscribing to the car service and care hire agreement under the terms of that agreement, and upon the American Short Line Railroad Association; and that it be filed with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

Tentative Valuation

Notice is hereby given that a tentative valuation for the year 1972, Valuation Docket No. 1384, is under consideration for a common carrier by pipeline, the Minnesota Pipe Line Co., P.O. Box 2256, Wichita, Kansas 67201.

On or before April 18, 1974, persons other than those specifically designated in section 19a(h) of the Interstate Commerce Act having an interest in the valuation of the carrier named above may, pursuant to rule 72 of the Commission's general rules of practice (49 CFR 1100.–72), file an original and three copies of a petition for leave to intervene and, if granted, thus to come within the category of "additional parties as the Commission may prescribe" under section 19a(h) of the act, thereby enabling the party to file a protest. It is also required that a copy of the petition to intervene be served at the address shown above upon the carrier and that an appropriate certificate of service be attached to the petition. Persons specifically designated in section 19a(h) of the act need not file a petition; they are entitled to file protest as a matter of right under the statute.

MOTOR CARRIER APPLICATIONS AND CERTAIN OTHER PROCEEDINGS

MARCH 19, 1974.

The following publications (except as otherwise specifically noted, each applicant (on applications filed after March 27, 1972) states that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of its application), are governed by the new Special Rule 1100.247 of the Commission's rules of practice, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, issue of December 3, 1963, which became effective January 1, 1964.

The publications hereinafter set forth reflect the scope of the applications as filed by applicant, and may include descriptions, restrictions, or limitations which are not in a form acceptable to the Commission. Authority which ultimately may be granted as a result of the applications here noticed will not necessarily reflect the phraseology set forth in the application as filed, but also will eliminate any restrictions which are not acceptable by the Commission.

[No. AB–55 (Sub-No. 1)]

THE SEABOARD COAST LINE RAILROAD COMPANY ABANDONMENT BETWEEN CHEMICAL AND TRILBY, FLA.

The Interstate Commerce Commission hereby gives notice that by order dated March 13, 1974, it has determined that the proposed abandonment in the above-entitled proceeding by the Seaboard Coast Line Railroad Company between Chemical and Trilby, Fla., if approved by the Commission, would not constitute a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment within the meaning of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), 42 U.S.C. sections 4321, et seq., and that preparation of a detailed environmental impact statement will not be required under section 4332(2)(C) of the NEPA.

It was concluded, among other things, that the proposed abandonment, if approved, would be consistent with land use plans in the area. The land along the line is very rural, and there are no major development plans. Traffic on the line has decreased to a point of being almost non-existent, and there is adequate alternative rail service in the area. The determination was based upon the staff preparation and consideration of an environmental threshold assessment survey, which is available for public inspection upon request to the Interstate Commerce Commission, Office of Proceedings, Washington, D.C. 20423, telephone 202–343–6989.

Interested parties may comment on this matter by the submission of representations to the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C. 20423, on or before April 8, 1974.

Low Rent Housing Homeownership Opportunities

V 39 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

Title 24—Housing and Urban Development

CHAPTER VIII—DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT (LOW RENT PUBLIC HOUSING)

[Docket No. R-74-218]

PART 1270—LOW RENT HOUSING HOMEOWNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

On October 9, 1973, Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations was amended to add a new Part 1270, entitled "Low Rent Housing Homeownership Opportunities." The Department is republishing Part 1270 in order to correct the printing errors in the final publication and to clarify certain technical provisions. The technical changes clarify the procedures to be followed by the local housing authority when a homebuyer family loses its potential for homeownership (see § 1270.107(o)), and when the only surviving occupants of a homebuyer family are minor children (see § 1270.107(1)(3)). The changes are as follows:

1–5. On page 27889, first and second columns, Subpart B, insert periods after "§ 1270.108 Break-Even Amount," "1270.110 Earned Home Payments Account (EHPA)", and "1270.111 Nonroutine Maintenance Reserve (NRMR)" to conform to others in the series.

6. On page 27889, second column, Subpart A, second line, change "Ownership" to "Homeownership".

7. On page 27889, third column, § 1270.101(b)(2), fourteenth line, change "Subpart" to "subpart".

8. On page 27889, third column, § 1270.101(b)(3), change "Homebuyers" to "homebuyers".

9. On page 27889, third column, paragraph (3)(i), second line, insert a quotation mark before "Special".

10. Page 27890, first column, § 1270.102(a), change the period at the end to a semicolon and add the following:

Provided, however, That in the case of a development that is organized as a condominium or a planned unit development (PUD) the term "common property" shall have the meaning established by the condominium or PUD documents and the State law pursuant to which the condominium or PUD is organized, under the terms "common areas," "common facilities," "common elements," "common estate," or other similar terms.

11. On page 27890, first column, last line, change "subpart C" to "Subpart D".

12. On page 27890, second column, § 1270.103(c), third line, change the first "and" to "in".

13. On page 27890, second column, § 1270.103(c), seventh line, change "support" to "support."

14. On page 27890, second column, § 1270.104(a)(2), sixth line, change "subpart" to "Subpart."

15. On page 27890, second column, § 1270.104(b)(1), sixth line, change "(6)(2)" to "(b)(2)."

16. On page 27890, second column, § 1270.104(b)(1), fourth line from end of paragraph, change "Civil Rights Act" to read "Civil Rights Acts".

17.–18. On page 27891, second column § 1270.105, second line, change "subpart" to "Subpart."

19. On page 27891, § 1270.105, twelfth line, change "ativities to "activities."

20. On page 27892, first column, § 1270.107(h), thirteenth line, change "§ 1270.13" to "§ 1270.110(j)(1)."

21. On page 27892, first column, § 1270.107(j), second line from bottom of first column, change "breakeven" to "break-even."

22. On page 27892, third column, in § 1270.107(1)(2), the final sentence is deleted.

23. On page 27892, third column, add the following to § 1270.107(1):

"(3) If there is no qualified successor in accordance with paragraph (1)(2), the LHA shall terminate the Agreement and another family shall be selected except under the following circumstances: Where a minor child or children of the homebuyer family are in occupancy, then in order to protect their continued occupancy and opportunity for acquisition of ownership of the home, the LHA may approve, as occupant(s) of the unit, an appropriate adult(s) who has been appointed legal guardian of the children with a duty to perform the obligations of the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement in their interest and behalf."

24. Page 27892, third column, § 1270.107(m) is changed by (1) deleting subparagraph (m)(2), (2) re-numbering (m)(3) to (m)(2), and (3) changing the reference on the last line in (m)(1) from (m)(3) to (m)(2).

25. Page 27892, third column, in § 1270.107(n), the words "vacates the home" are substituted for "abandons the home, or vacates it" and the word "left" is substituted for "abandoned".

26. Page 27892, third column, add the following to § 1270.107:

"(o) Transfer to rental unit. (1) Inasmuch as the homebuyer was found eligible for admission to the Project on the basis of having the necessary elements of potential for homeownership, continuation of eligibility requires continuation of this potential, subject only to temporary unforeseen changes in circumstances. Accordingly, in the event it should develop that the homebuyer no longer meets one or more of these elements of homeownership potential, the LHA shall investigate the circumstances and provide such counseling and assistance as may be feasible in order to help the family overcome the deficiency as promptly as possible. After a reasonable time, not to exceed 30 days from the date of evaluation of the results of the investigation, the LHA shall make a re-evaluation as to whether the family has regained the potential for homeownership or is likely to do so within a further reasonable time, not to exceed 30 days from the date of the re-evaluation. Further extension of time may be granted in exceptional cases, but in any event, a final determination shall be made no later than 90 days from the date of evaluation of the results of the initial investigation. The LHA shall invite the HBA to participate in all investigations and evaluations. "(2) If the final determination of the LHA, after considering the views of the HBA, is that the homebuyer should be transferred to a suitable dwelling unit in an LHA rental project, the LHA shall give the homebuyer written notice of the LHA determination of the loss of homeownership potential and of the offer of transfer to a rental unit. The notice shall state that the transfer shall occur as soon as a suitable rental unit is available for occupancy, but no earlier than 30 days from the date of the notice, provided that an eligible successor for the homebuyer unit has been selected by the LHA. The notice shall also state that if the homebuyer should refuse to move under such circumstances, the family may be required to vacate the homebuyer unit, without further notice. The notice shall include a statement (i) that the homebuyer may respond to the LHA in writing or in person, within a specified reasonable time, regarding the reason for the determination and offer of transfer, (ii) that in such response he may be represented or accompanied by a person of his choice including a representative of the HBA, and (iii) that the LHA has consulted the HBA concerning this determination and offer of transfer. "(3) When a Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement is terminated pursuant to this paragraph (o), the amount in the homebuyer's EHPA shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of § 1270.110(j)."

27. On page 27893, second column, § 1270.109(b), last line, change "§ 1270.107(j)(4)" to "§ 1270.107(j)(3)."

28. On page 27893, second column, § 1270.109(c), third from last line of (c), change "§ 1270.112" to "§ 1270.112(b)."

29. On page 27893, third column, § 1270.110(c), fifth line, change "16 or 17" to "§ 1270.113 or § 1270.115."

30. On page 27894, second column, § 1270.110(j)(1), sixth line, change "§ 1270.107(d)" to "§ 1270.107(m), (n) and (o)."

31. On page 27894, second column, § 1270.110(j)(3), fourth line, change (a)(iii) to "(j)(1)(iii)."

32. On page 27895, second column, § 1270.112(c), twelfth line, change "and" to "or" and fifteen line, change "homebuyers" to "homebuyer".

53. On page 27900, third column, paragraph 10f, second sub-paragraph, seventh line, substitute a semi-colon for the comma after "EHPAs."

54. On page 27900, third column, 10.g, delete the word "equity".

55. On page 27900, third column, last line of the column, substitute a colon for the semi-colon.

56. On page 27901, second column, paragraph 11c(1), fifth line, change "(c)(2)" to "c(2) and c(3)."

57. On page 27901, second column, subparagraph 11c(1), add the following:

"Such maintenance may be provided by the Homebuyer but only pursuant to a prior written agreement with the Authority covering the nature and scope of the work and the amount of credit the Homebuyer is to receive. The amount of any credit shall, upon completion of the work, be credited to the Homebuyer's EHPA and charged as provided in paragraph c(2) of this section."

58. On page 27901, third column, section 12, change "c" to "d", change "d" to "e"; and insert the following between paragraphs b and d:

"c. Maximum operating reserve. The maximum operating reserve that may be retained by the Authority at the end of any fiscal year shall be the sum of (1) one-half of total routine expense included in the operating budget approved for the next fiscal year and (2) one-third of total break-even amounts included in the operating budget approved for the next fiscal year; provided that such maximum may be increased if necessary as determined or approved by HUD. Total routine expense means the sum of the amounts budgeted for administration, homebuyer services, Authority-supplied utilities, routine maintenance of common property, protective services, and general expense or other category of day-to-day routine expense (see section 9 above for explanation of various categories of expense)."

59. On page 27902, third column, paragraph 17.b, fifteenth line, change "part" to "Part".

60. On page 27903, first column, paragraph 19(2), thirteenth line, change "protest" to "protect".

61. On page 27903, first column, subparagraph 19(2), third line from end of second paragraph, change "of" to "resulting from".

64. On page 27903, first column, footnote 4, third line, insert "in" after "is".

65. On page 27903, first column, footnote 4, fourth line, insert "a" after "in".

66. On page 27903, third column, paragraph 24.a, delete subparagraph (2) and re-number subparagraph (3) to (2).

67. On page 27903, third column, eighth line, change reference in subparagraph (1) from (3) to (2).

68. On page 27903, third column, in paragraph 24.b, the words "vacates the Home" are substituted for "abandons the Home, or vacates it" and the word "left" is substituted for "abandoned".

69. On page 27903, third column, add the following to paragraph 24:

"c. Transfer to rental unit. (1) Inasmuch as the Homebuyer was found eligible for admission to the Project on the basis of having the necessary elements of potential for Homeownership, continuation of eligibility requires continuation of this potential, subject only to temporary unforeseen changes in circumstances. The standards of potential for Homeownership are the following:

"(i) Income sufficient to result in a required monthly payment which is not less than the sum of the amounts necessary to pay the EHPA, the NRMR, and the estimated average monthly cost of utilities attributable to the Home;

"(ii) Ability to meet all the obligations of a Homebuyer under the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement;

"(iii) At least one member gainfully employed, or having an established source of continuing income.

"(2) Accordingly, in the event it should develop that the Homebuyer no longer meets one or more of these elements of Homeownership potential, the Authority shall investigate the circumstances and provide such counseling and assistance as may be feasible in order to help the family overcome the deficiency as promptly as possible. After a reasonable time, not to exceed 30 days from the date of evaluation of the results of the investigation, the Authority shall make a re-evaluation as to whether the family has regained the potential for Homeownership or is likely to do so within a further reasonable time, not to exceed 30 days from the date of the re-evaluation. Further extension of time may be granted in exceptional cases, but in any event a final determination shall be made no later than 90 days from the date of evaluation of the results of the initial investigation. The Authority shall invite the HBA to participate in all investigations and evaluations.

"(3) If the final determination of the Authority, after considering the views of the HBA, is that the Homebuyer should be transferred to a suitable dwelling unit in an Authority rental project, the Authority shall give the Homebuyer written notice of the Authority determination of the loss of Homeownership potential and of the offer of transfer to a rental unit. The notice shall state that the transfer shall occur as soon as a suitable rental unit is available for occupancy, but no earlier than 30 days from the date of the notice, provided that an eligible successor for the Homebuyer unit has been selected by the Authority. The notice shall also state that if the Homebuyer should refuse to move under such circumstances, the family may be required to vacate the Homebuyer unit, without further notice. The notice shall include a statement (i) that the Homebuyer may respond to the Authority in writing or in person, within a specified reasonable time, regarding the reason for the determination and offer of transfer, (ii) that in such response he may be represented or accompanied by a person of his choice including a representative of the HBA, and (iii) that the Authority has consulted the HBA concerning this determination and offer of transfer.

"(4) When a Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement is terminated pursuant to this paragraph 24c, the amount in the Homebuyer's EHPA shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 10k of this Agreement."

70. Page 27903, third column, paragraph 25, add number (1) in front of "in the event" and delete the final sentence.

71. Page 27903, third column, paragraph 25, add the following paragraph:

"(2) If there is no qualified successor in accordance with the above, the Authority shall terminate the Agreement and another family shall be selected, except under the following circumstances: where a minor child or children of the Homebuyer family are in occupancy, then in order to protect their continued occupancy and opportunity for acquisition of ownership of the Home, the Authority may approve, as occupant(s) of the unit, an appropriate adult(s) who has been appointed legal guardian of the children with a duty to perform the obligations of the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement in their interest and behalf."

72. On page 27904, first column, paragraph 27, sixth line, change "property" to "properly".

73. On page 27904, second column, § 1270.202(a), fourth and fifth lines, change "homeownership opportunity program" to read "Homeownership Opportunity Program".

Subpart A—Introduction to Low-Rent Housing Homeownership Opportunity Program [Reserved]

Subpart B—Turnkey III Program Description

§ 1270.101 Introduction.

(a) Purpose. This subpart sets forth the essential elements of the HUD Homeownership Opportunities Program for Low-Income Families (Turnkey III).

(b) Applicability. This subpart shall be applicable to all Turnkey III developments, including those under development or in operation on the effective date of this subpart, as follows:

(1) With respect to any development to be operated as Turnkey III, the Annual Contributions Contract (ACC) shall contain the "Special Provisions for Turnkey III Homeownership Opportunity Project" as set forth in Appendix I. A Turnkey III development may include only units which are to be operated as such under Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreements. If for any reason it is determined that certain units should be operated as conventional rental units, such units must comprise or be made part of a conventional rental project.

(2) With respect to Turnkey III developments pursuant to an executed ACC where no Agreements with Homebuyers have been signed, the ACC shall be amended (i) to include the "Special Provisions" set forth in Appendix I, (ii) to extend its term to 30 years, and (iii) to reduce its Maximum Contribution Percentage to a rate that will amortize the debt in 30 years at the minimum Loan Interest Rate specified in the ACC for the specific Turnkey III project involved. Further development and operation shall be in accordance with this subpart including use of the form of Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement set forth in Appendix II.

(3) With respect to developments where Agreements with homebuyers have been signed, the following steps shall be taken:

(i) The ACC shall be amended to include the Special Provisions" set forth in Appendix I; further development and operation of the Project shall be in accordance with this subpart.

(ii) The LHA shall offer all qualified homebuyers in the development a new Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement as set forth in Appendix II with an amendment to section 16a to refer to "the latest approved Development Cost Budget, or Actual Development Cost Certificate if issued," in lieu of "the Development Cost Budget in effect upon award of the Main Construction Contract or execution of the Contract of Sale," and, if the ACC for the Project has a term of 25 years, an amendment to section 16(b) to refer to a term of 25 years, instead of 30, for the Purchase Price Schedule. Each Purchase Price Schedule shall commence with the first day of the month following the effective date of the initial Agreement. No other modification in the new Agreement may be made. In the event the homebuyer refuses to accept the new Agreement, no modifications may be made in the old Agreement and the matter shall be referred to HUD.

(4) With respect to Projects which were under ACC on the effective date of this subpart, the Total Development Cost Budget shall be revised, if financially feasible, to include the cost of the appraisals which are necessary for computation of the initial purchase prices pursuant to § 1270.113. In the event this is not financially feasible, the matter shall be referred to HUD, which may, if necessary, authorize a different method for computation of such initial purchase prices on an equitable basis.

(5) With respect to all developments which were completed by the effective date of this subpart, the appraisals which are necessary for computation of the initial purchase prices pursuant to § 1270.113 shall be made as of the date of completion of the development.

§ 1270.102 Definitions.

(a) The term "common property" means the nondwelling structures and equipment, common areas, community facilities, and in some cases certain component parts of dwelling structures, which are contained in the development: Provided, however, That in the case of a development that is organized as a condominium or a planned unit development (PUD), the term "common property" shall have the meaning established by the condominium or PUD documents and the State law pursuant to which the condominium or PUD is organized, under the terms "common areas," "common facilities," "common elements," "common estate," or other similar terms.

(b) The term "development" means the entire undertaking including all real and personal property, funds and reserves, rights, interests and obligations, and activities related thereto.

(c) The term "EHPA" means the Earned Home Payments Account established and maintained pursuant to § 1270.110.

(d) The term "homebuyer" means the member or members of a low-income family who have executed a Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement with the LHA.

(e) The term "homebuyers association" (HBA) means an organization as defined in § 1270.106.

(f) The term "homeowner" means a homebuyer who has acquired title to his home.

(g) The term "homeowners association" means an association comprised of homeowners, including condominium associations, having responsibilities with respect to common property.

(h) The term "HUD" means the Department of Housing and Urban Development which provides the LHAs with financial assistance through loans and annual contributions and technical assistance in development and operation.

(i) The term "LHA" means the local housing authority which acquires or develops a low-rent housing development with financial assistance from HUD, owns the homes until title is transferred to the homebuyers, and is responsible for the management of the homeownership opportunity program.

(j) The term "NRMR" means the Nonroutine Maintenance Reserve established and maintained pursuant to § 1270.111.

(k) The term "Project" is used to refer to the development in relation to matters specifically related to the Annual Contributions Contract.

§ 1270.103 Development.

(a) Financial framework. The LHA shall finance development or acquisition by sale of its notes (bond financing shall not be used) in the amount of the Minimum Development Cost. Payment of the debt service on the notes is assured by the HUD commitment to provide annual contributions.

(b) Contractual framework. There are three basic contracts:

(1) An Annual Contributions Contract containing "Special Provisions For Turnkey III Homeownership Opportunity Project," Form HUD-53010C (see Appendix I);

(2) A Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement (see Appendix II) which sets forth the respective rights and obligations of the low-income occupants and the LHA, including conditions for achieving homeownership; and

(3) A Recognition Agreement (see Appendix II of Subpart D of this part) between the LHA and the HBA under which the LHA agrees to recognize the HBA as the established representative of the homebuyers.

(c) Community Participation Committee (CPC). In the necessary development of citizens' participation in and understanding of the Turnkey III program, the LHA should consider formation and use of a CPC to assist the community and the LHA in the development and support of the Turnkey III program. The CPC shall be a voluntary group comprised of representatives of the low-income population primarily and may also include representatives of community service organizations.

§ 1270.104 Eligibility and selection of homebuyers.

(a) Announcement of availability of housing; fair housing marketing. (1) The availability of housing under Turnkey III shall be announced to the community at large. Families on the waiting list for LHA conventional rental housing who wish to be considered for Turnkey III must apply specifically for that program (see paragraph (d) of this section).

(2) The LHA shall submit to HUD an Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan and shall otherwise comply with the provisions of the Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Regulations, 24 CFR Part 200, subpart M, as if the LHA were an applicant for participation in an FHA housing program. This Plan shall be submitted with the development program, and no development program may be approved without prior approval of the Plan pursuant to HUD procedures under said Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Regulations. If the development program has been approved, but the Annual Contributions Contract has not been executed, prior to the effective date of this subpart, an Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan must be approved prior to execution of said contract.

(b) Eligibility and standards for admission. (1) Homebuyers shall be low-income families as determined in accordance with the income definitions and limits established by the LHA and approved by HUD (see paragraph (b)(2) of this section). The HUD-approved standards for admission to low-rent housing, including the LHA's established priorities and preferences and the requirements for administration of low-rent housing under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Public Law 88-352, 78 Stat. 241, 42 U.S.C. 2000d), shall be applicable except that the procedures used for homebuyer selection under Turnkey III shall be those set forth in this section. In carrying out these procedures the aim shall be to provide for equal housing opportunity in such a way as to prevent segregation or other discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color or national origin in accordance with the Civil Rights Acts of 1964 (Public Law 88-352, 78 Stat. 241, 42 U.S.C. 2000d) and 1968 (Public Law 90-284, 82 Stat. 73, 42 U.S.C. 3601).

(2) An LHA may establish income limits for Turnkey III which are different from those for its conventional rental program, provided that those limits are in accord with all applicable statutory and administrative requirements and are approved by HUD.

(c) Determination of eligibility and preparation of list. The LHA, without participation of a recommending committee (see paragraph (e)(1) of this section), shall determine the eligibility of each applicant family in respect to the income limits for the development and shall then assign each eligible applicant his appropriate place on a waiting list for the development, in sequence based upon the date of the application, suitable type or size of unit and factors affecting preference or priority established by the LHA's regulations.

(d) List of applicants. A separate list of applicants for Turnkey III shall be maintained, consisting of families who specifically apply and are eligible for admission to such housing.

(1) Dating of applications. All applications for Turnkey III shall be dated as received.

(2) Effect on applicant status. The filing of an application for Turnkey III by a family which is an applicant for LHA conventional rental housing or is an occupant of such housing shall in no way affect its status with regard to such rental housing. Such an applicant shall not lose his place on the rental housing waiting list until his application is accepted for Turnkey III and shall not receive any different treatment or consideration with respect to conventional rental housing because of having applied for Turnkey III.

(e) Determination of potential for homeownership. (1) Recommending committee. The LHA should consider use of a recommending committee to assist in the establishment of objective criteria for the determination of potential for homeownership and in the selection of homebuyers from the families determined to have such potential. If a recommending committee is used, it should be composed of representatives of the CPC (if any), the LHA and the HBA. The LHA shall submit to the committee prompt written justification of any rejection of a committee recommendation, stating grounds, the reasonableness of which shall be in accord with applicable LHA and HUD regulations. Each member of such a committee, at the time of appointment, shall be required to furnish the LHA with a signed statement that the member will (i) follow selection procedures and policies that do not automatically deny admission to a particular class, that insure selection on a nondiscriminatory and nonsegregated basis, and that facilitate achievement of the anticipated results for occupancy stated in the approved Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan, and (ii) maintain strict confidentiality by not divulging any information concerning applicants or the deliberations of the committee to any person except to the LHA as necessary for purposes of the official business of the committee.

(2) Potential for homeownership. In order to be considered for selection, a family must be determined to meet at least all of the following standards of potential for homeownership:

(i) Income sufficient to result in a required monthly payment which is not less than the sum of the amounts necessary to pay the EHPA, the NRMR, and the estimated average monthly cost of utilities attributable to the home;

(ii) Ability to meet all the obligations of a homebuyer under the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement;

(iii) At least one member gainfully employed, or having an established source of continuing income.

(f) Selection of homebuyers. Homebuyers shall be selected from those families determined to have potential for homeownership. Such selection shall be made in sequence from the waiting list established in accordance with this section, provided that the following shall be assured:

(1) Selection procedures that do not automatically deny admission to a particular class; that insure selection on a nondiscriminatory and nonsegregated basis; and that facilitate achievement of the anticipated results for occupancy stated in the approved Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan.

(2) Achievement of an average monthly payment for the Project, including consideration of the availability of the Special Family Subsidy, which is at least 10 percent more than the break-even amount for the Project (see § 1270.108). This standard shall be complied with both in the initial selection of homebuyers and in the subsequent filling of vacancies at all times during the life of the Project. If there is an applicant who has potential for homeownership but whose required monthly payment under the LHA's Rent Schedule would be less than the break-even amount for the suitable size and type of unit, such applicant may be selected as a homebuyer, provided that the incomes of all selected homebuyers shall result in the required average monthly payment of at least 10 percent more than the break-even amount for the Project. Such an average monthly payment for the Project may be achieved by selecting other low-income families who can afford to make required monthly payments substantially above the break-even amounts for their suitable sizes and types of units.

(g) Notification to applicants. (1) Once a sufficient number of applicants have been selected to assure that the provisions of paragraph (f)(2) of this section are met, the selected applicant shall be notified of the approximate date of occupancy insofar as such date can reasonably be determined.

(2) Applicants who are not selected for a specific Turnkey III development shall be so notified in accordance with HUD-approved procedure. The notice shall state the reason for the applicant's rejection (including a nonrecommendation by the recommending committee unless the applicant has previously been so notified by the committee) and the notice shall state that the applicant will be given an informal hearing on such determination, regardless of the reason for the rejection, if he makes a request for such a hearing within a reasonable time (to be specified in the notice) from the date of the notice.

(h) Eligibility for continued occupancy. (1) A homebuyer shall cease to be eligible for continued occupancy with the aid of HUD annual contributions when the LHA determines that his adjusted monthly income has reached the level, and is likely to continue at such level, at which the current amount of his required monthly payment equals or exceeds the monthly housing cost (see paragraph (h)(2) of this section). In such event, if the LHA determines, with HUD approval, that suitable financing is available, the LHA shall notify the homebuyer that he shall either (i) purchase the home or (ii) move from the development; provided, however, that if the LHA determines that, due to special circumstances, the homebuyer is unable to find decent, safe and sanitary housing within his financial reach although making every reasonable effort to do so, the homebuyer may be permitted to remain for the duration of such a situation if he pays an increased monthly payment consistent with his adjusted monthly income; provided that this monthly payment shall not exceed the maximum provided in § 1270.107(j)(1). Such an increased monthly payment shall also be payable by the homebuyer if he continues in occupancy without purchasing the home because suitable financing is not available.

(2) The term "monthly housing cost," as used in this paragraph, means the sum of: (i) The monthly debt service amount shown on the Purchase Price Schedule (except where the homebuyer can purchase the home by the method described in § 1270.113(c)(1) below): (ii) one-twelfth of the annual real property taxes which the homebuyer will be required to pay as a homeowner; (iii) one-twelfth of the annual premium attributable to fire and extended coverage insurance carried by the LHA with respect to the home; (iv) the current monthly per unit amount budgeted for routine maintenance (EHPA), and for routine maintenance-common property; and (v) the current LHA and HUD approved monthly allowance for utilities paid for directly by the homebuyer plus the monthly cost of utilities supplied by the LHA.

§ 1270.105 Counseling of homebuyers.

The LHA shall provide counseling and training as provided in subpart C of this part, with funding as provided in § 1270.206 of this part. Applicants for admission shall be advised of the nature of the counseling and training program available to them and the application for admission shall include a statement that the family agrees to participate and cooperate fully in all official pre-occupancy and post-occupancy training and counseling activities. Failure to participate as agreed may result in the family not being selected or retained as a homebuyer.

§ 1270.106 Homebuyers Association (HBA).

An HBA is an incorporated organization composed of all the families who are entitled to occupancy pursuant to a Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement or who are homeowners. It is formed and organized for the purposes set forth in § 1270.304 of this part. The HBA shall be funded as provided in § 1270.305 of this part. In the absence of a duly organized HBA, the LHA shall be free to act without the HBA action required by this subpart.

§ 1270.107 Responsibilities of homebuyer.

(a) Repair, maintenance and use of home. The homebuyer shall be responsible for the routine maintenance of the home to the satisfaction of the HBA and the LHA. This routine maintenance includes the work (labor and materials) of keeping the dwelling structure, grounds and equipment in good repair, condition and appearance so that they may be utilized continually at their designed capacities and at the satisfactory level of efficiency for their intended purposes, and in conformity with the requirements of local housing code and applicable regulations and guidelines of HUD. It includes repairs (labor and materials) to the dwelling structure, plumbing fixtures, dwelling equipment (such as range and refrigerator), shades and screens, water heater, heating equipment and other component parts of the dwelling. It also includes all interior painting and the maintenance of grounds (lot) on which the dwelling is located. It does not include maintenance and replacements provided for by the NRMR described in § 1270.111.

(b) Repair of damage. In addition to the obligation for routine maintenance, the homebuyer shall be responsible for repair of any damage caused by him, members of his family, or visitors.

(c) Care of home. A homebuyer shall keep the home in a sanitary condition; cooperate with the LHA and the HBA in keeping and maintaining the common areas and property, including fixtures and equipment, in good condition and appearance; and follow all rules of the LHA and of the HBA concerning the use and care of the dwellings and the common areas and property.

(d) Inspections. A homebuyer shall agree to permit officials, employees, or agents of the LHA and of the HBA to inspect the home at reasonable hours and intervals in accordance with rules established by the LHA and the HBA.

(e) Use of home. A homebuyer shall not (1) sublet the home without the prior written approval of the LHA and HUD, (2) use or occupy the home for any unlawful purpose nor for any purpose deemed hazardous by insurance companies on account of fire or other risks, or (3) provide accommodations (unless approved by the HBA and the LHA) to boarders or lodgers. The homebuyer shall agree to use the home only as a place to live for the family (as identified in the initial application or by subsequent amendment with the approval of the LHA), for children thereafter born to or adopted by members of such family, and for aged or widowed parents of the homebuyer or spouse who may join the household.

(f) Obligations with respect to other persons and property. Neither the homebuyer nor any member of his family shall interfere with rights of other occupants of the development, or damage the common property or the property of others, or create physical hazards.

(g) Structural changes. A homebuyer shall not make any structural changes in or additions to the home unless the LHA has first determined in writing that such change would not (1) impair the value of the unit, the surrounding units, or the development as a whole, or (2) affect the use of the home for residential purposes, or (3) violate HUD requirements as to construction and design.

(h) Statements of condition and repair. When each homebuyer moves in, the LHA shall inspect the home and shall give the homebuyer a written statement, to be signed by the LHA and the homebuyer, of the condition of the home and the equipment in it. Should the homebuyer vacate the home, the LHA shall inspect it and give the homebuyer a written statement of the repairs and other work, if any, required to put the home in good condition for the next occupant (see § 1270.110(j)(1)). The homebuyer, his representative, and a representative of the HBA may join in any such inspections by the LHA.

(i) Maintenance of common property. The homebuyer may participate in nonroutine maintenance of his home and in maintenance of common property as discussed in § 1270.110(d) and § 1270.111(c).

(j) Homebuyer's required monthly payment. (1) The term "required monthly payment" as used herein means the monthly payment the homebuyer is required to pay as lease rental to the LHA on or before the first day of each month. Although the total monthly housing cost consists of the sum of the break-even amount (see § 1270.108) and the debt service (payments of principal and interest) on the applicable share of the capital cost of the development, the homebuyer, so long as he qualifies as low income, is not required to pay the full amount, but is assisted by HUD annual contributions. The homebuyer's required monthly payment, which is based upon his income, shall be an amount in accordance with the schedule established by the LHA and approved by HUD in accordance with the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 (P.L. 412, 75th Cong., 50 Stat. 888, 42 U.S.C. 1401 et seq.), taking into account a monthly allowance for those utilities which the homebuyer pays for directly computed in accordance with HUD requirements; provided, however, that the maximum required monthly payment, including any monthly allowance for utilities, shall be the sum of the monthly break-even amount plus the monthly debt service amount shown on the Purchase Price Schedule for the home, except that if the rent, including utilities, for comparable unsubsidized housing in the locality is lower, such lower amount may be established as the maximum if the LHA determines with HUD approval that this would be in the best interest of the project.

(2) The required monthly payment may be adjusted as a result of the LHA's regularly scheduled or specially scheduled reexamination of the family income and composition. Interim changes may be made in accordance with the LHA's policy on reexaminations, or under unusual circumstances, at the request of the homebuyer, if both the LHA and the HBA agree that such action is warranted.

(3) The required monthly payment may also be adjusted by changes in the required percentage of income to reflect (i) changes in operating expense as described in § 1270.109 and (ii) changes in utility allowances.

(4) The LHA shall not refuse to accept monthly payments because of any other charges (i.e., other than overdue monthly payments) owed by the homebuyer to the LHA; however, by accepting monthly payments under such circumstances, the LHA shall not be deemed to have waived any of its rights and remedies with respect to such other charges.

(k) Application of monthly payment. The LHA shall apply the homebuyer's monthly payment as follows:

(1) To the credit of the homebuyer's EHPA (see § 1270.110);

(2) To the credit of the homebuyer's NRMR (see § 1270.111); and

(3) For payment of monthly operating expense including contribution to operating reserve (see § 1270.109).

(l) Assignment and survivorship. Until such time as the homebuyer obtains title to the home, it shall be used only to house a family of low income. Therefore:

(1) A homebuyer shall not assign any right or interest in the home or under the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement without the prior written approval of the LHA and HUD;

(2) In the event of death, mental incapacity or abandonment of the family by the homebuyer, the person designated as the successor in the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement shall succeed to the rights and responsibilities under the Agreement if that person is an occupant of the home at the time of the event and is determined by the LHA to meet all of the standards of potential for homeownership as set forth in § 1270.104(e)(2). Such person shall be designated by the homebuyer at the time the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement is executed. This designation may be changed by the homebuyer at any time. If there is no such designation or the designee is no longer an occupant of the home or does not meet the standards of potential for homeownership, the LHA may consider as the homebuyer any family member who was an occupant at the time of the event and who meets the standards of potential for homeownership.

(3) If there is no qualified successor in accordance with paragraph (l)(2) of this section, the LHA shall terminate the Agreement and another family shall be selected except under the following circumstances: where a minor child or children of the homebuyer family are in occupancy, then in order to protect their continued occupancy and opportunity for acquisition of ownership of the home, the LHA may approve as occupants of the unit, an appropriate adult(s) who has been appointed legal guardian of the children with a duty to perform the obligations of the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement in their interest and behalf.

(m) Termination by LHA. (1) In the event the homebuyer should breach the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement by failure to make the required monthly payment within ten days after its due date, by misrepresentation or withholding of information in applying for admission or in connection with any subsequent reexamination of income and family composition, or by failure to comply with any of the other homebuyer obligations under the Agreement, the LHA may terminate the Agreement 30 days after giving the homebuyer notice of its intention to do so in accordance with paragraph (m)(3) of this section.

(2) Notice of termination by the LHA shall be in writing. Such notice shall state (i) the reason for termination, (ii) that the homebuyer may respond to the LHA, in writing or in person, within a specified reasonable period of time regarding the reason for termination, (iii) that in such response he may be represented or accompanied by a person of his choice, including a representative of the HBA, (iv) that the LHA will consult the HBA concerning this termination, and (v) that unless the LHA rescinds or modifies the notice, the termination shall be effective at the end of the 30-day notice period.

(n) Termination by the homebuyer. The homebuyer may terminate the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement by giving the LHA 30 days notice in writing of his intention to terminate and vacate the home. In the event that the homebuyer vacates the home without notice to the LHA, the Agreement shall be terminated automatically and the LHA may dispose of, in any manner deemed suitable by it, any items of personal property left by the homebuyer in the home.

(o) Transfer to rental unit. (1) Inasmuch as the homebuyer was found eligible for admission to the Project on the basis of having the necessary elements of potential for homeownership, continuation of eligibility requires continuation of this potential, subject only to temporary unforeseen changes in circumstances. Accordingly, in the event it should develop that the homebuyer no longer meets one or more of these elements of homeownership potential, the LHA shall investigate the circumstances and provide such counseling and assistance as may be feasible in order to help the family overcome the deficiency as promptly as possible. After a reasonable time, not to exceed 30 days from the date of evaluation of the results of the investigation, the LHA shall make a re-evaluation as to whether the family has regained the potential for homeownership or is likely to do so within a further reasonable time, not to exceed 30 days from the date of the reevaluation. Further extension of time may be granted in exceptional cases, but in any event, a final determination shall be made no later than 90 days from the date of evaluation of the results of the initial investigation. The LHA shall invite the HBA to participate in all investigations and evaluations.

(2) If the final determination of the LHA, after considering the views of the HBA, is that the homebuyer should be transferred to a suitable dwelling unit in an LHA rental project, the LHA shall give the homebuyer written notice of the LHA determination of the loss of homeownership potential and of the offer of transfer to a rental unit. The notice shall state that the transfer shall occur as soon as a suitable rental unit is available for occupancy, but no earlier than 30 days from the date of the notice, provided that an eligible successor for the homebuyer unit has been selected by the LHA. The notice shall also state that if the homebuyer should refuse to move under such circumstances, the family may be required to vacate the homebuyer unit, without further notice. The notice shall include a statement (i) that the homebuyer may respond to the LHA in writing or in person, within a specified reasonable time, regarding the reason for the determination and offer of transfer, (ii) that in such response he may be represented or accompanied by a person of his choice including a representative of the HBA, and (iii) that the LHA has consulted the HBA concerning this determination and offer of transfer.

(3) When a Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement is terminated pursuant to this paragraph (o), the amount in the homebuyer's EHPA shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of § 1270.110(j).

§ 1270.108 Break-even amount.

(a) Definition. The term "break-even amount" as used herein means the minimum average monthly amount required to provide funds for the items listed in the illustration below. A separate break-even amount shall be established for each size and type of dwelling unit, as well as for the Project as a whole. The break-even amount for EHPA and NRMR will vary by size and type of dwelling unit; similar variations as to other line items may be made if the LHA deems this equitable.

Illustration. The following is an illustration of the computation of the break-even amount based upon hypothetical amounts.

(1) Operating Expense (see § 1270.109):
Administration	$6.50
Homebuyer services	2.00
Project supplied utilities	3.00
Routine maintenance—common property	3.00
Protective services	2.00
General expense	6.50
Nonroutine maintenance — common property (Contribution to operating reserve)	2.00	$27.00
(2) Earned Home Payments Account (see § 1270.110)		12.00
(3) Nonroutine Maintenance Reserve (see § 1270.111)		7.50
Break-Even Amount		46.50

The break-even amount does not include the monthly allowance for utilities which the homebuyer pays for directly, nor does it include any amount for debt service on the Project notes.

(b) Excess over break-even. When the homebuyer's required monthly payment (see § 1270.107(j)) exceeds the applicable break-even amount, the excess shall constitute additional Project income and shall be deposited and used in the same manner as other Project income.

(c) Deficit in monthly payment. When the homebuyer's required monthly payment is less than the applicable break-even amount, the deficit shall be applied as a reduction of that portion of the monthly payment designated for operating expense (i. e., as a reduction of Project income). In all such cases, the EHPA and the NRMR shall be credited with the amount included in the break-even amount for these accounts.

§ 1270.109 Monthly operating expense.

(a) Definition and categories of monthly operating expense. The term "monthly operating expense" means the monthly amount needed for the following purposes:

(1) Administration. Administrative salaries, travel, legal expenses, office supplies, postage, telephone and telegraph, etc.;

(2) Homebuyer services. LHA expenses in the achievement of social goals, including costs such as salaries, publications, payments to the HBA to assist its operation, contract and other costs;

(3) Utilities. Those utilities (such as water), if any, to be furnished by the LHA as part of operating expense;

(4) Routine maintenance—common property. For community building, grounds, and other common areas, if any. The amount required for routine maintenance of common property depends upon the type of common property included in the development and the extent of the LHA's responsibility for maintenance (see also § 1270.109(c));

(5) Protective services. The cost of supplemental protective services paid by the LHA for the protection of persons and property;

(6) General expense. Premiums for fire and other insurance, payments in lieu of taxes to the local taxing body, collection losses, payroll taxes, etc.;

(7) Nonroutine maintenance—common property (Contribution to operating reserve). Extraordinary maintenance of equipment applicable to the community building and grounds, and unanticipated items for non-dwelling structures (see § 1270.112).

(b) Monthly operating expense rate. The monthly operating expense rate for each fiscal year shall be established on the basis of the LHA's HUD-approved operating budget for that fiscal year. The operating budget may be revised during the course of the fiscal year in accordance with HUD requirements. If it is subsequently determined that the actual operating expense for a fiscal year was more or less than the amount provided by the monthly operating expense established for that fiscal year, the rate of monthly operating expenses to be established for the next fiscal year may be adjusted to account for the difference (see § 1270.112(b)). Such adjustment may result in a change in the required monthly payment, see § 1270.107(j)(3).

(c) Provision for common property maintenance. During the period the LHA is responsible for the maintenance of common property, the annual operating budget and the monthly operating expense rate shall include the amount required for routine maintenance of all common property in the development, even though a number of the homes may have been acquired by homebuyers. During such period, this amount shall be computed on the basis of the total number of homes in the development (i. e., the annual amount budgeted for routine maintenance of common property shall be divided by the number of homes in the development, resulting in the annual amount for each home; this figure shall in turn be divided by 12 to determine the monthly amount to be included in the monthly operating expense (and in the break-even amount) for routine maintenance of common property). After the home owners association assumes responsibility for maintenance of common property, the monthly operating expense (and break-even amount) shall include an amount equal to the monthly assessment by the homeowners association for the remaining homes owned by the LHA (see § 1270.112(b) for nonroutine maintenance of common property).

(d) Posting of monthly operating expense statement. A statement showing the budgeted monthly amount allocated in the current operating budget to each operating expense category shall be provided to the HBA and copies shall be provided to homebuyers upon request.

§ 1270.110 Earned Home Payments Account (EHPA).

(a) Credits to the account. The LHA shall establish and maintain a separate EHPA for each homebuyer. Since the homebuyer is responsible for maintaining the home, a portion of his required monthly payment equal to the LHA's estimate, approved by HUD, of the monthly cost for such routine maintenance, taking into consideration the relative type and size of the homebuyer's home, shall be set aside in his EHPA. In addition, this account shall be credited with (1) any voluntary payments made pursuant to § 1270.110(f), and (2) any amount earned through the performance of maintenance as provided in § 1270.110(d) and § 1270.111(c).

(b) Charges to the account. (1) If for any reason the homebuyer is unable or fails to perform any item of required maintenance as described in § 1270.107(a), the LHA shall arrange to have the work done in accordance with the procedures established by the LHA and the HBA and the cost thereof shall be charged to the homebuyer's EHPA. Inspections of the home shall be made jointly by the LHA and the HBA.

(2) To the extent NRMR expense is attributable to the negligence of the homebuyer as determined by the HBA and approved by the LHA (see § 1270.111), the cost thereof shall be charged to the EHPA.

(c) Exercise of option; required amount in EHPA. The homebuyer may exercise his option to buy the home, by paying the applicable purchase price pursuant to § 1270.113 or § 1270.115, only after satisfying the following conditions precedent:

(1) Within the first two years of his occupancy, he has achieved a balance in his EHPA equal to 20 times the amount of the monthly EHPA credit as initially determined in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section;

(2) He has met, and is continuing to meet, the requirements of the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement;

(3) He has rendered, and is continuing to render, satisfactory performance of his responsibilities to the HBA.

When the homebuyer has met these conditions precedent, the LHA shall give the homebuyer a certificate to that effect. After achieving the required minimum EHPA balance within the first two years of his occupancy, the homebuyer shall continue to provide the required maintenance, thereby continuing to add to his EHPA. If the homebuyer fails to meet either his obligation to achieve the minimum EHPA balance, as specified, or his obligation thereafter to continue adding to the EHPA, the LHA and the HBA shall investigate and take appropriate corrective action, including termination of the Agreement by the LHA in accordance with § 1270.107(m).

(d) Additional equity through maintenance of common property. Homebuyers may earn additional EHPA credits by providing in whole or in part any of the maintenance necessary to the common property of the development. When such maintenance is to be provided by the homebuyer, this may be done and credit earned therefor only pursuant to a prior written agreement between the homebuyer and the LHA (or the home owners association, depending on who has responsibility for maintenance of the property involved), covering the nature and scope of the work and the amount of credit the homebuyer is to receive. In such cases, the agreed amount shall be charged to the appropriate maintenance account and credited to the homebuyer's EHPA upon completion of the work.

(e) Investment of excess. (1) When the aggregate amount of all EHPA balances exceeds the estimated reserve requirements for 90 days, the LHA shall notify the HBA and shall invest the excess in federally insured, savings accounts, federally insured credit unions, and/or securities approved by HUD and in accordance with any recommendations made by the HBA. If the HBA wishes to participate in the investment program, it should submit periodically to the LHA a list of HUD-approved securities, bonds, or obligations which the association recommends for investment by the LHA of the funds in the EHPAs. Interest earned on the investment of such funds shall be prorated and credited to each homebuyer's EHPA in proportion to the amount in each such reserve account.

(2) Periodically, but not less often than semi-annually, the LHA shall prepare a statement showing (i) the aggregate amount of all EHPA balances; (ii) the aggregate amount of investments (savings accounts and/or securities) held for the account of all the homebuyers' EHPAs, and (iii) the aggregate uninvested balance of all the homebuyers' EHPAs. This statement shall be made available to any authorized representative of the HBA.

(f) Voluntary payments. To enable the homebuyer to acquire title to his home within a shorter period, he may, either periodically or in a lump sum, voluntarily make payments over and above his required monthly payments. Such voluntary payments shall be deposited to his credit in his EHPA.

(g) Delinquent monthly payments. Under exceptional circumstances as determined by the HBA and the LHA, a homebuyer's EHPA may be used to pay his delinquent required monthly payments, provided the amount used for this purpose does not seriously deplete the account and provided that the homebuyer agrees to cooperate in such counseling as may be made available by the LHA or the HBA.

(h) Annual statement to homebuyer. The LHA shall provide an annual statement to each homebuyer specifying at least (1) the amount in his EHPA, and (2) the amount in his NRMR. During the year, any maintenance or repair done on the dwelling by the LHA which is chargeable to the EHPA or to the NRMR shall be accounted for through a work order. A homebuyer shall receive a copy of all such work orders for his home.

(i) Withdrawal and assignment. The homebuyer shall have no right to assign, withdraw, or in any way dispose of the funds in its EHPA except as provided in this section or in § 1270.113 and § 1270.115.

(j) Application of EHPA upon vacating of dwelling. (1) In the event a Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement with the LHA is terminated or if the homebuyer vacates the home (see § 1270.107 (m), (n) and (o), the LHA shall charge against the homebuyer's EHPA the amounts required to pay (i) the amount due the LHA, including the monthly payments the homebuyer is obligated to pay up to the date he vacates; (ii) the monthly payment for the period the home is vacant, not to exceed 30 days from the date of notice of intention to vacate, or, if the homebuyer fails to give notice of intention to vacate, 30 days from the date the home is put in good condition for the next occupant in conformity with § 1270.107; and (iii) the cost of any routine maintenance, and of any nonroutine maintenance attributable to the negligence of the homebuyer, required to put the home in good condition for the next occupant in conformity with § 1270.107.

(2) If the EHPA balance is not sufficient to cover all of these charges, the LHA shall require the homebuyer to pay the additional amount due. If the amount in the account exceeds these charges, the excess shall be paid to the homebuyer.

(3) Settlement with the homebuyer shall be made promptly after the actual cost of repairs to the dwelling has been determine (see paragraph (j)(1)(iii) of this section), provided that the LHA shall make every effort to make such settlement within 30 days from the date the homebuyer vacates. The homebuyer may obtain a settlement within 7 days of the date he vacates, even though the actual cost of such repair has not yet been determined, if he has given the LHA notice of intention to vacate at least 30 days prior to the date he vacates and if the amount to be charged against his EHPA for such repairs is based on the LHA's estimate of the cost thereof (determined after consultation with the appropriate representative of the HBA).

§ 1270.111 Nonroutine Maintenance Reserve (NRMR).

(a) Purpose of reserve. The LHA shall establish and maintain a separate NRMR for each home, using a portion of the homebuyer's monthly payment. The purpose of the NRMR is to provide funds for the nonroutine maintenance of the home, which consists of the infrequent and costly items of maintenance and replacement shown on the Nonroutine Maintenance Schedule for the home (see paragraph (b) of this section). Such maintenance may include the replacement of dwelling equipment (such as range and refrigerator), replacement of roof, exterior painting, major repairs to heating and plumbing systems, etc. The NRMR shall not be used for nonroutine maintenance of common property, or for nonroutine maintenance relating to the home to the extent such maintenance is attributable to the Homebuyer's negligence or to defective materials or workmanship.

(b) Amount of reserve. The amount of the monthly payments to be set aside for NRMR shall be determined by the LHA, with the approval of HUD, on the basis of the Nonroutine Maintenance

V 39 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

Schedule showing the amount likely to be needed for nonroutine maintenance of the home during the term of the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement, taking into consideration the type of construction and dwelling equipment. This Schedule shall (1) list each item of nonroutine maintenance (e.g., range, refrigerator, plumbing, heating system, roofing, tile flooring, exterior painting, etc.), (2) show for each listed item the estimated frequency of maintenance or useful life before replacement, the estimated cost of maintenance or replacement (including installation) for each occasion, and the annual reserve requirement, and (3) show the total reserve requirements for all the listed items, on an annual and a monthly basis. This Schedule shall be prepared by the LHA and approved by HUD as part of the submission required to determine the financial feasibility of the Project. The Schedule shall be revised after approval of the working drawings and specifications, and shall thereafter be reexamined annually in the light of changing economic conditions and experience.

(c) Charges to NRMR. (1) The LHA shall provide the nonroutine maintenance necessary for the home and the cost thereof shall be funded as provided in paragraph (c)(2) of this section. Such maintenance may be provided by the homebuyer but only pursuant to a prior written agreement with the LHA covering the nature and scope of the work and the amount of credit the homebuyer is to receive. The amount of any credit shall, upon completion of the work, be credited to the homebuyer's EHPA and charged as provided in paragraph (c)(2) of this section.

(2) The cost of nonroutine maintenance shall be charged to the NRMR for the home except that (i) to the extent such maintenance is attributable to the fault or negligence of the homebuyer, the cost shall be charged to the homebuyer's EHPA after consultation with the HBA if the homebuyer disagrees, and (ii) to the extent such maintenance is attributable to defective materials or workmanship not covered by warranty, or even though covered by warranty if not paid for thereunder through no fault or negligence of the homebuyer, the cost shall be charged to the appropriate operating expense account of the Project.

(3) In the event the amount charged against the NRMR exceeds the balance therein, the difference (deficit) shall be made up from continuing monthly credits to the NRMR based upon the homebuyer's monthly payments. If there is still a deficit when the homebuyer acquires title, the homebuyer shall pay such deficit at settlement (see paragraph (d)(2) of this section).

(d) Transfer of NRMR. (1) In the event the Homebuyer's Ownership Opportunity Agreement is terminated, the homebuyer shall not receive any balance or be required to pay any deficit in the NRMR. When a subsequent homebuyer moves in, the NRMR shall continue to be applicable to the home in the same amount as if the preceding homebuyer had continued in occupancy.

(2) In the event the homebuyer purchases the home, and there remains a balance in the NRMR, the LHA shall pay such balance to the homebuyer at settlement. In the event the homebuyer purchases and there is a deficit in the NRMR, the homebuyer shall pay such deficit to the LHA at settlement.

(e) Investment of excess. (1) When the aggregate amount of the NRMR balances for all the homes exceeds the estimated reserve requirements for 90 days the LHA shall invest the excess in federally insured savings accounts, federally insured credit unions, and/or securities approved by HUD. Income earned on the investment of such funds shall be prorated and credited to each homebuyer's NRMR in proportion to the amount in each reserve account.

(2) Periodically, but not less often than semi-annually, the LHA shall prepare a statement showing (i) the aggregate amount of all NRMR balances, (ii) the aggregate amount of investments (savings accounts and/or securities) held for the account of the NRMRs, and (iii) the aggregate uninvested balance of the NRMRs. A copy of this statement shall be made available to any authorized representative of the HBA.

§ 1270.112 Operating reserve.

(a) Purpose of reserve. To the extent that total operating receipts (including subsidies for operations) exceed total operating expenditures of the Project, the LHA shall establish an operating reserve up to the maximum approved by HUD in connection with its approval of the annual operating budgets for the Project. The purpose of this reserve is to provide funds for (1) the infrequent but costly items of nonroutine maintenance and replacements of common property, taking into consideration the types of items which constitute common property, such as nondwelling structures and equipment, and in certain cases, common elements of dwelling structures, (2) nonroutine maintenance for the homes to the extent such maintenance is attributable to defective materials or workmanship not covered by warranty, (3) working capital for payment of a deficit in a homebuyer's NRMR, until such deficit is offset by future monthly payments by the homebuyer or at settlement in the event the homebuyer should purchase, and (4) a deficit in the operation of the Project for a fiscal year, including a deficit resulting from monthly payments totaling less than the break-even amount for the Project.

(b) Nonroutine Maintenance—common property (Contribution to operating reserve). The amount under this heading to be included in operating expense (and in the break-even amount) established for the fiscal year (see § 1270.108 and § 1270.109) shall be determined by the LHA, with the approval of HUD, on the basis of estimates of the monthly amount needed to accumulate an adequate reserve for the items described in paragraph (a)(1) of this section. This amount shall be subject to revision in the light of experience. This contribution to the operating reserve shall be made only during the period the LHA is responsible for the maintenance of any common property; and during such period, the amount shall be determined on the basis of the requirements of all common property in the development in a manner similar to that explained in § 1270.109(c). When the operating reserve reaches the maximum authorized in § 1270.112(c) below, the break-even (monthly operating expense) computations (see § 1270.108 and § 1270.109) for the next and succeeding fiscal years need not include a provision for this contribution to the operating reserve unless the balance of the reserve is reduced below the maximum during any such succeeding fiscal year.

(c) Maximum operating reserve. The maximum operating reserve that may be retained by the LHA at the end of any fiscal year shall be the sum of (1) one-half of total routine expense included in the operating budget approved for the next fiscal year and (2) one-third of total break-even amounts included in the operating budget approved for the next fiscal year; provided that such maximum may be increased if necessary as determined or approved by HUD. Total routine expense means the sum of the amounts budgeted for administration, homebuyers services, LHA-supplied utilities, routine maintenance of common property, protective services, and general expense or other category of day-to-day routine expense (see § 1270.109 above for explanation of various categories of expense).

(d) Transfer to homeowners association. The LHA shall be responsible for and shall retain custody of the operating reserve until the homeowners acquire voting control of the homeowners association (see § 1270.118(c) and § 1270.119(f)). When the homeowners acquire voting control, the homeowners association shall then assume full responsibility for management and maintenance of common property under a plan approved by HUD, and there shall be transferred to the homeowners association a portion of the operating reserve then held by the LHA. The amount of the reserve to be transferred shall be based upon the proportion that one-half of budgeted routine expense (used as a basis for determining the current maximum operating reserve—see paragraph (c) of this section) bears to the approved maximum operating reserve. Specifically, the portion of operating reserve to be transferred shall be computed as follows: obtain a percentage by dividing one-half of budgeted routine expense by the approved maximum operating reserve; and multiply the actual operating reserve balance by this percentage.

(e) Disposition of reserve. If, at the end of a fiscal year, there is an excess over the maximum operating reserve, this excess shall be applied to the operating deficit of the Project, if any, and any remainder shall be paid to HUD. Following the end of the fiscal year in which the last home has been conveyed by the LHA, the balance of the operating reserve held by the LHA shall be paid to HUD, provided that the aggregate amount of payments by the LHA under this paragraph shall not exceed the aggregate amount of annual contributions paid by HUD with respect to the Project.

§ 1270.113 Achievement of ownership by initial homebuyer.

(a) Determination of initial purchase price. The LHA shall determine the initial purchase price of the home by two basic steps, as follows:

Step 1: The LHA shall take the Estimated Total Development Cost (including the full amount for contingencies as authorized by HUD) of the development as shown in the Development Cost Budget in effect upon award of the Main Construction Contract or execution of the Contract of Sale, and shall deduct therefrom the amounts, if any, attributed to (1) relocation costs, (2) counseling and training costs, and (3) the cost of any community, administration or management facilities including the land, equipment, and furnishings attributable to such facilities as set forth in the development program for the development. The resulting amount is herein called Estimated Total Development Cost for Homebuyers.

Step 2: The LHA shall apportion the Estimated Total Development Cost for Homebuyers among all the homes in the development. This apportionment shall be made by obtaining an FHA appraisal of each home and adjusting such appraised values (upward or downward) by the percentage difference between the total of the appraisal for all the Homes and the Estimated Total Development Cost for Homebuyers. The adjusted amount for each home shall be the initial purchase price for that home.

(b) Purchase price schedule. Each homebuyer shall be provided with a Purchase Price Schedule showing (1) the monthly declining purchase price over a 30-year period,[1] commencing with the initial purchase price on the first day of the month following the effective date of the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement and (2) the monthly debt service amount upon which the Schedule is based. The Schedule and debt service amount shall be computed on the basis of the initial purchase price, a 30-year period,[2] and a rate of interest equal to the minimum loan interest rate as specified in the Annual Contributions Contract for the Project on the date of HUD approval of the Development Cost Budget, described in paragraph (a) of this section, rounded up, if necessary, to the next multiple of one-fourth of one percent (¼ percent).

(c) Methods of purchase. (1) The homebuyer may achieve ownership when the amount in his EHPA, plus such portion of the NRMR as he wishes to use for the purchase, is equal to the purchase price as shown at that time on his Purchase Price Schedule plus all Incidental Costs (Incidental Costs mean the costs incidental to acquiring ownership, including, but not limited to, the costs for a credit report, field survey, title examination, title insurance, and inspections, the fees for attorneys other than the LHA's attorney, mortgage application and organization, closing and recording, and the transfer taxes and loan discount payment, if any). If for any reason title to the home is not conveyed to the homebuyer during the month in which such circumstances occur, the purchase price shall be fixed at the amount specified for such month and the homebuyer shall be refunded (i) the net additions, if any, credited to his EHPA subsequent to such month, and (ii) such part of the monthly payments made by the homebuyer after the purchase price has been fixed which exceeds the sum of the break-even amount attributable to the unit and the interest portion of the debt service shown in the Purchase Price Schedule.

(2) Where the sum of the purchase price and Incidental Costs is greater than the amounts in the homebuyer's EHPA and NRMR as described in paragraph (c)(1) of this section, the homebuyer may achieve ownership by obtaining financing for or otherwise paying the excess amount. The purchase price shall be the amount shown on his Purchase Price Schedule for the month in which the settlement date for the purchase occurs.

(d) The maximum period for achieving ownership shall be 30 years, but depending upon increases in the homebuyers income and the amount of credit which the homebuyer can accumulate through maintenance and voluntary payments, the period may be shortened accordingly.

§ 1270.114 Payment upon resale at profit.

(a) Promissory note. (1) When a homebuyer achieves ownership (regardless of whether ownership is achieved under § 1270.113 or § 1270.115), he shall sign a note obligating him to make a payment to the LHA, subject to the provisions of paragraph (a)(2) or this section, in the event he resells his home at a profit within 5 years of actual residence in the home after he becomes a homeowner. If, however, the homeowner should purchase and occupy another home within one year (18 months in case of a newly constructed home) of the resale of the Turnkey III home, the LHA shall refund to the homeowner the amount previously paid by him under the note, less the amount, if any, by which the resale price of the Turnkey III home exceeds the acquisition price of the new home, provided that application for such refund shall be made no later than 30 days after the date of acquisition of the new home.

(2) The note to be signed by the homebuyer pursuant to paragraph (a)(1) of this section shall be a non interest-bearing promissory note (see Appendix IV) to the LHA. The note shall be executed at the time the homebuyer becomes a homeowner and shall be secured by a second mortgage. The initial amount of the note shall be computed by taking the appraised value of the home at the time the homebuyer becomes a homeowner and subtracting (i) the homebuyer's purchase price plus the Incidental Costs and (ii) the increase in value of the home, determined by appraisal, caused by improvements paid for by the homebuyer with funds from sources other than the EHPA or NRMR. The note shall provide that this initial amount shall be automatically reduced by 20 percent thereof at the end of each year of residency as a homeowner, with the note terminating at the end of the five-year period of residency, as determined by the LHA. To protect the homeowner, the note shall provide that the amount payable under it shall in no event be more than the net profit on the resale, that is, the amount by which the resale price exceeds the sum of (i) the homebuyer's purchase price plus the Incidental Costs, (ii) the costs of the resale, including commissions and mortgage prepayment penalties, if any, and (iii) the increase in value of the home, determined by appraisal, due to improvements paid for by him as a homebuyer (with funds from sources other than the EHPA or NRMR) or as a homeowner.

(3) Amounts collected by the LHA under such notes shall be retained by the LHA for use in making refunds pursuant to paragraph (a)(1) of this section. After expiration of the period for the filing of claims for such refunds, any remaining amounts shall be applied (i) to reduce the LHA's capital indebtedness on the Project and (ii) after such indebtedness has been paid, for such purposes as may be authorized or approved by HUD under such Annual Contributions Contract as the LHA may then have with HUD.

Illustration. If the homeowner's purchase price is $10,000, the Incidental Costs are $500, the value added by improvements is $1,000, and the FHA appraised value at the time he acquires ownership is $17,000, the note computation would be as follows:

[1] Change to 25-year period where appropriate pursuant to § 1270.101(b)(3).

[2] Under section 234(c) of the National Housing Act, as of the date of publication of this subpart, mortgage insurance for a condominium unit in a multi-family project is generally authorized only if the project is currently or has been covered by a mortgage insured under another section of the National Housing Act. There is, however, a proviso which authorizes mortgage insurance for a condominium unit in a multi-family project even though the project is not or has not been covered by such a project mortgage, if the project involves eleven or less units.

V 39 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

FHA appraised value		$17,000
Homeowner's purchase price	10,000
Incidental Costs	500
Improvements	1,000	−11,500
Initial note amount		5,500

In this example, the amount of the note during the first year of residence is $5,500. In the second year, the amount of the note is $4,400, and in the third year, it is $3,300, etc. The note shall terminate at the end of the fifth year.

If the homeowner in this example resells his home during the first year for a sales price of $17,500, has resale costs of $1,600 (including a sales commission), and has added $1,500 value by further improvements, he would be required to pay the LHA $2,900 rather than the $5,500, as indicated in the following computations:

Resale price		$17,500
Resale costs	1,600
Purchase price and Incidental Costs	10,500
All improvements	2,500	−14,600
Payable to LHA		2,900

(b) Residency requirements. The five-year note period does not end if the homeowner rents or otherwise does not use the home as his principal place of residence for any period within the first five years after he achieves ownership. Only the actual amount of time he is in residence is counted and the note shall be in effect until a total of five years time of residence has elapsed, at which time the homeowner may request the LHA to release him from the note, and the LHA shall do so.

§ 1270.115 Achievement of ownership by subsequent homebuyers.

(a) Definition. In the event the initial homebuyer and his family vacate the home before having acquired ownership, a subsequent occupant who enters into a Homebuyer's Ownership Opportunity Agreement and who is not a successor pursuant to § 1270.107(l)(2) is herein called a "subsequent homebuyer."

(b) Determination of initial purchase price. The initial purchase price for a subsequent homebuyer shall be an amount equal to (1) the purchase price shown in the initial homebuyer's Purchase Price Schedule as of the date of this Agreement with the subsequent homebuyer plus (2) the amount, if any, by which the appraised fair market value of the home, determined or approved by HUD as of the same date, exceeds the purchase price specified in paragraph (b)(1) of this section.

(c) Purchase price schedule. The subsequent homebuyer's Purchase Price Schedule shall be the same as the unexpired portion of the initial homebuyer's Purchase Price Schedule except that where his purchase price includes an additional amount as specified in paragraph (b)(2) of this section, the initial homebuyer's Purchase Price Schedule shall be followed by an Additional Purchase Price Schedule for such additional amount based upon the same monthly debt service and the same interest rate as applied to the initial homebuyer's Purchase Price Schedule.

(d) Residual receipts. After payment in full of the LHA's debt, if there are any subsequent homebuyers who have not acquired ownership of their homes, the LHA shall continue to pay to HUD all residual receipts from the operation of the Project, including payments received on account of any Additional Purchase Price Schedules applicable to the homes, provided the aggregate amount of such payments of residual receipts does not exceed the aggregate amount of annual contributions paid by HUD with respect to the Project.

§ 1270.116 Transfer of title to homebuyer.

When the homebuyer is to obtain ownership as described in § 1270.113 or § 1270.115, a closing date shall be mutually agreed upon by the parties. On the closing date the homebuyer shall pay the required amount of money to the LHA, sign the promissory note pursuant to § 1270.114, and receive a deed for the home.

§ 1270.117 Responsibilities of homebuyer after acquisition of ownership.

After acquisition of ownership, each homeowner shall be required to pay to the LHA or to the homeowners association, as appropriate, a monthly fee for (a) the maintenance and operation of community facilities including utility facilities, if any, (b) the maintenance of grounds and other common areas and, (c) such other purposes as determined by the LHA or the homeowners association, as appropriate, including taxes and a provision for a reserve. This requirement shall be set out in the planned unit development or condominium documents which shall be recorded prior to the date of full availability, or in an LHA-homeowner contract in this regard.

§ 1270.118 Homeowners association—planned unit development (PUD).

If the development is organized as a planned unit development:

(a) Ownership and maintenance of common property. The common areas, sidewalks, parking lots, and other common property in the development shall be owned and maintained as provided for in the approved planned unit development (PUD) program except that the LHA shall be responsible for maintenance until such time as the homeowners association assumes such responsibility (see § 1270.112(d)).

(b) Title restrictions. The title ultimately conveyed to each homebuyer shall be subject to restrictions and encumbrances to protect the rights and property of all other owners. The homeowners association shall have the right and obligation to enforce such restrictions and encumbrances and to assess owners for the costs incurred in connection with common areas and property and other responsibilities.

(c) Votes in association. There shall be as many votes in the association as there are homes in the development, and, at the outset, all the voting rights shall be held by the LHA. As each home is conveyed to the homebuyer, one vote shall automatically go to the homeowner so that, when all the homes have been conveyed, the LHA shall no longer have any interest in the homeowners association.

(d) Voting control. The LHA shall not lose its majority voting interest in the association as soon as a majority of the homes have been conveyed, unless the law of the state requires control to be transferred at a particular time, or the LHA so desires. If permitted by state law, provision shall be made for each home owned by the LHA to carry three votes, while each home owned by a homeowner shall carry one vote. Under this weighted voting plan, the LHA shall continue to have voting control until 75 percent of the homes have been acquired by homeowners. However, at its discretion, the LHA may transfer voting control to the homeowners when at least 50 percent of the homes have been acquired by the homeowners.

§ 1270.119 Homeowners association—condominium.

If the development is organized as a condominium:

(a) The LHA at the outset shall own each condominium unit and its undivided interest in the common areas;

(b) All the land, including that land under the housing units, shall be a part of the common areas;

(c) The homeowners association shall own no property but shall maintain and operate the common areas for the individual owners of the condominium units except that the LHA shall be responsible for maintenance until such time as the homeowners association assumes such responsibility (see § 1270.112(d));

(d) The percentage of undivided interest attached to each condominium unit shall be based on the ratio of the value of the units to the value of all units and shall be fixed when the development is completed. This percentage shall determine the homeowner's liability for the maintenance of the common areas and facilities;

(e) Each homeowner's vote in the homeowners association shall be identical with the percentage of undivided interest attached to his unit; and

(f) The LHA shall not lose its majority voting interest in the association as soon as units representing 50 percent of the value of all units have been conveyed, unless the law of the state requires control to be transferred at a particular time or the LHA so desires. For voting purposes, until units representing 75 percent of the value of all units have been acquired by homeowners, the total undivided interest attributable to the homes owned by the LHA shall be multiplied by three, if such weighted voting plan is permitted by state law. Under this plan, the LHA shall continue to maintain voting control until 75 percent of the homes have been acquired by homeowners. However, at its discretion, the LHA may transfer voting control to the homeowners when units representing at least 50 percent of the value of all units have been acquired by the homeowners.

§ 1270.120 Relationship of homeowners association to HBA.

The HBA and the LHA may make arrangements to permit homebuyers to participate in homeowners association matters which affect the homebuyers. Such arrangements may include rights to attend meetings and to participate in homeowners association deliberations and decisions.

§ 1270.121 Use of appendices.

Use of the following Appendices is mandatory for Projects developed under this subpart:

Appendix I—Annual Contributions Contract "Special Provisions for Turnkey III Homeownership Opportunity Project"
Appendix II—Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement (Turnkey III)
Appendix III—Certificate of Achievement of Homebuyer Status
Appendix IV—Promissory Note for Payment Upon Resale by Homebuyer at Profit

No modification may be made in format, content or text of these Appendices except (1) as required under state or local law as determined by HUD or (2) with approval of HUD.

APPENDIX I
(Subpart B)

ANNUAL CONTRIBUTIONS CONTRACT

( ) Special Provisions for Turnkey III Homeownership Opportunity Project No. ----------

(1) The Local Authority agrees to operate the Project in accordance with requirements for the Homeownership Opportunity Program for Low-Income Families (Turnkey III) as prescribed by the Government. The Local Authority shall enter into an agreement with the occupant of each dwelling unit in the Project which agreement shall be in the form of the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement approved by the Government, which form provides an opportunity for the acquisition of ownership of the dwelling unit by each occupant who has performed all of the obligations and conditions precedent imposed upon him by such agreement. Upon conveyance of any such dwelling unit, the Local Authority's outstanding obligations in respect to the Project shall be reduced by the amount received for such conveyance, and the Government's obligation for payment of annual contributions in respect to the Project shall be reduced by the amount allocable to the initial purchase price of the dwelling unit. The term "initial purchase price" as used in these Special Provisions shall have the same meaning as in the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement, and the term "dwelling unit" shall have the same meaning as the term "Home" used in the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement.

(2) Failure of the Local Authority to enter into such Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreements at the time and in the form as required by the Government, failure to perform any such agreement, and failure to meet any of its obligations under these Special Provisions shall constitute a Substantial Default under this Contract.

(3) The books of account and records of the Local Authority shall be maintained to meet the requirements of the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement as well as the other provisions of this Contract and in such manner as will at all times show the operating receipts, operating expenditures, reserves, residual receipts, and other required accounts for the Project separate and distinct from all other Projects under this Contract.

(4) As of the Date of Full Availability, or at such earlier date as the Government may require, the Local Authority shall determine and submit to the Government for its approval the amount below which the Development Cost of the Project will in no event fall. Upon approval thereof by the Government, such amount shall constitute and be known as the "Minimum Development Cost" of the Project. The Local Authority shall issue its Project Loan Notes, Permanent Notes or Project Notes as the Government may require to finance the Minimum Development Cost. On each Annual Contribution Date the Governmen. shall pay an annual contribution for the Project in an amount equal to the Maximum Contribution Percentage of the latest approved Minimum Development Cost. The first annual contribution shall be paid or made available as of the next Annual Contribution Date following the approval of the Minimum Development Cost of the Project.

(5) Notwithstanding section 403(A)(4), the term "Development Cost" shall include interest on that portion of borrowed monies allocable to the Project for the period ending with the Date of Full Availability or such earlier date as may be specifically approved by the Government.

(6)(a) During the —[1] year Maximum Contribution Period established for the Project, the Local Authority shall, within 60 days after the end of each Fiscal Year, pay to the Government all Residual Receipts of the Project for such Fiscal Year for application to the reduction of Annual Contributions payable by the Government with respect to the Project.

(b) During the period of years immediately following and equal to the Maximum Contribution Period established for the Project, the Local Authority shall, within 60 days after the end of each Fiscal Year, pay to the Government all Residual Receipts of the Project for such Fiscal Year.

(c) Following the end of the Fiscal Year in which the last dwelling unit has been conveyed by the Local Authority, the balance of the operating reserve held by the Local Authority shall be paid to the Government, provided that the aggregate amount of payments under (b) and (c) of this paragraph shall not exceed the aggregate amount of annual contributions paid by the Government with respect to the Project.

(7) No part of the Funds on deposit in the Debt Service Fund or the Advance Amortization Fund with respect to any other Project under this Contract or the funds available for deposit in such Funds for such other Projects, shall be applied to the retirement of Notes issued for this Project, nor shall any such funds on deposit for this Project be used with respect to any other Project or Projects under this Contract.

(8) To the extent that the provisions of this section conflict with other provisions of this Contract, the provisions of this section shall be controlling with respect to the Project.

APPENDIX II
(Subpart B)

HOMEBUYERS OWNERSHIP OPPORTUNITY AGREEMENT
(Turnkey III)

PART I

This Agreement, made and entered into ----------, 19--, by and between ---------- (herein called the "Authority"), and ---------- (herein called the "Homebuyer");

WITNESSETH:

In consideration of the agreements and covenants contained in this Agreement and in Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement Part II, which is hereby incorporated into this Agreement by reference, the Authority leases to the Homebuyer the following described land and improvements thereon together with an undivided interest in all common areas and property (herein called the "Home") located in the ---------- Development (Project No. ----), which Home is identified and located as follows: [Insert address and legal description of location of Home, including rights with respect to common areas and property, and making reference to Book and Page No. in Recorder of Deeds Office].

A. Term of Agreement. The term of this Agreement shall commence on ----------, 19--, and shall expire at midnight on the last day of this same calendar month. Said term shall be extended automatically for successive periods of one calendar month for a total term of ----[1] years from the first day of the next calendar month unless the Homebuyer acquires title to the home pursuant to section 16 or 17 of Part II, as applicable, or unless this Agreement is terminated pursuant to section 24 of Part II.

B. Monthly Payment. 1. Until changed in accordance with this Agreement, the Homebuyer's Monthly Payment shall be $---- per month, due and payable on or before the first day of each month. If liability for the Monthly Payment shall start on a day other than the first day of a calendar month, or if for any reason the effective date of termination occurs on other than the last day of the month, the Monthly Payment for such month shall be proportionate to the period of occupancy during that month.

2. The amount of the Monthly Payment may be increased or decreased only by reason of changes in the Rent Schedule (see section 7c of Part II) or changes in the Homebuyer's family income or other circumstances (see section 7b of Part II). Any change in Monthly Payment shall become effective by written notice from the Authority to the Homebuyer as of the date specified in such notice, and such notice shall be deemed to constitute an Amendment to this Agreement.

C. Option to Purchase. In consideration of the covenants contained herein, the Authority grants the Homebuyer an option to purchase the Home for the applicable purchase price, to be exercised in accordance with section 10d of Part II.

D. Purchase Price. The Initial Purchase Price of this Home is $---------- (this price has been determined in accordance with section 16 or 17 of Part II as applicable); this amount shall be reduced periodically in accordance with the schedule (hereinafter called Purchase Price Schedule) for that amount, which Schedule is hereby furnished the Homebuyer.

E. Amount of NRMR. The balance (or deficit) in the NRMR on the date of this Agreement is $---------.

F. Homebuyers Association. Upon the signing of this Agreement, the Homebuyer's family automatically becomes a member of the Homebuyers Association, as provided in section 5 of Part II.

G. Designation of Successor. For the purpose of section 25 of Part II, the designee and his address are: ----------

PART II

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Introduction—a. The Home. The Home described in Part I of this Agreement is part of a Development, which the Authority has acquired or caused to be constructed. This Development contains a number of dwelling units including related land, and may also include common areas and property as described in Part I for occupancy by low-income families under lease-purchase agreements, each in the form of this Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement. This Development is financed by sale of the Authority's notes which will be amortized over the period of years specified in the Annual Contributions Contract relating to this Development.

b. Annual Contributions Contract. The Authority has entered into an Annual Contributions Contract ("ACC") with the Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") under which the Authority will receive Annual Contributions provided by HUD, and will perform certain operational functions, to provide housing for the Homebuyers and assist the Homebuyers in achieving homeownership.

c. Management. The Authority may enter into a contract or contracts for management of the Development or for performance of management functions, by the Homebuyers Association (see section 5) or others.

d. Definitions.

(1) The term "Authority" means the local housing authority which acquires or develops a low-rent housing development with financial assistance from HUD, owns the Homes until title is transferred to the Homebuyers, and is responsible for the management of the homeownership opportunity program.

(2) The term "common property" means the nondwelling structures and equipment, common areas, community facilities, and in some cases certain component parts of dwelling structures, which are contained in the Development: Provided, however, That in the case of a Development that is organized as a condominium or a planned unit development (PUD), the term "common property" shall have the meaning established by the condominium or PUD documents and the State law pursuant to which the condominium or PUD is organized, under the terms, "common areas," "common facilities," "common elements," "common estate," or other similar terms.

(3) The term "Development" means the entire undertaking including all real and personal property, funds and reserves, rights, interests and obligations, and activities related thereto.

(4) The term "EHPA" means the Earned Home Payments Account established and maintained pursuant to section 10 of the Agreement.

(5) The term "Homebuyer" means the member or members of a low-income family who have executed a Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement with the Authority.

(6) The term "Homebuyers Association" (HBA) means an organization as defined in section 5 of this Agreement.

(7) The term "Homeowner" means a Homebuyer who has acquired title to his Home.

(8) The term "Homeowners Association" means an association comprised of Homeowners, including condominium associations, having responsibilities with respect to common property.

(9) The term "HUD" means the Department of Housing and Urban Development which provides the Authority with financial assistance through loans and annual contributions and technical assistance in development and operation.

(10) The term "NRMR" means the Nonroutine Maintenance Reserve established and maintained pursuant to section 11 of this Agreement.

(11) The term "Project" is used to refer to the Development in relation to matters specifically related to the Annual Contributions Contract.

2. The Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement. Under this Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement, the Homebuyer may achieve ownership of the home described in Part I by making the required monthly payments and providing maintenance and repairs to build up a credit in his Earned Home Payments Account (hereinafter called "EHPA"). While the Homebuyer is performing his obligations, the purchase price will be reduced in accordance with the Purchase Price Schedule, so that, while this purchase price is being reduced, the Homebuyer is increasing the amount of his EHPA. The Homebuyer may also make voluntary payments to his EHPA which will enable him to acquire ownership more quickly. The Homebuyer may take title to his Home when he is able to finance or pay in full the balance of the purchase price as shown on the Purchase Price Schedule plus the costs incidental to acquiring ownership, as provided in section 16 or 17, as applicable.

3. Status of Homebuyer. Until the Homebuyer satisfies the conditions set forth in section 10d precedent to the exercise of his option to purchase the Home for the applicable purchase price, the Homebuyer shall have the status of a lessee of the Authority from month to month with an obligation to build up such balance in his EHPA within the first two years of his occupancy and to continue adding to his EHPA thereafter. For convenience the term "Homebuyer" also refers to the occupant during his status as a lessee.

4. Counseling of Homebuyers. The Authority shall provide training and counseling, as required and approved by HUD. The Authority's own staff and resources, existing community resources, a private agency under contract with the Authority, or any combination of the three, shall be utilized to prepare Homebuyers for the rights, responsibilities, and obligations of homeownership including participation in the Homebuyers Association. The Homebuyer agrees to participate in and cooperate fully in all official training and counseling activities.

5. Homebuyers Association.[2] Upon the signing of this Agreement, the Homebuyer's family automatically becomes a member of the Homebuyers Association having membership and purposes as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation of said Association. In the absence of a duly organized Homebuyers Association, the Authority shall be free to act without the HBA action required by this Agreement.

6. Routine maintenance, repair and use of premises. a. Routine maintenance. The Homebuyer shall be responsible for the routine maintenance of his dwelling and grounds, to the satisfaction of the Homebuyers Association and the Authority. This routine maintenance includes the work (labor and materials) of keeping the dwelling structure, grounds and equipment in good repair, condition and appearance so that they may be utilized continually at their designed capacities and at the satisfactory level of efficiency for their intended purposes, and in conformity with the requirements of local housing codes and applicable regulations and guidelines of HUD. It includes repairs (labor and materials) to the dwelling structure, plumbing fixtures, dwelling equipment (such as range and refrigerator), shades and screens, water heaters, heating equipment and other component parts of the dwelling. It also includes all interior painting and maintenance of the grounds (lot) on which the dwelling is located. It does not include maintenance and replacements provided for by the Nonroutine Maintenance Reserve described in Section 11.

b. Repair of damage. In addition to his obligation for routine maintenance, the Homebuyer shall be responsible for repair of any damage caused by the Homebuyer, members of his family, or visitors.

c. Care of Home. The Homebuyer agrees to keep his dwelling in a sanitary condition; to cooperate with the Authority and the Homebuyers Association in keeping and maintaining the common area and property, including fixtures and equipment, in good condition and appearance; and to follow all rules of the Authority and of the Homebuyers Association concerning the use and care of the dwellings and the common areas and property.

d. Inspections. The Homebuyer agrees to permit officials, employees, or agents of the Authority, and of the Homebuyers Association to inspect his Home at reasonable hours and intervals in accordance with rules established by the Authority and the Homebuyers Association.

e. Use of Home. The Homebuyer shall not (1) sublet his Home without the prior written approval of the Authority and HUD, (2) use or occupy his home for any unlawful purpose nor for any purpose deemed hazardous by insurance companies on account of fire and other risks, or (3) provide accommodations (unless approved by the Homebuyers Association and the Authority) to boarders or lodgers. The Homebuyer agrees to use the Home only as a place to live for himself and his family (as identified in his initial application or by subsequent amendment with the approval of the Authority), for children thereafter born to or adopted by members of such family, and for aged or widowed parents of the Homebuyer or spouse who may join the household.

f. Obligations with respect to other persons and property. Neither the Homebuyer nor any member of his family shall interfere with rights of other occupants of the Development, or damage the common property or the property of others, or create physical hazards.

g. Structural changes. A Homebuyer shall not make any structural changes in or additions to his Home unless the Authority has first determined in writing that such change would not (1) impair the value of the unit, the surrounding units, or the Development as a whole, or (2) affect the use of the Home for residential purposes, or (3) violate HUD requirements as to construction and design. Any changes made in accordance with this paragraph shall be at the Homebuyer's expense, and in the event of termination of this Agreement before the Homebuyer acquires title to the Home, whether by reason of the Homebuyer's default or otherwise, the Homebuyer shall not be entitled to any compensation on account of his having made such changes.

h. Statement of condition and repair. When the Homebuyer moves in, the Authority shall inspect the Home and shall give the Homebuyer a written statement, to be signed by the Authority and the Homebuyer, of the condition of the Home and the equipment in it. Should the Homebuyer vacate, the Authority shall inspect the Home and give the Homebuyer a written statement of the repairs and other work, if any, required to put the Home in good condition for the next occupant (see section 10k). The Homebuyer or his representative, or both, may join in any such inspections with the Authority and the Homebuyer Association.

7. Monthly payments by Homebuyer—a. Determination of amount. Except as otherwise provided hereinafter, the Homebuyer agrees to pay to the Authority, so long as this Agreement is in effect, a required Monthly Payment as lease rental in an amount determined in accordance with a schedule adopted by the Authority and approved by HUD. Although the total monthly housing cost consists of the sum of the break-even amount (see section 8) and the debt service (payment of principal and interest) on the applicable share of the capital cost of the Development, the Homebuyer, so long as he qualifies as low income, is not required to pay the full amount, but is assisted by HUD annual contributions. The schedule shall provide for payments to be based upon a percentage of the family's adjusted monthly income and shall indicate allowances for those utilities which the Homebuyer will pay for directly.

b. Changes in monthly payment due to changes in family income or other circumstances. The required Monthly Payment may be adjusted as a result of the Authority's regularly or specially scheduled reexamination of the Homebuyer's family income and family composition. Interim changes may be made in accordance with the Authority's policy on reexaminations, or under unusual circumstances, at the request of the Homebuyer, if both the Authority and the Homebuyers Association agree that such action is warranted.

c. Changes in monthly payment due to changes in rent schedules. The required Monthly Payment may also be adjusted by changes in the required percentage of income to reflect (1) changes in operating expense as described in section 9b and (2) changes in utility allowances.

d. Acceptance of monthly payment. The Authority shall not refuse to accept monthly payments because of any other charges (i.e., other than overdue monthly payments) owed by the Homebuyer to the Authority; however, by accepting monthly payments under such circumstances the Authority shall not be deemed to have waived any of its rights and remedies with respect to such other charges.

e. Application of monthly payment. The Homebuyer's Monthly Payment shall be applied by the Authority as follows: First, to the credit of the Homebuyer's EHPA pursuant to section 10 below; second, to the credit of the Nonroutine Maintenance Reserve for the Home pursuant to Section 11 below; and third, for payment of Monthly Operating Expense, including contribution to Operating Reserve, as provided in section 9 below.

8. Break-even amount—a. Definition. The term "Break-even Amount" means the minimum monthly amount needed to provide funds for:

(1) Monthly Operating Expense, including provision for a contribution to Operating Reserve, pursuant to section 9a below;

(2) the monthly amount to be credited to the Homebuyer's EHPA pursuant to Section 10 below; and

(3) the monthly amount to be credited to the Nonroutine Maintenance Reserve for the Home pursuant to section 11 below.

b. Monthly payment in excess of break-even amount. When the Homebuyer's required Monthly Payment exceeds the applicable Break-even Amount, the excess shall constitute additional Project income and shall be deposited and used in the same manner as other Project income.

c. Monthly payment below break-even amount. When the Homebuyer's required Monthly Payment is less than the applicable Break-even Amount, the deficit shall be applied as a reduction of that portion of the Monthly Payment designated for Operating Expense (i.e., as a reduction of project income). In all such cases, the EHPA and the NRMR shall be credited with the amount included in the Break-even Amount for these accounts.

9. Monthly operating expense—a. Definition and categories of monthly operating expense. The term "monthly operating expense" means the monthly amount needed for the following purposes:

(1) Administration. Administrative salaries, travel, legal expenses, office supplies, postage, telephone and telegraph, etc.;

(2) Homebuyer services.—Authority expenses in the achievement of social goals, including costs such as salaries, publications, payments to the HBA to assist its operation, contract and other costs;

(3) Utilities. Those utilities (such as water), if any to be furnished by the Authority as part of operating expense;

(4) Routine maintenance—Common property. For community building, grounds, and other common areas, if any. The amount required for routine maintenance of common property depends upon the type of common property included in the Development and the extent of the Authority's responsibility for maintenance (see also section 9c);

(5) Protective services. The cost of supplemental protective services paid by the Authority for the protection of persons and property;

(6) General expense. Premiums for fire and other insurance, payments in lieu of taxes to the local taxing body, collection losses, payroll taxes, etc.;

(7) Nonroutine maintenance—common property (contribution to operating reserve). Extraordinary maintenance of equipment applicable to the community building and grounds, and unanticipated items for non-dwelling structures (see section 12).

b. Monthly operating expense rate. The monthly operating expense rate for each fiscal year shall be established on the basis of the Authority's HUD-approved operating budget for that fiscal year. The operating budget may be revised during the course of the fiscal year in accordance with HUD requirements. If it is subsequently determined that the actual operating expense for a fiscal year was more or less than the amount provided by the monthly operating expense established for that fiscal year, the rate of monthly operating expense to be established for the next fiscal year may be adjusted to account for the difference (see section 12). Such adjustment may result in a change in the required monthly payment (see section 7c).

c. Provision for common property maintenance. During the period the Authority is responsible for the maintenance of common property, the annual operating budget and the monthly operating expense rate shall include the amount required for routine maintenance of all common property in the Development, even though a number of the homes may have been acquired by homebuyers. During such period, this amount shall be computed on the basis of the total number of homes in the Development (i.e., the annual amount budgeted for routine maintenance of common property shall be divided by the number of Homes in the Development, resulting in the annual amount for each Home; this figure shall in turn be divided by 12 to determine the monthly amount to be included in the monthly operating expense (and in the break-even amount) for routine maintenance of common property). After the Homeowners Association assumes responsibility for maintenance of common property, the monthly operating expense (and break-even amount) shall include an amount equal to the monthly assessment by the homeowners association for the remaining homes owned by the Authority (see section 11 for nonroutine maintenance of common property).

d. Posting of monthly operating expense statement. A statement showing the budgeted monthly amount allocated in the current operating budget to each operating expense category shall be provided to the HBA and a copy shall be provided to the Homebuyer upon request.

10. Earned Home Payments Account (EHPA).—a. Credits to the account. The Authority shall establish and maintain a separate EHPA for each Homebuyer. Since the Homebuyer is responsible for maintaining his Home as provided in section 6, a portion of his required Monthly Payment equal to the Authority's estimate, approved by HUD, of the monthly cost for such routine maintenance, taking into consideration the relative type and size of the Home, shall be set aside in his EHPA. In addition, this account shall also be credited with (1) any voluntary payments made pursuant to section 10g and (2) any amount earned through the performance of maintenance pursuant to paragraph e of this section. All amounts received by the Authority for credit to the Homebuyer's account, including credits for performance of maintenance pursuant to paragraph e of this section, shall be held by the Authority for the account of the Homebuyer.

b. Use of EHPA funds. The unused balance in the Homebuyer's EHPA may be used toward purchase of the Home as provided in section 16 or 17 as applicable, or shall be payable to the Homebuyer if he leaves the Project as provided in paragraph k of this section.

c. Charges to the account. (1) If for any reason the Homebuyer is unable or fails to perform any item of required maintenance as described in section 6, the Authority shall arrange to have the work done in accordance with the procedures established by the Authority and the HBA and the cost thereof shall be charged to the Homebuyer's EHPA. Inspections of the Home shall be made jointly by the Authority and the HBA.

[2] There may be cases, such as where the homes are on scattered sites, where there is no Homebuyers Association but an alternative method for homebuyer representation and counseling is provided (see 24 CFR 1270.307). In such cases, section 5 and other portions of this Agreement referring to the Homebuyers Association should be modified to reflect the alternative method provided for homebuyer representation and counseling.

V 39 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

(2) To the extent nonroutine maintenance expense is made necessary by the negligence of the Homebuyer as determined by the HBA and the Authority (see section 11), the cost thereof shall be charged to the EHPA.

d. Exercise of option; required amount in EHPA. The Homebuyer may exercise his option to buy the Home, by paying the applicable purchase price pursuant to section 16 or 17, only after satisfying the following conditions precedent:

(1) Within the first two years of his occupancy, he has achieved a balance in his EHPA equal to 20 times the amount of the monthly EHPA credit as initially determined in accordance with paragraph a of this section;

(2) He has met, and is continuing to meet, the requirements of this Agreement;

(3) He has rendered, and is continuing to render, satisfactory performance of his responsibilities to the HBA.

When the Homebuyer has met these conditions precedent, the Authority shall give the Homebuyer a certificate to that effect. After achieving the required minimum EHPA balance within the first two years of his occupancy, the Homebuyer shall continue to be obligated to provide the required maintenance, thereby continuing to add to his EHPA. If the Homebuyer fails to meet either his obligation to achieve the minimum EHPA balance as specified or his obligation thereafter to continue adding to the EHPA, the Authority and the HBA shall investigate and take appropriate corrective action, including termination of this Agreement by the Authority in accordance with section 24.

e. Additional equity through other maintenance. Besides the maintenance which the Homebuyer must provide pursuant to section 6, the Homebuyer may earn additional EHPA credits by providing in whole or in part any of the maintenance necessary to the common property of the Development or maintenance for which the Nonroutine Maintenance Reserve is established (see section 11). Such maintenance may be provided by the Homebuyer and credit earned therefor only pursuant to a prior written agreement between the Homebuyer and the Authority (or the Homeowners Association, depending on who has responsibility for maintenance of the property involved), covering the nature and scope of the work and the amount of credit the Homebuyer is to receive. Upon completion of such work, the agreed amount shall be charged to the appropriate maintenance account and credited to the Homebuyer's EHPA.

f. Investment of excess. When the aggregate amount of all EHPA balances exceeds the estimated reserve requirements for 90 days, the Authority shall notify the HBA and shall invest the excess in federally-insured savings accounts, federally insured credit unions, and/or securities approved by HUD and in accordance with any recommendations made by the HBA. If the HBA wishes to participate in the investment program it should submit periodically to the Authority a list of HUD approved securities, bonds, or obligations which the HBA recommends for investment by the Authority of the funds in the EHPAs. Interest earned on the investment of such funds shall be prorated and credited to each Homebuyer's EHPA in proportion to the amount in each such reserve account.

Periodically, but not less often than semi-annually the Authority shall prepare a statement showing: (1) The aggregate amount of all EHPA balances; (2) the aggregate amount of investments (savings accounts and/or securities) held for the account of all the Homebuyers' EHPAs, and (3) the aggregate uninvested balance of all the Homebuyers' EHPAs. This statement shall be made available to any authorized representative of the HBA.

g. Voluntary payments. To enable the Homebuyer to acquire title to the Home within a shorter period, he may either periodically or in a lump sum voluntarily make payments over and above his required monthly payments. Such voluntary payments shall be deposited to his credit in his EHPA.

h. Delinquent monthly payments. Under exceptional circumstances as determined by the HBA and the Authority, the Homebuyer's EHPA may be used to pay his delinquent required monthly payments, provided the amount used for this purpose does not seriously deplete the account and provided that the Homebuyer agrees to cooperate in such counseling as may be made available by the Authority or the HBA.

i. Annual statement to homebuyer. The Authority shall provide an annual statement to the Homebuyer specifying at least (1) the amount in his EHPA, and (2) the amount in his Nonroutine Maintenance Reserve. During the year, any maintenance or repair done on the dwelling by the Authority which is chargeable to the EHPA or to the Nonroutine Maintenance Reserve, shall be accounted for through a work order. The Homebuyer shall receive a copy of all such work orders for his Home.

j. Withdrawal and assignment. The Homebuyer shall have no right to assign, withdraw, or in any way dispose of the funds in his EHPA except as provided in this section or in sections 16 and 17.

k. Application of EHPA upon vacating of dwelling. (1) In the event this Agreement is terminated or if the Homebuyer vacates the Home, the Authority shall charge against the Homebuyer's EHPA the amounts required to pay: (i) The amount due the Authority, including the monthly payments the Homebuyer is obligated to pay up to the date he vacates; (ii) the monthly payment for the period the Home is vacant, not to exceed 30 days from the date of notice of intention to vacate, or if the Homebuyer failed to give notice of intention to vacate, 30 days from the date the Home is put in good condition for the next occupant in conformity with section 6; and (iii) the cost of any nonroutine maintenance, and of any nonroutine maintenance attributable to the negligence of the Homebuyer, required to put the Home in good condition for the next occupant in conformity with section 6.

(2) If the Homebuyer's EHPA balance is not sufficient to cover all of these charges, the Authority shall require the Homebuyer to pay the additional amount due. If the amount in the EHPA exceeds these charges, the excess shall be paid the Homebuyer.

(3) Settlement with the Homebuyer shall be made promptly after the actual cost of repairs to the dwelling has been determined (see paragraph k(1)(iii) of this section), provided that the Authority shall make every effort to make such settlement within 30 days from the date the Homebuyer vacates. The Homebuyer may obtain a settlement within 7 days of the date he vacates, even though the actual cost of such repairs has not yet been determined, if he has given the Authority notice of intention to vacate 30 days prior to the date he vacates and if the amount to be charged against his EHPA for such repairs is based on the Authority's estimate of the cost thereof (determined after consultation with the appropriate representative of the HBA).

11. Nonroutine maintenance reserve (NRMR)—a. Purpose of reserve. The Authority shall establish and maintain a separate nonroutine maintenance reserve (NRMR) for the Home, using a portion of the Homebuyer's monthly payment. The purpose of the NRMR is to provide funds for the nonroutine maintenance of the Home, which consists of the infrequent and costly items of maintenance and replacement shown on the Nonroutine Maintenance Schedule for the Home (see paragraph b of this section). Such maintenance may include the replacement of dwelling equipment (such as range and refrigerator), replacement of roof, exterior painting, major repairs to heating and plumbing systems, etc. The NRMR shall not be used for nonroutine maintenance of common property, or for nonroutine maintenance relating to the Home to the extent such maintenance is attributable to the Homebuyer's negligence or to defective materials or workmanship.

b. Amount of reserve. The amount of the monthly payments to be set aside for NRMR shall be determined by the Authority, with the approval of HUD, on the basis of the Nonroutine Maintenance Schedule showing the amount estimated to be needed for nonroutine maintenance of the Home during the term of this Agreement, taking into consideration the type of construction and dwelling equipment. This Schedule shall (1) list each item of nonroutine maintenance (e.g., range, refrigerator, plumbing, heating system, roofing, tile flooring, exterior painting, etc.), (2) show for each listed item the estimated frequency of maintenance or useful life before replacement, the estimated cost of maintenance or replacement (including installation) for each occasion, and the annual reserve requirement, and (3) show the total reserve requirements for all the listed items, on an annual and a monthly basis. This Schedule shall be prepared by the Authority and approved by HUD as part of the submission required to determined the financial feasibility of the Project. The Schedule shall be revised after approval of the working drawings and specifications, and shall thereafter be reexamined annually in the light of changing economic conditions and experience.

c. Charges to reserve. (1) The Authority shall provide the nonroutine maintenance necessary for the Home and the cost thereof shall be funded as provided in paragraph c(2) and c(3) of this section. Such maintenance may be provided by the Homebuyer but only pursuant to a prior written agreement with the Authority covering the nature and scope of the work and the amount of credit the Homebuyer is to receive. The amount of any credit shall, upon completion of the work, be credited to the Homebuyer's EHPA and charged as provided in paragraph c(2) of this section.

(2) The cost of nonroutine maintenance shall be charged to the NRMR for the Home except that (i) to the extent such maintenance is attributable to the fault or negligence of the Homebuyer, the cost shall be charged to the Homebuyer's EHPA after consultation with the HBA if the Homebuyer disagrees, and (ii) to the extent such maintenance is attributable to defective materials or workmanship not covered by warranty, or even though covered by warranty if not paid for through no fault or negligence of the Homebuyer, the cost shall be charged to the appropriate operating expense account of the Project.

(3) In the event the amount charged against the NRMR exceeds the balance therein, the difference (deficit) shall be made up from continuing monthly credits to the NRMR based upon the Homebuyer's monthly payments. If there is still a deficit when the Homebuyer acquires title, the Homebuyer shall pay such deficit at settlement.

d. Transfer of NRMR. (1) In the event this Agreement is terminated, the Homebuyer shall not receive any balance or be required to pay any deficit in the NRMR. When a subsequent Homebuyer moves in, the NRMR shall continue to be applicable to the Home in the same amount as if the preceding Homebuyer had continued in occupancy.

(2) In the event the Homebuyer purchases the Home, and there remains a balance in the NRMR, the Authority shall pay such balance to the Homebuyer at settlement. In the event the Homebuyer purchases the Home and there is a deficit in the NRMR, the Homebuyer shall pay such deficit to the Authority at settlement.

e. Investment of excess. (1) When the aggregate amount of the NRMR balances for all the Homes exceeds the estimated reserve requirements for 90 days, the Authority shall invest the excess in federally insured savings accounts, federally insured credit unions, and/or securities approved by HUD. Income earned on the investment of such funds shall be prorated and credited to each Homebuyer's NRMR in proportion to the amount in each reserve account.

(2) Periodically, but not less often than semi-annually, the Authority shall prepare a statement showing (i) the aggregate amount of all NRMR balances, (ii) the aggregate amount of investments (savings accounts and/or securities) held for the account of the NRMR and (iii) the aggregate uninvested balance of the NRMRs. A copy of this statement shall be made available to any authorized representative of the HBA.

12. Operating reserve—a. Purpose of reserve. To the extent that total operating receipts (including subsidies for operations) exceeds total operating expenditures of the Project, the LHA shall establish an operating reserve up to the maximum approved by HUD in connection with its approval of the annual operating budgets for the Project. The purpose of this reserve is to provide funds for (1) the infrequent but costly items of nonroutine maintenance and replacements of common property, taking into consideration the types of items which constitute common property, such as nondwelling structures and equipment, and, in certain cases, common elements of dwelling structures, (2) nonroutine maintenance for the Homes to the extent such maintenance is attributable to defective materials or workmanship not covered by warranty, (3) working capital for payment of a deficit in a Homebuyer's NRMR, until such deficit is offset by future monthly payments by the Homebuyer or at settlement in the event the Homebuyer should purchase, and (4) a deficit in the operation of the Project for a fiscal year, including a deficit resulting from monthly payments totaling less than the break-even amount for the Project.

b. Nonroutine maintenance — common property (contribution to operating reserve). The amount under this heading to be included in operating expense (and in the break-even amount) established for the fiscal year (see sections 8 and 9) shall be determined by the Authority, with the approval of HUD, on the basis of estimates of the monthly amount needed to accumulate an adequate reserve for the items described in paragraph a(1) of this section. This amount shall be subject to revision in the light of experience. This contribution to the Operating Reserve shall be made only during the period the Authority is responsible for the maintenance of any common property; and during such period, the amount shall be determined on the basis of the requirements of all common property in the Development in a manner similar to that explained in Section 9. When the Operating Reserve reaches the maximum authorized in paragraph c of this Section, the break-even (monthly operating expense) computations (see Sections 8 and 9) for the next and succeeding fiscal years need not include a provision for this contribution to the Operating Reserve unless the balance of the Reserve is reduced below the maximum during any such succeeding fiscal year.

c. Maximum operating reserve. The maximum operating reserve that may be retained by the Authority at the end of any fiscal year shall be the sum of (1) one-half of total routine expense included in the operating budget approved for the next fiscal year and (2) one-third of total break-even amounts included in the operating budget approved for the next fiscal year; provided that such maximum may be increased if necessary as determined or approved by HUD. Total routine expense means the sum of the amounts budgeted for administration, homebuyer services, Authority-supplied utilities, routine maintenance of common property, protective services, and general expense or other category of day-to-day routine expense (see section 9 above for explanation of various categories of expense).

d. Transfer to Homeowners Association. The Authority shall be responsible for and shall retain custody of the Operating Reserve until the Homeowners acquire voting control of the Homeowners Association (see sections 21c and 22f). When the Homeowners acquire voting control, the Homeowners Association shall then assume full responsibility for management and maintenance of common property under a plan approved by HUD, and there shall be transferred to the Homeowners Association a portion of the Operating Reserve then held by the Authority, as determined by the Authority with the approval of HUD.

e. Disposition of reserve. If, at the end of a fiscal year, there is an excess over the maximum Operating Reserve, this excess shall be applied to the operating deficit of the Project, if any, and any remainder shall be paid to HUD. Following the end of the fiscal year in which the last Home has been conveyed by the Authority, the balance of the Operating Reserve held by the Authority shall be paid to HUD, provided that the aggregate amount of payments by the Authority under this paragraph shall not exceed the aggregate amount of annual contributions paid by HUD with respect to the Project.

13. Annual statement and copies of work orders to homebuyer. a. The Authority shall maintain books of accounts and provide a statement at least annually to each Homebuyer which will show (1) the amount in his EHPA, and (2) the amount in the NRMR for his Home.

b. During the year, any maintenance or repair done on the dwelling by the Authority, which is chargeable to the EHPA or to the NRMR shall be accounted for through a work order. The Homebuyer shall receive a copy of all such work orders for his Home.

14. Insurance. a. Until transfer of title to the Homebuyer, the Authority shall carry all insurance prescribed by HUD including fire and extended coverage insurance upon the Home in such form and amount and with such company or companies as it determines. The Authority shall not carry any insurance on the Homebuyer's furniture, clothing, automobile, or any other personal property, or personal liability insurance covering the Homebuyer.

b. In the event the Home is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, the Authority shall consult with the Homebuyer as to whether the Home shall be repaired or rebuilt. If the Authority determines that the Home should not be repaired or rebuilt but the Homebuyer disagrees, the matter shall be submitted to HUD for final determination. If the final determination is that the Home should not be repaired or rebuilt, the Authority shall terminate this Agreement upon reasonable notice to the Homebuyer. In such case, the Homebuyer shall be paid the balance in his EHPA and (to assist him in connection with relocation expenses) the balance in his NRMR, less amounts, if any, due from him to the Authority, including Monthly Payments he may be obligated to pay.

c. In the event of termination or if the Home must be vacated during the repair period, the Authority will use its best efforts to assist in relocating the Homebuyer. If the Home must be vacated during the repair period, Monthly Payments shall be suspended during the vacancy period.

15. Eligibility for continued occupancy. a. The Homebuyer shall cease to be eligible for continued occupancy with the aid of HUD annual contributions when the Authority determines that his adjusted monthly income has reached the level, and is likely to continue at such level, at which the current amount of his required monthly payment equals or exceeds the monthly housing cost (see paragraph b of this section). In such event, if the Authority determines, with HUD approval, that suitable financing is available, the Authority shall notify the Homebuyer that he shall either (1) purchase the Home or (2) move from the Development; provided, however, that if the Authority determines that, due to special circumstances, the Homebuyer is unable to find decent, safe and sanitary housing within his financial reach although making every reasonable effort to do so, the Homebuyer may be permitted to remain for the duration of such a situation if he pays an increased monthly payment consistent with his adjusted monthly income; provided that this monthly payment shall not exceed the sum of the monthly break-even amount plus the monthly debt service amount shown on the Purchase Price Schedule for the Home, except that if the rent, including utilities, for comparable unsubsidized housing in the locality is lower, such lower amount may be established as the maximum if the Authority determines with HUD approval that this would be in the best interest of the project. Such an increased monthly payment shall also be payable by the Homebuyer if he continues in occupancy without purchasing the Home because suitable financing is not available.

b. The term "monthly housing cost," as used in this section means the sum of: (1) The monthly debt service amount shown on the Purchase Price Schedule (except where the Homebuyer can purchase the Home by the method described in section 16 below); (2) one-twelfth of the annual real property taxes which the Homebuyer will be required to pay as a Homeowner; (3) one-twelfth of the annual premium attributable to fire and extended coverage insurance carried by the Authority with respect to the Home; (4) the current monthly per unit amount budgeted for routine maintenance (EHPA) and routine maintenance-common property; and (5) the current Authority and HUD approved monthly allowance for utilities paid for directly by the Homebuyer plus the monthly cost of utilities supplied by the Authority.

16. Achievement of ownership by initial homebuyer.—a. Determination of initial purchase price. The Authority shall determine the initial purchase prices of the Homes by two basic steps, as follows:

Step 1. The Authority shall take the Estimated Total Development Cost (including the full amount for contingencies as authorized by HUD) of the Development as shown in the Development Cost Budget in effect upon award of the Main Construction Contract or execution of the Contract of Sale, and shall deduct therefrom the amounts, if any, attributed to (1) relocation costs, (2) counseling and training costs, and (3) the cost of any community, administration or management facilities including the land, equipment and furnishings attributable to such facilities as set forth in the development program for the Development.

The resulting amount is herein called Estimated Total Development Cost for Homebuyers.

Step 2: The Authority shall apportion the Estimated Total Development Cost for Homebuyers among all the Homes in the Development. This apportionment shall be made by obtaining an FHA appraisal of each Home, and adjusting such appraised values (upward or downward) by the percentage difference between the total of the appraisal for all the Homes and the Estimated Total Development Cost for Homebuyers. The adjusted amount for each Home shall be the Initial Purchase Price for that Home.

b. Purchase Price Schedule. The Homebuyer shall be provided with a Purchase Price Schedule showing (1) the monthly declining purchase price over a 30-year period,[3] commencing with the initial purchase price on the first day of the month following the effective date of this Agreement and (2) the monthly debt service amount upon which the Schedule is based. This Schedule and debt service amount shall be computed on the basis of the initial purchase price, a 30-year period,[3] and a rate of interest equal to the minimum loan interest rate as specified in the Annual Contributions Contract for the Project on the date of HUD approval of the Development Cost Budget, described in paragraph a of this section, rounded up, if necessary, to the next multiple of one-fourth of one percent (¼ percent).

c. Methods of Purchase. (1) The Homebuyer may achieve ownership when the amount in his EHPA, plus such portion of the NRMR as he wishes to use for the purchase, is equal to the purchase price as shown at that time on his Purchase Price Schedule plus all Incidental Costs ("Incidental Costs" means the costs incidental to acquiring ownership, including, but not limited to, the costs for a credit report, field survey title examination, title insurance, and inspections, the fees for attorneys other than the LHA's attorney, mortgage application and organization, closing and recording, and the transfer taxes and loan discount payment if any). If for any reason title to the Home is not conveyed to the Homebuyer during the month in which such circumstances occur, the purchase price shall be fixed at the amount specified for such month and the Homebuyer shall be refunded (i) the net additions, if any, credited to his EHPA subsequent to such month, and (ii) such part of the monthly payments made by the Homebuyer after the purchase price has been fixed which exceeds the sum of the break-even amount attributable to the Home and the interest portion of the debt service shown in the Purchase Price Schedule.

(2) Where the sum of the purchase price and Incidental Costs is greater than the amounts in the Homebuyer's EHPA and NRMR, the Homebuyer may achieve ownership by obtaining financing for or otherwise paying the excess amount. The purchase price shall be the amount shown on his Purchase Price Schedule for the month in which the settlement date for the purchase occurs.

d. The maximum period for achieving ownership shall be 30 years, but depending upon increases in the Homebuyer's income and the amount of credit which the Homebuyer can accumulate through maintenance and voluntary payments, the period may be shortened accordingly.

17. Achievement of Ownership by Subsequent Homebuyer. a. Definition. In the event the initial Homebuyer and his family vacate the Home before having acquired ownership, a subsequent occupant who enters into a Homebuyer's Ownership Opportunity Agreement and who is not a successor pursuant to section 25 is herein called "Subsequent Homebuyer."

b. Determination of Initial Purchase Price. The initial purchase price for a subsequent Homebuyer shall be an amount equal to (1) the purchase price shown in the initial Homebuyer's Purchase Price Schedule as of the date of this Agreement with the subsequent Homebuyer plus (2) the amount, if any, by which the appraised fair market value of the Home determined or approved by HUD as of the same date, exceeds the purchase price specified in (1). In the event such appraised value has not been determined by the date of execution of this Agreement, the amount of the Initial Purchase Price shall be inserted in part I, section D after this determination has been made, with appropriate initialling or signing by the parties.

c. Purchase Price Schedule. The Subsequent Homebuyer's Purchase Price Schedule shall be the same as the unexpired portion of the initial Homebuyer's Purchase Price Schedule except that where his purchase price includes an additional amount as specified in paragraph b(2) of this section, the initial Homebuyer's Purchase Price Schedule shall be followed by an Additional Purchase Price Schedule for such additional amount based upon the same monthly debt service and the same interest rate as applied to the initial Homebuyer's Purchase Price Schedule.

18. Transfer of Title to Homebuyer. When the Homebuyer is to obtain ownership, a closing date shall be mutually agreed upon by the patries. On the closing date, the Homebuyer shall pay the required amount of money to the Authority, sign the promissory note pursuant to section 19, and receive a deed for the Home.

19. Payment Upon Resale at Profit—a. Promissory Note. (1) When a Homebuyer (whether Initial or Subsequent Homebuyer) achieves ownership, he shall sign a note obligating him to make a payment to the Authority, subject to the provisions of paragraph (a)(2) of this section, in the event he resells his Home at a profit within 5 years of actual residence in the Home after he becomes a Homeowner. If, however, the Homeowner should purchase and occupy another Home within one year (18 months in case of a newly constructed home) of the resale of the Turnkey III Home, the Authority shall refund to the Homeowner the amount previously paid by him under the note, less the amount, if any, by which the resale price of the Turnkey III Home exceeds the acquisition price of the new home, provided that application for such refund shall be made no later than 30 days after the date of acquisition of the new home.

(2) The note to be signed by the Homebuyer pursuant to paragraph (a)(1) of this section shall be secured by a second mortgage. The initial amount of the note shall be computed by taking the appraised value of the Home at the time the Homebuyer becomes a Homeowner and subtracting (i) the Homebuyer's purchase price plus the Incidental Costs and (ii) the increase in value of the Home, determined by appraisal, caused by improvements paid for by the Homebuyer with funds from sources other than the EHPA or NRMR. The note shall provide that this initial amount shall be automatically reduced by 20 percent thereof at the end of each year of residency as Homeowner, with the note terminating at the end of the five-year period of residency, as determined by the Authority. To protect the Homeowner, the note shall provide that the amount payable under it shall in no event be more than the net profit on the resale, that is, the amount by which the resale price exceeds the sum of (i) the Homebuyer's purchase price plus the Incidental Costs, (ii) the costs of the resale, including commissions and mortgage prepayment penalties, if any, and (iii) the increase in value of the Home, determined by appraisal, resulting from improvements paid for by him as a Homebuyer (with funds other than from the EHPA or NRMR) or as a Homeowner.

(b) Residency requirements. The five-year note periods does not end if the Homeowner rents or otherwise does not use the Home as his principal place of residence for any period within the first five years after he achieves ownership. Only the actual amount of time he is in residence is counted and the note shall be in effect until a total of five years time of residence has elapsed, at which time the Homeowner may request the Authority to release him from the note, and the Authority shall do so.

20. Responsibilities of Homeowner. After acquisition of ownership, the Homeowner shall pay to the Authority or to the Homeowners Association, as appropriate, a monthly fee for (a) the maintenance and operation of community facilities including utility facilities, if any, (b) the maintenance of grounds and other common areas, and (c) such other purpose as determined by the Authority or the Homeowners Association, as appropriate, including taxes and a provision for a reserve.

21. Homeowners Association—Planned Unit Development (PUD)[4]

If the Development is organized as a planned unit development:

a. The common areas, sidewalks, parking lots and other common property in the Development shall be owned and maintained as provided for in the approved planned unit development (PUD) program, except that the Authority shall be responsible for maintenance until such time as the Homeowners Association assumes such responsibility (see section 12 above).

b. The title ultimately conveyed to the Homebuyer shall be subject to restrictions and encumbrances to protect the rights and property of all other Homeowners. The Homeowners Association shall have the right and obligation to enforce such restrictions and encumbrances and to assess Homeowners for the costs incurred in connection with common areas and property and other responsibilities.

c. There shall be as many votes in the Association as there are Homes in the Development, and at the outset all the voting rights will be held by the Authority. As each Home is conveyed to a Homebuyer, one vote shall automatically go to that Homebuyer so that when all the Homes have been conveyed, the Authority shall no longer have any interest in the Homeowners Association.

d. The Authority shall not lose its majority voting interest in the Association as soon as a majority of the Homes have been conveyed, unless the law of the state requires control to be transferred at a particular time or the Authority so desires. If permitted by state law, provisions shall be made for each Home owned by the Authority to carry three votes while each Home owned by a Homeowner shall carry one vote. Under this weighted voting plan, the Authority will continue to have voting control until 75 percent of the Homes have been acquired by Homeowners. However, at its discretion, the Authority may transfer voting control to the Homeowners when at least 50 percent of the Homes have been acquired by the Homeowners.

[3] Change to 25-year period where appropriate pursuant to § 1270.101(b)(3) of this subpart.

[4] If this Home is a Development of scattered sites, delete both sections 21 and 22. If this Home is in a Planned Unit Development, delete section 22. If this Home is in a Condominium, delete section 21.

22. Homeowners Association—Condominium.[5] If the Development is organized as a condominium:

a. The Authority at the outset shall own each condominium unit and the undivided interest of such unit in the common areas.

b. All the land, including that land under the housing units, shall be a part of the common areas.

c. The Homeowners Association shall own no property and shall merely maintain and operate the common areas for the individual owners of the condominium units, except that the Authority shall be responsible for maintenance until such time as the Homeowners Association assumes such responsibility (see section 12 above).

d. The percentage of undivided interest attached to each condominium unit shall be based on the ratio of the value of the unit to the value of all units and shall be fixed when the Development is completed. This percentage shall determine the Homeowner's liability for the maintenance of the common areas and facilities.

e. Each Homeowner vote in the Homeowners Association will be identical with the percentage of undivided interest attached to his unit.

f. The Authority shall not lose its majority voting interest in the Association as soon as units representing more than 50 percent of the value of all units have been conveyed, unless the law of the state requires control to be transferred at a particular time or the Authority so desires. For voting purposes, until units representing 75 percent of the value of all units have been acquired by Homeowners, the total undivided interest attributable to the Homes owned by the Authority shall be multiplied by three, if such weighted voting plan is permitted by state law. Under this plan, the Authority will continue to have voting control until units representing 75 percent of the value of all units have been acquired by Homeowners. However, at its discretion the Authority may transfer voting control to the Homeowners when units representing at least 50 percent of the value of all units have been acquired by the Homeowners.

23. Relationship of Homeowners Association to Homebuyers Association. The Homebuyers Association and the Authority may make arrangements with the Homeowners Association to permit Homebuyers to participate in Homeowners Association matters which affect the Homebuyers. Such arrangements may include rights to attend meetings and to participate in Homeowners Association deliberations and decisions.

24. Termination of Agreement. a. Termination by the Authority. (1) In the event the Homebuyer should breach this Agreement by failure to make a required Monthly Payment within 10 days after its due date, by misrepresentation or withholding of information in applying for admission or in connection with any subsequent reexamination of income and family composition, or by failure to comply with any other Homebuyer obligation under this Agreement, the Authority may terminate this Agreement 30 days after giving the Homebuyer notice of its intention to do so in accordance with paragraph (2) of this section.

(2) Notice of termination by the Authority shall be in writing. Such notice shall state (i) the reason for termination, (ii) that the Homebuyer may respond to the Authority, in writing or in person, within a specified reasonable period of time regarding the reason for termination, (iii) that in such response he may be represented or accompanied by a person of his choice, including a representative of the HBA, (iv) that the Authority will consult the HBA concerning the termination, and (v) that, unless the Authority rescinds or modifies the notice, the termination will be effective at the end of the 30-day notice period.

b. Termination by the Homebuyer. The Homebuyer may terminate this Agreement by giving the Authority 30 days notice in writing of his intention to terminate and to vacate the Home. In the event that the Homebuyer vacates the Home without notice to the Authority, this Agreement shall be terminated automatically and the Authority may dispose of, in any manner deemed suitable by it, any items of personal property left by the Homebuyer in the Home.

c. Transfer to rental unit. (1) Inasmuch as the Homebuyer was found eligible for admission to the Project on the basis of having the necessary elements, of potential for Homeownership, continuation of eligibility requires continuation of this potential, subject only to temporary unforeseen changes in circumstances. The standards of potential for Homeownership are the following:

(i) Income sufficient to result in a required monthly payment which is not less than the sum of the amounts necessary to pay the EHPA, the NRMR, and the estimated average monthly cost of utilities attributable to the Home;

(ii) Ability to meet all the obligations of a Homebuyer under the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement;

(iii) At least one member gainfully employed, or having an established source of continuing income.

(2) Accordingly, in the event it should develop that the Homebuyer no longer meets one or more of these elements of Homeownership potential, the Authority shall investigate the circumstances and provide such counseling and assistance as may be feasible in order to help the family overcome the deficiency as promptly as possible. After a reasonable time, not to exceed 30 days from the date of evaluation of the results of the investigation, the Authority shall make a re-evaluation as to whether the family has regained the potential for Homeownership or is likely to do so within a further reasonable time, not to exceed 30 days from the date of the re-evaluation. Further extension of time may be granted in exceptional cases, but in any event a final determination shall be made no later than 90 days from the date of evaluation of the results of the initial investigation. The Authority shall invite the HBA to participate in all investigations and evaluations.

(3) If the final determination of the Authority, after considering the views of the HBA, is that the Homebuyer should be transferred to a suitable dwelling unit in an Authority rental project, the Authority shall give the Homebuyer written notice of the Authority determination of the loss of Homeownership potential and of the offer of transfer to a rental unit. The notice shall state that the transfer shall occur as soon as a suitable rental unit is available for occupancy, but no earlier than 30 days from the date of the notice, provided that an eligible successor for the Homebuyer unit has been selected by the Authority. The notice shall also state that if the Homebuyer should refuse to move under such circumstances, the family may be required to vacate the Homebuyer unit, without further notice. The notice shall include a statement (i) that the Homebuyer may respond to the Authority in writing or in person, within a specified reasonable time, regarding the reason for the determination and offer of transfer, (ii) that in such response he may be represented or accompanied by a person of his choice including a representative of the HBA, and (iii) that the Authority has consulted the HBA concerning this determination and offer of transfer.

(4) When a Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement is terminated pursuant to this paragraph 24c, the amount in the Homebuyer's EHPA shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 10k of this Agreement.

25. Survivorship. (1) In the event of death, mental incapacity or abandonment of the family by the Homebuyer, the person designated as the successor in part I of this Agreement shall succeed to the rights and responsibilities under the Agreement if that person is an occupant of the Home at the time of the event and is determined by the Authority to meet all of the standards of potential for homeownership as set forth in section 24a. This designation may be changed by the Homebuyer at any time. If there is no such designation or the designee is no longer an occupant of the Home or does not meet the standards of potential for homeownership, the Authority may consider as the Homebuyer any family member who was in occupancy at the time of the event and who meets the standards of potential for homeownership.

(2) If there is no qualified successor in accordance with the above, the Authority shall terminate the Agreement and another family shall be selected, except under the following circumstances: where a minor child or children of the Homebuyer family are in occupancy, then in order to protect their continued occupancy and opportunity for acquisition of ownership of the Home, the Authority may approve as occupants of the unit, an appropriate adult(s) who has been appointed legal guardian of the children with a duty to perform the obligations of the Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement in their interest and behalf.

26. Nonassignability and Use of Reserves and Accounts. a. Nonassignability. The Homebuyer shall not assign this Agreement, or assign, mortgage or pledge any right or interest in the Home or in this Agreement including any right or interest in any reserve or account, except with the prior written approval of the Authority and HUD.

b. Use of Reserves and Accounts. It is understood and agreed that the Homebuyer shall have no right to receive or use the money in any reserve or account created pursuant to this Agreement except for the limited purposes and under the special circumstances set forth by the terms of this Agreement. It is further understood and agreed that both the Authority and HUD have a financial and a governmental interest in the Earned Home Payments Account and other reserves as security for the financial integrity of the Development, as a means of savings in cost to the Government by minimizing the amount and period over which HUD annual contributions must be paid, and as a means of advancing the public interest and welfare by assisting low-income families to achieve homeownership.

27. Notices. Any notice required hereunder or by law shall be sufficient if delivered in writing to the Homebuyer personally or to an adult member of his family residing in the dwelling unit or if sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, properly addressed to the Homebuyer, postage prepaid. Notice to the Authority shall be in writing, and either delivered to any Authority employee at the office of the Authority or sent to the Authority by certified mail, properly addressed, postage prepaid.

28. Grievance Procedure. All grievances or appeals arising under this Agreement shall be processed and resolved pursuant to the grievance procedure of the Authority, which procedure shall provide for participation of the HBA in the grievance process. This grievance procedure shall be posted in the Authority's Office.

PROMISSORY NOTE FOR PAYMENT UPON RESALE BY HOMEBUYER AT PROFIT

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, _____ (Homeowner) promises to pay to _____ (Authority) or order, the principal sum of _____[1] Dollars ($_____), without interest, on the date of resale by the Homeowner of the property conveyed by the Authority to the Homeowner.

Such principal sum shall be reduced automatically by 20 percent of the initial amount at the end of each year of such residency, as a Homeowner, and this note shall terminate at the end of five years of such residency, as determined by the Authority; Provided, however, that the amount payable under this note shall in no event be more than the net profit on the resale, that is, the amount by which the resale price exceeds the sum of (1) the Homeowner's purchase price, (2) the costs incidental to his acquisition of ownership, (3) the costs of the resale, including commissions and mortgage prepayment penalties, if any, and (4) the increase in value of the Home, determined by appraisal, due to improvements paid for by the Homeowner whether as a Homebuyer (with funds from sources other than his Earned Home Payments Account or his Non-routine Maintenance Reserve) or as a Homeowner.

If the Homeowner shall pay this note at the time and in the manner set forth above, or if, by its provisions, the amount of this note shall be zero, then the note shall terminate and the Authority shall, within thirty (30) days after written demand therefor by the Homeowner, execute a release and satisfaction of this note. The Homeowner hereby waives the benefits of all statutes or laws which require the earlier execution or delivery of such release and satisfaction by the Authority.

Presentment, protest, and notice are hereby waived.

Subpart C—Homeownership Counseling and Training

§ 1270.201 Purpose.

The purpose of the counseling and training program shall be to assure that the homebuyers, individually and collectively through their homebuyers association (HBA), will be more capable of dealing with situations with which they may be confronted, making decisions related to these situations, and understanding and accepting the responsibility and consequences that accompany those decisions.

§ 1270.202 Objectives.

The counseling and training program should seek to achieve the following objectives:

(a) Enable the potential homebuyer to have a full understanding of the responsibilities that accompany his participation in the Homeownership Opportunity Program;

(b) Enable the potential homebuyer to have an understanding of homeownership tasks with specific training given to individuals as the need and readiness for counseling or training indicates;

(c) Assure that the role of the HBA is understood and plans for its organization are initiated at the earliest practical time;

(d) Develop an understanding of the role of the LHA and of the need for a cooperative relationship between the homebuyer and the LHA;

(e) Encourage the development of self-help by the homebuyer through reducing dependency and increasing independent action;

(f) Develop an understanding of mutual assistance and cooperation that will develop a feeling of self-respect, pride and community responsibility;

(g) Develop local resources that can be of assistance to the individual and the community on an on-going basis.

§ 1270.203 Planning.

(a) The counseling and training program shall be flexible and responsive to the needs of each prospective homebuyer. While many subjects lend themselves to group sessions, consideration shall be given to individual counseling. Individuals should not be required to attend training classes on subject matter they are familiar with unless they can actively participate in the instruction process.

(b) The program may be provided by contract with an outside organization, or by the LHA staff, in either case with voluntary involvement and assistance of groups and individuals within the community. It is essential that the training entity be completely knowledgeable and supportive of the entire Homeownership Opportunity Program. It may be recognized that most of the objectives stated require specialized instructional skill and content knowledge. There shall be recognition of the differences in communication and in value systems, and an understanding and respect for past experience of the individual. Maximum possible use shall be made of indigenous trainers to insure good communication and rapport. Special attention shall be directed to the needs of working members of the family for counseling and training sessions to be held where and during the time they can attend. Where the services of outside contractors are utilized, there shall be a close working relationship with the LHA and a program for phasing in LHA staff who will have the on-going responsibility for the program. The value of local agencies, educational institutions, etc., for implementing the program rather than an outside firm shall be carefully considered since the continuing presence of such agencies and institutions in the community can often develop into an on-going resource beyond the contract period.

(c) In planning a homeownership counseling and training program, whether self-administered or contracted, the LHA shall consult with HUD for advice and information on programs, qualified contractors, local resources, reasonable costs, and other similar matters.

(d) Where the program is to be contracted to an outside group, proposals shall be secured either by public advertising or by sending requests for proposals to a number of competent public or private organizations.

(e) In areas where there are large concentrations of homebuyers who do not read, write, or understand English fluently, the native language of the people shall be used. If feasible all instructional materials shall be in both languages.

§ 1270.204 General requirements and information.

(a) The counseling and training program shall be designed to meet the needs of the homebuyers and be sufficiently flexible to meet new needs as they arise. The nature of the program suggests four phases of counseling: (1) Pre-occupancy; (2) move-in; (3) post-occupancy; (4) assistance to the HBA. While some elements of the program lend themselves more to one phase than another, the program areas shall be coordinated and interrelated. It is recommended that the entity providing these services work closely with the participants and ensure that policies established are agreeable to both the LHA and the homebuyer.

(b) The following is a description of major elements of the program which experience thus far has shown to be relevant. More detailed information is set forth in Appendix I, "Content Guide for Counseling and Training Program."

(1) Pre-occupancy phase. The purpose of this phase is to prepare the selected families to assume the responsibilities of homeownership, and to provide an opportunity for the LHA and each family to reassess the family's potential for successful participation in the homeownership development.

(i) An overload of information should be avoided in this phase since many of the subjects will be dealt with in greater depth after the family is in occupancy, and experience has shown that much of the information will be more relevant at that time.

(ii) This phase should be completed for each family before the beginning of its occupancy.

(2) Move-in phase. During this phase, the counseling and training staff should be available to the homebuyers on an individual basis. Services may include (i) inspecting the units, interior and exterior, with the homebuyers and a representative of the LHA, (ii) testing appliances and equipment, (iii) providing information on the moving process (packing, trucks, etc.), and (iv) assisting homebuyers in making adjustments occasioned by the move, serving as liaison among homebuyers, LHA, builder and other agencies, and assisting homebuyers in meeting new neighbors.

(3) Post-occupancy phase. Before this phase begins, a period (possibly one month) should elapse to allow homebuyers an opportunity to adjust to their new surroundings. This is a time when new questions and problems come to light that can be dealt with in further counseling and training. This phase should be designed to cover many of the same basic subjects as the pre-occupancy phase, both by review and refresher where necessary but in much greater depth.

(4) Assistance to the HBA. The parties responsible for the counseling and training program shall be responsible for the formation, incorporation, and development of the HBA, including the execution of the Recognition Agreement between the LHA and HBA, as provided in Subpart D of this part.

§ 1270.205 Training methodology.

Equal in importance to the content of the pre- and post-occupancy training is the training methodology. Because groups vary, there should be adaptability in the communication and learning experience. Methods to be utilized may include group presentations, small discussion groups, special classes, and workshops. Especially important to a successful program are individual family home visits for discussion and instruction on unique problems and operation of equipment.

§ 1270.206 Funding.

(a) Source of funds. For purpose of funding counseling and training pursuant to this Subpart and for establishing the HBA, the LHA shall include an amount equal to $500 per dwelling unit in the development cost budget. If additional funds should be needed for any of these purposes, the LHA with the assistance of the CPC, if any, shall explore all other possible sources of services and funds.

(b) Planned use of $500-per-unit funds. These funds are to be used to pay for:

(1) Pre- and post-occupancy counseling and training;

(2) Establishment and initial operation of the HBA (for operation in the management phase, see § 1270.305).

In planning the use of these funds, the LHA shall recognize that for a number of years after the initial counseling and training there is likely to be some turnover and follow-up counseling and training needs. Therefore, the LHA shall limit the amounts for the counseling and training of the initial homebuyers and shall reserve a reasonable amount for future counseling and training needs during the management phase of the development.

(c) Period of availability of $500-per-unit funds. These funds shall be available during the development phase, and a specific amount shall be set aside, in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section, to be used for ongoing needs after the close of the development period.

(d) Budgeting of $500-per-unit funds. (1) The Development Cost Budget submitted with the Development Program shall include an estimated amount for counseling and training program costs. However, such costs shall not be incurred until after HUD approval of the counseling and training program.

(2) Upon HUD approval of the counseling and training program, the LHA shall include the approved amount in its Contract Award Development Cost Budget. This amount shall constitute the maximum amount that may be included for such purposes in the project development cost; provided that, if the approved amount is less than $500 per dwelling unit, it may, if necessary, be amended with HUD approval, but not later than the Final Development Cost Budget and subject to the $500-per-unit limitation.

(e) Application for approval of counseling and training program. (1) The LHA shall submit an application for approval of a counseling and training program and for approval of funds therefor. This application shall be submitted to HUD at the time of the submission of the development program or as soon thereafter as possible but no later than the submission of the working drawings and specifications.

(2) The application shall include a narrative statement outlining the counseling and training program, including any services and funds to be obtained from other sources, together with copies of any proposed contract and other pertinent documents. This statement shall include the following:

(i) Indication that the training entity is completely knowledgeable of the Homeownership Opportunity Program and is aware of the needs and problems of prospective homebuyers;

(ii) The method and/or instruments to be used to determine individual training and counseling needs;

(iii) The scope of the proposed program, including a detailed breakdown of tasks to be performed, products to be produced, and a time schedule, including provision for progress payments for specific tasks;

(iv) An outline of the proposed content of the counseling and training to be provided, and the local community resources to be utilized;

(v) The methods of counseling and training to be utilized;

(vi) The experience and qualifications of the organization and of personnel who will directly provide the counseling and training;

(vii) The estimated cost, source of funds, and methods of payment for the tasks and products to be performed or produced, including estimates of costs for each of the following categories:

(a) Counseling and training during development phase:

Salaries
Materials, supplies and expendable equipment
Contract costs
Other costs

(b) Establishment and initial operation of HBA

(c) Counseling and training during management phase

§ 1270.207 Use of appendix.

A Content Guide for Counseling and Training Program (Appendix I) is provided as further detailed information for consideration in designing the counseling and training program. The items set forth therein are not to be considered mandatory.

APPENDIX I

(Subpart C)

CONTENT GUIDE FOR COUNSELING AND TRAINING PROGRAM

Inclusion of the following items in the Counseling and Training Program should be considered, keeping in mind that the extent to which they are covered will depend on specific needs of homebuyers in the given development.

PREOCCUPANCY PHASE

1. Explanation of program. Includes the background and a full description of the program with special emphasis on the financial and legal responsibilities of the homebuyers, the HBA, and the LHA; and a review for homebuyers of the computation of the monthly payment and of the accumulation and purpose of EHPA and reserves.

2. Property care and maintenance. Includes making homebuyers generally familiar with the overall operation of the home, including fixtures, equipment, interior designing, and building and equipment warranties, and the appropriate procedures for obtaining services and repairs to which the homebuyers may be entitled. (This aspect will probably have to be covered in more detail during the Post-Occupancy Phase.)

3. Money management. Includes budgeting, consumer education, credit counseling, insurance, utility costs, etc.

4. Developing community. Includes a view of the surrounding community, and especially how the homebuyer relates to it as an individual and as a member of the HBA.

V 39 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

5. Referrals. Includes information as to community resources and services where assistance can be obtained in relation to individual or family problems beyond the scope of the contract agency. This may include referrals to community services that can upgrade employment skills, provide legal services, offer educational opportunities, care for health and dental needs, care for children of working mothers, provide guidance in marital problems and general family matters, including drugs and alcohol.

POST-OCCUPANCY PHASE

1. Home maintenance. This should include builder responsibility, identification of minor and major repairs, instructions on do-it-yourself repairs and methods of having major repairs completed.

2. Money management. This should involve an in-depth study of the legal and financial aspects of consumer credit, savings and investments, and budget counseling.

3. Developing community. This will consist primarily of creating an awareness on the part of the homebuyer of the nature and function of the HBA and the value of his participation in, and working through, the HBA as a responsible member of his community. By this means much will be learned about relationships with neighbors, community cooperation, and the ways in which individual and group problems are solved.

OTHER ITEMS

In addition to the above, there are other needs and concerns, especially those expressed by the homebuyers, that may be dealt with in special classes or workshops. These may include such topics as child care, selection of furnishings, decorating and furnishing, refinishing of furniture, upholstery, sewing, food and nutrition, care of clothing, etc.

Subpart D—Homebuyers Association (HBA)

§ 1270.301 Purpose.

(a) It is essential that the homebuyers have an organized vehicle for pursuing their common interests, for effectively representing the needs of residents in dealing with the LHA, and for undertaking eventual management responsibility for the development. Although this organization, called the homebuyers association (HBA), shall be representative of the homebuyers and independent of the LHA, it shall be the responsibility of the LHA and the training and counseling staff to assist the homebuyers in their initial efforts at organization.

(b) Except as noted in § 1270.307, each Turnkey III development shall have an HBA. There shall be a separate HBA for each development or developments where there is a physical and financial community of interest.

§ 1270.302 Membership.

Every family entitled to occupancy pursuant to a Homebuyers Ownership Opportunity Agreement and every family which is a homeowner shall automatically be a member of the HBA.

§ 1270.303 Organizing the HBA.

(a) The HBA should be organized and incorporated as early in the life of the development as is feasible, in order to allow selected homebuyers an opportunity to meet each other and begin forging a sense of community, but in any case the HBA shall be organized and incorporated no later than the date on which 50 percent of the homebuyers have been selected. Interim officers and directors shall be designated as part of the initial organization of the HBA to serve until full-term officers and directors are elected. Such full-term officers and directors shall be elected when 60 percent of the homebuyers are in occupancy, but, in any event, not later than one year from the date the first home is occupied.

(b) The LHA, in cooperation with the CPC, if any, shall be responsible for assuring that competent counseling and training assistance pursuant to Subpart C of this Part will be provided in organizing the HBA. These services shall be continued until the HBA is fully operational.

(c) The provision of such services shall include at least the following functions:

(1) Assembling homebuyers for initial orientation and planning;

(2) Explaining to homebuyers the structure and functions of an HBA and the rights and responsibilities of the HBA and the LHA;

(3) Aiding in the preparation of charters, by-laws, contracts with the LHA and other appropriate documents;

(4) Assisting in the formation of the organization, including such things as the initial designation of interim officers and directors and subsequent election of full-term HBA officers and directors, and the establishment of necessary committees, if any.

(d) The LHA and the HBA shall execute an agreement recognizing the HBA as the official representative of the homebuyers, and establishing the functions, rights, and responsibilities of both parties (see Appendix II). This agreement shall be executed as soon as possible after incorporation of the HBA.

§ 1270.304 Functions of the HBA.

(a) Subject to possible variations agreed to by the HBA and approved by HUD, the functions of the HBA shall include the following:

(1) Representing its members, individually and collectively, with respect to any deficiencies in the development or in the homes and with respect to fulfillment of the construction contract and related warranties;

(2) Representing its members, individually and collectively, in their relationships with the LHA and others in regard to financial matters such as monthly payments, credits to and charges against reserves, settlement upon vacating the home, acquisition of ownership, and other matters pertaining to operation and management of the development;

(3) Recommending policies and rules to the LHA for operation and management including rules concerning use of the common areas and community facilities;

(4) Participating in the operation of official grievance mechanisms;

(5) Advising and assisting its members regarding procedures and practices relative to the Earned Home Payments Account and the acquisition of homeownership;

(6) Participating with the LHA in periodic maintenance inspections of homes after occupancy, and making recommendations in case of disagreements arising out of maintenance inspections;

(7) Participating with the LHA in the selection of subsequent homebuyers;

(8) Coordinating, supervising, or managing the operation of credit union, child care, or other supportive services established for the development;

(9) Participating with the LHA in the establishment and implementation of policies related to collection of monthly payments, termination of occupancy, and resolution of hardship situations; and

(10) Performing management services as specified under contract with the Authority or with the Homeowners Association and participating in other activities pursuant to agreement with the LHA or with the Homeowners Association.

(b) In addition, the HBA may offer such special services as the following:

(1) The development of self-help such as consumer clubs, furniture and other co-ops, credit unions, transportation pools, and skill pools;

(2) Assisting homebuyers in acquiring group insurance;

(3) Developing programs and contracting for services such as child care centers to be located in the community facility where such a facility exists;

(4) Assisting homebuyers in their employment, especially by participating in skill development and apprenticeship programs in cooperation with local educational organizations;

(5) Assisting homebuyers in planning the management role of the HBA and in negotiating any contract for management services with the LHA.

§ 1270.305 Funding of HBA.

(a) In addition to providing the HBA with noncash contributions such as office space and duplicating services, the LHA shall make cash contributions for operating expenses of the HBA, in the amount provided for in paragraph (b) of this section. Until the project goes into management, these contributions shall be made from the development funds budgeted for the counseling and training program (see § 1270.206). Thereafter, these contributions shall be provided for in the annual operating budgets of the LHA.

(b) The cash contributions pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall be in the amount provided for in the LHA budget (development cost budget or annual operating budget, as the case may be) and approved by HUD. Such contributions shall be subject to whatever restrictions are applied by HUD to the funding of tenant councils generally, but they shall not exceed $3 per year per dwelling unit; provided that as an incentive to the HBA to provide additional funds from other sources such as homebuyer's dues, contributions, revenues from special projects or activities, etc., the LHA shall, to the extent approved by HUD in the LHA budget, match such additional funds beyond the $3 up to a maximum of $4.50, for a total LHA share of $7.50 where the total funding for the HBA is $12 or more. The HBA shall not be precluded from seeking to achieve total funding in excess of $12 per unit where this can be done with additional funds from sources other than the LHA. Furthermore, funding by the LHA for the normal expenses of the HBA is not to be confused with fees paid pursuant to management services contracts as described in § 1270.306.

§ 1270.306 Performing management services.

The LHA may also contract with the HBA to perform some or all of the functions of project management for which the HBA may be better suited or located than the LHA. Such functions may include security, maintenance of common property, or collection of monthly payments. For this purpose, the HBA may form a management corporation and the officers of the HBA shall be the directors of such corporation. This corporation and the LHA shall then negotiate a management services contract. Such arrangements are consistent with the objective of providing for maximum participation by residents in the management of their developments. As an alternative, the HBA and the LHA may elect to undertake any other arrangement approved by HUD.

§ 1270.307 Alternative to HBA.

Where the homes are on scattered sites (noncontiguous lots throughout a multiblock area, with no common property), or where the number of homes may be too few to support an HBA, and where an alternative method for homebuyer representation and continuing counseling is provided, an HBA shall not be required. For such cases, a modified form of homebuyers association may be called for or a less formal organization may be desirable. This decision shall be made jointly by the LHA and the homebuyers, acting on the recommendation of HUD.

§ 1270.308 Relationship with homeowners association.

The HBA and the homeowners association are, in legal terms, separate and distinct organizations with different functions. The homeowners association may hold title to and be responsible for maintenance of common property (see § 1270.119 and § 1270.120), while the HBA has more general service and representative functions. While all residents are members of the HBA, only those who have acquired title to their homes are members of the homeowners association.

§ 1270.309 Use of appendices.

Use of the Articles of Incorporation (Part I of Appendix I) and the Recognition Agreement between the Local Housing Authority and Homebuyers Association (Appendix II) is mandatory for projects developed under Subpart B of this Part which have homebuyers associations. No modification may be made in format, content or text of these Appendices except (1) as required under state or local law as determined by HUD or (2) with approval of HUD. The By-Laws of the Homebuyers Association is provided as a guide for such projects and it may be used or modified to the extent required by the HBA and LHA respectively to meet local needs and desires.

§ 1270.310 Waivers.

Upon determination of good cause, the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development may, subject to statutory limitations, waive any provision of this Chapter. Each such waiver shall be in writing and shall be supported by documentation of the pertinent facts and grounds.

g. Participate with the Authority in the selection of subsequent homebuyers;

h. Coordinate, supervise, or manage the operation of credit union, child care, or other supportive services established for the Development;

i. Participate with the Authority in the establishment and implementation of policies related to collection of monthly payments, termination of occupancy, and resolution of hardship situations;

j. Perform management services as specified under contract with the Authority or with the Homeowners Association and participate in other activities pursuant to agreement with the Authority or with the Homeowners Association.

2. The Association may also offer special services such as:

a. The development of self-help such as consumer clubs, furniture and other co-ops, credit unions, transportation pools, and skill pools;

b. Assisting Homebuyers in acquiring group insurance;

c. Developing programs and contracting for services such as child care centers to be located in the community facility, where such a facility exists;

d. Assisting Homebuyers in their employment, especially by participating in skill development and apprenticeship programs in cooperation with local educational organizations; and

e. Assisting Homebuyers in planning the management role of the Association and in negotiating any contract for management services with the Authority.

ARTICLE VII—POWERS

This Association shall have all the powers, privileges, rights and immunities which are necessary or convenient for carrying out its purposes and which are conferred by the provisions of all applicable laws of the State of ---------- pertaining to non-profit corporations.

ARTICLE VIII—VOTING

There shall be only one vote per Home regardless of the number of persons in the family that occupies the Home.

V 39 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

ARTICLE IX—BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND BY-LAWS

The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors, all of whom shall be members of the Association. The number of Directors shall be as provided in the By-Laws of the Association. The following persons shall serve as the first Board of Directors and as the first officers:

Name	Office	Address
----------	----------	----------
----------	----------	----------
----------	----------	----------

This Board shall manage the affairs of the Association until election of their successors by the membership.

Promptly after 60 percent of the Homes are occupied, or one year from the date the first Home is occupied, whichever occurs sooner, the Board shall call the first annual meeting of the Association at which the members shall adopt By-Laws and elect one-third of the Board for a term of one year, one-third for a trem of two years, and one-third for a term of three years. At each annual meeting thereafter the members shall elect one-third of the Board for a term of three years.

ARTICLE X—DISSOLUTION

After all members have acquired ownership of their Homes, the Association shall be dissolved with the assent given in writing and signed by not less than two-thirds of the members. The dissolution shall be effective when all of the assets of the Association remaining after payment of its liabilities have been granted, conveyed and assigned in such manner as the Association and Authority may mutually agree.

ARTICLE XI—AMENDMENT

Amendment of these Articles shall require the assent of 75 percent of the entire membership.

In witness whereof, for the purposes of incorporating this Association under the laws of the State of ---------- we, the undersigned constituting the incorporators of this Association, have executed these Articles of Incorporation this -------- day of ------ ------, 19----.

[Witness, Notary, or Acknowledgment as required by state law]

[NOTE.—The following is a suggested form of By-Laws. Different format and content to meet local needs may be used. For example, it may be considered desirable to combine HBA offices, eliminate or change functions of various committees, provide for other committees, etc.]

Part II—By-Laws

The members of the ---------- Homebuyers Association (hereinafter referred to as the "Association") do hereby adopt in accordance with Article IX of the Articles of Incorporation the following By-Laws:

SECTION 1. Organization.—The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors elected by and from the members of the Association. The Board shall elect officers of the Association, including a President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer, who shall carry out such functions and duties as are prescribed by these By-Laws and the Board.

SEC. 2. Association meetings.—A. Annual meetings. The Association shall have an annual meeting at ---------- (time) on the ----------
each year for the purpose of transacting such business as may be necessary or appropriate. If the date of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, the meeting shall be held at the same hour on the first day following which is not a legal holiday.

B. Quarterly and special meetings. Between annual meetings, quarterly meetings shall be called by the President and be held for the purpose of advising the membership of activities of the Board and enabling the members to bring up matters of common concern. Special meetings may be called at any time (1) by the President with the written concurrence of at least two of the other officers or (2) by a petition filed with the Secretary stating the purpose of the meeting and signed by at least one-fifth of the total number of members in the Association.

C. Notice of meetings. Written notice of each annual, quarterly or special meeting of the members shall be given by, or at the direction of, the Secretary by mailing a copy of such notice at least fifteen days before an annual or quarterly meeting or at least seven days before a special meeting, addressed to each member at the member's address shown on the records of the Association. Such notice shall specify the place, date, and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose of such meeting. No business shall be transacted at any special meeting other than that stated in the notice unless by consent of at least one-half of the total number of votes of the Association.

D. Quorum. A quorum at any meeting shall consist of members entitled to cast votes which represent at least one-tenth of the votes of the Association. If such a quorum is not present, those present shall have the power to reschedule the meeting from time to time without notice other than an announcement at the meeting until there is a quorum. At any rescheduled meeting at which a quorum is present, the only business which may be transacted is that which might have been transacted at the original meeting.

E. Voting. Each family shall designate in writing to the Secretary the family member who is to cast the family vote. That designee may appoint as a proxy for a specific meeting any other member of the Association. A proxy must be in writing and filed with the Secretary not later than the time that meeting is called to order. Every proxy shall be revocable and shall be automatically revoked when the person who appointed the proxy attends the meeting or ceases to have voting privileges in the Association. Votes represented by proxy shall be counted in determining the presence or absence of a quorum at any meeting.

F. Agenda. An agenda shall be prepared for every meeting.

SEC. 3. Board of Directors—A. Number of directors. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Board of ------ Directors, all of whom shall be members of the Association. The number of Directors may be changed by amendment of the By-Laws of the Association.

B. Term of Office. The Board of Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Association. At the first annual meeting, the members shall elect ------[1] Directors for a term of one year, ------[1] Directors for a term of two years, and ------[1] Directors for a term of three years. At each annual meeting thereafter the members shall elect --------[1] Directors for a term of three years.

C. Removal and other vacancies of Directors. Any Director may be removed from the Board, for cause, by a majority of the votes of the Association at any annual or quarterly meeting or any special meeting called for such purpose, provided that the Director has been given an opportunity to be heard at such meeting. In the event of death, resignation or removal of a Director, his successor shall be elected by the remaining members of the Board and shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

D. Chairman of the Board. At the first regular Board meeting after each annual meeting, the Board of Directors shall elect a Chairman from among their number.

E. Compensation. No compensation shall be paid to the Board for its services. However, any Director may be reimbursed for his actual expense incurred in the performance of his duties, as long as such expense receives approval of the Board and is within the approved Association budget.

SEC. 4. Nomination and election of the board.—A. Nomination. Nomination for election to the Board of Directors (other than for filling of vacancies under section 3. C.) shall be made by the Nomination Committee; provided, however, that nominations may also be made from the floor at the annual meeting by motion properly made and seconded, or by a petition which states the name of the person nominated, is signed by members representing at least ten votes, and is filed with the Secretary not later than the day prior to the annual meeting. Persons nominated must be members of the Association.

B. Election. Election of the Board of Directors shall be in accordance with Section 2. E., and by secret written ballot. The ballots shall be prepared by the Secretary. Cumulative voting is not permitted (that is, a voter who refrains from voting with respect to one or more vacancies may not on that account cast any extra vote or votes with respect to another vacancy). The persons receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected.

SEC. 5. Meetings of Directors.—A. Regular meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held monthly at such time and hours as may be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board. Notice of time and place of the meetings shall be mailed to each Director no later than seven days before the meeting.

B. Special meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held when called by the President of the Association, the Chairman of the Board or by any two Directors, after not less than three days notice to each Director.

C. Quorum. A simple majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Board present at a duly held meeting shall be regarded as an act of the Board.

D. Action taken without a meeting. Any action which could be otherwise taken at a Board meeting may be taken in the absence of a meeting, by obtaining the written approval of all Directors. Any action so approved shall have the same effect as though taken at a meeting of the Board.

SEC. 6. Power and duties of the Board of Directors.—A. Power and duties generally. The Board of Directors shall have and exercise all the powers, duties, and authority necessary for the administration of the affairs and to carry out the purposes of the Association, excepting only those acts and things as are required by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these By-Laws to be exercised and done by the members or their officers.

B. Powers. The Board shall have the power to: (1) adopt and publish such rules and regulations as are appropriate in the exercise of its powers and duties, including but not limited to rules and regulations governing the amount and payment of dues, use of common areas and facilities and the conduct of the members and their guests thereon, and the establishment of penalties for violation of such rules and regulations; (2) appoint or designate officers, agents, and employees, and make such delegations of authority as in its judgment are in the best interest of the Association; (3) declare the office of a member of the Board of Directors to be vacant in the event such member shall be absent from at least three consecutive regular meetings of the Board of Directors.

C. Duties. It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to: (1) Cause to be kept a complete record of all its acts and Association affairs, and to present a statement thereof to the members at the annual meeting, or at any special meeting when such statement is requested in writing by members representing at least one-fifth of the votes of the Association; (2) cause to be prepared an annual audit of the Association books to be made at the completion of each fiscal year; (3) cause to be supervised all officers, agents, and employees of the Association, and see that their duties are properly performed; (4) procure and maintain adequate liability and hazard insurance on any property owned by the Association; (5) cause such officers or employees having fiscal responsibilities to be bonded as the Board may deem appropriate; (6) cause to be performed the functions listed in Article V of the Articles of Incorporation.

SEC. 7. Association officers and their duties.—A. Election. The Board of Directors shall elect the following officers of the Association: a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other special officers as, in the opinion of the Board, the Association may require. The President and Vice President shall be elected from members of the Board. The election of officers shall take place biennially at the first meeting of the Board of Directors following the annual meeting of the members.

B. Term. The officers shall hold office for two years unless they shall resign sooner, be removed, or otherwise be disqualified to serve; provided, however, that special officers shall hold office for such period as the Board may determine, but not to exceed one year.

C. Removal and resignation. Any officer may be removed from office for cause, by the Board. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board, the President or the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect on the date of receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein; and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

D. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office may be filled by appointment by the Board. The officer appointed to such vacancy shall serve for the remainder of the term of the officer he replaces.

E. Multiple Officers. No person shall simultaneously hold more than one of the offices required by these By-Laws.

F. Duties. The duties of the officers are as follows:

(1) President. The President shall preside at all Association meetings; shall excute the orders and resolutions of the Board; shall sign all leases, mortgage, deeds, and other written instruments; and shall cosign with the Treasurer all checks and promissory notes.

(2) Vice President. The Vice President shall act in place and stead of the President in the event of his absence or disability and shall exercise and discharge such other duties as may be required of him by the Board.

(3) Secretary. The Secretary shall record the votes and keep the minutes of all meetings and proceedings of the Board and of the Association; shall keep the corporate seal of the Association and affix it on all papers requiring said seal; shall serve notice of the meetings of the Board and of the Association; shall keep appropriate current records showing the names and addresses of the members of the Association; and shall perform such duties as may be required by the Board.

(4) Treasurer. The Treasurer shall receive and deposit in appropriate bank accounts all funds of the Association and shall disburse such funds as directed by resolution of the Board of Directors; shall cosign with the President all checks and promissory notes of the Association; shall keep proper books of account; and shall prepare an annual budget and statement of income and expenditures which shall be approved by the Board before presentation to the Association at its regular annual meeting, and furnish a copy to each of the members.

(5) Special officers. Special officers shall have such authority and perform such duties as the Board may determine.

(6) Compensation. Officers may not be compensated except as may be determined by the Board, in accordance with the approved Association budget.

SEC. 8. Committees.—A. Committees to be established. The Board of Directors shall establish the following committees:

(1) Representation Committee which shall represent members, individually and collectively, with respect to: any deficiencies in the Development or the individual Homes therein; fulfillment of the construction contract and related warranties; relationships with the Authority and others in regard to financial matters such as monthly payments, credits to and charges against reserves, settlement upon vacating the home, and acquisition of ownership; matters pertaining to project management; and matters in the Authority's official grievance mechanisms.

(2) Rules Committee which shall present to the Board for recommendation to the Authority policies for operation and management and, where appropriate, assist the Board in establishing Association rules in that respect.

(3) Homeownership Committee which shall advise and assist members in regard to maintenance and acquisition of ownership of their homes, financial matters and other matters related to homeownership and home management.

(4) Selection Committee which shall recommend proposed homebuyers from a list of eligible applicants.

(5) Nominating Committee which shall consist of a chairman, who shall be a member of the Board of Directors, and two or more members of the Association, none of whom are Directors. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors prior to each annual meeting, to serve from the close of such annual meeting until the close of the next annual meeting and such appointment shall be announced at each annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall make as many nominations for election to the Board of Directors as it shall in its discretion determine, but not less than the number of vacancies to be filled.

B. Other committees. The Board may establish other committees, permanent or temporary, which it deems necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the Association.

C. Committee Chairman and Members. The chairmen of all committees, except the Nominating Committee, shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the President. Committee members shall be appointed by the chairman of the committee on which they are to serve and shall serve until a new chairman is appointed.

D. Committee Reports. The chairman of each committee shall make a report to the President in writing of committee meetings and activities prior to each regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors.

E. Authority. Unless specifically authorized in writing by the Board of Directors or the President, a committee chairman or a committee shall have no authority to legally obligate the Association or incur any expenditure on behalf of the Association.

SEC. 9. Suspension of rights. The Board may suspend, by a majority vote of the Board, the voting rights and rights to use the recreational facilities, of a member, and his family and guests, during any period in which the member shall be in default in the payment of any dues or assessment imposed by the Association. Such rights may also be suspended, after notice and hearing, for a period not to exceed sixty days, for violation of the Association's rules and regulations.

SEC. 10. Books and records. The books, records and papers of the Association shall at all times, during reasonable business hours, be subject to inspection by any member.

SEC. 11. Amendments. Amendments to these By-Laws may be introduced and discussed at any annual or special meeting of the Association, provided that copies of any proposed amendment shall be mailed to all the members with the notice of the meeting at which such amendment will be introduced. A vote on adopting such amendment shall be taken at the first Association meeting held at least two weeks subsequent to the meeting at which the amendment was introduced. Amendments shall be adopted by a vote of a majority of the members of the Association.

SEC. 12. Corporate seal. The Association shall have a seal which shall appear as follows: [SEAL]

SEC. 13. Fiscal year. The first fiscal year of the Association shall begin on the date of incorporation and shall end on the last day of ---------- Each successive fiscal (month, year)
year shall begin on the first day of ---------- (month)
and end on the last day of ---------- (month)

The foregoing By-Laws were adopted at the first annual meeting of the Association held ---------- by the undersigned members of the Association.

Part II—By-Laws

The members of the _____ Homebuyers Association (hereinafter referred to as the "Association") do hereby adopt in accordance with Article IX of the Articles of Incorporation the following By-Laws:

SECTION 1. Organization.—The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors elected by and from the members of the Association. The Board shall elect officers of the Association, including a President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer, who shall carry out such functions and duties as are prescribed by these By-Laws and the Board.

SEC. 2. Association meetings.—A. Annual meetings. The Association shall have an annual meeting at _____ (time) on the _____ (day of week and month) each year for the purpose of transacting such business as may be necessary or appropriate. If the date of the annual meeting is a legal holiday, the meeting shall be held at the same hour on the first day following which is not a legal holiday.

B. Quarterly and special meetings. Between annual meetings, quarterly meetings shall be called by the President and be held for the purpose of advising the membership of activities of the Board and enabling the members to bring up matters of common concern. Special meetings may be called at any time (1) by the President with the written concurrence of at least two of the other officers or (2) by a petition filed with the Secretary stating the purpose of the meeting and signed by at least one-fifth of the total number of members in the Association.

C. Notice of meetings. Written notice of each annual, quarterly or special meeting of the members shall be given by, or at the direction of, the Secretary by mailing a copy of such notice at least fifteen days before an annual or quarterly meeting or at least seven days before a special meeting, addressed to each member at the member's address shown on the records of the Association. Such notice shall specify the place, date, and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose of such meeting. No business shall be transacted at any special meeting other than that stated in the notice unless by consent of at least one-half of the total number of votes of the Association.

D. Quorum. A quorum at any meeting shall consist of members entitled to cast votes which represent at least one-tenth of the votes of the Association If such a quorum is not present, those present shall have the power to reschedule the meeting from time to time without notice other than an announcement at the meeting until there is a quorum. At any rescheduled meeting at which a quorum is present, the only business which may be transacted is that which might have been transacted at the original meeting.

E. Voting. Each family shall designate in writing to the Secretary the family member who is to cast the family vote. That designee may appoint as a proxy for a specific meeting any other member of the Association. A proxy must be in writing and filed with the Secretary not later than the time that meeting is called to order. Every proxy shall be revocable and shall be automatically revoked when the person who appointed the proxy attends the meeting or ceases to have voting privileges in the Association. Votes represented by proxy shall be counted in determining the presence or absence of a quorum at any meeting.

F. Agenda. An agenda shall be prepared for every meeting.

SEC. 3. Board of Directors—A. Number of directors. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a Board of _____ Directors, all of whom shall be members of the Association. The number of Directors may be changed by amendment of the By-Laws of the Association.

B. Term of Office. The Board of Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Association. At the first annual meeting, the members shall elect _____[1] Directors for a term of one year, _____[1] Directors for a term of two years, and _____[1] Directors for a term of three years. At each annual meeting thereafter the members shall elect _____[1] Directors for a term of three years.

[1] Each group shall be one-third of the total number of Directors.

C. Removal and other vacancies of Directors. Any Director may be removed from the Board, for cause, by a majority of the votes of the Association at any annual or quarterly meeting or any special meeting called for such purpose, provided that the Director has been given an opportunity to be heard at such meeting. In the event of death, resignation or removal of a Director, his successor shall be elected by the remaining members of the Board and shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

D. Chairman of the Board. At the first regular Board meeting after each annual meeting, the Board of Directors shall elect a Chairman from among their number.

E. Compensation. No compensation shall be paid to the Board for its services. However, any Director may be reimbursed for his actual expense incurred in the performance of his duties, as long as such expense receives approval of the Board and is within the approved Association budget.

SEC. 4. Nomination and election of the board.—A. Nomination. Nomination for election to the Board of Directors (other than for filling of vacancies under section 3. C.) shall be made by the Nomination Committee; provided, however, that nominations may also be made from the floor at the annual meeting by motion properly made and seconded, or by a petition which states the name of the person nominated, is signed by members representing at least ten votes, and is filed with the Secretary not later than the day prior to the annual meeting. Persons nominated must be members of the Association.

B. Election. Election of the Board of Directors shall be in accordance with Section 2. E., and by secret written ballot. The ballots shall be prepared by the Secretary. Cumulative voting is not permitted (that is, a voter who refrains from voting with respect to one or more vacancies may not on that account cast any extra vote or votes with respect to another vacancy). The persons receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected.

SEC. 5. Meetings of Directors.—A. Regular meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held monthly at such time and hours as may be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board. Notice of time and place of the meetings shall be mailed to each Director no later than seven days before the meeting.

B. Special meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held when called by the President of the Association, the Chairman of the Board or by any two Directors, after not less than three days notice to each Director.

C. Quorum. A simple majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Board present at a duly held meeting shall be regarded as an act of the Board.

D. Action taken without a meeting. Any action which could be otherwise taken at a Board meeting may be taken in the absence of a meeting, by obtaining the written approval of all Directors. Any action so approved shall have the same effect as though taken at a meeting of the Board.

SEC. 6. Power and duties of the Board of Directors.—A. Power and duties generally. The Board of Directors shall have and exercise all the powers, duties, and authority necessary for the administration of the affairs and to carry out the purposes of the Association, excepting only those acts and things as are required by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these By-Laws to be exercised and done by the members or their officers.

B. Powers. The Board shall have the power to: (1) adopt and publish such rules and regulations as are appropriate in the exercise of its powers and duties, including but not limited to rules and regulations governing the amount and payment of dues, use of common areas and facilities and the conduct of the members and their guests thereon, and the establishment of penalties for violation of such rules and regulations; (2) appoint or designate officers, agents, and employees, and make such delegations of authority as in its judgment are in the best interest of the Association; (3) declare the office of a member of the Board of Directors to be vacant in the event such member shall be absent from at least three consecutive regular meetings of the Board of Directors.

C. Duties. It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to: (1) Cause to be kept a complete record of all its acts and Association affairs, and to present a statement thereof to the members at the annual meeting, or at any special meeting when such statement is requested in writing by members representing at least one-fifth of the votes of the Association; (2) cause to be prepared an annual audit of the Association books to be made at the completion of each fiscal year; (3) cause to be supervised all officers, agents, and employees of the Association, and see that their duties are properly performed; (4) procure and maintain adequate liability and hazard insurance on any property owned by the Association; (5) cause such officers or employees having fiscal responsibilities to be bonded as the Board may deem appropriate; (6) cause to be performed the functions listed in Article V of the Articles of Incorporation.

SEC. 7. Association officers and their duties.—A. Election. The Board of Directors shall elect the following officers of the Association: a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other special officers as, in the opinion of the Board, the Association may require. The President and Vice President shall be elected from members of the Board. The election of officers shall take place biennially at the first meeting of the Board of Directors following the annual meeting of the members.

B. Term. The officers shall hold office for two years unless they shall resign sooner, be removed, or otherwise be disqualified to serve; provided, however, that special officers shall hold office for such period as the Board may determine, but not to exceed one year

C. Removal and resignation. Any officer may be removed from office, for cause, by the Board. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board, the President or the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect on the date of receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein; and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

D. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office may be filled by appointment by the Board. The officer appointed to such vacancy shall serve for the remainder of the term of the officer he replaces.

E. Multiple Officers. No person shall simultaneously hold more than one of the offices required by these By-Laws.

F. Duties. The duties of the officers are as follows:

(1) President. The President shall preside at all Association meetings; shall excute the orders and resolutions of the Board; shall sign all leases, mortgage, deeds, and other written instruments; and shall cosign with the Treasurer all checks and promissory notes.

(2) Vice President. The Vice President shall act in place and stead of the President in the event of his absence or disability and shall exercise and discharge such other duties as may be required of him by the Board.

(3) Secretary. The Secretary shall record the votes and keep the minutes of all meetings and proceedings of the Board and of the Association; shall keep the corporate seal of the Association and affix it on all papers requiring said seal; shall serve notice of the meetings of the Board and of the Association; shall keep appropriate current records showing the names and addresses of the members of the Association; and shall perform such duties as may be required by the Board.

(4) Treasurer. The Treasurer shall receive and deposit in appropriate bank accounts all funds of the Association and shall disburse such funds as directed by resolution of the Board of Directors; shall cosign with the President all checks and promissory notes of the Association; shall keep proper books of account; and shall prepare an annual budget and statement of income and expenditures which shall be approved by the Board before presentation to the Association at its regular annual meeting, and furnish a copy to each of the members.

(5) Special officers. Special officers shall have such authority and perform such duties as the Board may determine.

(6) Compensation. Officers may not be compensated except as may be determined by the Board, in accordance with the approved Association budget.

SEC. 8. Committees.—A. Committees to be established. The Board of Directors shall establish the following committees:

(1) Representation Committee which shall represent members, individually and collectively, with respect to: any deficiencies in the Development or the individual Homes therein; fulfillment of the construction contract and related warranties; relationships with the Authority and others in regard to financial matters such as monthly payments, credits to and charges against reserves, settlement upon vacating the home, and acquisition of ownership; matters pertaining to project management; and matters in the Authority's official grievance mechanisms.

(2) Rules Committee which shall present to the Board for recommendation to the Authority policies for operation and management and, where appropriate, assist the Board in establishing Association rules in that respect.

(3) Homeownership Committee which shall advise and assist members in regard to maintenance and acquisition of ownership of their homes, financial matters and other matters related to homeownership and home management.

(4) Selection Committee which shall recommend proposed homebuyers from a list of eligible applicants.

(5) Nominating Committee which shall consist of a chairman, who shall be a member of the Board of Directors, and two or more members of the Association, none of whom are Directors. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors prior to each annual meeting, to serve from the close of such annual meeting until the close of the next annual meeting and such appointment shall be announced at each annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall make as many nominations for election to the Board of Directors as it shall in its discretion determine, but not less than the number of vacancies to be filled.

B. Other committees. The Board may establish other committees, permanent or temporary, which it deems necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the Association.

C. Committee Chairman and Members. The chairmen of all committees, except the Nominating Committee, shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the President. Committee members shall be appointed by the chairman of the committee on which they are to serve and shall serve until a new chairman is appointed.

D. Committee Reports. The chairman of each committee shall make a report to the President in writing of committee meetings and activities prior to each regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors.

E. Authority. Unless specifically authorized in writing by the Board of Directors or the President, a committee chairman or a committee shall have no authority to legally obligate the Association or incur any expenditure on behalf of the Association.

SEC. 9. Suspension of rights. The Board may suspend, by a majority vote of the Board, the voting rights and rights to use the recreational facilities, of a member, and his family and guests, during any period in which the member shall be in default in the payment of any dues or assessment imposed by the Association. Such rights may also be suspended, after notice and hearing, for a period not to exceed sixty days, for violation of the Association's rules and regulations.

SEC. 10. Books and records. The books, records and papers of the Association shall at all times, during reasonable business hours, be subject to inspection by any member.

SEC. 11. Amendments. Amendments to these By-Laws may be introduced and discussed at any annual or special meeting of the Association, provided that copies of any proposed amendment shall be mailed to all the members with the notice of the meeting at which such amendment will be introduced. A vote on adopting such amendment shall be taken at the first Association meeting held at least two weeks subsequent to the meeting at which the amendment was introduced. Amendments shall be adopted by a vote of a majority of the members of the Association.

SEC. 12. Corporate seal. The Association shall have a seal which shall appear as follows: [SEAL]

SEC. 13. Fiscal year. The first fiscal year of the Association shall begin on the date of incorporation and shall end on the last day of _____ (month, year). Each successive fiscal year shall begin on the first day of _____ (month) and end on the last day of _____ (month).

The foregoing By-Laws were adopted at the first annual meeting of the Association held _____ by the undersigned members of the Association.

No. 57—Pt. III——1

V 39 57 MAR 22 74 XUM

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employment Standards Administration

MINIMUM WAGES FOR FEDERAL AND FEDERALLY ASSISTED CONSTRUCTION

General Wage Determination Decisions

General Wage Determination Decisions of the Secretary of Labor, specify, in accordance with applicable law and on the basis of information available to the Department of Labor from its study of local wage conditions and from other sources, the basic hourly wage rates and fringe benefit payments which are determined to be prevailing for the described classes of laborers and mechanics employed in construction activity of the character and in the localities specified therein.

The determinations in these decisions of such prevailing rates and fringe benefits have been made by authority of the Secretary of Labor pursuant to the provisions of the Davis-Bacon Act of March 3, 1931, as amended (46 Stat. 1494, as amended, 40 U.S.C. 276a) and of other Federal statutes referred to in 29 CFR 1.1 (including the statutes listed at 36 FR 306 following Secretary of Labor's Order No. 24–70) containing provisions for the payment of wages which are dependent upon determinations by the Secretary of Labor under the Davis-Bacon Act; and pursuant to the provisions of Part 1 of Subtitle A of Title 29 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Procedure for Predetermination of Wage Rates (37 FR 21138), and of Secretary of Labor's Orders 12–71 and 15–71 (36 FR 8755, 8756). The prevailing rates and fringe benefits determined in these decisions shall, in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing statutes, constitute the minimum wages payable on Federal and federally assisted construction projects to laborers and mechanics of the specified classes engaged on contract work of the character and in the localities described therein.

Good cause is hereby found for not utilizing notice and public procedure thereon prior to the issuance of these determinations as prescribed in 5 U.S.C. 553 and not providing for delay in effective date as prescribed in that section, because the necessity to issue construction industry wage determination frequently and in large volume causes procedures to be impractical and contrary to the public interest.

General Wage Determination Decisions are effective from their date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER without limitation as to time and are to be used in accordance with the provisions of 29 CFR Parts 1 and 5. Accordingly, the applicable decision together with any modifications issued subsequent to its publication date shall be made a part of every contract for performance of the described work within the geographic area indicated as required by an applicable Federal prevailing wage law and 29 CFR Part 5. The wage rates contained therein shall be the minimum paid under such contract by contractors and subcontractors on the work.

Modifications and Supersedeas decisions to General Wage Determination Decisions. Modifications and Supersedeas Decisions to General Wage Determination Decisions are based upon information obtained concerning changes in prevailing hourly wage rates and fringe benefit payments since the decisions were issued.

The determinations of prevailing rates and fringe benefits made in the Modifications and Supersedeas Decisions have been made by authority of the Secretary of Labor pursuant to the provisions of the Davis-Bacon Act of March 3, 1931, as amended (46 Stat. 1494, as amended, 40 U.S.C. 276a) and of other Federal statutes referred to in 29 CFR 1.1 (including the statutes listed at 36 FR 306 following Secretary of Labor's Order No. 24–70) containing provisions for the payment of wages which are dependent upon determination by the Secretary of Labor under the Davis-Bacon Act; and pursuant to the provisions of Part 1 of Subtitle A of Title 29 of Code of Federal Regulations, Procedure for Predetermination of Wage Rates (37 FR 21138), and of Secretary of Labor's Orders 13–71 and 15–71 (36 FR 8755, 8756). The prevailing rates and fringe benefits determined in foregoing General Wage Determination Decisions, as hereby modfied, and/or superseded shall, in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing statutes, constitute the minimum wages payable on Federal and federally assisted construction projects to laborers and mechanics of the specified classes engaged in contract work of the character and in the localities described therein.

Modifications and Supersedeas Decisions are effective from their date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER without limitation as to time and are to be used in accordance with the provisions of 29 CFR, Parts 1 and 5.

Any person, organization, or governmental agency having an interest in the wages determined as prevailing is encouraged to submit wage rate information for consideration by the Department. Further information and self-explanatory forms for the purpose of submitting this data may be obtained by writing to the U.S. Department of Labor, Employment Standards Administration, Office of Special Wage Standards, Division of Wage Determinations, Washington, D.C. 20210. The cause for not utilizing the rule-making procedures prescribed in 5 U.S.C. 553 has been set forth in the original General Wage Determination Decision.
